Outrigger to Host 62nd Annual Walter J. MacFarlane Regatta July 4

Outrigger Canoe Club will host the Oahu Hawaiian Canoe Racing Association's only wave regatta, Sunday, July 4, at Waikiki Beach. The Walter J. MacFarlane Regatta is the longest running canoe race in the world. The event is named after the late OCC president Walter J. MacFarlane, and has been held continuously since 1943.

Races in the 37 events for ages 12 to 55+ get underway at 8:30 a.m. and wind up with trophy presentations at Duke's after the last event around 4 p.m. All members are invited to cheer the paddlers on at the Club tent in front of the Outrigger hotel.

Following the race, Outrigger paddlers and their families and guests will head back to the Club for the annual 4th of July BBQ and celebration.

The OHCRA regatta season opened at Keehi Lagoon on June 6 with the Clement D. Paiaina Regatta sponsored by Healani Canoe Club. It was a day that changed from sunny to drizzle and back to sunny and windy many times. The weather didn't stop anybody as 16 canoe clubs competed in the regatta.

Outrigger registered nearly 300 paddlers for regatta season, and fielded crews in all but three events at the Paiaina Regatta, the Girls 13, Boys 16 and Novice B Women.

OCC finished fifth in the regatta, scoring 40 points. Kailua and Hui Lanakila tied for first place with 74 points.

The Club's first win of the day came from the Club Captain George Wessberg cheered on daughter Amy.

Coaches Katy Bourne, Anthony Hunt and Liz Perry were all smiles.

Scott Rolles and Dome Gose check out the Kaoloa. Dome renovated the canoe during the off-season.

Jessie Cleghorn and Katie Fletcher brought leis for their friends.

Likelike Davis-Nutt, Parker and Tia Murray enjoyed the regatta.

Girls 18, who are continuing their winning streak from when they started paddling as 12s.

Men's Head Coach Kala Judd promised a strong showing by the upper division men, and he didn't disappoint. The Junior Men won their race, the Frosh were second, and the Sophomore and Senior men finished third.

The regatta racing season ends with the state championship at Keehi Lagoon on Saturday August 7. To get all of the Club's paddlers pumped up and psyched for the season finale, the Paddler's Banquet will be held at the Club on Monday evening, July 26.

Rather than cram more than 300 paddlers and supporters into the Koa Lanai, this year's event will be moved to the beach.

The OCC tent and big screen will be set up outside and Eric Rhodes has promised a media event that's even better than last year's slide show. Paddlers will eat dinner at the Steak Fry for free. Families will be charged a nominal cost.

Don't miss who gets the OUTEY (OCC Unnecessary Though Entertaining Yearly) awards.

As the Terrace Turns

Gay Fraser hosted pals for lunch in the Koa Lanai.

Kimo Austin shares a moment in his workshop with grandchildren Ariana and Aukina Hunt.

June and Julie Wright enjoyed the High Tea at the Club.

Dorothy and Jack Steele hosted the Assistance League of Honolulu Year-End Social on April 18 at the Sunday Night Buffet. Everyone praised the food and beautiful setting. They want to thank Trisha, their waitress, for working an extra long shift and remaining cheerful and efficient. The Assistance League assists students in Oahu's public schools, tutors children, provides teddy bears to police and other organizations to comfort children and adult victims, and sponsors a docent program at the Honolulu Zoo.

Diane Stowell hosted the University of Hawaii Swimming and Diving team and their coaches to a feast on April 19 during the family buffet. This was the third annual banquet and was enjoyed by all. The UH Women swimmers came in second in the WAC and the men were second in the NIC.

Mike Anderson, UH coach for the past three years, was awarded Coach of the Year for both the men's and women's teams. UH qualified eight swimmers for the NCAA meet. Nicole Mackey was chosen Freshman of the Year, and Ajie Huang was Diver of the Year. This was a very exciting season for the team as 22 school records were broken.

Priscilla and Jim Growney attended the funeral of the late Buck Schmuck in Washington, D.C. Buck was buried with full military honors, which included a company of Marines, the Marine Corps Band, a black horse, caisson, canon, and a 21-gun salute. The most surprising thing, they note, was the arrival of 300 members of the Vietnam Veteran's Motorcycle Club. Two hundred of them came by bus and the remainder rode from various locations around the country on their motorcycles.

On Memorial Day, 3,500 members of the club rode their motorcycles to Buck's former home in Buffalo, Wyoming for a memorial service. He is highly regarded by the organization because of his military career. He founded the Buffalo chapter, and was instrumental in uniting all of the various chapters into a national organization. He also set up a support group, similar to AA, for Vietnam veterans so they could stay in touch during periods of crisis.

Big sister Jamie Long gave her brother Ben Jones and his bride Sylvie Rusay an incredible assist with their April wedding. Ben lives in San Diego and people from all over the place came to Hawaii to attend his wedding held in Jamie's home. There were 60 people outside in the yard at Diamond Head, with NO RAIN, and all went well. The wedding party held their rehearsal dinner at OCC. Again, all went well, thanks to Liz and crew who did an "amazing job", according to Jamie. Is she a good big sister or what?

Jeanne Robertson, an accomplished water color artist, recently had a show at The Gallery at Ward Centre. Unfortunately by the time the magazine comes out, this show is over. Jeanne, warn us next time and we'll all show up to oh and ah the art and graze the pupu. Besides framed work she also has prints, and the nicest postcards of her work.

It is sailing canoe season, and the first race saw our Beach Attendants Don Isaacs and Sam Clemens go to the Big Island to join Maui member Grant Senner in the race across the Ale Nuihaha channel, from Keokea on the coast near Hawi to Hana, in East Maui. What a race! The crew of six came in third and were so happy with their sailing and paddling ability. They said a perfect race was made even better with the accompaniment of a pod of dolphins who swooped along on both sides of the canoe, giving them the eye. What a thrill.

Also in the race, coming in 4th, were Matt & Kimi Buckman, with crew member Nicole Wilcox Pedersen. After a night in Hana, the race continued on to Kahului. The next race is from Kahului to Molokai, and so on, island hopping until the final race, which ends at Kauai. Ask Don and Sam about these events, they will be HAPPY to tell you.

Jake Jacoby was the host for a group from Star of the Sea church. His Pastor John Sullivan wanted to hold a thanksgiving for the volunteers of the church liturgy committee to celebrate their good works for the past year, and the group enjoyed gathering for a sunset dinner.

The Golden Circle of Eastern Star (aka "the Golden Girls") met in May for food and storytelling with hostess Mabel Hagen, who described their luncheon as a "fun day".

It's becoming an annual thing for Gay Fraser to round up old pals for lunch at the OCC. The roundup this year included JoAnne Dixon, Claire Cameron, Cecily Johnston, Maxine Everett, Alice Guild, Dona Singlehurst, Momo Monahan, Annie Wilson, Shirley Connors, and former Kalaha resident Evie Seal Ciceri, now living in LA.

Contributions to this column are always welcome. Leave items for the Editor at the Front Desk, email them to occmag@aol.com, or fax to (808) 833-1591. Be sure to include your name and phone number in case additional information is needed. The deadline for the September issue is July 25. Items received after that date will be used in the October issue.

— Will Rogers

Designing a menu is a difficult proposition at any time but at the Outrigger Canoe Club it's darn nigh impossible. Everyone has their favorites; many items are sacred and therefore cannot be touched. I can ask one table of diners what they would like to see in a new menu and get a set of answers and then turn to another table and get an opposite view.

Taste in food and wine is very subjective. One tool we use to gauge customer preference is the menu abstract; the menu abstract is a poll of the most popular items. If we only used the abstract I'd delete some favorite menu items and I am sure that someone else would be writing this column next month.

All this being said, we are tempting fates and will be introducing new menus over the next few weeks; our food and beverage team has been working on new lunch and pupu menu items to please your varied and discerning palates.

Executive Chef Manfred Pirscher, Executive Sous Chef Arnaud Jager and Food and Beverage Director Darryl Hersche, debated, created, argued and fine-tuned until they shaped their offerings. Then I was called in to do the hard part, with the aid of the House Committee we tasted, critiqued and sent the team back to the drawing board.

We are confident that the new lunch menu will provide tasty choices which will become Club favorites in the years to come. In addition to some scrumptious new entrees, we have added a number of dishes which answer requests for healthy alternatives.

Once again this was a tall order as we had to balance demands for Atkins, vegan, low carb, high carb, high protein, low protein and South Beach.

Our pupu selections have been expanded. My favorite new item is a shrimp cocktail with pineapple and tequila sauce. The tequila adds a real "kick" to this dish; in fact, the only thing missing is the worm.

Darryl Hersche has been hard at work, tasting away to develop a new wine list. One of our objectives is to infuse wine into the Outrigger dining experience. Look for notices on upcoming wine tasting events and wine specials in the weeks to come.

An idea developed as an offshoot of this menu process as we will be featuring different buffets revolving around various culinary themes. We will explore the tastes of Italy, the Mediterranean, Mexico, the Far East and the Local Kine.

We wish to provide affordable buffets with beverage specials. We think these buffet nights are destined to become Club favorites!

Once the dust settles we will be tackling the dinner menus in the Hau Terrace and the Koa Lanai and I am confident that the process will be as painful as the design of the lunch menu but just as tasty and satisfying when complete.

Until next month – Bon Appetit!

OCC Invitational Swim Filmed by BBC

By Ray Robinson

A shock was experienced by 73 of Oahu's top swimmers (from most of Oahu's swim clubs) on May 2, when they gathered on the San Souci beach to compete in the OCC Annual Invitational 1-mile and 2-mile Swim. Right before the starting signal, meet director Dennis Blake announced that the film crew in their midst was the British Broadcasting Corp's crew filming the event for a program on sharks!

There was lots of nervous laughter, and bang, the swimmers hit the water.

Only after the event was over did contestants learn that the BBC's Natural History Division was filming the OCC event for the Discovery Channel's week-long series on sharks which aired in June. The OCC segment was filmed to illustrate there is safe, successful recreational use of the oceans of the world, in spite of the fact that sharks are known to be in the water.

The BBC crew wasn't hoping for a shark attack to occur. The pre-race announcement may have helped the swimmers come in faster.

The winners in the 1-mile swim were Roger Cundall (26:29) and Betty Ann Sallee (28:21). The fastest in the 2-mile swim were Ben Komer (55:24) and Nicole Hagi (1:00:45).

Surveying the ocean from the beach 30 minutes prior to race start, Blake judged the water to be "great, a great day for swimming." Roger Cundall immediately replied "yesterday would have been better! It's beginning to kick up out there now."

By the time the race was over, most swimmers agreed with Cundall. A strong Ewa-to-Diamond Head current developed, and more than one swimmer opted mid-course for the shorter swim. Ernie Leskovitz and several others vowed the swim was tougher than the last Roughwater Swim.

New F&B Director Ready to Deliver

Daryll Hersche

By Katherine Nichols

No matter what the latest diet buzz, new Food and Beverage Director Daryll Hersche is ready to deliver. A low carb beer is already available, and the lunch and dinner menus soon will feature "healthy alternatives" selections.

But those still enthralled with bread need not despair. Hersche is quick to point out that an infusion of fresh ideas doesn't mean that people will lose their old-time favorites.

Without touching the staples, he's already implemented a Wine of the Month program, featuring unlisted selections paired with a special entrée. Hersche says he scouts "wines of the future," little-known labels not yet found in grocery stores. A "Captain's List" with limited specialty wines will soon be part of a revamped menu. Organically grown wine is another potential addition.

In his quest for fresh activities revolving around dining and imbibing, he wants to incorporate more wine tastings, as well as a Pacific Oktoberfest with beers from around the world.

His experience has taught him what's needed at every level of the restaurant business. Hersche came to the Outrigger Canoe Club from the Biltmore Hotel in downtown Los Angeles, where he served as Director of Food and Beverage for 18 months. Before that, his impressive career as an executive chef took him around the globe to Canada, Israel, Switzerland, and all over the United States, including Hawaii twice, before his most recent arrival.

He first came to the Islands in 1989 to work as Executive Sous Chef at the Hilton Hawaiian Village. A later stint as Executive Chef at the Turtle Bay Resort (then the Hilton) led to a promotion to Assistant Director of Food and Beverage back at Hilton Hawaiian Village. Then it was on to the Biltmore and the job that led him to the Club.

Though he's often bustling about the dining area serving food and clearing dirty dishes and making sure members are satisfied, he says he's always open to suggestions about how to improve the dining experience in the Koa Lanai and Hau Terrace.

Resourcefulness, Responsibility, Respect, Restraint, Resilience

NOT LONG AGO, it was difficult for teenagers to find themselves, even in a world that was stable and safe. Now that our world has changed forever, teens need Winners' Camp more than ever.

Teaching the Five Rs – so critical to getting along in today's world, is just one way Winners' Camp wakes our teens up to their potential. And makes it easier for them to cope in a world that will soon be theirs to change.

OC-1/Surfski

Members of the OCC dominated the 2004 Kanaka Ikaika Race Series this winter and the State Championships on April 18. Many of our members were on top five teams in the Starbucks Kaiwi Channel Relay on May 2. Many of our members performed well in the Kaiwi Challenge on May 16 as well. We thank Walter Guild for initiating the morning training sessions for one-man paddlers last December.

Surfing

Chair Terri Needels has arranged for the Surfing Committee to sponsor a bi-monthly Yoga for Beach & Water Sports class led by Beach Services staff Rod Ussing. This pilot program will be open to all members. Announcements will be posted in the locker rooms and the Fitness Center.

Boat Lockers

Members who are not using their boat lockers on a regular basis are encouraged to release them. One-man training is essential for our canoe racing program and the waiting list for boat lockers is long.

HAPA FOLK Entertains in Ka Mo'i Lounge

By Kinau Shipman

If you are looking for fun and excitement, look no further than the Ka Mo'i Lounge on the third Saturday each month this summer. There you will find HAPA FOLK (part folk songs, part traditional Hawaiian) entertaining a standing room only crowd.

Their sound offers a unique blend of folk and Hawaiian music that is sure to get your toes tapping and hands clapping. Their dazzling performances feature steel guitar sounds, spontaneous instrument solos and unique vocal harmonies.

Playing for the pure joy of perpetuating their traditional music, culture, and heritage and the thrill of sharing and embellishing each other's talents, these musicians seek to share the spirit of Aloha with their audiences.

According to Doug Kilpatrick, an original member of HAPA FOLK, the group got its start back when he and Tom Merrill were kids listening to Dave Guard, Bob Shane, and others sing songs under the Hau tree next to the original OCC Club in Waikiki. Both Guard and Shane went on to form the Kingston Trio, popular for their folk songs.

Merrill also found his success in the music business on the mainland. In 1999, Merrill, Kilpatrick, Bob Harrison and others came together again to sing the old songs. Pokii Vaughan and James Stone later joined the band, adding a traditional Hawaiian music component to the group's repertoire.

Corbin Morse also lent his talents to the team, infusing the group with even more folk flavor. Fred Lunt, a renowned local musician who tours nationally with TAJ MAHAL and jams with other Hawaiian groups, sits in regularly as lead banjo and steel guitar player.

While the group has gone through several evolutions as members have come and gone through the years, each new musician brings distinct musical sounds and talents to the group. The current composition of HAPA FOLK for the OCC gigs includes Kilpatrick, Vaughan, Stone, and Lunt.

Saturday evenings with HAPA FOLK wouldn't be complete without Cathy Ostrem and the ladies from her hula halau, Na Pua O Na Waiho'olu'u. Their stylish and saucy hula style adds to the fun of the entertainment.

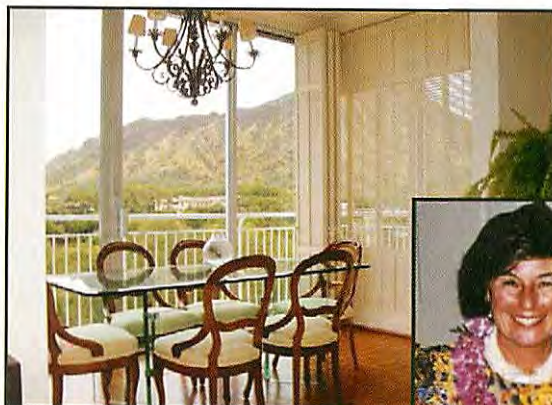

Club members and their guests are also invited to be a part of the show, as HAPA FOLK encourages sing-along and impromptu performances. Many in the audience join HAPA FOLK on stage in singing the traditional show ending, This Land is Our Land.

HAPA FOLK is scheduled to play July 17, August 21, and September 18 (part of the entertainment at the Club Luau) in the Ka Mo'i Lounge from 6:30-9 p.m. For more information, contact the Front Desk at 923-1585.

Hapa Folk includes Doug Kilpatrick, Pokii Vaughan, James Stone and Fred Lunt.

A News Update From John Rader

(Editor's Note: In response to queries from members about the health of former General Manager John Rader, we are happy to print the following letter from John.)

A hearty mahalo nui loa to all of you. I truly appreciate the calls, letters and cards that I have received over the past year. You just can't imagine how much these expressions of kindness and good wishes mean to me.

I am still waiting for that matching liver. At present I'm listed at UC Irvine, UC Davis and soon to be at Scripps in San Diego. California is in a liver crisis.

As you might guess I had every test known to man, not to mention that I had to have a four-way heart bypass just to get into the program. The disease that I have is named primary sclerosing cholangitis, the same liver bile duct disease that took football great Walter Payton. It is a rare disease with very few cases in Irvine, Orange County, California where I am now living.

It seems like just yesterday that I was walking through the Club and sharing the stories of members and your accomplishments. I miss everyone a lot, but hope that I will be back home soon to visit with all of you. Right now, though I need to stay close to the medical facilities in California, which is the only state where my insurance will cover.

You know I'm a fighter. Each day I ready myself to take the fight on. I continue to pump the bile out of my stomach each day and that keeps me alive and feeling better. My bags are packed awaiting the doctor's call. I try to keep my attitude positive in spite of the setbacks.

There's no way in hell is this disease is going to take this old Marine without a fight.

If you are in the Orange County area, please give me a call and/or stop by, I'd love to see you. My address is: 42 West Yale Loop, Irvine, CA 92604. Phone number: (949) 551-3380

I think about all of you always and appreciate your thoughts and prayers.

Mahalo and a hui hou,
John Rader

54 Years Ago 1950

Wilford D. Godbold, President

The annual Walter J. Macfarlane Memorial canoe races off Waikiki Beach proved to be an intraclub affair. With Hui Nalu and Waikiki Surf clubs failing to enter the races, the competition was limited to crews from the Outrigger Canoe Club. Hui Nalu and Waikiki Surf clubs objected to OCC's move to enter two crews and as a result withdrew their paddlers.

OCC officials conceded that points won by their number one crew only would count toward the team championship but that the second crew could qualify for medals. The rival clubs objected to this.

The event was held with OCC crews competing against each other. The Walter J. Macfarlane Memorial Trophy was won by the Senior Men's Six. Meet results were:

Junior Six Men - LEILANI crew: Ryan, Muirhead, Goss, Long, Low, Cross; second, KAKINA. Time 10:31.6

Senior Two Men - LEILANI crew, Ackerman and Pflueger; second, KAKINA. Time 1:41.8

Women's Six Senior - LEILANI crew, Honl, Hite, Boyd, Spitz, Ackerman, Kiakona; KAKINA swamped. Time 7:10

Kids Six, Boys Under 17 - LEILANI crew, Berger, deHarne, Woodell, Prange, Simpich, Russell; KAKINA swamped. Time 12:02

Senior Men's Six - LEILANI crew, O'Brien, Ackerman, Pflueger, Arnott, Ekstrand, Love; second, KAKINA. Time 33:42.7

Freshman Six for Men - KAKINA crew, Sorrell, Kaaua, Haine, McGill, Worthington, Martin; second, LEILANI. Time 10:55.8

Women's Six Junior - KAKINA crew, Purvis, Pratt, Blom, Stranahan, Purvis, Schrader; second, LEILANI; third, HANAKEOKI. Time 7:43.5

Junior Four Men - KAKINA crew, Ryan, Muirhead, Goss, Cross; second, LEILANI; third, HANAKEOKI. Time 6:21.7

Senior Four Men - KAKINA crew Dowsett, Smith, Tobin, Kiakona; second, LEILANI. Time 6:01.4

A special trophy (cup) was presented to "Toots" Minvielle for his untiring efforts in contributing to the success of canoe races held by the OCC.

Freckles Lyons and his Band culminated race day activities with a dinner dance.

The Club offers members the privilege of signing chits for parking, dining room, cocktail lounge and beach services. However, members wishing the privilege must contact the manager and apply for such privileges and be assigned a "Credit Number."

44 Years Ago 1960

J. Ward Russell, President

Outrigger Canoe Club dropped a close race in the Walter J. Macfarlane Memorial Regatta to the Waikiki Surf Club when they swamped in the homestretch, less than 100 yards from the finish line.

The loss gave the point edge to Waikiki Surf, 39-35. The Surf took five first places to the Outrigger's three. OCC took the half mile women's junior, boy's 13-and-under quarter mile, and freshmen one mile event

The irregularly laid out course made the difference in a number of races, with observers noting that the "inside" lane, nearest the Club, was shorter.

Outrigger won the Oahu Canoe Racing Championship at Keehi Lagoon. OCC, considered no more than a regatta contender throughout the racing season, swept to four decisive first places and its second consecutive OCRC championship. When the final point standings were posted, the OCC had whipped highly favored Waikiki Surf, 39-32. Lanikai scored 19 points; Kai Oni, 15; Leilani, 10 and Hui Nalu, 9.

Outrigger won the blue ribbon event, the Men's Senior two-mile race. OCC also took first places in the one-mile freshmen men; one and one-half mile junior men; and 13-and-under quarter mile events.

Canoe racing fans were surprised over the Outrigger's upset victory over the Waikiki Surf Club to retain the OCRC championship.

JULY 1970

TWO MORE REGATTA CHAMPIONSHIPS

OUTRIGGER SWEEPS MACFARLANE DAY AND OAHU CHAMPIONSHIP CANOE REGATTAS

The powerful machine that is Outrigger Canoe Club's entry in the 1970 canoe racing season, continues to blaze its way with two more regatta championships. The Outrigger has this year, taken top honors at the first four regattas and now looks with confidence toward the State Championships to be held at Nawiliwili Harbor on August 1st. This year's outstanding performances are due in no small respect to our superb turnout for the wahines' crews. For the first time in years, we have a full compliment in the wahines' events. Our Novice girls "A" and "B" teams are real point winners along with the Junior girls followed closely by the Freshmen girls. Our Senior Wahines allow us for the first time in years to enter the full offering of 14 events. All this participation by the girls makes not only for beautiful scores but also beautiful races.

MACFARLANE DAY JULY 4th

Outrigger power really showed in this year's 4th of July races. The Outrigger totaled an unprecedented 50 points with 7 first places and many strong seconds to out distance Waikiki Surf Club who took second place with 38 points. The surf was quite mild compared to last year's first break sets, however as small as it was, it had its effect in determining the outcome of more than a few of the events. In some cases we were aided by the surf and there were events where it helped not a bit, notably the Senior Men's race in which we once again lost out to Waikiki Surf Club by an extremely small margin after having led the race at each turn of the outside markers. Surf Club aided by a small wave was able to coast by our crew not once, but twice.

Board Briefs

Board Briefs is taken from the minutes of the Board of Directors meeting on May 27, 2004. The May 19, 2004 Executive Committee meeting was cancelled.

Vice President Operations: Walter Guild is the chairman of the OCC2C Committee and Don Parker is the Liaison/Coordinating Director. During the OCC2C meeting on May 25, 2004, the committee reviewed SK-7 Plans with Management and Al Serafin, OCC Logo Shop Representative. The Committee worked on fine tuning the Fitness Center, back of the house, requirements for Administrative Offices, and Food and Beverage Offices/Storage. They also considered Logo Shop square footage and the addition of fitting rooms and storage areas. There is approximately $28,000 remaining in the OCC-2C budget.

General Manager Report: There was net income of $18,139 for April 2004. . . The volleyball court waterproofing project may be completed by July 4, 2004. . . The Elk's Club will be asked for their approval in order to begin the Wave Deflector Project. . . The Club cannot get insurance coverage for Surfing/Paddleboard events. The GM asked the Board if they would allow the surfing events to continue for members only with the liability indemnification clause waiver. The Board approved the use of an indemnification clause waiver for "members only" surfing event. The Club will attempt to secure insurance coverage for the paddleboard races or confirm that it is not available.

Admissions & Membership Report: The membership count was 4,688 as of April 30, 2004. . . Forty or more Regular Candidates will be interviewed and processed each year by the Admissions and Membership Committee.

House Report: The House Committee decided not to recommend the Fisher Island Club in Miami, Florida and the Jericho Tennis Club in Vancouver BC for reciprocity. The House Committee is researching new reciprocal clubs in London and Europe.

Long Range Planning Report: The Board approved the 2005 Budget Committee Members: Wendell Brooks Jr., Chair; Jaren Hancock, Alan Lau, Gregg Robertson, Susan Merrill, Bradley Wagenaar, Vik Watumull, Bill Comstock and Gordon Smith. The Board recommended that the Budget Committee add the House Committee Chair, Tom McTigue, and the Executive Committee consisting of Sue Tetmeyer, William Swope, and Barbara Stehouwer. Mr. Hancock will make these recommended additions to Chairman Brooks.

Athletic Report: The Mirage has been ordered.

Life Membership Recommendation: The Board unanimously recommends William Dixon Cook as a candidate for Life Membership as approved at the April Board Meeting.

Employees of the Month

Helen Abreu and Cynthia Hager are Co-Employees of the Month.

Well, it's always fun when we have so many good employees that we have TWO Employees of the Month, and even better that these two are good friends, and have known each other for the seven years they've been with OCC.

Cynthia Hager is a wait person on the Hau Terrace, and loves the come and go atmosphere there. She doesn't want to work anywhere else, likes the foods that are served, says "this is my style."

Hau Terrace supervisor Kirk says Cynthia is a real team player, helps out, and shows up on time. Since she is nearly the senior citizen of the HT, she helps to train other new staff, and the others all look up to her because she knows the ropes.

Speaking of ropes, one of Cynthia's interests is kick boxing. You sure never know, do you? She also teaches aerobics classes. She lives in Makiki with her husband of 21 years, and he too is a foodie, in the food service consulting business.

Helen Abreu in the Business Office is our other EOM. She started on the HT with Cynthia seven years ago, and they have been friends since. Helen has also worked at the Front Desk, the Logo Shop, and still helps out in those places. Her official title is Office Clerk.

When one of the other office staff was on vacation recently, Helen pitched in, learned some new skills, and worked hard to get those other tasks covered.

She likes to make bead jewelry and loves to read. She has a hard commute from Ewa Beach, bringing her 6-year-old son in with her to Waikiki Elementary. Her 12-year-old daughter is a surfer girl, and has entered amateur competitions in Waikiki and other surfing sites. The weekends are a real hustle.

How nice to have two old friends share the honors this month.
