As the Terrace Turns

It was stacks of hats that heralded the arrival of happy reciprocal members from the American Club in Sydney, Australia. Donald and Carole Anne Macaulay, accompanied by son Robert and his fiancée Marnie from San Francisco, came for lunch with two huge Royal Hawaiian Hotel hat boxes simply filled with straw hats. Cheerfully showing them off to Manager John Rader, they each donned a hat to wear out to the Hau Terrace for lunch.

Mr. Rader offered to marry Robert and Marnie by the powers invested in him as Club Manager, but they declined, having already made arrangements for a July wedding in San Francisco. Fresh from a week in Maui, they were enjoying their vacation and shopping and having a great time.

All you OCC travelers, remember our reciprocal clubs when you travel. We have a list of them at the Front Desk, and you'll always find a welcome place to stay, to work out, and to dine.

Peter Balding Jr. and Peter Ehrman belong to the Papio tribe, a group of fathers and daughters, organized to have fun and they did that in March at a 7 am surf session at Tonggs, followed by brunch at OCC. About 30 attended, including the daughters of Jimmy McMahon, Jim Cavanah, Jim Pietsch, Glenn Sexton, and others.

Sid Snyder hosted the Board and Annual Meeting of the Kapiolani Park Preservation Society at the Club for pupu and wine for 30 in March. Ever vigilant to keep commercialism and inappropriate activities out of our front door park, Sid says they try to keep the Park the Park. He and wife Diane are leaving for a vacation in South East Asia, including Thailand, Cambodia and other spots. This is a combined architecture and pleasure trip. He promises to "write this up" for us when they return.

Author David Doyle's newest book, Rescue in Paradise, Oahu's Beaches and their Guardians is now available in local bookstores, and he gave a copy to the Club. It's about our local lifeguards and firefighters who patrol the beaches and do ocean rescues.

David is also a member of the English Speaking Union, and that group, combined with the National Arts & Letters organization, met recently with David as host. Forty gathered for lunch to hear Professor Anthony Jackson of the University of Dundee in Fife, Scotland, who happened to be traveling through on his way from Australia.

We seem to have some very interesting groups using this Club to enhance their meetings. Al Serafin is a Board member of the Hawaii Sales Representatives Association, and they met for lunch to plan a May trade show. Sales reps from Oahu, neighbor islands and the mainland will all meet to display their product.

Champagne and roses on Valentine's Day was provided by writer John McDermott as he hosted the PR Ladies from the hotels and public relation companies that regularly feature his Pacific Business News and Travel columns. Although John is the host, and provides the goodies, you can't tell us he isn't having the best time of all with his appreciative ladies.

Brian Shuckburgh and Lowell Barnhart hosted Lowell's sister Bride Rebecca and Groom Tim Pfister for a pre-wedding dinner at OCC before the couple were married on a boat off shore. This sounds romantic enough, but in addition, the couple were childhood sweethearts who recently "found each other again". Tim is retired military and was involved in the 50th anniversary Pearl Harbor observations. The newlyweds are likely to end up in Hawaii, too wonderful to not be here!

Thought we were done with these Christmas celebrations, but it turns out it is stretching out even longer. Cal Lui and his 40 employees were so busy and worked so hard during the holidays, they finally had their after Christmas respite, appreciation and morale party in February.

Caron Broederdorf hosted clients Joyce and Bill Hunt at an appreciation party.

Dinny and Cathy Gray at Cathy's bridal shower at the Club.

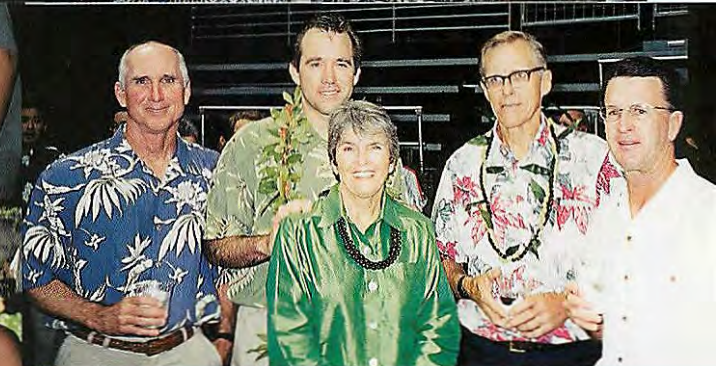

Jay Fries takes a stroll in the fresh powder at Proctor Mountain with Bald Mountain in the background, in Sun Valley, Idaho.

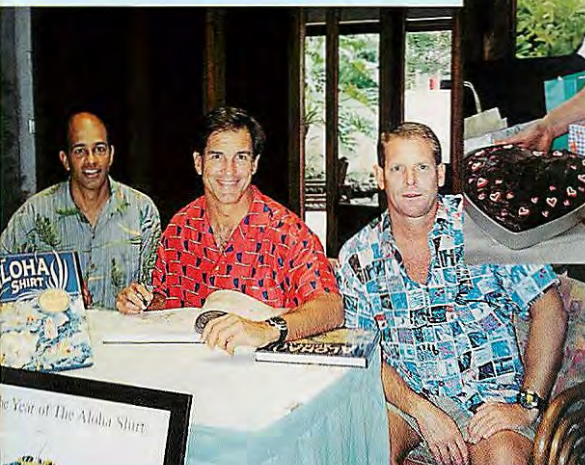

Attending the reunion of the Royal Hawaiian Alumni Association were Bill Hochman, Kelly O'Neill, John Aitken and Keith Steiner.

Helping Vaune Kino celebrate her 40th birthday, were Michele St. John, Kelley McMahon, Kendra Jenkins, Vaune, Annmarie Mizuno, Colleen Keene and Thurston Kino.

Congratulating Chris Duplanty on his election to the Hawaii Sports Hall of Fame, were his former Punahou coach Ken Smith, Chris, Gay and Kimo Austin, and Peter Balding.

Kimberlee Kalaiwa'a was honored at a baby shower at the Club. With her are son, Lawson, and hostess Nadine Macnish.

Floye Adams and her bridge club are indefatigable. They meet at OCC at least twice a year, including Christmas (last and upcoming). About 44 of them have an excellent teacher, Karen Lanke, who instructs and they play, and then they eat. Floye reports many friends in this group who support her and teach her and she just loves bridge.

Tamara Yakimetz married Joel Buchwald, son of Art Buchwald, at the residence of William and Rita Coors in Golden, Colorado on January 13. They will be stopping in Honolulu in May at the end of their month long honeymoon which will include Europe, Bhutan, Thailand, Cambodia and Indonesia. The couple currently lives in Washington, D.C.

Kyoko and Kelly O'Neill hosted a reunion of the 422 Royal Hawaiian Alumni Association, a group of Navy and Marine officers who served together in Hawaii in the middle and late 1950s. About 40 people attended, from Hawaii and all over the Mainland.

Nadine Macnish hosted a luncheon baby shower on Valentine's Day and a dinner baby shower on March 9 for her sister-in-law Kimberlee Kalaiwa'a at the Club. Kim and her two-year-old son Lawson Nainoa flew in from Princeville for the celebrations. Kim and her husband, Francis, are expecting twin boys in May.

Jessica Isaacs celebrated her 18th birthday being named "the best goal keeper in the league" by her PacFive coach in an article in the Honolulu Advertiser. She was "stoked" says her proud dad, Don Isaacs, who is our beach attendant.

Cathy Gray, daughter of Dinny and David Gray, was honored at a bridal shower at the Club. The table was set with yellow and white rose floral arrangements down the center of the table, with yellow and white linens, says friend Jo Rosehill. The favors were floating plumeria candles at each place. The wedding will be in May.

Among those Club members attending were Joan Andersen, Marian Arnott, Frankie Anderson, Leilani Bowen, Dicey Brinck, Ricki Cassidy, Josh Doheny, Bonnie Eyre, Cathy George, Middie Myers, Barbara Tilley, and Jo Rosehill.

Chris Duplanty, a former ODKF scholarship recipient, was inducted into the Hawaii Sports Hall of Fame. Outrigger Hall of Fame member Kimo Austin, and his wife, Gay, and Mary and Peter Balding were at the Stan Sheriff Center to congratulate Chris.

We've been seeing more and more of Nonresident member Tom Anderson and his wife, Anne, around the Club recently. Not hard to figure why. Tom is based in Minnetonka, Minnesota. Tom has brought his company to Hawaii where they are now running twice weekly package tours to Las Vegas.

Frequently Asked Questions

By Christian Peterson

- Q Who may advertise in The Outrigger magazine?
- A Advertising Director Pam Davis says that advertising is open to Outrigger Canoe Club members. Nonmembers may advertise if space is available and if they are sponsored by a Club member in good standing. Priority is always given to members. Members are charged a lower rate than non-members.
- Q Why must we sign in when we enter the Club?
- A All members are required to sign in when first entering the Club. This is necessary to preserve our private club status.
- Q Are cellular phones allowed on the Club premises?
- A Yes, but not in the Koa Lanai, Hau Terrace and Lounge.
- Q What are the requirements for Associate membership, and can Associates vote?
- A Associate members are spouses of Senior, Regular, Life or Intermediate members, and/or persons 18 through 25 years of age who are either full time students attending an accredited school or college, or on active military duty in a non-commissioned status during such period of duty. Associate members may not vote.

DeBenedetti Creates Quilts for Women's 10K Run

For the past 24 years, the Women's 10K race has passed the front door of the Club. Now scheduled for the first weekend in March, our wahine members enjoy entering, and are always cheered by Club spectators, coffee cups in hand, in the grass divider along Kalakaua. Times available are:

Vien Schwinn	52:12
Pam Gring-Fee	55:04
Candes Meijide Gentry	58:30
Jan Newhart	1:05 (4th age 70+)
Gerry DeBenedetti	1:35 (race walker)

Gerry DeBenedetti has completed all 24 of these races, and there are only nine other women in Hawaii that can make this claim.

Last year, after the 2000 race, reflecting on the fact that she had 23 10K shirts, she realized she could have the PERFECT 10K QUILT with all those T shirts. After all, every member of the Club has an overflowing T shirt drawer.

On her next trip to California to visit her mother, she took the T shirts, a design, and the backing material of a reverse brown tapa pattern.

She and her mother collaborated on not one, but two quilts, of 10 years each, which Gerry calls her decade quilts. Quilt one has 1978-87, Quilt two has 1988-97, and pending quilt three will start with 1998 and end with 2007. There is enough backing material set aside for long range quilt four, the year 2017.

Gerry plans to be the survivor of the original women who ran the Honolulu Women's 10K in 1978.

The Quilts and Gerry appeared in the Honolulu Advertiser in a Sunday feature article, on Channel 13 with Linda Hosek, Channel 4 with Jill Kuramoto, the quilts were displayed at the Women's 10K on March 4, and are now on display at the Queens Hospital Dining room wall.

If you participated in this race and your time is not listed above, please provide the information to The Outrigger, and we will print your time For The Record in our next issue.

With our outstanding dining facilities and scenic views, the Outrigger is a wonderful place to hold a special event, whether it's a baby luau, wedding, or business function.

The Outrigger Food and Beverage staff will make it easy, fun and sure to please everyone who attends.

Koa Lanai Manager Liz Ventura will arrange all the details to make your event a success. She and Chef Manfred Pirscher can create special menus fit for regular folks or royalty. Your wishes are their commands.

While many members take advantage of the Club's facilities and services for hosting large groups, others are unaware of the customized service this membership privilege provides.

Our meeting and party rooms are flexible and can accommodate groups from 10 to 300 people.

Whether it is a wedding reception or a reunion, a birthday party or your company's awards banquet, daytime or evening, elegant or casual, on a shoe-string budget or sparing no cost, Liz will find a way to make everything just right for you.

You may choose what you wish to serve from the regular Koa Lanai menu, talk with Liz about anything else you would like to have, or just give her the general idea and she and the Chef will take it from there.

Beverage choices are equally flexible. You may choose to have an open bar which allows your guests to order any alcoholic or soft drink that is available from the Bar, or limit the choices and be comfortable knowing the servers will offer only the drinks you have specified.

You can even have a no host bar. To do this, you must make arrangements in advance and assign someone in your group to collect money for script which the Club will provide to you. Your guests may use the script to order their drinks.

If you want to serve a special wine or champagne that is not on our list, Liz will special order it for you. You can also offer your guests fine cognacs or cordials after dinner and specialty coffees or teas.

The china, flatware and linens normally used in the Koa Lanai are suitable for most occasions. If you prefer something different,

Catering Parties at the Outrigger Canoe Club

You can reserve the entire Koa Lanai for breakfast, Monday through Saturday; lunch on Monday or Saturday, or for dinner on Monday. The Koa Lanai will accommodate up to 200 people seated for a meal and up to 300 for cocktails and pupus.

You can reserve the party rooms on the Diamond Head side of the Koa Lanai for lunch or dinner, Tuesday through Saturday, or for brunch on Sunday. Full capacity for all the rooms combined is 80 seated for a meal, and 125 for cocktails and pupus.

You can reserve one room for a party of 10. Other combinations of rooms are available depending on the size of your group.

If you plan a meeting before or after your meal, you can sit as you do for dining or it is possible to have one room set up for the meeting and another for eating and socializing.

If your meeting is early in the morning, get everyone off to a good start with a Continental breakfast.

The Club will provide a TV/VCR or a slide screen, a microphone and sound system and a lectern upon request.

Liz can arrange for that as well as a musical group, a clown for the kids, flowers, or an elegant ice sculpture carved to your specifications.

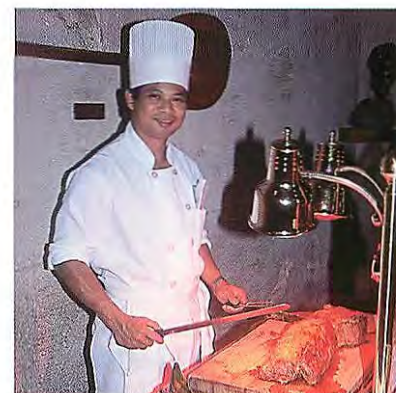

There are additional charges for all items or services not regularly available in the Koa Lanai. Nevertheless, you will find the total cost of your event will be significantly less than it would be at other clubs, hotels or restaurants.

It is also possible to hold private parties at the Snack Shop during times when it is closed, or an evening BBQ on the Club Beach. Ask Liz for details.

Party and special event reservations are taken on a first-come, first-served basis. The more lead time you have, the more likely you are to get the date and room(s) you want. Reservations for private parties will not be accepted when a special Club dinner or party is planned.

Reciprocal and Guest members are invited to host private parties at the Outrigger while they're in town.

For more information, contact Liz or Food and Beverage Manager Don Figueira at (808) 923-1585.

Extra Innings

Slugfest Opens 2001 Softball Season

The OCC Softball team didn't need batting practice to show off their talent at the plate. The 2001 team exploded for 10 runs and 19 hits in their first Spring Leahi League game. Unfortunately, their opponent had bigger numbers in mind.

The Sharks, led by OCC member and league commissioner Bill 'Killer' Kilcoyne, scored big time in beating OCC 17-10. Leading the way for OCC was left fielder and former OCC MVP Chris Siegfried. Chris crushed two home runs and a long single. Second baseman Paki Vaughan and pitcher Mike Hogan also had three hits in the game.

Former MVP and returning shortstop Jim Cavanah and outfielder Brandon St. James had two hits apiece. Other hot bats included catcher Keith Letman, DH Aaron Eberhardt and first baseman Bryan Hoernig.

Look for next month's story in Extra Innings to feature more games, highlights and team pictures. Thanks for your support.

Memorial Day Service and BBQ

By Gerry DeBenedetti

The Club will hold its traditional Memorial Day Service on Monday, May 28 at 9 a.m. on the Hau Terrace. Complimentary light refreshments will be served.

The Reverend William Kaina, retired pastor of Kawaiahao Church, will officiate. Only loose flowers are welcome, as the Club would like to be a good neighbor to the turtles and other sea creatures that could get tangled if lei strings are used. Paddlers will be instructed to strip any flowers off of a string, so show your aloha with loose flowers and all will be well.

If you have a friend, loved one, or deceased relative you would like to honor, there is a special significance about doing this at Outrigger, with the sound of the sea providing the most beautiful music, and the Teves Trio, providing the next most beautiful music.

There is a plaque on the end wall of the Terrace, dedicated to the OCC members whose ashes are scattered at sea, but the service is not just for those who are resting off shore, you may share your Aloha and pay your respects for anyone dear to you.

Dress is casual. If you are a paddler, bring your paddle and help escort the flowers out to sea. Paddlers "name" the leis as they are being tossed into the sea. If you have someone you would like "named" as we put the flowers into the ocean, tell one of the paddlers, and ask that your aloha be given in the name of ".....".

Then, waves permitting, the paddlers try to catch a wave and come whooping and hollering into shore, with those gathered at the Terrace applauding and cheering. What a way to be remembered!

Since the day is a State holiday, the Club observes the beginning of "summer" by starting our BBQ season, when we have BBQ on every Saturday during the summer. We expect a big crowd, some students will be finished with school, and the weather is usually mellow. OCC is the only place we know of where sunsets get applause.

Enjoy your Memorial Day holiday, remembering your loved ones with Aloha, and being thankful they have such a nice place to play off shore with the turtles, and enjoy our wonderful, relaxed OCC summer BBQ with your friends and family.

OCC Biathalon/Relay and Keiki Run June 16

The 4th Annual Outrigger Canoe Club Biathlon, Relay and Keiki Run is scheduled for Saturday, June 16 at 7 a.m.

The Biathlon includes a 5K run and 800-meter swim. The run starts at the corner of Kalakaua Avenue and Monsarrat Avenue, and continues around the inside perimeter of Kapiolani Park and winds up at OCC for the transition to the swim. The swim begins at the Club beach, and goes out the Kapua Channel to a turnaround buoy and finishes on the beach in front of the Colony Surf.

The one-mile Keiki Run is open to all kids up to the age of 12. Keiki under six years of age must be accompanied by a parental escort. The keiki race is untimed and has a staggered start. The 7-12 year olds will start at 7:10 a.m., and the 1-6 year olds will start at 7:20 a.m. The race is inside Kapiolani Park.

Awards will be given to the top three male and female finishers in each category. Awards in the relay category will be given to the top three teams in men's, women's, mixed, and masters and mixed masters (combined age over 100).

The 2001 OHCRA sprint racing season opens with the first regatta in June at Keehi Lagoon. If you have not registered to participate, and still would like to do so, it is not too late. Registration and waiver forms are at the Front Desk, or contact Paula Crabb if you have questions.

During the Memorial Day Club BBQ on May 26th, the Canoe Racing Committee plans to distribute regatta t-shirts and take late registration for canoe paddlers. The T-shirts are designed by Michael Field, and will exhibit this year's motto taken from the Committee's mission statement

"Where the sports of old Hawaii shall always have a home."

Please check out the bulletin board in the Tunnel for current canoe racing information on who's coaching, practice schedules and locations, and for just what's happening. Get in the water!

Employee of the Month

If you had a first name of Salvador, maybe you'd like to be called "Buddy"? Our Employee of the Month is Buddy Florendo, a very interesting fellow, and greatly appreciated by the Food & Beverage department.

He is a bus attendant on the Koa Lanai, working from 8 a.m. to prepare the room for lunch, and leaves at 3 p.m., when it's all cleaned up and ready for dinner.

In this capacity management describes him as on time, consistent, reliable and your old favorite "good worker".

Buddy came to us from Alaska of all places, where he worked in a fish processing factory. He says OCC is much warmer, and he needs no rubber boots here.

He enjoys his bicycle, going to the swap meet, and because of his 6+ feet height, he has been a basketball player.

Three years in Hawaii and one year at OCC, he really loves his job, riding the bus to and from work from Waipahu where he lives with his family.

And the award money? "Spent it on clothes."
