OCC's Second Crew Paddles the Channel with Aloha

By Casey Teixeira

On October 13, OCC's second crew capped off its 1996 season with the Bankoh Molokai Hoe. Early Friday morning a few members from each crew flew to Molokai and spent the day rigging their canoes for the race. We ended the day with an ono steak dinner prepared by Mary (mahalo Mary!).

Saturday brought the rest of our crews and helpers. With all the work done, there was nothing to do, but soak in the beauty of the "Friendly Isle". Each paddler contemplated the challenges that lay ahead in the Kaiwi Channel. Sunday seemed an eternity away.

The next day, we all arrived at Hale O Lono early enough to put the finishing touches on the Iwalani. OCC's plan at the starting line was to have our second and third crews flank each side of the first crew. That was to make sure that OCC's first crew could get out to a clean and fast start. The sprint to La'au point was fast and furious.

The swell that day was wrapping around from the East. The forecasted conditions for the race were ideal—a small ground swell coming from the North, and a strong East/Northeast trade wind. That made us think that we'd be surfing all the way home.

Once we got past La'au Point, we made our first change. Luckily we avoided a collision with another escort boat, and headed for smoother water.

Very few canoes challenged us. Our biggest challenge was on selecting what waves to catch. It goes to show that no matter how much you study charts and conditions, the Channel plays by a totally different set of rules. (It's a lesson that I'll never forget.)

Once we got to Portlock, we decided to go straight for Black Point. Even at this point of the race, the ocean was the opposite of what we expected. Instead of surfing, it was almost a grind to Diamond Head. After we made the corner at Diamond Head, the rush of being in home waters lifted us. We were on the heels of a crew ahead and sprinted to the finish.

The feeling that I got when we passed the finish line was surreal. I could only think of my crew and how hard they paddled.

The crew consisted of: Ralph Gray, Tom Harrer, Byron Ho, Mark Sandvold, Paul Frieze, Andrew Glatzel, Kimo (DTK) Brown, Casey Teixeira, and anchored by John Eveleth. The crew was guided under the coaching of Bill Bright. Also helping out was Kalani Schraeder. In paddling, each crew member has a specific job, all just as important as the other. Without this team work, a crew can not only lose a race, but also risk the safety of the canoe or more importantly, the crew itself.

As all the leis started to fall around my neck, again one thought came to mind—my crew. For me, the lei symbolizes my crew, each member, a flower. Each with its own scent, texture and color. All of them woven together with camaraderie, and most importantly "ALOHA". ☪

AS THE Terrace TURNS...

Mabel Hagen recently celebrated the 75th anniversary of her 16th birthday and had a wonderful time. She used the occasion of her Golden Circle of Eastern Star monthly luncheon to dine with 40 of her friends who also had a good time.

Mabel went on and on about the Dining Room service, the guests favorably impressed with having the entire Dining Room, and "Liz is wonderful", that she could hardly talk about her birthday. She accepted her complimentary bottle of OCC wine, which she shared with the officers and guests. Well Mabel, keep it up, and many more happy healthy birthdays.

Akea Teixeira and Chloe Bryan enjoy breakfast together with Pluto and all the other Disney characters at Goofy's Kitchen at the Disneyland Hotel.

Sue Matthews has been busy, with two weddings and lots of entertaining. Her son Jack Bahrenburg married Christy Wainet of Vermont, and son James Bahrenburg married Liz Amlicke of New York. Both sons met their brides while attending college in the East, and had September and October weddings there. When both daughters-in-law came to visit, the dinners and luncheons and brunches began.

A happy 10th birthday to Paige Markham, daughter of member Greg Markham. Paige and her guests went to a movie and then had lunch at the OCC.

Buzz Thompson recently entertained the American Immigration Lawyers Association, Hawaii Chapter at dinner. Special guests were the Chief Immigration Judge Michael Creppy of Falls Church, Virginia, and assistant district counsels to the Honolulu District Immigration office. What did they talk about? Why Da Rools, of course. . .

Martin Zais is a very clever man and a generous employer. His dental office has decided to have two birthday parties a year. Employees with birthdays in the first six months have one birthday party, and the next six months birthday employees had their party on September 15.

Bodil Anderson recently hosted the regional meeting of the SWEA (Swedish Women's Educational Association). She started the local chapter 10 years ago to maintain the Swedish culture, language and traditions. They meet once a month.

Bodil and husband Dave Anderson recently returned from a vacation in Victoria B.C., where they—among other things—had tea at the Empress Hotel.

Ferne Weiner, who is NOT a newcomer, is very active in the Newcomer's Club of Honolulu. If you know people who are new to Hawaii, get them involved with this group. It is a way to meet others and get information about the way things are. Besides interest groups such as bridge and dominoes, they take tours and acquaint new people with Hawaiian life. Ferne says the tour of duty for officers is only 6 months, so everybody works until they get to be not so new, and they go on to other things. . .

Rianna Williams' book, From Royal Gardens to Gothic Splendor: the History of St. Andrew's Cathedral, will be available at the Cathedral's Queen Emma Book Room. Pre-orders are available after November 5. All proceeds go to the Cathedral.

Mike Pietsch was named Boston College's Male Athlete of the Week for water polo. Against Iona, Mike scored five goals on five shots and had one steal. Against Fordham, he recorded five goals and an assist.

Mike and Annemarie Paulin climbed Mt. Kilimanjaro, the highest point in Africa, in September.

Carrie Nicol, daughter of Marjorie and Bob Wilson, has just released her latest album, Kiawe Skies. Carrie writes her own music and lyrics and is the principle performer on her newest album of contemporary Hawaiian music.

Leslie Mattice celebrated her 60th birthday in September at the home of Mike and Sigi McCormack. The Mexican theme party was a surprise given by her children and family friends, McCormacks, Mattice, Brooks, Baldings, Harrisons, Austins and Mullers.

Sylvia Derby and Carolyn Craig celebrated their October birthdays along with Eileen Weedon-Newstead who was visiting Honolulu from Sydney. The pink color scheme of the decor was glowing. Eileen lived in Honolulu many years while she was working for an airline. The dinner party guests included many Club members.

The Robinson family celebrated the 44th wedding anniversary of W. W. and Joan Robinson on October 19 at the Club. Five of their seven children attended with their families. "We enjoyed a delightful dinner at the Outrigger Dining Room with Wayne as our gracious waiter," said Barney Robinson. "The family would like to thank the wonderful crew at the Dining Room for making a very special event memorable and successful."

Tennis League Begins in January

By Gloria Keller, Chair Tennis Committee

The 1997 HTL Women's Tennis League begins its season on Sunday, January 12, 1997. Team Captain, Ann Martin, attended the first organization meeting on October 3, at the Kilauea Recreation Center. Team registration packets were distributed and the completed forms were submitted on November 14.

A notice was posted on the Bulletin Board asking for all interested members to sign up at the Front Desk. A list of 16 OCC players was turned into the HTL. Once the roster is submitted no changes can be made to the list.

Matches are scheduled on Sunday mornings, beginning January 12 and will continue for approximately 13 weeks, including the playoff games. I will post the full game schedule on the Bulletin Board near the Logo Shop with times and venue once it has been finalized. Anyone interested in supporting the OCC women's tennis team can come to cheer us on to victory. Your presence would be greatly appreciated. The matches consist of two single games and three doubles games, a total of eight players each week.

I will keep you all posted as to our success, yes "our success". This year we are committed to a winning season. The OCC banner will fly high and the team will be in the OCC uniform for all their matches.

Wish us well! ☺

Reciprocal Club Review

By Valerie Davis

This is the third in a series of reviews of reciprocal clubs.

Some of you may be heading to Southern California over the holidays, and the La Jolla Beach and Tennis Club is a great spot to visit for dinner—or even to use as your hotel.

This Club was founded in 1927, and is loaded with amenities for OCC members. It's located on a private beach and has a heated swimming pool, fitness room with a massage therapist, 12 tennis courts with some available for night play, a 9-hole executive par-3 pitch and putt course around the Club's private lagoon, and a full service pro shop for both golf and tennis. Children are welcome and there are many programs especially for them.

Same day laundry and dry cleaning service is available and a coin-operated laundromat is on property.

You can also stay here. The club has 91 rooms and suites—including standard ocean view rooms and cottages, one bedroom studios with kitchens, and one, two and three-bedroom cottages with living rooms and fully equipped kitchens. The current room rates are $105 for non-ocean front rooms, $150 for ocean front rooms, both with kitchens; $135 for a non-ocean front suite, $325 for both a three bedroom cottage or a two bedroom deluxe cottage. Rates are higher on some spring and fall weekends and in summer.

One of the prettiest dining rooms in the San Diego area is located on the Club premises. The Marine Room is a landmark edge of surf restaurant known for Continental cuisine, and is open for lunch and dinner daily, also Sunday brunch and features live entertainment. The club has a regular bar and dining room, as well, that's open for breakfast, lunch and dinner daily with panoramic views of the Pacific.

In the Summer months, there is a Beach Hut serving snacks for breakfast and lunch and waiter service on the beach.

We highly recommend that you visit this delightful Club. As usual, more detailed information can be found in the office. ☺

It's Honolulu Marathon Time

By Don Eovino

Welcome all runners and running observers. We expect more than 35 OCC Marathoners to compete in this year's Honolulu Marathon on Sunday, December 8.

A pre-event carbo-loading party will be held on Friday, December 6 from 6-9 p.m. at the Snack Shop area. A pasta bar, salad bar, dessert, beverage, coffee, music, and motivational words will all be available for only $20. Last year, the OCC management provided "Chariots of Fire" to motivate us.

Running singlets will be handed out to Marathon runners, as supply allows, at the carbo-load party. Running shorts, embroidered with our OCC logo will be available at $20 each to all members.

Our ebullient staff, led by John Rader, will set up an OCC tent across from the entrance to the Club, at the 25.5 mile mark, to cheer on our runners during that last exhausting stretch down Kalakaua Avenue. All members are encouraged to come cheer our finishers.

A special personal massage will be provided for OCC finishers. Drop by to say "hello", listen to war-stories, or simply get inspiration for next year's marathon at our tent on the Ewa side of the tennis courts.

A finisher's board will be posted for all to see and be registered on, which we hope to transfer to the Club as a small form of recognition for accomplishing this remarkable achievement.

A delightful surprise will await all finishers who choose to have breakfast back at the Club with family and friends afterwards, providing they can prove they finished the marathon by displaying their finishers T-shirt, award medallion, water-wrinkled feet, blackened toenails, or other suitable verification.

Marathon Day

- 4 a.m. Group pictures at the Club
- 4:10 a.m. OCC vans transport us to the starting line
- 5 a.m. Marathon begins
- 7 a.m. Through noon and beyond: we finish

We need volunteers to drive runners to the starting line. Please call Don Eovino at 735-3066 if you're available.

We're looking forward to seeing lots of OCC members and friends at the end of a very long 26.2 mile accomplishment. See you there! ☺

OCC Runners Dominate the 30/30 Race & Relay

By Tom German

The Outrigger Canoe Club was represented by a total of five relay teams at the 21st Annual 30/30 Race and Relay and all five teams placed far ahead of their competitors in their respective categories! We also had many "hard-core" distance runners who ran the 30K (18+ mile) Race.

Our "Command Post" tent was set up and ready to go (Mahalo, David Kuh and crew) prior to the 5 a.m. start, and served as a great meeting, information, and cheering center as well as a shady retreat from the morning's hot sun.

The 30K individual race began at Kapiolani Park with a "bang" at 5 a.m. Jetting away were Arnold Lum, Ron Scelza, Hina Schramel, Katy Bourne, and Don Eovino (hope we didn't miss anyone, it was pretty dark) and almost all were seen screaming across the finish line a short while, and 30 kilometers, later.

A very unfortunate note:

Shooting for a "P.R." in this 30K race, Don Eovino, our Running Chair, ran into a group of slower runners as he headed for the front of the pack. Avoiding them and "jack rabbiting" around them at full speed, he tripped, and to avoid injury, he (correctly) tucked into a shoulder-roll. He avoided hurting anyone else, but in the process, broke his shoulder bone. Despite his injuries, he donned a shoestring sling and oversaw the relays to the end! Knowing Don, we'll probably still see him running the Marathon, but probably not for a "P.R."

The first relay runners started the race at 5:30 a.m. from the start line in Kapiolani Park and were followed by their four teammates, all running a 6-mile loop around Diamond Head and through Kahala. The camaraderie, cheers, laughs (and heat) increased as the race progressed. A great work-out was had by all, and EVERYONE came home with medals this year. ☺

The Road to Hana

By Chris Haines

What's the best means to get from Maui's Airport to Hana, 52 miles away! Why, running, of course! So say the 24 fleet-footed OCC Runners who participated in the 25th Annual Hana Relay on September 21. Proceeds from the Non-Run Fun Festival sent Outrigger's finest runners to compete in the event.

Don Eovino, OCC's Running Committee Chair, compiled or perhaps coaxed, cajoled and coerced four six-member teams to represent OCC in this year's relays. With his usual meticulous scrutiny to every detail, Don coordinated the event from the applications, to the post race celebrations (complete with libations, food and two masseuses).

If that wasn't enough, Don anchored the Men's Masters Team and won the first ever PAC MAN AWARD for his unmerciful gobbling up of poor unfortunate competing runners.

As always, the red and white colors of the Outrigger were worn with pride and race honors were brought home to Oahu from the Valley Isle.

Despite the incredible pressure of five previous consecutive first place finishes for the Men's Masters team, this year's battled the odds and old bones to bring home the Gold for a sixth year in a row. An incredible performance from those wily old buggers who were heard to say they'd be back for number seven next year. Their time of 6:11 was the fastest ever, bettering two years ago of 6:15. The team included Don, Capt. Mike Schwinn, Joe Teipel, Chris Haines, Jon Hunter and Bill Manfredi.

Another gutsy performance was displayed by OCC's Mixed Open team, led by Katy Bourne, Billy Balding, Vik Watumull, Paula Jenkins, David Stackhouse and Keoni Kino. This division has the fastest men and women on the road who push the envelope to the extremes, risking life and limb for the sweet taste of victory.

Katy and the team waged a fierce battle with a Maui mixed team and only at the last legs of the race were they eliminated from first place. It wasn't meant to be this year and they proudly accepted Silver. Watch out next year, however, they'll be back. They finished second in 5:55.

The other OCC teams weren't in the medal chase this time around, but gained valuable experience for next year's competition.

Special recognition to Fred Hemmings who gamely ran, fresh off of knee surgery, and to Vien Schwinn who competed with both her babies and husband in tow on the Mixed Open I team. Other runners were Uli Frowein, Shawna Brizzolara, Terri Needels and Jon Whittington. Their time wasn't reported.

A special acknowledgment to Brigitte Egbert's team comprised of Brigitte, coming off of a recent Maui Marathon and sister Sasha MacNaughton, newly entering the running field, and Brigitte's husband Bob, Navy Seal and Ironman competitor, Hina Schramel and Eleni Pflueger, BOCA training triathletes and marathon runners, and Twain Newhart who has consecutively run the notoriously nasty leg 13 three years in a row, faster each time.

Their combined time was 6:05, only 10 minutes slower than our fastest team whose time was 5:55. This team was neck and neck with the Masters until Bob Egbert took the baton on leg 15 and opened up a five minute gap which they never relinquished.

The most important thing, medal or not, was that everyone who participated enjoyed themselves and shared the joy of sport with another OCC member.

Get your running shoes out and get in shape for next year. Don will be calling! ☺

Outrigger Wins Catalina Crossing

By Walter Guild

The 32nd annual Catalina Crossing outrigger canoe race was hosted by the Kalifornia Outrigger Association and Offshore Canoe Club, September 7 and 8 with OCC winning both the men's and women's races.

Women race on Saturday from Newport Harbor to the city of Avalon on the island of Catalina, approximately 30 miles. The men's race is on Sunday from Avalon to Newport and proceeds an additional four miles to the back of the harbor, making for a total distance of about 34 miles.

The women's race was held in ideal conditions with warm air and water and clear skies. With a favorable ocean current, the stage was set for a face off of the sport's top women's teams. Defending champion and 1995 Molokai winner, Offshore Canoe Club, was the favorite going into the race. Many expected a strong challenge from an improved OCC, the only team to have beaten Offshore in either race in the last decade.

From the start, the race was a three boat affair as slowly Offshore and Outrigger pulled away from a strong Lanakila (of California). The calm conditions made for a relatively uneventful crossing with Outrigger leading throughout the race and Offshore directly behind by a few hundred yards. OCC won the event in 4:14, with Offshore finishing in 4:30. The men's race the following day had Outrigger jumping to an early lead followed closely by Lanakila and Kai O Pua (of the Big Island), as well as defending champion and West Coast powerhouse, Dana Point Outrigger.

By the halfway mark, OCC had a solid lead of about a quarter mile with the other teams still in hot pursuit. OCC remained solid as the final change was made at the entrance to Newport Harbor and the six paddlers paddled the final four miles to the finishing line without any more changes. OCC finished in 4:19:42 and Lanakila was second in 4:24:57. ☐

And a woman who held a babe against her bosom said, Speak to us of Children. And he said: Your children are not your children. They are the sons and daughters of Life's longing for itself. They come through you but not from you. And though they are with you yet they belong not to you.

You may give them your love but not your thoughts. For they have their own thoughts. You may house their bodies but not their souls. For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow, which you cannot visit, not even in your dreams. You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like you. For life goes not backward nor tarries with yesterday.

You are the bows from which your children as living arrows are sent forth. The archer sees the mark upon the path of the infinite, and He bends you with His might that His arrows may go swift and far. Let your bending in the archer's hand be for gladness; For even as He loves the arrow that flies, so He loves also the bow that is stable.

Women Paddlers Wrap Up Season

If the island of Molokai is called the Friendly Isle, then why is the Kaiwi Channel between Molokai and Oahu at times so unfriendly? This year's Na Wahine O Ke Kai Molokai to Oahu canoe race was one of those where Mother Nature was determined to work against all 52 crews entered with her southerly winds. The finishing times for all but three crews was over seven hours, and the last crew crossed the finish line in 8 hours and 47 minutes.

For the Outrigger Canoe Club, the third, 13th and 15th place finishes were outstanding, considering the sea and wind conditions as well as the level of competition, and for the second consecutive year an Outrigger crew flipped right after the start.

This year's distance season was about more than just the Molokai to Oahu Canoe Race, it was about a TEAM of very dedicated women who have come together as the most dominant club team anywhere. Here is a brief history of their season and a few of their accomplishments:

From the very first race, the Dad Center, the Outrigger showed its dominance against local competition, winning in under three hours, setting a course record of 2 hours and 57 minutes. More importantly, there were four Outrigger crews racing. Besides finishing first, the battle of the day was between two Outrigger crews that fought almost literally to the end finishing 9th and 10th.

The next competition was in Kona, where the race had 148 canoes entered, three from the Outrigger Canoe Club. With a flying wedge start, Outrigger was able to break out ahead from the first stroke, and despite a strong challenge from Kai Opuu, was able to finish well out in front, with the two other Outrigger crews finishing 8th and 13th.

The Outrigger sent one crew to the Newport to Catalina Race, where the women knew they would face strong competition from Offshore and Lanakila of California. It was a battle between these three crews for the first hour until Lanakila fell back, and then it was Outrigger and Offshore doing battle. Outrigger was ahead, but Offshore did not let up until the three hour mark, at which point we were able to slowly pull away. This was a great win against tough competition, Outrigger setting another record, finishing in 4 hours 13 minutes.

In the Pokai Race, there were two Outrigger crews racing, the Catalina crew taking a break. As in previous races, the competition was very close with the two Outrigger crews battling two other crews for position. At the finish, Outrigger was 4th and 7th (.2 seconds out of 6th). Considering that these crews were competing against the other club's first teams, the Outrigger women were great.

There was a lot that went right this season, all of which was a direct result of the effort from all the women in the paddling program. They learned that even though you're "such a small girl in such a big world", that you survive and prosper together. They understand the concept of finger power, and everything being "just so". There's Snappy and Iron Woman, Fanny, Nails, Poo, and the Gomez sisters, there's Pearl now Magellan, Sarge now Ayatollah, and Pasa. These are but a few of the alter egos within the crews.

This was a TEAM of women competing for the Outrigger Canoe Club, not three individual crews. Everyone shared in the good and the bad, and they made it happen together. The following women are those that made the commitment:

The steering was handled by Kisi Haine, Vanessa Lowe, Kimmy Everett, and doing a great job with their first distance races were Carolyn Hall and Tisha Love.

The strokes leading the way were Nicole Wilcox, Mary Smolenski, Traci Phillips, Allison Guard, Jackie Muller, Genie Kincaid, Jennifer Thayer, Kendra Jenkins, and Possie Dudgeon.

Those women sitting in two seat making for a great transition from stroke were Donna Kahakui, Diana Clifford, Sara Ackerman, Ann Marie Mizuno, Na'u Kamalii, Stefanie Smart, Dawn Davenport, Prancer Muller, and Spanky Kinney.

The balance of the women paddled in the engine room of the canoe: Lisa Livingston, Pam Clifford, Starr Dawson, Tricia Nagatani, Norma Santiago, Erin Worsham, Susan Ireland, Shannon Dudgeon, Tracy Selling, Laura Williams, Jana Arakaki, and Heidi Friesse.

The sum of the 1996 season is defined by more than just the Molokai to Oahu Canoe Race. It is the pride all of the women above can have in their paddling accomplishments throughout the distance season. They are the best, holding records in three of the five races they entered, but most importantly I hope they had fun being a part of a very successful effort. I did! ☺

New Club Captain

Kalani Schrader has been named the new Club Captain for 1997. Kalani is a veteran waterman and has been actively involved as the head coach for Canoe Racing for the past two years.

Kalani is a graduate of Kailua High School and San Diego State College. He has been an active OCC member for six years.

In addition to canoe racing, he enjoys surfing and windsurfing.

Current Club Captain Ron Li says that previous Club Captains will continue to be involved with the effort. Li says he will continue to help with the volleyball program. ☺

Four OCC Members Elected to ODKF Board

Four members of the Outrigger have been elected to fill vacant positions on the Outrigger Duke Kahanamoku Foundation Board. They are Jeffrey Piper, Martin Schiller, Chatt Wright and Allan Dowsett.

Jeffrey Piper, an attorney, was educated at Stanford. Although born in Hawaii, he lived away for many years, returning in 1981, and recently married Shannon Dudgeon, also an OCC member.

Marty Schiller, advertising executive, has a degree in advertising from USC. Involved in many local boards and philanthropies, he is married to Janet Schiller, and has two adult children.

Chatt Wright, an educator, has degrees in economics from UC Davis and UH-Manoa. He is active with the Hawaii Visitors Bureau, St. Andrew's Priory and the Aloha Council Boy Scouts.

Allan Dowsett, member of a kamaaina family, has been an OCC member since 1965. He was educated at Punahou and graduated from USC in finance and marketing. He and his wife Sandy have two children. He is on the boards of Le Jardin Academy and the Punahou "O" Men. He is the nephew of Cline Mann who died in September.

Elected to the Board as a community representative is Patricia Roberti, whose husband is OCC member Mario Roberti. She is a past member of the State Board of Health, and presently on the Board of the Hawaii Family Stress Center and the Bishop Museum.

Reelected to the Board to serve additional three year terms are Jeanne Anderson and Robert Guild, also OCC members.

Other board members are Diane Stowell, Frances Mossman and Marilyn Kali.

Officers for the ODKF this year are President Gulab Watumull; Vice Presidents Ben Cassidy Jr. and Ruth Ann Becker; Secretary Stuart Ho, and Treasurer Earle M. Alexander III.

Watumull announced that this is the time to apply for ODKF scholarships, which are due in mid-March. Athletic grants for individuals and teams can be applied for anytime. Applications for both types of grants are available at the OCC Front Desk, or leave a message for the ODKF coordinator, Gerry DeBenedetti if you want additional information. ☐

New members of the ODKF Board of Directors are Allan Dowsett, Martin Schiller, Patricia Roberti, Jeffrey Piper and Chatt Wright

Lived in Omar's tent in Persepolis, with gorgeous women, jewelled and veiled (all seven) with their siamese cats, afghan hounds and obsequious eunuchs lolling on gold embroidered cushions, with dancing girls dressed in pearls and a hot gleam in their sultry eyes.

Camels knelt on it, loading sotted sated shieks and ambling off into the cool refreshing desert star light.

Oh what stories it could tell! Of a romantic stabbing, the blood* stains scarcely show - adds panache! Of being bombed and surviving in '41 while living on a golden beach in Kailua!

Its value? Incredible, priceless.

Its price? Not nearly enough, a mere piddling fifteen thousand. To see it? It now lives in a lovely for sale fee simple apartment on the Gold Coast but that is another story.

Dear Friends of the Outrigger Duke Kahanamoku Foundation:

As the 1996 Olympic year draws to a close, we are again asking you to remember the ODKF in your end of the year gift giving.

Thanks to our loyal donors, we were able to give $50,000 in athletic grants and scholarships this year. Of the seven Hawaii athletes who represented our state in the Olympics, six of them were either current or past recipients of Foundation grants.

In other words, you, through your donations to ODKF, helped directly to further Hawaii's contribution to International competition.

Most of our grants go to water related sports, which is a fitting tribute to Duke Kahanamoku. However, we have helped volleyball and soccer players, and this year for this first time, judo.

Any individual or team, of any age or any sport, is eligible to apply if they believe that financial support from the ODKF can enhance their ability and bring recognition to all the athletes of Hawaii.

Please give generously to a unique Foundation that believes in the health and well being of our citizens through sport.

The Board of Directors and I thank you for your generosity and support and for your Aloha.

Sincerely,

Gulab Watumull
President

Board Briefs

 Board Briefs is taken from the minutes of the Board of Directors meeting on September 26, 1996 and the Executive Committee meeting on October 10, 1996.

Treasurer's Report—The Finance Committee will review the Club's current investment policy and develop investment allocation guidelines. They are also gathering information on a 401(K) plan for the Club.

Secretary's Report—Eight members were suspended for 15 days due to failure to pay their accounts on time. One member was terminated due to their account being four times delinquent.

Manager's Report—The new executive secretary Debbie Stanley was introduced. . . As a result of an audit of the Club's worker's compensation policy, the Club has been assessed an additional $17,000 in premiums due to gratuities being included as wages. . . The Bar Renovation is on track. . . The Business Office computer system upgrade has been completed and the staff trained. . . Sign out policies have been put into place in the Locker Rooms to correct the towel loss problem. . . The Men's Locker Room will now open at 5 a.m. . . There has been an increase in usage of the Club by Australians and Canadians. . . It was requested that the Building Fund investment breakdown be included in the Financial Statements as the investments take place.

Athletic Report—Kalani Schrader was appointed Club Captain for 1997.

House Report—When reviewing clubs for reciprocity, the following points are considered. More international clubs are sought to accommodate members traveling from here to Asia/Europe, and secondly, domestic clubs are sought in locations that we have no reciprocity. . . The following wording was approved for locker rooms, "Children under the age of nine may use the senior locker rooms when accompanied by and under the supervision of an adult. Children between the ages of five and nine years, must be accompanied by an adult of the same sex using the locker room facility designated for that sex. Children nine years and older must use the junior locker rooms."

Entertainment Report—The Board complimented the committee on the success of the Luau and the wonderful work done by Timothy's Floral Gifts and the committee.

Admissions & Membership Report—The membership count was 4,315 as of August 31, 1996. ☐

Employee of the Month

Our Employee of the Month is lively and friendly Danielle Howe, who works on the Hau Terrace. She is "surprised and excited" about being chosen, and says the award will help her out with school tuition. She is attending KCC, taking English and Math.

Because she lives in the Diamond Head area, and tootles around between OCC and KCC, her transport of choice is a moped. Plus she wears shorts and OCC shirt to work, so it suits her fine. She says she used to run for exercise, but now she just runs around the Hau Terrace.

Coming to Oahu from Kauai two years ago, she has been with OCC one year. She was a survivor of Hurricane Iniki, and tells spooky stories about her kitty Oz, who warned her to get out of the house before the wind turned it over, just like Kansas! ☐
