OCC Photo Contest Winners

By Terri Priest

On the following pages enjoy the spectacular moments captured by our amateur photographers, who placed in one of four categories for our 13th Annual OCC Photo Contest.

Our cover this month features the selected overall winner of the contest, "Sandman" submitted by Jan Newhart of her son, Twain. This is a superimposed photograph, using two negatives, one placed on top of the other.

Unknown to the judges, Jan's entries were also chosen in two other categories, People, for "Ilima Kid" which won first place, and Places for "Along the Yangtze", second place.

I'm sure you will agree she truly captured the feeling in each composition submitted.

Our judges were Tom Haar and Sue Stagner. Tom's professional experience as a freelance documentary photographer dates back to 1971. He has received many awards and grant recognition in individual photography exhibits, documentary films and media production throughout the world, specifically the Orient. He has lectured and taught at the University of Hawaii and Kapiolani Community College. Some of you might know his father, Francis Harr, who is working on a two-volume book on "Artists in Hawaii."

Sue Stagner's collection of work in oils, acrylics and her famous watercolors can be found along the Honolulu Zoo fence. The subjects of her paintings are quite diverse—landscapes, seascapes, homes, portraits and florals. While painting is her passion, when teaching, she brings a vitality to her students by encouraging, inspiring and instructing the unique artist in everyone.

Congratulations to the winners and thank you for those who took the time to enter. Look for the display of photographs in the display case in the Lobby the first week of January.

Those who were not winners may pick up their photos at the Executive Office. ☺

As the Terrace Turns

Chris Duplanty, a former ODKF recipient was able to take his last break from training for the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta to come home. He will be the starting goalie and the team captain in Atlanta for the water polo team.

It was also his 30th birthday. He celebrated it by sky diving with Rowdy Gaines, Hawaii resident and gold medalist in swimming in the 1980 Olympics and commentator in the 1996 Olympics.

He also celebrated with a birthday party at the Club for people who have supported him throughout his 30 years. Club members, Bob and Gail Kashare, John Nielsen, Jed Gaines, Tom and Leslie Giles and Cline Mann were among the invitees, as well as his mom, Gretchen Duplanty, and classmates and local friends.

Liz and the Outrigger staff did a wonderful job with special pupus selected by Chris and Liz.

Chris said after the event, "it was a perfect birthday party, just what I wanted."

While he was in town, Chris gave motivational speeches at various schools to encourage athletes to "reach for the goal."

Contributions to this column are always welcome. Leave items for the Editor at the Front Desk. Be sure to include your name and phone number in case additional information is needed. ☐

Enjoying a week of fishing in Fiji were, front, Buddy McGuire, Fred Gartley, Jimmy Ashford, Tink Ashford and Gil Livingston. Back, Bonnie Martin, Ern Gartley, Nancy Ashford, Bev Ashford and Mary Lou Livingston.

An OCC delegation was on hand in Aspen, Colorado in August to dedicate the Monte Goldman Memorial Bench. The bench was donated by many of Monte's Aspen friends and was organized by Jack Stanford. Attending the dedication were Carole Goldman, Suzie and Ben Cassidy, Pam and Jack Stanford.

Trekking in Nepal in October were Jim Haynes, Frank and Kitty Damon, Stephanie Marrack, Priscilla and Jim Grownney, John Marrack, Julie Marrack, Michael Haig and Honeybun Haynes.

Bob Kashare congratulates Chris Duplanty on his 30th birthday.

Olympian Chris Duplanty has a bug for his mom, Gretchen. He competed in Seoul and Barcelona and will captain the 1996 U.S. Water Polo team.

Holiday Fashion Show Draws 200

By Gloria Keller
Entertainment Committee

The Holiday Pret-A-Porter Fashion Show on November 16 was a smashing success. The event was attended by more than 200 Club members and their guests; an equal number of men and women. They enjoyed an evening filled with delicious food created by our new Chef Manfred Pirscher and the latest in holiday fashions for men and women. Yes, male models joined our beautiful female models to walk the runway to the cheers and applause of the crowd. It was a "happening" at our Club. What better way to begin the holiday season. ☺

International Buffets Start in January

Outrigger's new Chef Manfred Pirscher has planned a year-long series of International Buffets to be held on the first Friday of every month beginning in January, replacing the Seafood Buffet.

"When we offered international nights several summers ago, we had a wonderful response," said Food and Beverage Manager Don Figueira. "So we thought we'd try it again. It will give our new chef an opportunity to showcase a variety of special menus during the year."

The International Buffet will be available in the Main Dining Room and Hau Terrace (with the acceptable dress code). The buffet will include soup, salad bar, hors d'oeuvres, entrees, carving station and desserts. The cost will be $19.95 per person. ☺

OCC Goes Hollywood

By Christian Peterson

"Is it really Tom Selleck and James MacArthur, and Jack Lord we are seeing? Can't really be Marilyn Monroe, must be a look-alike but it sure looks like Vanna White over there."

Yes, the Outrigger Canoe Club will be filled with stars on Saturday, March 9. Save the evening, this will be BIG! Some lucky ladies will get Max Factor make-ups, other lucky people will have their fortunes told, hand-writing analyzed or learn if their names have the right karma.

Food will be favorites of the Hollywood stars, there will be entertainment, and all this and more at a bargain price. Register early. It's sure to be a sell out. ☺

ANNUAL REPORT

October 1, 1994 - September 30, 1995

President's Message

I am pleased to submit this report for the fiscal year which ended on September 30, 1995.

The following is a summary of the state of the Foundation during the past fiscal year, compared with results for the previous fiscal year:

	FY 1994-95	FY 1993-94
Fund Balance	$761,636	$585,872
Contributions	$151,432	$103,661
Distributions:
Scholarships	$ 12,000	$ 12,000
Athletic grants	$ 23,500	$ 20,500

A substantial gift to the Foundation's endowment funds by Muriel Flanders accounted for a large part of the 30% increase in our fund balance.

We expect, as a result of this and other gifts, to experience both a rise in investment income and an increase in distributions for scholarship and athletic grants in fiscal year 1995-96.

The purpose of the Foundation is the support of sports and the athletes who compete, with a preference for those participating in water sports.

This permits us to both honor and associate ourselves with the late Duke P. Kahanamoku, who was not only the greatest water sport athlete of all time, but whose dignity, conduct and athletic achievement continue to set a high standard for water sport athletes in Hawai'i and around the world.

During the fiscal year, the Foundation awarded 13 academic scholarships, 11 athletic grants and 10 grants to teams.

In addition, the Foundation also supported Robyn Johl's determined efforts to bring rowing to Honolulu, which resulted in the first international rowing competition witnessed in Hawai'i in December 1994, on the Ala Wai Canal. A second rowing regatta will be held on the Canal on January 3, 1996.

As a result of the generosity of the family and friends of the late Tom Haine, an endowment was established within the Foundation, the income from which is to be used to support volleyball competition.

Tom participated in Foundation work and was a member of the Outrigger Foundation Board of Directors at the time of its consolidation in 1986 with the Duke Kahanamoku Foundation. The first distributions from this fund were made during the fiscal year.

In addition to creating the Flanders and the Haine endowment funds, the Foundation also established an endowment fund to receive and hold gifts from Mrs. Terrence McCarthy of Menlo Park, California, who has been a generous patroness.

These three endowment funds will be separately accounted for but will be commingled with other endowment funds for purposes of investment.

Contributors who give $1,000 or more in a year are welcomed to our Gold Medalist group of supporters, who we honor each year.

This year we welcomed donations from 24 Gold Medalists.

Other fund raising came from a band of loyal supporters who sold T-shirts at the Walter J. Macfarlane canoe regatta, raising $12,703 from this single event.

The Outrigger Canoe Club instituted a 96-cents-per-month-for-one-year dues check off campaign to support the Foundation's Olympic hopefuls program to support Hawai'i's athletes competing for berths on U.S. Olympic teams. Through October 1995, the program has raised nearly $10,000 from Outrigger members.

Finally, during the fiscal year, the Foundation instituted an action in the U.S. District Court in Hawai'i against Charlie O. Carr over the Foundation's right to register certain trademarks in the U.S. patent and trade office.

My term as President ended with the close of the fiscal year. My board colleagues have wisely recycled Bill Morris, who takes another turn as president.

I wish to thank the Board for their strong support; OCC President Wendell Brooks and his representative to our board, Tim Guard, for their useful counsel and help; the Foundation staff, headed by Gerry DeBenedetti, for their good humor and hard work; and Gordon Smith who has kindly kept our books as well as he has kept the Outrigger's.

I would also like to thank those who have supported our work with their contributions and good wishes. All of you have made the year pass quickly.

Aloha and Mahalo,

Stuart T. K. Ho

Ala Wai Canal Brings New Challenges

This year the ODKF assisted two team sports that utilize our backyard waterway--the Ala Wai Canal. Together with the Waikiki Improvement Association, the Foundation hopes that the attention these sports bring to the Ala Wai will result in a cleanup that will bring cleaner and clearer water for all our athletes who train on the Ala Wai.

The Royal Hawaiian Rowing Challenge and the Hawaii Canoe and Kayak Team both received grants for events open to the public, attracting both local and international competitors, thereby giving our Hawaii athletes an extra challenge.

Held for the first time in December 1994, the second RHRC is scheduled for January 3-7, 1996. Rowing teams from Harvard, Yale, Stanford, Kyoto and Princeton, among others will be here in late December to train and enjoy the holidays. A January 5 Golf Tournament is also scheduled with the elite crews and local teams invited to join in the open to the public event.

The Hawaii Canoe and Kayak Team received their grant to hold a "knockout" event on the Ala Wai in October 1995. Open to all comers, events were staged for both one-person canoe and kayaks in several racing classes. Part of the HCKT effort is to recruit new junior paddlers and assist them with the many mainland competitions now available.

This year the HCKT was the national winner at the U.S. Sprint National Championships held in Seattle in August, 1995. They won the event with 277 points, placing just ahead of Newport Aquatic Center (276) and Seattle Canoe Club (242). Several of the HCKT members qualified for the National A and B teams.

Every kayaker supported by the ODKF qualified for the US Olympic Trials scheduled for March 1996 in San Diego.

The Foundation has assisted several participants either now or in the past: Peter Newton, Traci Phillips, Tara Beyer, Mahealani Lum, Wyatt Jones, Brian Rocheleau, Chuck Watanabe, Kathy Colin, Jim Farnum, Jason Hokaj and David Buck. Remember, these paddlers all got their start with the HCKT, and several of them have gone on to the Olympics with the help of the donors of the ODKF.

ODKF Olympians Say Thank You to OCC

In August, a letter from the Outrigger Duke Kahanamoku Foundation went out to 2,700 OCC members. OCC members were asked to think ahead to the 1996 Olympics and give 96 cents a month for the next year to help the potential Hawaii ODKF grantees who are training for the Olympics.

Pledges continue to come in, but after a three month collection period, the fund has reached $10,000. This is a wonderful display of generous support from donors who were as young as 13, and eager to be philanthropists helping their friends get to the Olympics. It also helped to receive one donation of $1,000.

The Foundation wants to thank those who pledged. Donors received a "gold" coin with Duke's likeness that was cast in 1990 on the occasion of his 100th birthday observance. If for any reason you were a donor and did not receive your coin, please contact the Foundation.

Our three donors, who received $3,333 each are:

John Myrdal, of Kaneohe Yacht Club, a laser sailor. John was in Toronto when notified of his award, training with a member of the Canadian laser team. In November he will train in Hawaii, and then go to Miami for the last international regatta before the Olympic trials in May in Savannah.

There will be one American sailor chosen to represent the U.S. at that time. John is currently number one in the U.S. standings. A laser is a 14 foot one person sailboat that is sailed throughout the world. This is the first year it will be an Olympic class event.

Sam Kerner, of Waikiki Yacht Club, a Finn sailor. Sam was training in Savannah when we notified him. He says he "just about fell out of my boat", a 15 foot Finn which is the largest single handed boat sailed. Finn is a class only found in the Olympics, it is not in general use recreationally. Sam is also number one in the U.S. rankings.

He next travels to Italy for some training and competition, then to Miami for a clinic, and in April he will be back in Savannah for the Olympic Trials. He was frank to admit when he returns from Italy he will be financially depleted, and believes ODKF is "fantastic."

Traci Phillips, of Outrigger Canoe Club, a two-time Olympic kayaker. She competed in Seoul, Korea and Barcelona, Spain in the last two Olympic Games. Traci is the number one ranked female kayaker in the U.S., and has spent the summer "resting" in Hawaii while competing in canoe paddling races such as the Dad Center, Liliuokalani races in Kona, Catalina in California and the Molokai Na Wahine O Ke Kai.

Now she has to "get serious" and begin final Olympic training by going to San Diego where she must qualify and make the kayaking team. Unlike John and Sam who will be the only one to represent the U.S., kayakers have a team, and participate in singles, doubles and four person races. When asked what she thought of her $3,333, Traci replied "Awesome!"

And ODKF wants to thank the following "Awesome!" donors for making their contributions to these three Hawaii residents:

Again, mahalo from ODKF and the Hawaii Olympians to:

ODKF Annual Mahalo Luncheon

On June 14, the annual Outrigger Duke Kahanamoku Foundation luncheon honoring the 1994 volunteers, all Gold Medalists, and the new 1995 athletic and scholarship grantees was held. Awards and introductions were made by President Stuart Ho, and Vice Presidents Jeanne Anderson and Gulab Watumull.

Honored guests were Muriel and Walter Flanders. Mrs. Flanders has long been a mentor to the ODKF, and made a generous donation of $32,000 at the luncheon to President Stuart Ho. Her total giving to the Muriel Macfarlane Flanders Endowment Fund of the Foundation is now $100,000. The Foundation will be able to make significant grants from this endowment fund, in honor and memory of Duke Kahanamoku from the Macfarlane family.

Marilyn Haine, another honoree, spoke to the gathering about the volleyball honors that have come to the Haine family in memory of Tom Haine, who died in September 1994. Donations continue to come to the Tom "Daddy" Haine Fund from friends and volleyball enthusiasts.

Gold Medal awards were presented to John and Louise Stevenson, Dean Eyre, Bank of Hawaii represented by Pauline Warsham, John and Marilyn Goss, Dolores Martin represented by her son Watters O.

President Stuart Ho, Muriel and Walter Flanders

Martin Jr., Fern Pietsch, Clint and Mimi Basler, and Hunter and Rita Parker.

Gold Medalists are donors to the Foundation who have given gifts of $1,000 or more. Each Gold Medalist was asked to stand to be recognized and awarded a lucite cube enclosing a "gold medal" featuring Duke Kahanamoku's likeness.

Among the speakers was Wendell Brooks, Jr., OCC President. He described the Foundation as a significant program, helping competitors in a variety of water and non-traditional sports.

"The Outrigger Canoe Club is proud to be associated with the ODKF and wants to thank their Board and other volunteers that give of their time," he said.

Front, Brandy Mamizuka, Mabealani Lum, Punua Souza, Kim Adler, Meghan Atwood, Kalani Robb, Robyn Jobl. Back, Paul Tan, Carl Larsen, Douglass Cole.

Volunteers to ODKF help in a variety of ways: through book sales which provide royalties to the Foundation, T-shirt sales at the 4th of July Macfarlane Regatta in Waikiki, by assisting with mass mailings, and many volunteers are also donors, making regular monthly pledges to the Foundation.

Financial Statement

Our total fund balance as of September 30, 1995 is $761,636.

Income to the Foundation comes from the donations of the Gold Medalists (those who give $1,000 or more), as well as loyal donors who pledge a specific amount each month, and those who make an end of the year contribution.

This year our fund raisers were the sale of T-shirts at the annual 4th of July Macfarlane Regatta in Waikiki, and a special Olympic Fund raiser in which Outrigger Canoe Club members were asked to contribute 96 cents a month for one year until the 1996 Olympics.

Scholarships for the year totaled $12,000.

Athletic Grants for the year totaled $23,500.

Some funds are donated for a specific sport, and we encourage anyone who particularly wants to take advantage of the tax savings of supporting your favorite sport to investigate this gift giving option.

Donations are also accepted in memoriam.

If you desire additional financial information, ask any member of the Board of Directors who will be glad to assist you and provide you with more information to bring you into the ODKF family.

History of an Unique Foundation

The Outrigger Canoe Club is headquarters of one of the nation's most unique and special philanthropic institutions: The Outrigger Duke Kahanamoku Foundation.

The ODKF is the successor organization of two other foundations. The Duke Kahanamoku Foundation was founded in 1963, during the latter years of Duke's life. A group of his friends sought to honor his many contributions to the Hawaiian Islands by establishing a vehicle for awarding scholarships to deserving students who demonstrated proficiency in sports of traditional interest to the islands.

In 1980, The Outrigger Canoe Club Foundation was created to formalize a program of grants for participants in sports. Representatives of the two foundations met in 1986 to explore means by which both could do a more effective job of fulfilling their respective missions.

The result was a merger, and the creation of the ODKF.

There is no other organization that supports Hawaii scholar-athletes in the manner we do. Our objective is to help aspiring athletes, in the hope they may someday emulate Duke Kahanamoku's remarkable accomplishments.

Endowment Funds Established

This year the ODKF Board established three endowment funds in the name of three donors whose contributions to Hawaii's athletes and scholars by gifts to the Outrigger Duke Kahanamoku Foundation deserve special recognition.

The Muriel Macfarlane Flanders Fund was established by Muriel Flanders because she is interested in supporting water sports, perpetuating the Macfarlane Regatta, and honoring the activities and accomplishments of Duke Kahanamoku.

The Terrence McCarthy Fund was established by Terrence McCarthy in the memory of her husband Edmond McCarthy. The late Mr. McCarthy was a firm believer in the combination of athletic participation and education and Mrs. McCarthy is interested in supporting our athlete-scholars in his memory.

In recognition of the donations made to the Outrigger Duke Kahanamoku Foundation in the memory of Tom Haine, we created an endowment fund in cooperation with the Haine family to be known as the Tom "Daddy" Haine Fund. These funds are to be spent in support, development and grants for the sport of volleyball.

All three endowment funds will be pooled for investment with other funds of the Foundation and will periodically be credited with a proportionate share of the returns on the pooled investment.

The Board of Directors intends to make distributions to deserving athletes, athlete-scholars and athletic events from the returns on the endowment funds. The distributions will be made in the name of the fund and both the fund donor and the grantee of the funds will be notified of the distinction.

We thank these individuals and families for their kindness and generosity, sometimes during a period of great sadness. Whenever possible, we encourage individuals and families to consider becoming major benefactors of the ODKF in this manner. Here is a dramatic, tangible way to honor your family name, or establish a living remembrance for a loved one.

These funds are kept separate from the general operating funds of the Foundation, and only the interest is used from each fund, enabling the principal to continue to provide annual gifts in the name of the endowment fund.

For more information contact any Officer of the Board or the Coordinator.

Chris Moore Wins Castle Swim (Again)

For the fourth straight year, Chris Moore won the 22nd Annual Castle Swim on November 26, two minutes ahead of his closest rival, Ted Sheppard. Chris' winning time was 38 minutes and seven seconds, with Ted finishing in 40 minutes and 18 seconds.

Twenty-eight OCC members entered the event—the largest in recent years.

The top women's finishers were Hilary Lambert 45:42 and Dawn Davenport, 46:09.

It was one of the roughest Castle Swim's on record with choppy seas, overcast skies and strong currents. The race started in front of the Outrigger Hotel, site of the original OCC, and finished at the Club stairs.

The toughest part of the race was the Kapua Channel coming into the Club beach. The participants were swimming against the current and many were pulled onto the reef (thank goodness it was high tide) before reaching the stairs.

Everybody finished and was treated to the Sunday Brunch. Following brunch, Swimming Committee chair Arnold Lum presented awards to the top finisher in each age division.

Gerry DeBenedetti, the only person to swim in every one of the Castle Swims, presented mileage awards to Club swimmers. This year's awards went to Hilary Lambert, 500 miles; and Vicki Reisner, 100 miles.

The event is put on by the Swimming Committee every year on the Sunday after Thanksgiving.

Thanks to Peg Danford and Gay Austin for timing the race, Don Isaacs for setting the buoys, and all the escorts who assisted their swimmers. Those swimmers without escorts had a hard time seeing the buoys and staying on course because of the choppy seas. ☉

Roger Cundall, right, won the 50-54 division, with Uli Klinke, second.

Keoni Kino and Chris Worrall finished 1-2 in the 35-39 division.

Finishing first for the women was Hilary Lambert, center, with girls division winners Crystal Thornburg and Kim Cundall.

TIPS

from the Trainer

Start Off 1996 Strong Weight Training Part 1

By Sherry Gannaway, Founder
Body By You! ©

Happy New Year! Step into 1996 strong and solid. This month's issue of tips will cover Part I of a two-part weightlifting program, for building solid bones and strong muscles.

If left up to our bodies, shortly after the ripe old age of 25, we begin to gain fat and lose muscle mass, strength, flexibility and aerobic capacity. By the age of 35 the uneducated exercise person and the completely inactive person end up in a pool of joint dysfunction and muscle imbalances. There is hope through eating a balanced diet, developing healthy habits and exercising. Education is the key.

It is very important to learn proper ergonomics for your body and the machine.

Weightlifting Guidelines:

Always stand, sit or move in Neutral Spine Position.

Power Breathe exhale when you lift and squeeze your abdomen.

Always follow the Natural Range of Motion of the working joint.

After all moderate to stressful workouts, ice joints for 5 to 10 minutes for pain and inflammation management.

Let's get to the gym: Total running time 75 minutes

Start with a good 15 to 30 minute warm-up on the treadmill. While walking or jogging on the treadmill, I recommend you have a 3 to 5% incline grade and work up to 7 to 9% incline. It is better for the lower back to be on the incline.

Always walk or jog in neutral—feet hip width and parallel, knees slightly bent, abdomen pulled in and chest up. When finished with the treadmill, take a moment and walk around the room, drink water, stretch your walking/jogging muscles and do a few pelvic tilts, shoulder rolls and neck isolations.

First machine Pull downs for the Latissimus dorsi (large outside muscle of the back). Position: Sit in Neutral Strong Position and make the adjustments needed to fit the machine and set your weight. If you are not sure how or where to start, ask the trainer on staff to assist you.

After you have chosen your grip bar and settled into your neutral spine position, take a deep breath and as you exhale, pull the bar down in front of your body, no further than chest level. Do not bend your wrist. Repeat this full range of motion with breathing and your abdomen fully engaged, for 4 sets of 12 repetitions. Depending on your starting strength level, raise the weights one plate per set.

Second machine Quadriceps extensions for the Quadriceps (large 4 part muscle that forms the front of our thighs).

Position: Sit in Neutral with the lower pad on the front of your shin a little closer to your ankle. After the necessary adjustments and setting your starting weight, take a deep breath and as you exhale, extend your feet away from your body while lifting the weight. Repeat this motion 4 sets of 12 repetition. Raise the weight one plate per set.

Third machine Hamstring curls for the Hamstring (large muscle group on the back of your thigh).

Position: Sit in Neutral with the lower pad on the back of your lower leg, a little closer to your ankle. After the necessary adjustments and setting your starting weight, take a deep breath and as you exhale, curl your feet toward your body. Repeat this motion 4 sets of 12 repetition. Raise the weight one plate per set.

Fourth machine Calf raises for the gastrocnemius and soleus (muscles that form the back of the lower leg).

Position: Sit in Neutral, place your feet on the stool just past the ball of your foot to ensure a firm press. Begin. Take a deep breath in, and as you exhale, lift your heels up then repeat this range as aligned as possible. Pay special attention to supporting your back and keeping your chest lifted. Do 4 sets of 10 repetitions with 5 pound plate increases per set.

For the Cool-down, go through a complete round of Joint Isolations from feet to head. Then go to the floor and do a round of lower, upper and side abdominals. I would recommend one set of 25 to 30 in each position.

Return to neutral — knees up, feet flat and spine aligned. Slowly bring one knee toward your chest, breathe, and take that same leg across your body. Look over the opposite shoulder and breathe. Return to neutral and repeat other leg. Hold your stretch for 45 to 90 seconds each side. Slowly roll to one side and stand up. Return to Neutral strong stance and take 3 deep power breaths.

Part 2 of our easy-to-manage in the gym routine will include exercises for chest, upper and middle back, shoulders and arms. For best results, do each program every other day. Example: Part 1 on Monday, Wednesday and Friday and Part 2 on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Note: After you get familiar with the program and proper use of equipment, you will find your own body alignment for safety. You will also find your time in the gym will become more effective with less chance of injury. It is completely worth the investment of time to learn proper use of the equipment and sound form. Happy Training!! ☺

Current Patterns Off the Outrigger

By Arnold Lum

One of the interesting aspects of the Mamala Bay Study, commissioned by the City and County of Honolulu as a result of the Sand Island sewage treatment plant lawsuit, is an analysis of the current patterns near the Club.

As you can see, the attached figures (reprinted from the draft study report, which was published earlier this year) indicate that during both tradewind and Kona weather, the current off Waikiki trends towards Diamond Head.

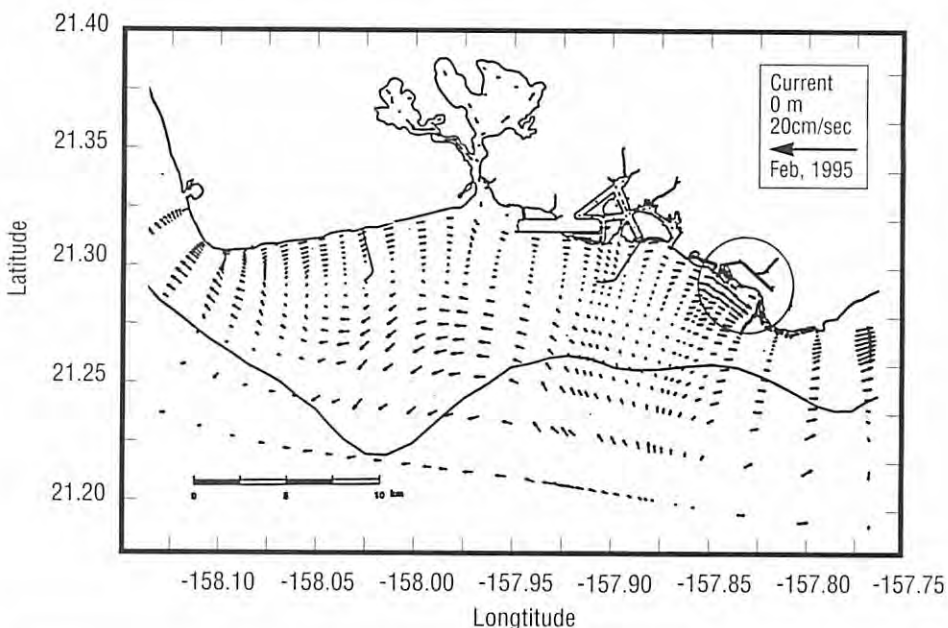

However, east of the Club, toward Tongg, the current trends towards Ewa when the trades are blowing, and towards Diamond Head during Kona weather conditions.

We've probably all noticed it's harder to paddle from the cliffs off Diamond Head back to the Club when the wind is out of the south, and that even when the trades are light during the Waikiki Roughwater Swim, the current still seems to set against us as we swim towards the Hilton.

The results of the Mamala Bay study appear to confirm what many of us think is happening in the ocean, based upon experience. ☺

Extra Innings

In a close vote for MVP honors, Scott Rolles edged Jon Whittington as Player of the Year for the OCC Softball Team. In his first full year of play, Scott displayed his talents in every aspect of the game.

Spectacular catches in the outfield were part of Scott's intense game. Nearly all of his catches were made at critical times which made them even more incredible. It's safe to say Scott saved a few games for OCC not to mention countless runs for the opposition.

The team could always count on Scott to fill gaps in the infield if needed. He played fearlessly at third, knocking down any ball that came his way. His rocket aim is a sight to see.

Scott led the OCC Softball Team in runs scored and cracked a crucial home run in one game. He is one of the fastest players on the team.

Scott is anxious to continue his hard work and dedication to OCC softball in 1996.

His name will be added to the new beautiful koa trophy which will display the names of the past 20 OCC softball MVP's. Congratulations Scott! ☺

News From the Clubhouse

The OCC Golfers Annual Meeting will be held on Wednesday, January 24. Plans for the new year will be discussed, new officers elected and 1995 awards presented. The meeting and dinner will be held at the Club.

Your choice of mahimahi or prime rib will be offered. Sign up as soon as possible in the Golf Folder which can be found at the Front Desk.

President Joie Gopez is busy arranging the 1996 schedule of golf events. She will need all the assistance she can get in organizing and running each tournament.

Jim Hammons will once again chair the handicap committee.

The only 1995 champion to be determined at this time is Diane Plotts. Diane defeated Pam Dillingham to win the OCC Ladies Match-Play Championship. Congrats to Diane. ☺

Employee of the Month

But you all thought our custodian Vic Aris was "just" a nice young kid doing a great job? Wrong. Well, you're right about the great job, but Vic is really 29 years old, married and has two children ages 4 and 5. He is a Farrington High School grad and lives in Waipahu. He also plays tennis.

Vic worked at OCC in 1988 in the Snack Shop, then left the Club, found out the grass wasn't greener and came back seven months ago. This hard working polite guy is already the Employee of the Month.

Most of you see Vic because he is here six days a week from about 3 to 10 p.m. He vacuums carpets, takes out trash from the offices, sweeps floors and locks up at night. His favorite job? Lighting the 37 torches around the club. Now, you KNOW you've seen him. ☺

Board Briefs

Board Briefs is taken from the minutes of the Board of Directors meeting of October 26, 1995 and the Executive Committee meeting of November 16, 1995.

Secretary's Report—Twelve members were suspended for 15 days for failure to pay their accounts on time. Two members were terminated for being four times delinquent. . . The Board requested that the A&M Committee define a member's probation period. Does it differ if member was terminated for delinquency or misconduct? Currently, a member is placed on a one year probationary period and any further delinquency/misconduct would result in automatic termination with no right of appeal.

Manager's Report—There are four approved projects, of which $29,920 has been approved and $29,549 spent as of October 23. . . New carpet was installed in the Bar and Lounge in November. . . The Squirrel host computer has been upgraded. . . Bids are being sought for a railing for the Utility Ramp. . . Members of the Board will visit Campbell Estate to view ideas for the acoustical problem in the Dining Room. . . The Board approved the Employee's annual Christmas party. . . The Board approved an aloha gift to Chef William Teruya.

Athletic Report—The search for a new Club Captain is still going on.

ject has been reduced to planting only. No structural changes, no walls and no benches. This can be accomplished by management. . .

House Report—The Board unanimously approved that the Christmas Open House Party be exclusively for Club members of all categories. Management is to enforce the policy.

Long Range Planning Report—The Committee recommended an aggressive campaign to encourage the use of the Club by reciprocals. The manager is preparing an information packet and letter to all affiliate clubs.

Public Relations Report—The Board agreed that the committee could proceed with caution to study a proposed Membership Directory.

Historical Report—All surviving spouses of Senior and Life members over 65 years of age or older and admitted to membership as Regular members shall be charged one-half of the dues and one-half of the mini charge assessed Regular members. The Board clarified surviving spouses of Life members would not assume the position of Life membership, but the Senior dues would apply.

Admissions & Membership Report—The membership count was 4,277 as of September 30, 1995.

Maintenance Policy—The General Manager shall undertake maintenance and repair of equipment and, if necessary, make like kind replacement of Club facilities as a matter of course, unless such an undertaking would represent a major capital expenditure or be inconsistent with a known or pending capital improvement plan.

OCC Rules—The Board thanked Gerry DeBenedetti for compiling all OCC Rules and Regulations. The Secretary will review. ◊
