Duke's Crew Remembers His Birthday

By Marilyn Kali

They were an undefeated crew for nearly a decade in the 1940s and 50s, and they still come together as a crew every year to remember the birthday of their coach, and steersman—Duke Kahanamoku.

This year, on Sunday, August 28, four members of the crew gathered at the Club, as is their tradition, to paddle out in a canoe with leis, and remember their friend.

With surf breaking across the channel this year, they paddled beyond the wind sock and dropped their leis in the ocean as a tribute to Duke in memory of his 104th birthday which occurred on August 24.

The leis caught the current and were carried out beyond the reef.

"Usually we go farther out," said Tom Arnott, "but we're all more than 70 now and we don't paddle much anymore. The thought was there even if the bodies weren't up to it."

Back in the boat for the occasion were Tom Arnott, Thad Ekstrand, Jim Fernie and Tom O'Brien.

Missing from the occasion were Bob Bush who died in 1990, and Carlos Rivas, John Beaumont and Jimmy Pflueger who were not available.

The tradition of remembering Duke's birthday began in 1968.

Duke passed away in January of that year and he was given a beach boy funeral. His loyal crew carried his ashes out for burial at sea. When his birthday came around in August, the crew decided they wanted to remember their friend in a special way and paddled out together and scattered flowers in his memory.

And they've done it every year for the last 26 years.

In an article by Bob Krauss in the Honolulu Advertiser in 1990, Arnott recalled that they were in their 20s when Duke found them playing volleyball at the old Outrigger Canoe Club in Waikiki.

"Duke came along and said, 'Hey, you kids look like you're in pretty good shape. Why don't I teach you to paddle? Let's form a crew.' That's how it started."

At that time, Thad was in the Army and Tom O'Brien was in the Navy.

The Senior Six as they were known made history as they won every race they entered for the next decade, including the first Walter Macfarlane 4th of July Regatta. They were never defeated in their favorite canoe—the Leilani.

Paddling Duke's ashes out to sea in a beach boy funeral in 1968 were Tommy Arnott, Bob Bush, Jim Fernie, Thad Ekstrand and Tommy O'Brien. Duke's seat has been empty since his death.

The senior six won the first Macfarlane Regatta in 1943 with Duke steering.

Watching their husbands paddle out were Pat Ekstrand, Betty Fernie and Marion Arnott.

Continuing the tradition of remembering Duke on his birthday were Jim Fernie and Tom Arnott, front, and Tom O'Brien and Thad Ekstrand, back.

"It's because Duke was a stickler for conditioning," Arnott told Krauss. "We'd paddle four miles and think we were through. Then he'd put it to us again out into blue water before he said, 'Way, 'nuff.'"

Watching their husbands carry out the tradition, Marion Arnott, Pat Ekstrand and Betty Fernie, recalled some of the chicken skin moments that have occurred during the ritual.

"One year, the men were spreading the flowers and talking about Duke and all of a sudden a school of porpoises popped up right in the middle of the flowers. It was a beautiful sight to see," Marion said. "Even the porpoises loved Duke and wanted to be part of the ceremony."

"In 1990, on Duke's 100th birthday, when the men took the flowers out, an iwa bird flew right over them. It was like the bird wanted to remember Duke too," she added.

With all of the Senior Six now in their 70s, how long will they continue this tradition?

"As long as we can still get in the boat and hold a paddle, we'll be here," Ekstrand said. "Duke was a wonderful friend. None of us will ever forget him." Ø

◆ AS THE TERRACE TURNS ◆

Tim and Devon Guard, Howard and Darcy Cook, Al and Shea Balika and Pat and Annabel Bowlen enjoyed a blissful, picturesque visit to the Greek Isles and Turkey during July. Highlight of the trip was the eight days spent on the luxurious motor yacht Sirius, a true "lifestyle of the less than rich and famous" experience they say.

When the Cooks, Balikas and Bowlens headed to Barcelona for the Broncos-LA Raiders football game, Tim and Devon took a few days to visit fabled Istanbul and the scenic Bosphorus.

And who should they run into in Barcelona but Colleen Keane, who moved to Spain two months ago and is representing an American manufacturer. OCC members wishing to write Colleen may reach her at Bonaplata 51-53, 2-1 08034 Barcelona, Spain. . .

Longtime (12 years) beach captain Wayne Faulkner and Tiare Richert

Finney got together for dinner and to talk over old times in Vancouver, BC. Wayne looks great and is doing well in the boat building business in Port Smith, Washington, Tiare says. . .

Frances Schuman hosted a Christmas in August party at the Club. Among the guests were her sister, Jessica Maile Kirk, Joe and Margaret Lee, Patti Sundstrom, Ann Marie Kirk, LaVerne West, Cynthia Hamada and Mary Moore.

Joe Moore's new play, "John Wayne: Man Behind the Legend" will be presented at Diamond Head theatre on Oct. 14, 15 and 16. In addition to writing the play, Joe will portray Wayne at the age of 69, just after he'd filmed what was to be his last movie, "The Shootist." Several incidents that happened to Wayne in Hawaii are recounted in the show. . .

Nonresident member Cassie Senner visited the Club in August. Cassie has spent the last eight months in Australia and Fiji, and is now on her way to California, Florida and Venezuela. She gets to Hawaii to visit mom Gerry DeBenedetti about once a year.

Also home for a visit with mom was Heidi Schuman. She lives in Atlanta, Georgia. . .

Dr. Bill Bugbee finished his residency at San Diego Medical Center in orthopedic surgery in June. He will be doing a one-year fellowship in Washington, D.C. specializing in hip and knee replacement.

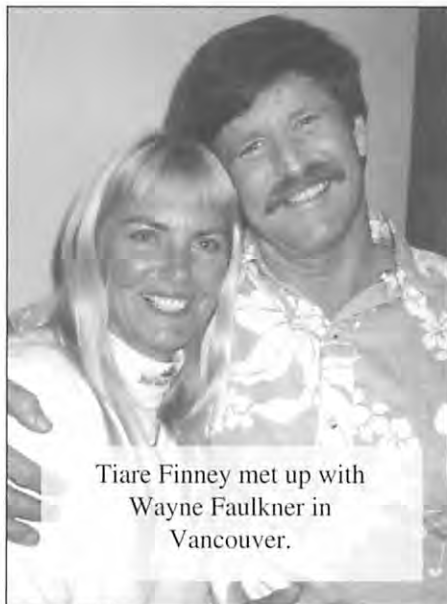

Bill and his wife, Cyndi Bugbee and their children, Brittany Leilani, 3 1/2, and Chase William Hiikua, 1 1/2 (Sarge Kahanamoku's namesake), are all living in Alexandria, Virginia for a year. . .

Elaine Hatfield, wife of Richard Rapson, will receive the Distinguished Scientist Award of the Society for the Scientific Study of Sex for lifetime achievement in November in Miami.

Adm. E. Alvey Wright (Ret.) and Mrs. Wright hosted a dinner for 18 in the private dining rooms on August 12. It was in honor of the departing commander of the naval base, Admiral and Mrs. Retz. They said they had a lot of fun, with favors for everyone: pocket fans for the ladies and little squeeze lights for the gentlemen.

Besides that, there was a lot of talking and "speech, speech." Alvey wants everyone to know that the OCC Dining Room did a terrific job. . .

Marilyn Goss, right, visited her daughter Mele Goss Majors and grandchildren, John, Townsend and Malia recently.

Mike Roeder hosted a reception for cocktails and pupus honoring 25 bank executives on August 3. They were all preparing for a meeting of about 300 people of the marketing heads for Disney Attractions.

Did you know there is a women's investment club that meets regularly at OCC? See Carolyn Corrigan . . .

On July 28, OCC members Gil Livingston and Bruce Bolton hosted a dinner for SKAL, which is an organization to promote understanding and goodwill in the world through the friendship of members of the tourist industry. Outrigger Long Distance Paddlers Win Outrigger Canoe Club crews won all three divisions they entered in the 27th annual Duke Kahanamoku Long Distance Race on August 21. The 26-mile race starts at Lanikai Point and finishes at Duke Kahanamoku Beach.

Our men's crew was the first to finish in 3 hours, 4 minutes—seven minutes ahead of previously undefeated Lanikai, many of whose paddlers were competing in Western Samoa.

Outrigger's masters crews won their divisions—the men with a 3:16:04 (sixth overall) and the women a 1:33:03 (sixth overall). A second open men's crew finished 9th overall in 3:21:53.

The women raced from the Hilton, westerly toward Kewalo Basin and then easterly toward Diamond Head and back to the Hilton's beachfront.

Members of the winning men's open crew were Billy Balding, Tommy Damon, Marc Haine, Geoff Graf, Andrew Glatzel, David Potter, Chris Kincaid, Clayton Chee, and Dean Maeva.

The masters crew included Mike Batungbacal, Bill Danford, Mark Buck, Bill Mowat, Keoni Kino, Bill Bright, Brad Wagenaar, Mike Fox and Randy Shibuya.

The second open crew was Todd Bradley, Brant Ackerman, Todd Sandvold, Henry Ayau, Paul Friese, Kalani Schrader, Mike Fine, John Eveleth and Kimo Brown.

The masters women were Paula Crabb, Pam Zak, Tiare Finney, Kaiulu Downing, Jeanne Jenkins and Evie Black.

A second masters crew finished 18th. The crew included Kathy Clifford, Ann Cundall, Diane Stowell, Maureen Kilcoyne, Carol Wilcox and Bea Henderson.

The Dad Center Women's Long Distance Race on August 28 was cancelled by OHCRA due to expected 8-12 foot surf and 25-30 knot winds. The race is from Lanikai to Outrigger.

Queen Liliuokalani Races

Outrigger paddlers did very well in the 18-mile Queen Liliuokalani Canoe Races at Kailua-Kona on September 3. The men won the Open Koa in 1:58:06 and the Masters Non-Koa in 2:04:34. A second open crew finished 12th in open non-koa in 2:09:49. The senior masters were fourth in their non-koa division in 2:22:29. The men's race was won by Lanikai in 1:54:33.

Members of the winning koa crew were David Potter, Marc Haine, Geoff Graf, Dean Maeva, Clayton Chee, Todd Bradley, Tommy Damon, Todd Sandvold and Andrew Glatzel. The second open crew included Mike Fine, Keoni Kino, Billy Balding, Kimo Brown, Kalani Schrader, Alan Pflueger, Paul Friese, Billy Mowat and Karl Heyer IV.

The winning masters crew was Bill Bright, Chris Kincaid, Kala Judd, Mike Fox, Mark Buck, Mike Batungbacal, Henry Ayau, Bill

Danford and Brant Ackerman.

Members of the senior masters crew were Tim Guard, Mike Clifford, Tay Perry, Jodie D'Enbeau, Pokii Vaughan, Scott May, Chris McKenzie, Kent Giles, Mike Town.

The OCC women finished first overall in 2:11:39, winning the non koa division. A second open crew finished seventh in 2:23:52.

Members of the winning crew were Nicole Wilcox, Sara Ackerman, Malia Kamisugi, Kisi Haine, Donna Kahakui, Traci Phillips, Kaili Chun, Lisa Livingston, and Diana Clifford. The second open crew was Mary Smolenski, Katie McCrary, Vanessa Lowe, Norma Santiago, Nina Fox, Missy Mowat, Jennifer Thayer, Pam Clifford, and Debby Ing.

The masters women were second (2:29:56) and third (2:34:44) in their division. Members of the second place crew were Evie Black, Paula Crabb,

Dining Room Renovation Moving Along

By Ken Brown

I know most of you have been watching closely the work that is being done in the Club's Main Dining Room. The upgrade, changes and renovations that are being accomplished are proceeding on schedule.

During last month, September, the private dining rooms on the Diamond Head side and the main interior of the Dining Room were closed for the demolition of the main service station, removal of some of the sliding glass doors and preparation for a new interior wooden floor.

However, during this same period, the outside dining lanais continued to provide the normal luncheon and dinner service.

Now that October is here, we will close the remaining portion of the upper Dining Room. All of the lunch and dinner food and beverage service will be held in the Bar Lounge and Hau Terrace.

In order for the Club to continue to provide you with that special dining experience, the Bar Lounge will be formally set with linen, napkins and candles. Also, during this same period, management has established an improved special menu that will be available at both locations.

Watch for notices since we plan on having many new and exciting things to offer you during October.

Yes, it goes without saying, that the talented musical trio that is so much a part of the Outrigger will continue to provide that special Hawaiian music Tuesday through Friday evenings for your pleasure. In addition, special live entertainment is planned for Saturday nights for the Hau Terrace and Lounge.

The biggest changes in the Dining Room will take place during October. All of the curtains and sliding glass doors will be removed. They will be replaced with custom manufactured teak bi-fold doors with glass panels.

These bi-fold doors will be moved to the outer most pillars. Thus, with these new doors, greater openness with a total outside feeling will be achieved. Also with the relocation of the new bi-fold door, superior protection from bad weather will be provided while still retaining the makai views. As a result, we will be able to eliminate the unsightly canvas roll down storm curtains.

For the evening hours, new interior and exterior lighting is being re-designed by Mr. Lowell Barnhart. He will try to create a special lighting effect similar to being under a hau tree during a full moon. He is also planning to install some additional tiki torches on the ocean side of the Club.

It is our hope that all of this work will create that special place for you to dine and entertain. Chef Teruya and his entire kitchen staff are ready to prepare for you the best meals available anywhere in Hawaii.

In support of that effort, our Food and Beverage Manager Don Figueira, with the help of Liz Ventura and her staff, are preparing to give service that you will be proud of. During these renovation months, we ask that you continue to support your Club and dine with your fellow Club members.

The Dining Room is the first major renovation of its type since the Club was built 30 years ago.

Now it is your turn to come to the Club and support these efforts. It should be fun to watch the changes happen.

We appreciate your understanding during the renovation and hope that you will not find it inconvenient for enjoyment at the Outrigger. Ø

21st Annual Castle Swim November 27

By Arnold Lum

The Swim Committee reminds Club members to mark their calendars for the Sunday after Thanksgiving, November 27th, when we'll again host the Castle Swim.

We'll transport swimmers from the Club down to the site of the old Clubhouse, in front of the Outrigger Hotel, at approximately 8:30 a.m. after registration on the Hau Terrace at 8 a.m.

But you'll have to make it back to the Outrigger on your own—approximately 1 1/2 miles of swimming along a course that takes you outside the Canoes, Queens and Publics surf breaks, and in through the Kapua Channel (wind sock) to the Club steps.

Swimmers and their escorts are invited to join us for complimentary brunch after the swim is pau. Ø

By Lisa Livingston

It's here!

The 12th annual Outrigger Canoe Club Amateur Photo Contest.

Entry deadline for this year's contest is Monday, November 7.

Once again, the grand prize winning photo will enjoy exposure as it travels to members worldwide as the prized January cover of the Outrigger magazine. In addition, 1st, 2nd and 3rd prizes will be awarded in each category. Those judges will be chosen from our unique and creative community.

There are four categories this year:

- People—Color
- Places—Color
- Outrigger Theme—Color
- Black & White—Any subject

The rules:

Who May Enter

All OCC members and their immediate families. Excluded are members of the Public Relations Committee, however, their families may enter.

Minimum Size

8" x 10". Must be mounted on foamcore or posterboard. Matte frames are optional.

Number of Entries

Eight entries maximum per contestant, so be your own judge with regard to categories entering. Remember, those submitting photos must have actually shot the picture. In the event of insufficient entries in any class, the judges reserve the right to eliminate such category and apply the award to one of the other categories.

How to Enter

Print your name, membership number, address, phone number, title of picture, category entering on the back, upper right hand corner of each entry. With your entries include the entry form provided (also available at the Front Desk) or the same information on a 3" x 5" card. All entries must be delivered to the Front Desk at the Club or mailed to: Outrigger Photo Contest, c/o Public Relations Committee, 2909 Kalakaua Avenue, Honolulu, Hawaii 96815.

For those contestants wishing their entries returned by mail, PLEASE include a self-addressed adequately stamped envelope with protective backing along with your entries. The Club will not assume responsibility for the return postage.

Submit Entries by November 7th, 1994.

Those entries not returned by mail may be picked up in the Executive Office between the hours of 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. after February 1, 1995. Those not picked up will become property of the Outrigger Canoe Club and will be donated.

Winners will be required to provide original color slides or negatives for reproduction in the Outrigger. ☺

10th Annual Cline Mann 5K Paddleboard Race

Dolan Eversole captured the 10th annual Cline Mann 5K Paddleboard Race on August 13 at the Outrigger Canoe Club, in a close finish with Charlie Walker and Dawson Jones.

Eversole finished the course in 33 minutes 26 seconds, 20 seconds ahead of Walker and 29 seconds ahead of Jones.

First woman to finish was Reen Corbett who covered the course in 36 minutes, 9 seconds.

A total of 43 paddlers entered the race which starts and finishes at the Club and follows a course out through the Kapua channel, turns left toward Diamond Head and around a buoy, and then toward the Kapahulu Groin, before returning to the Club to the finish.

Outrigger Masters Win National Titles for 4th Year

At the United States Volleyball Association National Championships held in Tulsa, Oklahoma, May 28 through June 4, the Outrigger Canoe Club Men's 35 and over and the Men's 40 and over both won the Gold Medal for the fourth year in a row.

No teams have dominated their divisions so thoroughly in the history of the championships.

Men's 40+

The 40 and over played earlier in the week and set the tone for the other teams. In pool play, the 40s did not lose a game, won their pool easily and did not allow a team to score more than nine points against them.

This record earned them the number one seed for the double elimination round. They went through this portion of the tournament undefeated, again not losing a single game, nor allowing a team to score more than 10 points.

In the finals, the 40s beat Team Roof of Villa Hills, Kentucky by the score of 15-8, 15-7.

Jon Stanley was named the Most Valuable Player.

Earning All-American honors were Jon Stanley, Chris Crabb, and Charlie

Jenkins, first team; Randy Shaw and Mike Cote, second team; and Tom Madison, third team. Other members playing on the 40 and over were Jim Bukes, Buster Chapman and Tony Crabb. Kimo Brown was the coach.

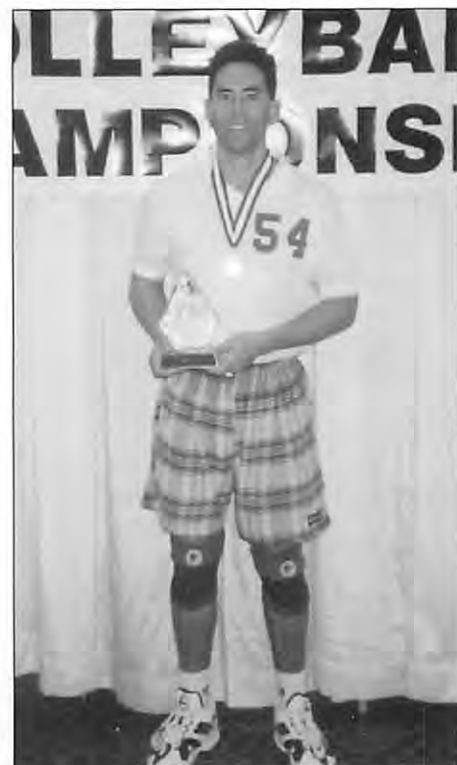

Men's 35+

The Men's 35 and over earned their victory a little differently. They won the pool play with a 5-0 record, also not losing a single game. This earned them the first seed in the Gold division of the double elimination portion of the tournament. However, they lost in the semi-finals of the winner's bracket to Team Roof of Kentucky.

They were able to advance through the loser's bracket defeating three teams to reach the finals. They beat VB Rags of San Diego in two games forcing a sudden death playoff. They won 15-11 to capture the gold medal.

Kimo Brown was named Most Valuable Player.

Earning All-American honors were Kimo Brown, Jon Andersen and Chris Crabb, first team; Scott Rigg and Jon Stanley, second team. Other members of the squad were Alan Lau, Kahea Chock, Ralph Smith, Charlie Jenkins and John Zabriskie. Randy Shaw was the coach.

Kimo Brown was named Most Valuable Player for the Men's 35s.

Men's Open

The Men's Open team had one of the best showings in recent years. Twenty-two teams participated and the OCC finished 3-1 in pool play advancing into the second round of pool play.

They were able to earn a berth in the Gold division of the double elimination tournament and finished fifth overall.

One of the biggest wins was beating the 1992 champion, Creole. The team kept improving match by match and coaches Tony Crabb and Randy Shaw were motivating the players well.

Playing on the team were Marc Haine, Stevie Li, Alika Williams, Tony McInerny, Sean Scott, Brad Stewart, Darryn Holt and Danny McInerny.

Stevie Li was a third team All-American Honorable mention and a first team Rookie award winner.

The team looks to a successful 1995 when the championship will be played in Holyoke, Mass. for the 100th anniversary marking the creation of volleyball as a sport. ☎

The winning 35 and over team included, front, Chris Crabb, Kimo Brown, Alan Lau and Charlie Jenkins; Ralph Smith, John Zabriskie, Kahea Chock, Scott Rigg, Jon Andersen and Jon Stanley.

Members of the Open Team were, Danny McInerny, Stevie Li, Marc Haine, Alika Williams, Darryn Holt, Tony McInerny and Brad Stewart. Not pictured: Sean Scott.

Boys 14 Wins AAU Junior VB Championships

By Scott Rigg

The Outrigger Canoe Club Boys 14 volleyball team travelled to Chicago, Illinois this past June to claim the AAU Junior Volleyball Championship.

The "boys from the baby court" dropped just two sets throughout the four-day tournament. Each day saw the Outrigger playing better and better and by the final day, OCC was "the team to beat."

OCC won their pool with an 8-2 record, advancing to the second round power pool. They won this pool also with a 4-0 record and earned the first seed for the single elimination round, containing 12 teams.

Outrigger avenged a loss in the semifinals two years earlier by beating their arch-rivals CYC North of St. Louis (self named "the Posse"), a team that hadn't lost a match in two years. A boisterous "pro-Posse" crowd watched as OCC combined reckless defense, powerful putaways and superb ball control to beat this hand-picked all-star squad in straight sets in the semifinals.

Outrigger then went on to beat a talented Maryland Gold team in the finals, 15-7, 15-5.

Team members included Lucas Rigg, Dominic Griffin, Kevin Crabb, Keola Keahiolalo, Dylan Fern, Lindsey Breeden, Duff Janus, Aaron Ackerman, Zack Payne and Jimmy Austin.

The boys were coached by Denny Fern, Chris Crabb and Scott Rigg.

All-American honors were earned by Dominic Griffin and Kevin Crabb, with OCC setter Dylan Fern chosen as the Most Valuable Player.

Despite all-star selections, this championship was surely a 10-man effort. No "weak links" on or off the court—the necessary ingredient for championship play. Be looking for these junior players in years to come.

Mahalo to the Outrigger Canoe Club for all your support.

Boys 16s

The Boys 16 and under team, coached by Tony Crabb and Bruce

Blankenfeld, traveled to Austin, Texas to play in the Junior Olympics, July 6-10. Forty-seven teams from around the U.S. were entered.

In first round pool play, the OCC took first place, placing them into the second pool play division. Facing much stronger competition they were able to take second place, earning them a spot in the Silver division in the elimination round.

Here they garnered second place, losing in three games to Magnum of Anaheim, California, and were 10th overall in the tournament.

Members playing on the team were Koa Ostrem, Blake Cherry, Nai'a Blankenfeld, Paie'a Speilman, Dominic Griffin, Dylan Fern, Scott Wong, Milo Haneberg, Kaione Crabb, Scott Gamble and Clayton Stanley. Ø

Extra Innings

By Jim Gaddis

The softball season is in full swing with games set for 5 p.m. every Tuesday afternoon right across the street in Kapiolani Park. There were four games played in September. Scores and highlights of these games can be found in next month's issue of the Outrigger.

OCC opened the season on September 6 in a game against the Elks Club. The OCC players dedicated the season to Kawika Fairbanks who passed away in a tragic accident earlier this year.

A pre-game dedication was held and prayers were said with Kawika's family in attendance. Every player, including Kawika's parents, was given beautiful OCC ballcaps with a black "K" in remembrance of Kawika.

After the game, everyone enjoyed a wonderful potluck/BBQ.

Kawika Fairbanks was not only an incredibly gifted ballplayer with his bat and glove but he complemented our team with his positive attitude, wonderful personality and keen sense of humor.

See next month's Extra Innings article for all the stories and statistics on all of the OCC softball games played in September.

Golf Chips From the 19th Hole

By Jim Gaddis

The 4th OCC Golf Tournament was held at the beautiful Kalakaua Golf Course. Host Pro Larry Ordonio welcomed 20 linksters on a perfect August 17th morning.

Don Cutting topped everyone by firing a 78 which gave him Low Gross honors. Richard Goh's 82 gave him a fantastic Low Net 66. Terri Lui led the ladies with a Low Gross 84. Paula Faulkner's net 73 gave her the ladies Low Net prize. Second Low Net honors went to Jim Hammons (71) after matching his card with Bruce Bolton.

All winners received gift certificates for use in the Kalakaua Pro Shop.

Nearest-to-the-Pin winners were Terri (#2), Richard (#8), Earl Yonemura (#11) and Diane Plotts (#13).

Everyone had a great time.

Sign up for the October tournament now in the Golf Folder at the Front Desk.

Match Play Action

In Match Play action, Strat Whiting defeated E. T. Yonemura on the first playoff hole to move into the men's semi-finals. Steve Torkildson defeated Jack Mattice 3 and 2 to move on as well. Ø

Employees of the Month

This month we have two employees of the month, because last month we didn't have any—hey this is OCC!

One of our great employees is Hau Terrace waiter TC, who will admit to being named Thom Callison, although nobody knows that.

TC was nominated because he is a team player, has good attendance, goes the extra bit to fill in for employees who may be absent, takes initiative to set up in the kitchen for the garnishes and the sauces, and makes his boss Ken happy. Sounds good for those of us who eat on the Hau Terrace.

TC has only been here for 6 months, and in Hawaii for two years. He came from Santa Barbara California where he worked as a medic and an estate coordinator. Santa Barbara, however, has a winter with fog and cold, so moving to Hawaii was "no regrets" for TC.

TC says the most ordered drink on the Terrace is the Henry. He works split shift lunch and dinner, and says the work is hard because of the cement floor and the heat, BUT the air is clear, the view is great, and he likes to make people happy.

Our second great employee of the month is Marissa's Mom. She is about as versatile as you can get around OCC. Marissa's Mom started in the Snack Shop, then the Logo Shop, as well as Beach Attendant, Parking Lot, Security, Hostess in the Dining Room, Reception Desk, and FINALLY, found the right niche in the Fitness Center, where she is dearly loved by all of the OCC women who work out.

Marissa's Mom has Marissa's picture plastered all over this Club. Many employees have a little picture of Marissa tucked in their desk corner, Marissa's picture is displayed in the Fitness Center, you get the idea. Others may know this Employee of the Month by the name of Karin Hansen.

She's been with OCC off/on for five years, in between attending UH-Manoa and having Marissa. She has a degree in English and has attended the American College of Sports Medicine for Health and Fitness Instructor certification. She is still working on this, but those who know Karin, know she will accomplish her certification goal.

She paddles for Waikiki Surf, and in August went to Western Samoa for the World Canoe Paddling Sprints. By the way, Marissa is one year old. ☺ Club President Walter Guild presents Employee of Month Award to TC as General Manager Ray Ludwig looks on.

Molokai Hoe Oahu Canoe Classic saw OCC #1 crew set a record time of 5:18:19 for the 41-mile event. The crew consisted of Bob Riley, Bill Bright, Ed Pickering, Marc Haine, Kevin Olds, Brant Ackerman, Mike Fox, Henry Ayau and Keone Downing, under the coaching of Steve Scott.

1974—20 Years Ago

The Christmas gift for 1974 was the Outrigger Canoe Club history, containing 75 photographic illustrations of rare views of Old Honolulu and the Club's modern premises.

1954—40 Years Ago

Fiberglass Introduced to Waikiki—Charles Yara brought out the first fiberglass hull outrigger canoe—Tom Blake introduced his 10 1/2-foot all fiberglass hollow surfboard about September 1st. It was stated that the fiberglass canoe and surfboard are lighter, buoyant with greater tensile strength and less trouble to repair the "dings" and cracks. ☺

BOARD BRIEFS

Board Briefs is taken from the minutes of the Board of Directors meeting on July 28, 1994 and the Executive Committee meeting of August 11, 1994.

The Board reaffirmed a policy that Logo Shop items are not to be sold from the Front Desk.

Finance Report— The Board approved a policy that all unrestricted bequests made to the Club should be placed into the Building Fund. Any bequests made with restrictions should be reviewed by the Board of Directors prior to acceptance to determine if the purpose intended is in the Club's interest to accept the bequest and if accepted, such funds should be spent in accordance with the donor's restrictions.

The Board gave the Finance Committee the responsibility to oversee the investment philosophy of the Club's pension plan investments, to review the Club's actuarial report assumptions and to determine the adequacy of the Club's pension plan funding policy.

Secretary's Report— Ten members were suspended for 15 days due to failure to pay their accounts on time.

Manager's Report— The Dining Room renovation project manager resigned. Lawrence Jackson and Associates were hired as replacements. . . Income from the July 4 party was below 1993. . . The Nonrun Fun-Run produced a net income of $4,966.43 which will be split by the Running and Fitness Center committees. . . The Manager reported that valets park an average of 20 cars per night, three nights a week. A new sign will be made.

Athletic Report— Comeback funds for the Queen Liliuokalani, Catalina, Na Wahine and Molokai Hoe races were approved. . . The open volleyball tournament schedule was approved. . . The T-shirt for the Cline Mann Paddleboard race was approved. . . Swim caps will be given out for the Roughwater swim instead of T-shirts. . . Funds for the cancelled Open Ocean Swim will be used for the Swim/Run Biathlon on October 30.

Long Range Report— PR Chairman Dick Grimm proposed a series of ongoing membership surveys. . . The Elks Adhoc Committee continues to meet with the Elks Club leaders. Both parties agreed to meet regularly for the benefit of the property tax appeal. ☐

Yabo Taylor Dies

Life member and former OCC President Herbert "Yabo" Taylor passed away August 26. Yabo had been a member of Outrigger for 69 years.

He served as president of the Club from 1953-55 and was on the Board of Directors from 1948 to 1962 and 1964 to 1966. The Board awarded him Life Membership in 1979.

He was best known as a coxswain where he won seven gold medals, 10 silvers and 19 bronzes over a 15-year period. The Honolulu Star Bulletin named him "best cox of the 1928 regatta races" when he was coxswain for seven crews, four of which won. ☐
