Outrigger Celebrates

Outrigger Canoe Club paddlers won their second straight Oahu Hawaiian Canoe Racing Regatta championship on the 4th of July, capturing the 60th annual Walter J. Macfarlane Regatta at Waikiki Beach with a 16 point victory over second place Lanikai.

The day started slowly and wound up with a bang as OCC won 10 of the last 18 events, including the women's freshmen, sophomore and senior races, the masters women 35, 45 and 55, the masters men 35 and 55, and the mixed open. Outrigger amassed 88 points, to Lanikai's 72, Hui Nalu's 50, Healani's 44, Hui Lanakila's 37 and Kailua's 35 in the AA division for larger clubs.

The Macfarlane Regatta is the only wave race on the OHCRA schedule, and features the skill of the various clubs' steersmen and women.

With flat surf and only a few bumps, OCC's steersmen and women were challenged. In the age group events early in the day, it didn't seem to matter what lane Outrigger was in, the bumps were always several lanes away. However, luck changed as the day wore on, and the home club advantage paid off.

In total Outrigger won 12 events, finished second six times, third four times, and fourth twice. The Boys 15 and 16 crews started the Club off on its winning ways.

Sharing steering honors throughout the regatta were Jimmy Austin, Jim Beaton, Todd Bradley, Ian Forester, Matt Guard, Walter Guild, Kisi Haine, Marc Haine, and Aka Hemmings.

The 4th of July, as usual, started at the Club with a breakfast for paddlers, followed by the march to Waikiki. The opening ceremonies featured Robert Cazimero, Manu Boyd, Leinaala Heine Kalama and Stefanie Smart.

Stefanie brought chicken-skin to the crowd with her rendition of the Star Spangled Banner. She filled in at the last minute for Guido Salmaggi, who missed his first Macfarlane in many years, due to his wife's illness. Stefanie said she has dreamed of singing at the Macfarlane since she was a little girl, and was thrilled to volunteer when she learned Guido wouldn't be making the trip from Florida to sing.

Race announcer extra ordinaire Mike Buck was behind the microphone all day announcing the results of the various events, and keeping the Macfarlane trivia alive. This was the 25th year that Mike has been the announcer at the Macfarlane Regatta.

Thanks also goes to Scrappy Lipton who works hard every year in making arrangements for the Waikiki event.

Many members of the Macfarlane family were on hand at the awards ceremony at Duke's after the regatta to honor the winners. Walter Guild, grand nephew of Walter Macfarlane, poured champagne for the winning Senior Men and Women, which were Healani and Outrigger, respectively.

Following the ceremony, paddlers and their families regrouped at the Club for the 4th of July BBQ, entertainment and dancing.

The Hawaiian Canoe Racing Association State Championships are scheduled for August 3 in Hilo Bay.

The Macfarlane results and more photos may be found on pages 4-7.

The winning freshman women crew was Ann Marie Mizuno, Stefanie Smart, Meaghan Hemmings, steersman Todd Bradley, Laurie Lawson and Mele Blaich.

Masters paddlers Keanuene Rochlen and Jeanne Jenkins form tunnel to welcome back the winning Senior Women.

Stefanie Smart sang the Star Spangled Banner.

John Goss, member of the Punahou class of '42, hosted 47 classmates and others for their 60th reunion dinner in June. The preceding day's event for this group was dinner at Elia Long's in Lanikai. A good time for everybody in both locations. They report one classmate from California attended her first reunion ever—what a special time.

When Gerry DeBenedetti's San Francisco cousin, Carol Guinasso, married on the mainland two years ago, Gerry promised her dinner for two at OCC as a wedding gift, but come and collect! Carol and husband Ron Morgan, recent guests at the next door W Hotel, came to claim their gift, two years later, but still welcome, and the three of them enjoyed the sunset and evening wedding gift.

Diane Stowell, president of the UH Swimming and Diving Booster Club, hosted the swimming and diving teams at their first annual banquet under new coaches Mike Anderson, swimming, and Mike Brown, diving. The buffet was delicious and the view of the ocean beautiful making a wonderful setting for the festive event. The students were awarded their respective letters and special awards of beautiful koa bowls and rings for the senior athletes. It was a delightful affair particularly seeing the swimmers and divers in clothes and combed hair and their beautiful smiles. It was a gorgeous evening and hopefully one that will be repeated next year.

Tim Guard was one of several friends who paddled their one-man canoes from Kihei to Molokini to help Aaron Placourakis celebrate his birthday. On their return, the paddlers were greeted by 50 friends, all wearing togas and bearing lei for the Greek buffet. Among the Outrigger member's attending were Tim and Devon Guard and Chris and Beth McLachlin with daughter Bekka.

Twain Newart will have a photo in the Artists of Hawaii Show at the Honolulu Academy of Arts. There were 997 works submitted and 71 accepted. Congrats Twain.

Master Plan Update

By Sue Tetmeyer

Nearly four years ago the Master Plan Committee was formed to identify the needs of the membership as we progress into the 21st century and determine how to best update our facilities to meet those needs.

The committee is dedicated to preserving the architectural design and integrity of our building and grounds and to ensure that all changes are consistent with the overall mission and traditions of the Outrigger Canoe Club.

The committee looked at the results of surveys taken in 1999 and 2001. They gathered input from standing committees and interested members and considered membership and economic trends. Although surveys show that the majority of members are happy with our current facilities, the committee found that the area members would like most to see improved is the Fitness Center.

The Board of Directors engaged architect Ted Garduque to work with the Master Plan Committee to advise it on design issues and draw up plans for the proposed changes. Several plans have been considered. Some involved dramatic changes such as excavating the sunken garden area on the Kalakaua Avenue side of the Club and building a Fitness Center there, or building a Fitness Center where the volleyball courts are currently located and raising the volleyball courts above the Fitness Center.

On June 14, 2002 the Master Plan Committee held a meeting and invited all members. At that meeting Committee Chairman Jaren Hancock and Architect Garduque reviewed plans that have been considered over the years.

They discussed the most recent proposal that would place the Fitness Center in the area now occupied by the "baby" volleyball court and extend it out over the roof of the Snack Shop.

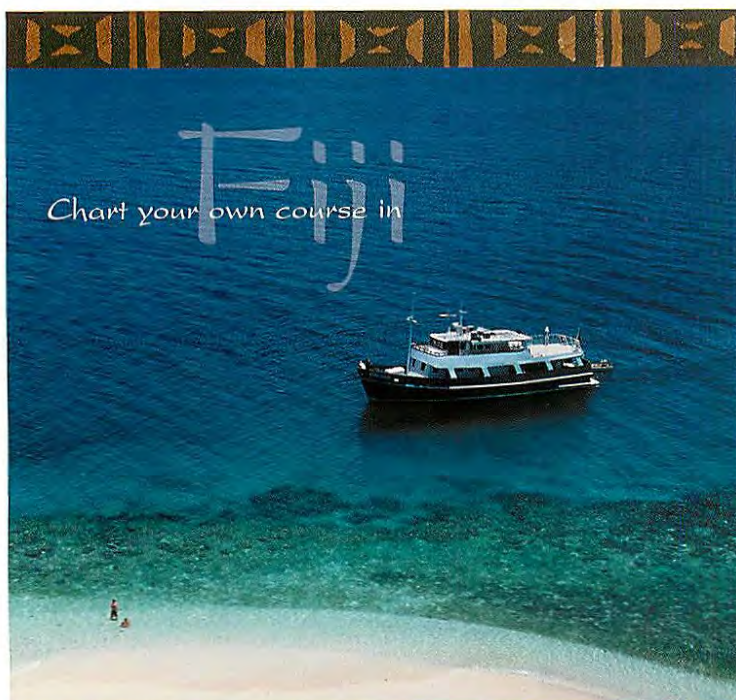

This plan, though more modest in scope and less expensive than earlier plans, was controversial. While some members at the meeting voiced strong support for the Fitness Center, other members expressed serious concerns about the possible loss of the "baby" volleyball court and the impact of a roof on the Snack Shop.

Based on input from the June 14 meeting, the Master Plan Committee is pushing forward to come up with a plan that is attractive to our diverse membership, economically viable, and acceptable to permitting authorities and our neighbors. The challenges are tremendous and the options limited.

By the time this magazine goes to press the committee will have held a full day session where they will consider proposals made during and after the June 14 meeting, review the strengths and weaknesses of previous proposals, and devise a framework for a plan to bring before the Board.

In addition to Chairman Hancock, members of the Master Plan Committee are John Marshall, Glenn Perry, William Swope, Sue Tetmeyer, Barbara Stehouwer, Alan Lau, Tom Fee, Bob Dewitz, Joyce Timpson, Gloria Keller, Don Parker and John Rader.

They will try to keep members up-to-date on the committee's progress via this magazine and the web-site. They cannot guarantee that they will be able to respond to every comment and suggestion, but members are welcome to make them (preferably in writing) to any committee member. All suggestions will be considered if it is feasible to do so during the design phase in which they are received.

The contest is open to all OCC members (except members of the Public Relations Committee), member spouses and children. Entry forms will appear in the September magazine.

The deadline for entries is October 31. Photos should be the original photo taken by the person submitting the entry. Entries are limited to five photos per person. All entries must be at least 8" x 10", mounted with the double stick tape (no glue) on foam core board, poster board or matte board. No color copies. No digital photos.

New Postage Stamp Honors Duke

On August 24, the life and legacy of Duke Paoa Kahanamoku will be celebrated by the U.S. Postal Service and the people of Hawaii with a commemorative postage stamp in his honor. Outrigger members are invited to join the celebration.

The stamp, depicting a handsome young Duke with Waikiki Beach and Diamond Head in the backdrop, will be unveiled in an inspiring, spiritually moving ceremony on the 112th anniversary of Duke's birthday.

Fittingly, Duke's commemorative stamp will be introduced near his family's home, the Kalia section of Waikiki Beach that now fronts the Hilton Hawaiian Village Beach Resort and Spa.

At about 1:30 p.m., the famed Polynesian voyaging vessel, Hokulea, will bring the stamp's welcoming delegation into Kalia Bay, including U.S. Senator Daniel Akaka, Chairman Robert Rider of the U.S. Postal Services' Board of Governors, a representative from the Outrigger Duke Kahanamoku Foundation, and a member of the Kahanamoku family.

The Polynesian voyaging vessels Makalii and Hawaii Loa will be moored in the bay awaiting their arrival, joined by an expected large contingent of surfers and canoe paddlers paying tribute to Duke's memory.

A shore side ceremony will follow to dedicate the stamp. Afterwards, Duke stamps will be available for purchase from the U.S. Postal Service inside Hilton's beachfront Tropics Cafe. Stamp collectors may also obtain a first day of issue cancellation.

That evening, beginning at 6 p.m., a luau presented by the Native Hawaiian Hospitality Association, will be held on the lawn fronting the Hilton Lagoon featuring entertainment by special guests. Tickets for the Luau may be purchased for $90 by calling Aloha Festivals at 589-1771. Proceeds from the Luau will go to the Outrigger Duke Kahanamoku Foundation and the NHHA.

The tentative list of entertainers for the luau are Don Ho, Myrtle K. Hilo, Mahi Beamer, Melveen Leed, Nina Kealiwahamana, Reign, Les Ceballos, Aaron Sala, Tihati DFS. The masters of ceremonies will be Kimo Kahoano and Cha Thompson.

The Duke's commemorative stamp will be the centerpiece of a month-long calendar of water sports activities and host of special events celebrating his life and achievements.

A full-blooded Hawaiian and descendant of Hawaiian royalty, Duke first emerged on the world stage at the 1912 Stockholm Olympics, winning a gold medal for the U.S. in the 100-meter freestyle swim in record-setting time. He competed in four Olympic Games over two decades, winning three gold and two silver medals in swimming, and a bronze medal in water polo.

Revered world-wide as the "Father of International Surfing," Duke introduced the sport to the U.S. eastern seaboard, Europe and Australia. His accomplishments compelled Surfer magazine to declare Duke as the "Surfer of the Century". In addition, Sports Illustrated magazine proclaimed him as Hawaii's greatest athlete of the 20th century.

Duke's remarkable exploits, striking good looks, powerful physique, and natural grace captivated the world's attention and established him as a global icon. He epitomized Hawaii's appeal. Presidents, kings and queens, movie celebrities, and superstar athletes sought him out. They were awed by his presence; he charmed them as few could.

Duke Paoa Kahanamoku was a water sports legend that Hawaii proudly shared with the rest of the world. On August 24, the U.S. Postal Service and Hawaii's people will put a stamp on the legacy of his incredible life.

Updated: 15Feb02

Tradition -- The Outrigger Canoe Club was founded on Waikiki Beach in 1908 for the purpose of preserving surfing on boards and in canoes. The members of our club held the first annual Walter T. Macfarlane Regatta at Waikiki on July 4th, 1943. It is now the oldest ongoing outrigger canoe racing event in Hawaii.

Mission -- We are committed to providing an outrigger canoe paddling program for members to compete and be successful at the highest level. The emphasis is: to provide a safe, fun environment for members to learn skills and develop knowledge necessary to participate; to instill the values of respect, responsibility and sportsmanship to self, team, club and community; and to support competition and experiences for winning.

Membership -- All paddlers on our crews must be individual members of the Outrigger Canoe Club at the time the season begins even if a parent or sibling is a member. The application process may be initiated by a Regular Member of the Outrigger Canoe Club for individuals ten years of age and older. The membership process must be conducted through the Admission Committee and it usually takes a year or longer for adults and at least six months for children. Children of non-members may be sponsored by a Regular Member for Junior membership.

Registration -- Members desiring to participate on one the paddling crews must register in early March every year. A copy of a valid birth certificate and a recent photograph is required to complete the registration. There are separate registration dates and fees for the regatta and the long distance seasons.

Paddling Season -- The Regatta season begins in early June and ends in early August at the State Championships. The Long Distance season begins in August and ends with the Na Wahine O Ke Kai in late September and the Molokai Hoe in early October.

STACKHOUSE OVERPOWERS ALL IN OCC BIATHALON

Photos by Nora Meijide & Marilyn Kali

By Don Eovino

The 5th Annual Outrigger Biathlon on June 22, 2002, was a resounding success. There were 112 biathletes and 21 relay teams. Dave Stackhouse scored a come-from-behind victory after entering the water in fourth place.

The run was a flat fast 3.1 mile course around the park on the sidewalk. The weather was a cool, sunny, perfectly beautiful Hawaiian summer day accented by the shower tree's in full morning bloom. The run transitions into an invigorating rough water 800 meter swim in front of the Outrigger beach and finishes on the Colony Surf Beach. The water is always unpredictable for this event, from rough surf, high tides, a jelly fish invasion last year, to a hidden current this year at low tide threatening unwary swimmers.

Dave's strategy was to hug the right side of the reef going out. The current became swiftest at the turn buoy, forcing everybody sideways, but Dave snuggled against the buoy. By now Dave had caught the lead swimmer. Stroking back to the beach Stackhouse was able to increase his lead by an additional two minutes.

Dodging swimmers and flailing arms, and looking up to avoid head-on collisions, Dave came out the water ahead of everyone with an astonished look on his face as he took first place overall with a time of 31:38.

Other age group competitors from the Club fared well including the intrepid Jim Stahl, who turns out each year for the event, taking a third place in his age group. Shawn Kiyabu took fifth place overall. Arnold Lum took first place in his age group. In the next age category, Outrigger members swept all the awards taking first, second, and third with Peter Caldwell, Frederick Giles, and Jim Stahl respectively.

Candes Gentry took fourth place. Karen Sundstrom finished in second place in her age group, Laurie Sloan took a first place and Barbie Dial-Crandlemire came in third. Jan Newhart took first place in her category.

In the Relay Division, husband and wife team Uli and Joanne Klinke proved unbeatable again by winning the mixed division by a landslide over all other relay divisions.

Gerry DeBenedetti and partner Vern Hinkley took third place in their division.

Volunteers are required to make it happen-too numerous to mention all but those worthy of additional praise are: Jon Hunter and his wife Kim and family who coordinated the race applications, Terri Needels who created and served as keiki race director, Candes Meijide who offered assistance with packet pickup and late-race registrations, and wherever help was needed, Hiroko Eovino who was cutting fruit, muffins, bananas, bagels, handing out t-shirts, marking sweaty arms and thighs and handing out water to thirsty runners from 2-7 p.m. Friday and 4-10 a.m. Saturday morning.

Special thanks to the Club management: John Rader, Don Figueira and Liz Ventura, and Don Isaacs who coordinated paddle boarders who marshaled the swim course and safely escorted three fatigued swimmers who couldn't conquer the current. Mahalo to Nora Meijide and Marilyn Kali who took fantastic photos.

KEIKI HAVE GREAT FUN IN 5TH ANNUAL RUN

By Terri Needels

The 3rd annual Keiki Fun Run was held June 22 on a one-mile loop in Kapiolani Park. Eighty-one keiki, from the age of several months to 12 years, ran the one-mile grass course across the street from the Club.

Those 7 to 12 years of age started first, chasing after HPU cross country runner Chris Larson, who served as a lead runner. He was quickly forced to quicken his pace as the many talented young athletes demonstrated their speed.

Within six and a half minutes, the first runners crossed the finish line. Every child wore a race bib and had their times recorded as they proceeded through the finish chute. To ensure everyone's safety, and to avoid collisions, the older children started in the first wave of runners, followed by the younger second wave.

The second wave of runners, ages 6 and under (accompanied by their parents) took off after HPU runner Cindi Wendt as the foghorn signaled the start of the race. Tots in tiny Adidas shoes proudly wore their race bibs as they toddled through the course.

Some tiny ones ran the course pushing their own jogging strollers, while some lucky keiki were treated to a ride in their stroller by their moms. Even proud dads, like Vik Watumull and Alan Lau, ran the course pushing their children in jogging strollers. Other parents had to work hard to keep up with their speedy offspring.

Every participant was greeted by cheers and clapping as they crossed the finish line, which was marked by 20-foot helium balloon towers and colorful flags.

The children, their families and friends, reassembled at the Hau Terrace for refreshments, followed by the awards presentation. Every child was individually recognized in front of the audience and was presented with an OCC medallion hanging from a shell lei as well as a place ribbon.

The event was structured to create a positive, fun athletic experience for children.

Mahalo to the wonderful OCC volunteers and the OCC management and staff who helped make this event fun and safe. # OCC Surf Team Members Earn Top HASA Rankings

Johann Hedemann

Amy Lawson, Geodee Clark and Jenna Frowein at the Wahine Classic.

By Terri Needels, Surf Committee Chair

OCC Surf Team members continue to take home the trophies in all the surfing contests held across the state. Month by month the junior members competed in Hawaii Amateur Surfing Association (HASA) sponsored events staged at various surf spots around Oahu.

After the final, tenth meet was held, the OCC surfers boasted top rankings. Amy Lawson was ranked third in the overall, year-end cumulative rankings in both the Junior Girls Short board and Junior Girls Long board divisions.

Geodee Clark earned a fourth place year-end ranking in Junior Girls Long board division, and Keola Keahiolalo ranked eighth in the Men's Open division and fifth in the Men's 2A division. Keola went on to win fourth in the Men's 2A division and fifth in the Air division of the HASA State Championships.

Congratulations on a year of success!

The surf team members excelled in the other surfing competitions held in the state. In the largest, all female competition held each year, our wahine members out surfed a huge field of competitors in the China Uemura's 6th Annual Ripcurl Girls Wahine Classic held at Kuhio Beach June 15th & 16th.

Geodee Clark won first place in the Junior Girls Long board division and fifth place in the short board division. Amy Lawson won third place in both the Junior Girls Long board and Short board divisions. Jenna Frowein earned second place honors in the PeeWee body board division and sixth place in the PeeWee short board division. Way to go, OCC junior girls!

Not willing to limit their wins to Oahu, Lawson and Clark took over the waves in the Steinlager Longboard Series Aston No Ka Oi event held June 22 and 23 at Lahaina Harbor, Maui. In the Junior Girls Long board division, Amy Lawson took away first place honors and Geodee Clark took second. These girls must need an addition to their homes to store all the trophies they are collecting.

The Town & Country Mini Grom contest held June 1 and 2 at Kuhio Beach gave first year OCC team member Johann Hedemann (yes, he is the 10 year old son of Hans Hedemann) a chance to showcase his quickly developing talents. After battling his way through several grueling preliminary heats, Johann showed everyone he's the one to watch as he took away first place honors in the 10 & Under Shortboard Division.

We are extremely proud to boast that our OCC Surf Team members have reached the finals in virtually every competition held on the island. It will be hard to beat this record!

FAQ

By Trudy Wyatt

Q Are OCC members allowed to bring their own wine to the dining room?

A Yes, but not wines that are included on the OCC wine list. The corkage fee is $10.00.

Q What is the seating capacity of the OCC side dining rooms?

A Each room, including Rooms A and B, Koko, and Rooms C and D, has a capacity of 24 people. The rooms are reserved on a first-come, first-served basis, for any number within the capacity.

Q In order to avoid telephoning through the Front Desk, is there a direct line to the dining room?

A Yes. The direct line to the Koa Lanai is 921-1444.

Q Why is cell phone use prohibited at the Club?

A The OCC wants to maintain a relaxed atmosphere and aims to avoid business calls or other calls that may disturb other diners.

Q What time does the OCC stop serving dinner?

A At 9:30 p.m. Dessert is served until 10:00 p.m.

Q Does the OCC feature a Happy Hour?

A Yes. Happy Hour times are Monday through Thursdays, 5-6 p.m.

Q When a person applies for membership in the OCC, what is the general waiting period between the date of the receipt of the application and the date of the prospective member's interview?

A The time varies depending on the membership category. It can range from three months to one year.

Backward Glances

By Carol Lynn Remillard, Historical Committee

54 Years Ago 1948

Wilford D. Godbold, President

The monthly cost of operating the OCC parking lot was $600. Parking privileges were not automatic with Club membership and members who desired to use the lot without restrictions paid $2 a month. Other members were allowed to park at 25-cents for the first two hours and 10-cents each additional hour. However, restrictions did apply on Saturday afternoons and Territorial holidays.

44 Years Ago 1958

Ronald Q. Smith, President

The Board of Directors instructed Val Ossipoff, architect for the new Club, to discontinue design work for the time being. The Board wanted to firm up beach planning at the Elks Club site before proceeding further.

The Club offered for sale six outrigger canoes at $200 each or would consider a "reasonable offer."

Gay Singlehurst presented her fall fashion forecast: one piece wool knit suits, chemised and fitted alike. Out, two-piece suits. In, long tapered pants or capris topped off either by a brief over blouse or a longer one coming down to fit snugly at the hip. For dressier activities, the "vamp look," one unbroken line of dress, sometimes ending in a flounce just above the knee.

The chemise is in to stay, the sack is out along with the trapeze. The new look — shorter hemline for a long, leggy look!!

OCC paddlers won the Territorial Canoe Racing Championship at Nawiliwili Harbor, Kauai. The 10-event program honored John D. Kaupiko Sr., a veteran Hui Nalu coach. OCC placed first in four events and also finished in second place four times. Two other Club canoes finished in third place in their respective events.

Because of new surfing regulations by the Territory and the possible liability which may accrue to the Club through the use of its canoes, the Canoe Committee requested all who considered themselves qualified steersman to submit their names together with the extent of their qualifications. Information was to include size of canoe, size of surf (e.g. "blowhole," canoe surf," etc.) in which steersman consider they have "full control" of the canoe. Names submitted were to be reviewed for certification.

Howard H. Goss, President

August 3 Healan was the victor in the State Championship Regatta held at the Kaneohe Marine Air Station and Outrigger took second place. Outrigger had an impressive and undisputable racing season as overall champion with 174 points, Waikiki Surf Club with 159 points and Healan with 114.

The Third Annual Outrigger Canoe Club Surfing Contest was held August 17 at "Old Man's." Seventy Club members signed up for the events that were held in 3 to 5-foot waves under choice conditions. Judges were Wally Froiseth, Russ Tahaki and Ken Bailey. The feature event was the Senior Men's won by defending champion Fred Hemmings with Rick Steere and Peter Balding tied for second. Rusty Starr won the Junior's over Russell Brown. Wahine finals saw Koochie Rochlen topping Sharon Ackerman and Phyllis Swartz. Winner in the Boys 12-14 was Keone Downing and Wally Hawthorne, second. In the Boys and Girls 11 and under, held at "Backwash" surf next to the Elks Club, Marc Haine won with Peter Balding and Julie Morgan making it close.

On August 24 at 8:35 a.m. the first annual Lanikai to Waikiki Canoe Race got underway as a tribute to Duke Kahanamoku. The 23-mile open sea race was around Makapuu Point, Koko Head to Waikiki finishing at the Moana Hotel. Ten teams (two from OCC) started and seven finished four hours later. Three canoes were forced out by rough seas and 20-knot winds. The OCC Seniors took an early lead and finished at 3:44.8. Second place was Lanikai Canoe Club; Waikiki Surf Club, third, followed by the OCC Juniors a spirited team who had maintained a solid lead all the way to Koko Head, at one point closing in to about 200 yards on our leading Seniors, until reluctantly having to yield to Lanikai and Waikiki Surf.

August 24 was also Club Day with a variety of activities for all ages with proceeds of the day going to the athletic fund. A new event was the father/son paddle board race over a set course in and out of the Club lagoon. Another first event was a two-man canoe relay race from the beach out to the channel entrance and back. The fun day ended with a $5 steak fry with Happy Hour prices 6-8 p.m., for Senior members. Junior members had a special $1.50 stew and rice dinner followed by surfing movies.

The Outrigger Skeet Team held their second annual shoot at Hickam Air Force Base. This was a mid-summer handicap shoot consisting of 50 targets. Taking the first spot away from the men was Suzanne Kumeiliki with an adjusted score of 47.50, Guy Harrison was second with 45.50 and Neal Wallace, third with 44.50.

Admissions & Membership Report – The membership count was 4,546 as of April 30, 2002.

Building & Grounds Report – The Board agreed to defer plans for the new entryway to the Master Plan Committee and to ask them to consider the issue of accessibility before proceeding.

Athletic Report – The Board approved the design for the Macfarlane Regatta t-shirt. . . The Board approved funding for members for the Molokai to Oahu Relay. . . Funding was approved for the Junior National Volleyball Championships. . . 300 members have signed up for paddling this year which is a 10% increase from last year.

Employee of the Month

Athletic and outdoor girl Sharna Engle is our Employee of the Month. She's played at basketball, softball, body boarding, and surfing. A grad of Kalaheo High, she's a local girl living the outdoor life she loves. She's been at OCC five years, and prior to that worked for the City & County as a pool lifeguard.

Sharna helped out recently in the water rescue of Henry Ayau, carrying our equipment next door to do what she could to help.

Our beach attendants receive excellent training at OCC, and Don Isaacs, supervisor, is always attentive to upgrading the skills of his staff. Lucky us.

Sharna says she likes the people she works with, and she says the members are "really on it." That means we lead that outdoor life she likes, and participate and enjoy all the Club and the beach have to offer.
