Outrigger Luau

'Real Old Hawaiian Event'

By Laura Williams

The Outrigger Canoe Club's 88th annual Luau was a real old Hawaiian style event, complete with straw mats and pineapples on the tables, flowers everywhere, an imu on the Club beach, a great sunset and family style Hawaiian entertainment. More than 400 members attended the luau.

The event, planned by the Entertainment Committee, was chaired by Henry Ayau and Laura Williams. Henry selected the 500-pound pig and with his crew prepared the imu and cooked the pig to perfection. Mahalo to Henry for being the "luna" and with the help of Kaleinani Kowalski for being a terrific master of ceremonies.

Mahalo also to Auntie Amelia Bailey and Kaleinani Brown for their beautiful lei stands set up in the Lobby and to Timothy of Timothy's Florist Gifts and his design team for designing all the beautiful flower arrangements that decorated the Club.

The entertainment was so much fun. Mahalo to the Danny Lopes Duo who played during the imu opening, Paki Vaughan and Kamaki Worthington who entertained us with their ukuleles, beach boy style; Kanoe and Keith Cockett, Stew Kawakami and Chris Kamaka, Rodman Muller for his fire dance, Cathy Ostrem and the OCC Hula Halau, Eva Rochlen, Hiwa Vaughan, and Ho'okena.

Thanks also to Don Figueira and Liz Ventura and the rest of the staff for their hard work and dedication.

Last, but not least, mahalo to the Entertainment Committee who contributed their ideas, effort and tireless energy to make this 88th Luau a successful event. ☻

AS THE Terrace TURNS...

The Puder family—Dave, Margaret, Matt and Nainoa—traveled three continents to visit son, George, who is in the Peace Corps in Gabon, Africa. George's job is to construct primary schools and teacher housing in the small rural areas. His village is named Miassa which is 40 long minutes from Tchibanga on dirt roads and 10 hours from Lubiaville, the capitol.

Mike Michaelidis celebrates his new birthday "locks" at a luncheon at OCC hosted by his tennis gang.

Aileen Soule, second from left, wears a medal she won for setting a new world record in the 90-94 age group in the 50 Free (:55.76) at the Masters Long Course Championships. Gathering to celebrate with Aileen upon her return to the Club were June Meyers, Patricia Anderson and Gloria Keller.

Katherine Wildrick is rocked by mom in new koa rocking chair.

When the Puders arrived, they were warmly greeted by most of the village and saw first hand the work that has gone on in a year. The obstacles were overwhelming. The simplest task is an ordeal. But in spite of it all, they have completed three houses, a school and a small library, nine months ahead of schedule.

According to Margaret, the people were very sweet and awed by their visit. Nainoa, now 2, was passed around like a doll. He really enjoyed playing with the children and their very elaborate homemade balsa trucks.

Matt was stoked to be with his brother and hear all the details. Dave had a great time taking it all in and giving needed construction advice. Margaret says she was content to sit around, visit the houses and keep an eye on Nainoa.

After the visit, George joined them and they headed for a surf and turf adventure which included Zimbabwe, Botswana and South Africa. The boys bungee jumped at Victoria Falls, mom and sons paddled the Zambezi River and dad and boys rode the outback on horses.

The next leg of the trip took them to Rome and Paris, and then home. George's next assignment will take him to Ponga to build another school. This village is on the coast. Surf is good but plenty shacks.

"We are proud of our son as well as all his fellow volunteers. We cannot find words enough for how much we respect all of them and their efforts to serve others, their country and the world," Margaret said. . .

Natalie Steele married Georg Juenger onboard the Cherry Blossom Riverboat in Alexandria, Virginia on July 7. The two families met for the first time from opposite ends of the globe, traveling from Hawaii, California, Washington and Germany.

Natalie is training director for a restaurant in Washington, D.C. and Georg is a sound technician for a German television station in Georgetown. They will take their honeymoon in the Caribbean this month.

For a real treat before the holidays, order your tickets (OCC members get a $5 discount), make an early dinner reservation at the Club, watch the sunset, enjoy your dinner and then zip up to DHT to see Stephanie. Great evening guaranteed!

Mike Lyons hosted a luncheon for a dozen co-workers to celebrate his 35th anniversary with Bank of Hawaii and his 60th birthday. A great time was had by all and Mike says they certainly enjoyed the great hospitality of the OCC.

Meade Wildrick Jr. and wife, Lori, have welcomed a daughter, Katherine Berkeley to their family. The baby was born in Newport Beach on September 16 and weighed 8 pounds, 10 ounces and was 20 inches long.

If you thought Aileen Soule's life slowed down after she returned home from the Olympic Games in Atlanta, think again.

In mid-August, Aileen flew to Michigan to compete in the Master's Long Course competition. She swam in five events, winning gold in each of them. She swims in the 90-94 age group.

In October, Aileen was off again. This time, to New York City to attend the annual Women's Sports Foundation Banquet at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel.

She is an inspiration to one and all.

Hilary Lambert and Thomas Duryea were married August 17 at St. Pius X Church in Manoa. Hilary's bridesmaids were her two sisters, Kristin Bryant and Blaise Smith, and friends Daena Kiner and Sarah Spoehr Jenny. The flower girl was her niece Alana Bryant.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the Main Dining Room at OCC for 200 family and friends. The couple has moved to Coronado, California where Hilary's husband owns Island Surf Shop.

Mike and Joanne Wood celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary aboard the Regal Princess sailing the inside passage from Seward, Alaska to Vancouver, B.C. in August.

Auli'i Ellis, a senior at Santa Clara, was named to the all tournament team at the Utah State volleyball invitational. She had 44 kills and hit .307 in the team's three matches. She ranks number one on the team's kill chart and leads the WCC in dig averages at 3.8.

New 'Cline' Surfing Canoe Dedicated

Monsignor Charles Kekumano blesses the new four-man surfing canoe, Cline, which was named after the late Cline Mann on September 25. Cline, an OCC member for more than 50 years, a past president and Winged "O" member, passed away on September 16. Donations are being accepted by the Outrigger Duke Kahanamoku Foundation in Cline's memory. ☎

'Kaukahi' and Crew Go to France's Brest 96

By Tay Perry

Here is a brief history of our expedition to France with a small group of Hawaii paddlers and a fully restored, truly Hawaiian canoe.

Early last fall, surfboard shaper Ned McMahon was approached by a friend in France with a proposition. The idea involved participation in the Brest 96 Rendezvous. This event is, to date, the world's largest classic boat festival.

The question was, could Ned find someone who owned a Hawaiian canoe that could be used in the festival? The idea was to take a traditional koa canoe, preferably a sailing canoe, to France and enter it in the festival to give the Europeans a glimpse of Hawaii that they had never seen before.

The sequence of events went like this: Ned contacted well known local paddlers, Nappy Napoleon and Sam Rodrigues to see if they had the needed canoe, or if they knew who might have one.

Sam contacted me and asked if I had any suitable canoes. I hesitantly said yes, knowing the deplorable state of the canoes in my shop. I own two old 24 foot koa hulls that needed a great deal of work done on them if they were to go anywhere. With my busy schedule and my usual procrastination, I did not start work on the restoration until mid-December of 1995.

I knew that I would need a supply of koa to patch the hull and some large blocks to fashion the manu(s). I went to Kona to search for wood. I contacted several people and got a few leads.

My friend Peter Greenwell said that he had some fallen trees on his family's Kaloko Mauka property. At this point I appointed him a partner in the project. We then went up with chain saws and cut some chunks from the logs on the ground. Peter also had some of the lumber milled into two inch stock which would be perfect for the patching.

We shipped the wood to Oahu and I began the work. From this point on, I did nothing but concentrate on the restoration work. It took an average of 30 hours per week for 24 weeks of nights and weekends to complete the work.

The original name and the original builder of the canoe has long been forgotten. In view of this, I took it upon myself to find a name that would fit. I decided on the name Kaukahi because its simple translation means "outrigger canoe" and its other meaning stands for "singleness of purpose." Considering my obsession to complete it on time and finish it with the degree of quality I desired, "singleness of purpose" fits the description of condi-undertaking would have almost been impossible.

We had originally planned for eight of us to be our crew from Hawaii, but due to the lack of funding, only six of us were able to go.

Cindy, Sam Rodrigues and his daughter Nerissa and I arrived in Paris at 8 p.m. on July 10th and stayed just out of town for the night in preparation for the seven hour drive to Brest, on the Brittany coast, the following day.

Fortunately, when we arrived in Brest, Ned's friend, Gilles Romigou, adopted us and saw that we were properly housed (at no cost to us), took care of the details of getting the harbor and just outside of it. In addition to this there were another thousand tied up, moored or anchored in the immediate vicinity.

Most of these vessels were of traditional designs and were sailing vessels, although there were also many older power boats as well. Most of the boats and ships were from Europe.

There were also entries from exotic sounding places such as Martinique, Indonesia and Malaysia. There were even a Viking ship and a Greek galley there. All in all, there were 2,514 entries in the Brest 96 festival. There were only 5 entries from the U.S. of which we were one. Our entry from Hawaii was the one that was acknowledged to have traveled the farthest to participate.

Our daily activity was to go to the canoe, take it out for a paddling tour of the five basins of the Brest harbor to look at the other vessels and to let them see us. As we paddled along the crowded quays the people would clap and cheer us as we paddled by.

Sam had brought a lot of shell leis and other Hawaiian curios which we would throw into the crowd, much to their appreciation.

Our mast flew the U.S. flag, the Hawaii flag, the Outrigger Canoe Club burgee and the Hawaii Yacht Club burgee. The Hawaii flag with its Union Jack insignia caused many to ask us if we were from England or one of its former colonies.

Our canoe was noted in the published program as one of about 160 "Les Centennaires" (boats of 100 years of age or more).

Two days before the big journey to Douarnenez, Sam, Peter and I took our craft out to the Brest roadstead to test our previously untried sail and rigging. To our pleasant surprise everything worked as we had intended. We were ready for the big trip.

About 9:30 a.m. on Wednesday morning, July 17, the bulk of the fleet departed Brest for Douarnenez for Le Regate Brest-Douarnenez, a trip of some 35 miles. We had a shaky start tions very well.

The last possible

date to ship the boat was on May 30th to be in Brest by the first week in July. We completed the canoe and had it's blessing two days prior to shipping. We just made it to the dock at the last possible moment.

Outrigger member Cindy Mahoney was, from the start, heavily involved in the project. Her function was to be the publicity contact and the head of fund raising for our effort. In many ways this was the most difficult part of the venture.

We did have some very positive support from some good friends, individuals in the community and from the Outrigger Duke Kahanamoku Foundation. Without their help, the canoe out of customs, finding us a place to rig and a place to dock the Kaukahi. He also escorted us in the Grand Regatta from Brest to Douarnenez. He even spoke enough English so that we could communicate very well and use him as an interpreter.

Peter, Sam and I rigged the canoe, complete with mast and sail with about 200 curious spectators looking on. We were interviewed by a French TV network during our rigging and shown on the evening news throughout France that night.

The first thing to impress us upon our launching was the sheer abundance of boats and ships in the Brest harbor. At least a thousand boats and ships were underway in the

in that some of the crew were not ready for a timely departure.

As a result, we were late and were rushing out of the harbor right behind a large sailing vessel. The ship in front of us stopped suddenly and went into reverse. We were not able to stop in time and hit our front end on their transom and broke off the tip of the manu.

We were lucky, the damage was only minor compared to what it could have been. After that incident, things seemed to fall into place, we put up the sail and began on a broad reach to set for our first landmark, Pointe des Espagnols.

The wind held well as we progressed with the latter half of the fleet, easily keeping up with most of them. The wind held well for about 2 hours and then gradually stopped entirely. As the wind decreased, we started paddling and began to pass boats, one by one, until we were no longer in the latter half of the fleet.

We soon took down the sail completely and paddled for another 2 hours until we reached port. By the time we had arrived, we had passed about 80% of the boats. All in all, we sailed about 20 miles and paddled about 15. The weather was beautiful and sunny and the water temperature was about 65 degrees. The scenery along the way was extraordinary with the majestic gray bluffs with their many chateaus and the long white sandy beaches along the Brittany coast.

After four more days in Douarnenez, we unrigged the canoe and put it on a trailer for an unscheduled trip south to the surfing area of Pointe de la Torche.

At the request of our host Gilles, we re-rigged the Kaukahi so that we could be the first Hawaiian koa canoe, that we know of, to surf in France. (I understand that they have done canoe surfing with fiberglass canoes in Biarritz in France in recent years.) We had a good time in rather small waves, giving a thrill to many lucky French bathers who happened to hitch a ride with us. I would say that we made a few friends that day.

We then took the canoe to its temporary new home at Pont L Abbe, cleaned it up and prepared it for storage in a commercial warehouse until its next use or its return to Hawaii. We are not shipping it home at the present time due to the high cost of shipping and because we have plans for further European activities in the next few years.

The Kaukahi, under the care of our former host, Gilles Romigou was featured in a boat show in La Rochelle in September 1996 for one week. It will later possibly be shown in a museum in the Brittany area when it is not being used for one of our adventures.

Our future plans include a possible journey down a major European river in 1997 and we intend to participate in the World Expo to be held in Lisbon in 1998.

Currently I am beginning another major restoration project on a 24 foot koa canoe to possibly be mated with the Kaukahi in order to make a matched koa double hull sailing canoe. We hope to have this vessel on exhibition in Lisbon. To my knowledge, there are no such craft operating at this time.

We plan to continue Holo Kaukahi, Inc. as an educational non-profit corporation to further the interests of Hawaii and its people through

Backward Glances

By Paul Dolan, Historical Committee

1986—10 Years Ago

Club President: Roy C. Kesner

The 13th Annual Castle Swim got off to an early start on a rainy, cloudy day, November 30, 1986. Thirty-six swimmers participated and some went on to compete in a triathlon event.

Ian Emberson was first to finish for the third year in a row in :31:36 seconds. The course record is :29:17 set in 1979 by Jimmy Dean. First female in was Missy Mowat in :33:58 and she was third over all.

1976—20 Years Ago

Club President: Roy C. Kesner

The OCC Tennis Team entered in the 1977 City League matches finished a respectable second under co-captains Sparky Petre and Jane Affleck. Regular team players included Sydnee Arth, John Beaumont, Dennis Berg, Colin Chock, Don Fowler, Jon Haig, John Michalski, Barbara Norfleet, Bob Anderson, Dr. Niall Scully and Chuck Swanson.

1966—30 Years Ago

Club President: Thomas M. Arnott

As of October 1, 1966, memberships in the following classifications were closed until further notice—regular, intermediate and associate. Ergo, the cut-off point in these categories has been reached.

1956—40 Years Ago

Club President: H. Vincent Danford

On election evening, November 6, members and friends, Democrats and Republicans are invited to an Election Return Dinner. Come any hour after six—order what you like. Returns will be broadcast to those attending and a blackboard will be kept posted with returns (state of the art-1956). You can cheer or cry, depending on what side you favor. Please, though—make reservations. Oh yes—stay as long as you wish. ☺

Summer Volleyball Ends With Celebration

By Stevie Li

Summer beach volleyball ended with a festive celebration in honor of Daddy Haine. The four-person Calcutta on September 7-8 was a great success as more than 60 players participated.

Stein Metzger played liked his role model, "Daddy" Haine as he led his team to victory with precise passing, blocking and hitting skills. ☺

Reciprocal Club Review

By Valerie Davis

This is the second in a series of Reciprocal Club Reviews. This month we feature the Washington Athletic Club.

If you are heading to the Northwest you may want to stop by the Washington Athletic Club in downtown Seattle. This is a full service athletic and social club that was founded in 1926, and the most recent remodel in 1992 covered eight floors of the Clubhouse and the guest rooms.

Some of the amenities provided include two restaurants, snack bar, lobby sports bar with entertainment, and 18 private dining and meeting rooms. Athletic facilities include a swimming pool, racquetball, handball and squash courts, personal trainers using Nautilus, Universal, Life Circuit, Cybex and free weight equipment; and steam rooms, saunas, whirlpool and massage areas.

WAC has its own parking garage one block away from the Clubhouse, and valet parking is available at the Clubhouse site. Parking fees vary depending upon time of visit and facilities used.

WAC also has hotel accommodations—130 air conditioned rooms and suites all with private bath, color TV, free parking, room service and a full-service Concierge. Members room rates range from $81 ($94 for guests) in a standard single room, to $420 ($455 for guests) in a two bedroom suite. Add $8.00 for double occupancy - n/a in the suites. A barbershop and hair styling salon are also available.

Next time you head Seattle way be sure to take an introductory card with you and enjoy the hospitality of the WAC. Dress code is business/casual; sales and service charges are added to all bills; major credit cards and personal checks are accepted; and tipping is permitted.

For further Information you can check out the Club on the Internet since they now have their own Web page. Their Internet address is <http://www.wac.net>. You can also check with the OCC Front Desk for more details. ☺

Now two locations to serve you.

For your convenience you can make an appointment at either the Beretania / McCully location or the Kahala Mandarin

Oriental Hotel. Kamaaina rates - facials, hair, nail and body care.

Parking validated at the Kahala centre.

Advanced Abs with Rubber Bands

Overhead Pull Downs—Start

Overhead Pull Downs—Finish

Crunch and Fold—Start

Crunch and Fold—Finish

Side Crunches

The year is almost over and we haven't even talked about my favorite subject, the abdominal wall. The abdomen is essential for support of the back and stabilization of the hips.

In this November issue of Tips from the Trainer, I will introduce you to level two abdominal training by incorporating the use of rubber bands to intensify the moves. Combine this advanced 20 to 30 minute abdominal program with any medium to intense 45 minute workout and you will continually challenge your already solid foundation.

Let's Train!

Note: The program is written as a stand alone workout. If you are combining it with a 45 to 60 minute workout do the cool down at the end and a few Joint Isolations of the shoulder and hip to stay loose in between exercise segments.

Warm-up

Time: 12 minutes

For the first two to four minutes walk in place. Then step out and together, while moving your arms in reflection of your legs (look like a modified jumping jack) for a couple of minutes. Return to neutral stance, and do a complete round of joint isolations focusing on the hips, shoulders and neck.

Now go to your favorite cardio machine and spend a quick eight minutes on the tool. When you are finished walk around for 30 seconds to two minutes and drink water.

The Program Advanced Abs

Time: 10 to 15 minutes

Note: All three of these moves are executed with one long band looped around a steady weighted pole. Both ends of the cord should be even. Remember when pulling bands or lifting weights keep your wrist straight and follow the position set up since the information is based on injury prevention.

Lying Down Overhead Pull Downs

Position: Lie on the floor in the Neutral Strong Lying Position. Hold on to the bands at an even cord length with the palm of your hands facing the ceiling. Take a deep breath in. On the exhale of the breath, pull the cords down toward your thighs. Keep the elbows soft, but straight. Keep your chin up and do not move the spine off the floor. Repeat the arm movement on the exhale of the breath for two sets of 25.

The Crunch and Fold

Position: While lying on the floor, start with the knees and feet up in a Neutral Strong Starting Position. Feet should be flexed, hip width apart and parallel, knees bent and pulled in toward the chest. Note: Do not swing your legs! This is your starting and stopping position.

Your arms are in a bent parallel position with the palms of the hands facing each other. Inhale, and as you exhale, lift your shoulders and hips off the floor, while pulling your arms toward the sides of your body. Inhale and return to the starting position. Keep your chin up (tip: spot a place on the ceiling). Repeat this move two sets of 25.

Side Crunches

Position: Return to Neutral Strong Lying Position, with your arms in a bent parallel position, the palms of the hands facing each other. Feet are on the floor parallel and grounded with the hips down and still (i.e. do not rock from side to side when performing the move).

Inhale, and as you slowly exhale lift your shoulders off the floor and twist your body toward the opposite hip, keep your feet on the floor and your chin up away from the chest. Alternate from side to side. Do not rock and breathe with each crunch. Repeat this move two sets 30.

The Cool down

Time: 8 to 10 Minutes

Position: Return to Neutral Strong Lying Position, lift your hips up and bridge (see OCC Tips October 1996). Breathe and hold the move 15 to 30 seconds. Repeat three sets.

Standing in Neutral Strong Stance, do a complete round of joint isolations do each move four to eight times: Begin at the feet with heel lifts, and toe lifts. Then do shallow knee bends slowly with breathing deep knee bends. Inhale down and exhale up. Do a pelvic tilt with hips forward and back, side to side, then circle the hips one way and the other equal number of times in each direction. Roll shoulders forward and back, up and down, forward and back. Look down, look up, ear to shoulder, other side, look side to side. Take a deep breath and reach toward the sky, slowly bring your arms down, then slowly roll down and touch your toes, keep your knees bent.

Happy Training! ☺

Extra Innings

The OCC Softball Team enjoyed its most successful season in years, winning the regular season title with a 13-2 romp over the defending champion, Dream Team. In a special post-season tournament, which allowed every team one last chance to share the championship, OCC again faced the Dream Team.

In a defensive battle of silent bats, Dream Team defeated OCC, 3-1.

The OCC players and coaches are excited about extending their play to other leagues and tournaments. For years, OCC participated in the Hana Softball Tournament. Next year, OCC hopes to be there again.

Jim Cavanah was the 1996 OCC Most Valuable Player. Jim had his best year ever at the plate and at his shortstop position. Jim's name will be placed on the new MVP softball trophy honoring the play and contributions of OCC players from past years. Past winners include Scott Rolles (1995), Paki Vaughan (1994) and Bill Kilcoyne (1992-93). ☐

News From the Clubhouse

By Jim Gaddis

The Fifth Annual Stroke Play Tournament was played at the beautiful seaside Kaneohe Klipper Golf Course. The October 18 playing date was organized by Strat Whiting and offered afternoon tee times.

Twenty-eight OCC golfers enjoyed the day. Holes 13, 14, 15 and 16 offer breathtaking ocean views. You'll often see golfers hitting "sand shots" off the beach on 13 and 14. These holes are not kind to slicers.

The pond on #11 is a favorite target for large birds feasting on small baitfish and is a sight to see. Hole #1 is perhaps the longest par 4 in the state considering most days you are driving into a blistering trade wind.

Scores and highlights for this tournament will be posted in next month's issue of the Outrigger.

Results of the 1996 OCC Match-Play tournament are not available yet but a champion will be crowned in both the men's and women's division this month. ☐

23rd Annual Castle Swim on December 1st

By Arnold Lum

If you were put off, intimidated or otherwise disgusted by the strong current during this year's Labor Day Roughwater Swim, the Club's annual Castle Swim, for Club members, which will be held on Sunday, December 1st, is in the opposite direction.

Here's the scoop: We'll register swimmers on the Hau Terrace at 8 a.m. Sunday morning, and transport them to the beach start, in front of the Outrigger Hotel. If you want to invite a family member or friend to escort you, that person should plan on arriving at the starting point by 8:30 a.m.

The swim is approximately one and one half miles long, back to the Hau Terrace. Swimmers and their escorts are invited to join us for a complimentary brunch after the swim. A sign up sheet and course maps will be at the front desk in November. ☐

Relax on our New Hawaiian Style Punee'

Board Briefs

Board Briefs is taken from the minutes of the Board of Directors meeting of Thursday, August 29, 1996. The Executive Committee meeting on September 12 was canceled.

Treasurer's Report—The Board approved Finance Committee recommendations to invest $150,000 of the Capital Improvement Funds in U.S. Treasury Notes or Hawaii General Obligation Municipal Bonds with a maturity of two years and to invest $500,000 of Building Fund monies in U.S. Treasury Notes or Hawaii General Obligation Bonds with a maturity of no longer than 2005.

Secretary's Report—Twelve members were suspended for 15 days for not paying their accounts on time. Three members were terminated for being four times delinquent.

Manager's Report—July sales were down. Our Reciprocal, Guest and Nonresident usage was down by 20%. . . The House Committee will be asked to look into the benefits of a computerized time management system.

Building & Grounds Report—Bids are being taken to cover and repair the jagged beach stairs. . . The concrete floor problems in the Main Dining Room are apparently caused by the cement not curing properly. A meeting will be held with the contractor. . . There is a problem with lines and drains beneath the steps that lead from the Hau Terrace to the Bar and in the Men's Employees Locker Room. Proposals will be obtained to do a complete survey of the infrastructure, including the seawall. . . The legal requirement for parking spaces for the Club is 212, which is the exact number the Club has. ADA requires seven stalls for handicapped parking, but cannot require the Club to accommodate seven stalls if it reduces the number of total stalls below the minimum requirement. We currently have two handicapped parking stalls. Two more will be added on the street level closest to the exit/Clubhouse. It was also suggested that the House Committee consider and make recommendations regarding further parking assistance for senior members. The Long Range Planning Committee will be asked to consider and possibly incorporate demographics of membership and its effect on the long range plan. . . Bids and proposals have been received for a new awning for the Snack Shop. . . Concern was expressed about the appearance and state of cleanliness of the Dining Room, restrooms, Snack Shop and foliage in driveway/walkway. It was noted that these concerns address the issue of paying attention to the details and developing a detailed preventative maintenance program/schedule for the facilities.

ance program/schedule for the facilities.

House Report—The committee was asked to look into the management and performance of the Logo Shop. . . The Union League Club of Chicago was approved as a reciprocal club. . . The Board has asked the committee to develop and revise the actual language for the policy relating to use of the Men's and Women's Locker Rooms by children ages 5-17.

Long Range Planning Report—The final long range plan will be ready for the November Board meeting.

Admissions & Membership Report—The membership count was 4,288 as of July 31, 1996. . . Action on transfers were deferred per Section 41 of the Bylaws.

Employee Christmas Gift—The membership contribution for the Annual Employee Christmas Gift will be $30. For those in the membership categories Life, Honorary, Intermediate and Senior the amount will be $15.

Budget Committee—The President appointed the members of the Executive Committee and invited Wendell Brooks, Joyce Timpson and Hal Henderson to join the Budget Committee. ☺

Employee of the Month

By Gerry DeBenedetti

One of the dearest employees at our Club is Chung Yi Fong, Employee of the Month.

Modest to the point of non-communication, we could barely get him to tell us about his 13 year career at OCC. Once upon a time fry cook, Fong has been recently promoted to the saute cook, and has the praises of Chef Pirscher and sous chef Kelley Heldt.

They describe him as consistent, industrious, efficient, flexible, versatile, fast learner and nice guy. With two bosses talking about you like that. . . Employee of the Month!

When you order Mahimahi, or some of the dinner specials, Fong will be the "cook on the line" doing the saute for you.

Fong lives in Chinatown with his wife, and two children: a son 17 at UH, and a daughter 13 at Kawanakaoa. ☺

Attention All 14 and Under Volleyball Stars

The Outrigger is forming an age group volleyball team for all Jr. Riggers ages 14 and under. A 12 and younger team will also be considered if the sign up warrants.

Practice and the first team meeting for the 1997 season (January thru June) will be held on Tuesday, November 12, at 6:30 p.m. at La Pietra School for Girls. Come ready to play.

A preliminary sign-up sheet is available at the Front Desk. Be a part of the new program and sign up early.

Call Jaren Hancock, Kisi Haine and/or Mark Rigg with questions. ☺
