BATHING-SUIT CENSOR

By Edwin North McClellan

Censorship of bathing-suits at Waikiki was a main issue in 1910. Mayor Joseph J. Fern—according to the newspapers—asserted on May 14, 1910, that the job at Waikiki, as Municipal Censor of bathing-suits, was entirely beyond his jurisdiction. Bertram Rivenburgh, the Mayor's Secretary, displayed a succession of becoming blushes whenever the matter of his being a likely candidate to fill the office of Bathing-suit Censor was mentioned in his presence.

During the entire year of 1910 the Promotion Committee (our current Visitors Bureau) was very active under the leadership of its Secretary, H. P. Wood. The Committee headlined surfing and swimming at Waikiki as a lure for tourists.

ATLANTIC CITY AND "STATUETTES"

About 1909, the Committee had recommended that a life-sized statue of a Surf-Rider—as he rides the waves at Waikiki—be exhibited at Atlantic City, N.J., where it was proposed to maintain a branch of the Promotion Committee. It was additionally suggested that Model Statuettes of this Surf-Rider be struck off and sold. "The wax cast of the Surfer, which Artist Usborne has made for the Promotion Committee, will be shipped to the Mainland today," reported the Hawaiian Gazette of January 14, 1910. The "Statuettes" will be "placed upon the market at a reasonable price."

Secretary Wood arranged for an Hawaiian Exhibit at Atlantic City. A vote on this subject was unanimous according to Committee Chairman, W. A. Bowen, and he appointed W. H. Hoogs as chairman of a sub-committee with members R. H. Trent and H. P. Wood, reported the Hawaiian Gazette of February 11, 1910. "The Atlantic City Promotion Bureau for the Promotion Committee is assured," reported the same newspaper on February 18th. Ernest Kaai and his Hawaiian Singers will perform at the New Jersey resort, although another newspaper said that Professor Vierra would lead an Hawaiian Orchestra there.

By March of 1910, W. H. Hoogs had charge of assembling a shipment to the Atlantic City Exhibit. "Hawaii's Booth, along the famous Boardwalk at Atlantic City, will be in readiness to cater to public taste, whether for the luscious pineapples of Hawaii-nei or the attractive literature issued by the Hawaii Promotion Committee," reported the Advertiser of March 14, 1910. "H. P. Wood, Secretary" leaves "on the Lurline," March 14th evening, "for the Mainland." He "expects to be at Atlantic City by April first to secure the best available space for a booth." The Hawaiian Gazette informed Honoluluans that H. P. Wood and Lloyd Childs had departed March 14th on the Lurline.

GEORGE FREETH

"Secretary Wood will make an effort, while in California, to induce George Freeth, the famous Hawaiian swimmer," now at Venice, California, "to go to Atlantic City" reported the Advertiser. "Mr. Wood is shipping two surfboards to San Francisco to be sent by rail to Atlantic City, and two Hawaiian outrigger canoes will be sent via Tehuantepec."

While in California, Secretary Wood made an offer to George Freeth, "to accept employment by the "Promotion Committee to give exhibitions of surfboard riding and canoeing in the Atlantic Surf, to show his excellent swimming-stunts," publicized the Advertiser, April 21, 1910. "Freeth is a Honolulu boy and for many years was an attraction at Waikiki Beach where he became an expert in all aquatic exercises."

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

Chef O'Naga and his staff thought some special celebration should be promoted for the patron saint of Ireland. The good chef scratched his head, took out his recipe book and came up with a menu for St. Patrick's Day Dinner full of old Ireland's surprises. The menu is printed below. The club enjoyed one of the largest dinner crowds of the Spring Season who turned out to celebrate the occasion. Maxie stated that he received many favorable comments on the menu.

KNOW YOUR DIRECTORS

HENRY VINCENT DANFORD

Henry Vincent Danford was elected director of the Outrigger Canoe Club in February, 1951. Danford, known as "Vin," was born at Waipahu, Oahu, September 7, 1906. He was educated at Punahou, Oregon State College and the University of Hawaii. He became a member of the Outrigger Canoe Club on March 15, 1948, as a senior member though previously in 1926 he was an athletic member doing the ¼ mile on the track team and also in relay. At school and college he was active in track and football.

To prove that "Vin" is a substantial citizen he is at present the manager of the Waikiki Branch of the Bank of Hawaii. He is married to the former Miss May Ramsay and has two girls and one boy. His hobby is fishing at which he spends considerable time. "Vin" is seen at the club daily at luncheon and at many other hours. The club is fortunate to have a man with the financial background of Mr. Danford as a member of the Board of Directors.

OCC MEMBERS PLAY POLO

By Ernie Stenberg

The members of the Outrigger Canoe Club and the general public may again enjoy the new Indoor-Outdoor Polo Game as played each Friday night at the Honolulu Stadium.

A number of the members of our club, namely: "Kinjie" Kimball, "Bim" Wilson, Reed Glover, Clarke Reynolds and Fred W. Rice will play with the Oahu team. The Hawaiian Polo and Racing Club, including members on the islands of Maui, Kauai and Oahu, first played this game in Honolulu in 1950. The game is played quite differently from the outdoor game. It is very much faster and because of the size of the field (one-third that of the outdoor field)—roughly 120 yards long by 50 yards wide—the new game virtually places polo in the spectators' laps. It compares in speed to ice hockey; the ball travels around the field at great speed like a pluck.

Three men constitute a team instead of four and they use an inflated ball which is 5 inches in diameter. There are three cities where Indoor-Outdoor Polo is played—Miami, Detroit and Honolulu. The game originated in France and it was played a great deal in the '20's and '30's and was called "Paddock Polo."

1951 GAMES SCHEDULED

First games were played on March 30 by local teams, to be followed in succeeding weeks with teams from Boise, Idaho, playing on April 6 and 13; Chicago, April

20 and 27; then followed by Mexico, San Francisco, Texas, Los Angeles and Yale University.

The March 30th game witnessed Maui versus Oahu for the Inter-Island Championship. Tickets for the games have been selling at a great rate and all car stalls and boxes have been sold as well as many season tickets. All indications are that the season will show an increase in popularity over 1950.

Active players on the Oahu team are: Tim Castle, Jr., Richard Waterhouse, Alec Waterhouse, Clarke Reynolds, Freddy Rice, "Bim" Wilson, Eddy Rice, Bob Allen, "Kinjie" Kimball, Johnny Walker, Jr., and Jack Walker. Jack Walker usually acts as referee in all of the important games.

FINE MEN—FINE HORSES

Arthur Perkins, who is coach of the Oahu Team, stated to the writer that he has played polo all around the world and that nowhere has he found better material than the young men in the Islands. He said that these young men are disciplined, unspoiled, outdoor-men who are ready to take instruction and orders, resulting in his prediction that Honolulu will soon have some of the finest polo players anywhere. He also said that the ponies are as good as any in the world, and, in fact, that the Dillinghams have developed two polo ponies which have been used in International play. When ponies are chosen for this purpose they are the best.

50 YEARS OF POLO

Polo has been played for more than 50 years in Honolulu, the first games having been played at Moanalua Field on the Damon property. Later the play was moved to Kapiolani Park which is the site used as a practice field. Kapiolani Park at that time was a salt marsh and the players and others interested filled in the field with coral, rocks and earth and established the Honolulu Polo & Racing Club. This club was disbanded at the end of the recent war and only recently re-organized under the same name. Walter Dillingham and Frank F. Baldwin have been the backbone of Polo for the last 30 or more years, keeping alive interest and raising polo ponies.

Honolulu has developed many famous polo teams, amongst them was the 1913 team which went to the Mainland and captured the Bourn cup won in the finals from the San Mateo Club. Players on that team were Walter F. Dillingham who was captain and played No. 4 position; Arthur H. Rice, No. 1; Harold Rice, No. 2, and Frank Baldwin, No. 3. Another great pre-World War I team included Mr. Dillingham, Walter Macfarlane, Harold Castle and Arthur H. Rice. They won many championships. In the 1930's several great teams came to Honolulu to play. One was the Midwick Country Club whose players were Erik Pedley, Neil McCarthy, Hal Roach, Howland Paddock and Louis Rowan. The year 1940 saw the end of Polo in the Islands and in that Inter-Island tournament Oahu won. The championship team included Gaylord Dillingham, Lowell Dillingham, Jack Walker, and Jim Castle. Other polo greats have included Charles and Philip Rice of Kauai, the famous cowboy player John Malina, and Jimmy Spaulding.

Great Army teams have also played in Honolulu, including the team on which General George Patton was a featured player. Other greats have been Gordon Von Tempsky, Manduke Baldwin and Oskie Rice. Many of these greats didn't have the advantage of the present coaching that Arthur Perkins is giving to the players today as he is teaching them proper stroking and form.

Members of the Outrigger Canoe Club will enjoy one of the finest sports in the world if they attend these Indoor-Outdoor Polo Games. Great men and great horses put on an action show second to none.

CHIEF CAPP'S CAP

William "Bill" Capp, inspector for the Civil Aeronautics Administration in Hawaii, Director of the OCC, recently visited Tahiti on the inaugural flight of the Tahiti-Hawaii Airways.

The photo shows Bill in his new cap. It is the headdress of a Tahitian chief he is wearing. We are told that he was seen in Pago Pago with a Hawaiian malo, bare feet and aforesaid head regalia. Our latest information does not tell us whether Bill is a full fledged chief or not.

CUFF NOTES

At a recent Sunday morning breakfast session at the Club, we noticed Max Winter, owner of the Minneapolis Lakers, Joe Rose and Joe Anzivino animatedly discussing the fine points of basketball. Their spouses seemed disinterested but Miss Polpettina grinned happily as her Pop scored a neat point at close quarters.

Bob Dolan, who with "Doc" Beardmore won the doubles volleyball championship, is off to California for an indefinite stay. Bob is one of the finest volleyball players ever developed at the Club and will be missed around the courts. Hurry back, Bob!

VOLLEYBALL HI-LITES

Dr. Jim Beardmore takes over his new duties as chairman of the Volleyball Committee. We are sure that he will keep up the high standard of interest maintained during the past year under "Tommy" Thomas. During the year 1950-51 many tournaments were conducted and the "catch as catch can" six men games after 4:00 p.m. were stimulated and now are a regular afternoon affair.

KANE-WAHINE TOURNAMENT

The wind-up of the season sees the start of play of the Kane-Wahine Tournament. Many couples have signed up and play began Sunday morning, April 1, at 10:00 a.m. The tournament should finish in early May.

New champs are certain to win the medals this year as we regret to report that the 1950 champions, Marge and Bob Dolan, have gone to the mainland to live and will not compete. These K. & W. games are great to watch. The girls have really developed as players since the innovation of this contest and many play as well as some of the men players.

Have Sunday breakfast at the Club and then get out and root for your favorite couple.

SIX MEN CHAMPIONS

As reported in the March Forecast the winning team of the six men open was captained by Tommy Arnott with these players participating: Brightman, Casey, Sorrell, Lyons, Black, Cusack and Ekstrand. This team was just too good as they went through the entire tournament undefeated.

Runners-up was captained by G. Carr with Bowman, Cook, Chaney, Muirhead, Mann, Philpotts and Gomez. They tried hard but the Arnotts said, "No, they shall not pass."

PADDLING SOON

Organized volleyball will soon give way to organized canoe paddling. The great Kamehameha Day Canoe races on June 11th, and the Walter Macfarlane Memorial races on July 4th, are only a short time away and the crews will soon be out there training for these events. Naturally, as our better VB players are our paddlers VB suffers, though the games "just for fun" go on.

SOFTBALL LEAGUE

The Outrigger Canoe Club will again be represented in the Softball League. The Board of Directors, on request of Bob Fischer, has appropriated funds to purchase equipment and caps for the players and the boys are off to a flying start. Last year the Club put a fine team on the field who did real well for themselves and the O.C.C. The O.C.C., while always having been a beach club basically interested in canoeing, surfing and swimming, has in the past chalked up a glorious record in field and track, football, volleyball and other sports. It is gratifying to see our entry in athletic events off the beach.

Anchorage, Alaska

Dear Ted:

Met a friend in Los Angeles who talked me into coming up here to run the JADE ROOM which is the leading and best restaurant in town. When he mentioned $900.00 I did not hesitate.

I have been here a month and have not yet decided if I want to stay. One has to be a rugged individual to stand the 25 below temperatures and the thoroughly inexperienced and indifferent help you have to put up with. "Cooks" get $18.00 per shift—Waitresses $9.00—Dishwashers $11.50. My Janitor gets $500.00 a month for 10 hours 7 days work.

I get $4.00 for a Steak Sandwich, $1.10 for Ham, $5.50 for a Small Fillet, $4.00 for two Lamb Chops and Frogs Legs are $2.00 each. Bread and Butter, Vegetables and Potatoes are Extra.

Should you want to spend a couple of weeks here as a tourist next summer I would advise you to draw all your money from the Bank of Hawaii and get ready for a good time. One room, without bath, in a Hotel is $80.00 to $100.00 a month single.

How's tricks in Honolulu?

Sincerely,
Fred Fillon
(Former Manager, Pacific Club)

Dear Fred:

How's Tricks? Well the sun still shines—the white fleecy clouds still float in from over the blue Pacific—Pan-Am, United and Northwest are coming in loaded—the Lurline arrived Monday packed to the gunwales—the beach is crowded—the trade winds are blowing—the temperature is 75 and Duke says the surfing is terrific.

I would appreciate your placing me on your

MENLO COUNTRY CLUB
REDWOOD CITY, CALIFORNIA

March 24, 1951

Dear Ted:

My monthly reminder of Hawaii arrived yesterday and with Spring in the "Air" could really "Smell" Waikiki Beach.

Truly, I do enjoy, receiving "Forecast" and the idea of the Mail Box is excellent.

Had hoped to get a trip to Honolulu but the hospital and doctors last fall took that "Pin" money. However it was worth everything. Now I expect to live another 100 years so perhaps I can manage it before too long.

We had a fine time in Dallas, Texas. Texas, went all out—I mean that.

Business was right behind the boys. Besides Royce Chaney, Page Curran and all are fine people.

With kind personal regards to you and yours.

Aloha,
Frank Harding

Aloha, Frank! Spring is in the air—but the early part was rather damp. Had some of that California weather "unusual." Perhaps if you had come over those "sawbones" wouldn't have taken all your pin money. You live longer in Hawaii—or maybe it just seems so.

MORE FACILITIES FOR SENIOR WAHINES IF CONDITIONS PERMIT

The House and Grounds Committee is working with the architect preparing plans for a proposed addition to house the Senior Wahines' locker and shower room. If all goes well—that is if we can get permission to build—and it is within the budget—a new permanent addition will be built. It should answer all of the hines' needs for a long time to come.

It will be a large room over the present locker room with ample full length lockers, new showers, toilets, washroom and with a lanai overlooking the volleyball courts which will be a rest room and lounging area—for Senior Wahines only.

Rough plans have been drawn for approval after which estimates will be called for. Many things have to be considered in such a plan beyond what is needed. Thought must be given to planning to use the least amount of critical materials and their availability. Plans must be fitted into our present building to get the best results with the least expenditure. Ventilation is a major consideration. Accessibility is important and control of access is another feature desired. All of this takes thought and planning. We are fortunate in having as our architect our member Vladimir Ossipoff who is most interested in the Club.
