JULY 1994

Macfarlane Regatta Set for July 4 at Waikiki

By Barbara Del Piano

On the 4th of July, the Walter J. Macfarlane Regatta will take place in the waters fronting the Moana and Outrigger Waikiki hotels, just as it has for the past 52 years.

The oldest and most prestigious of Hawaii's canoe races, it is also the only wave event on the Oahu Hawaiian Canoe Racing Association calendar. The colorful races attract thousands of spectators who line the shore cheering for their favorite among the 14 clubs that now participate in the day's 31 races. More than 200 paddlers represent each of the clubs.

This is a far cry from the two teams and 13 events of that first war-time regatta in 1943.

This popular, day-long contest is named after Walter James Macfarlane, who was president of the Outrigger in 1943 at the time of his untimely death from typhoid fever contracted during a trip to Mexico.

Walter Mac, as he was called, is credited with steering the Club through troubled financial waters during the late 30s. Not only did he attain fiscal stability for the Club, he helped to increase a sadly declining membership and spearheaded the building of an entirely new and modern facility, located on the Club's former site where the Outrigger Waikiki Hotel now stands.

After his death, the annual July 4th canoe races were renamed in his honor.

Scion of a prominent kamaaina family, Walter Mac was not the first of the Macfarlanes to leave a lasting mark on the Waikiki-Diamond Head scene. The first Macfarlanes, who arrived from New Zealand in 1846, settled in Waikiki when much of the area was still a marshland, dotted with taro patches, rice fields and fish ponds fed by the waters of Palolo and Manoa streams.

Their eldest son, George W., great uncle of Walter Mac, was a close friend of King Kalakaua and after serving as an officer in the King's court with the rank of Colonel, assumed the duties of Chamberlain to the King and was the youngest person appointed to the House of Nobles in the Hawaiian Kingdom.

Colonel Macfarlane is credited with being one of the first to envision Waikiki as a resort area and was part of the very first attempt to provide hotel accommodations for visitors in the area.

Our present Club site is located on the grounds of what was once Colonel Macfarlane's home, located where the Elks Club now stands. In 1888, it was transformed into Waikiki's first hostelry, the Park Side Hotel.

This property was later sold to James B. Castle who razed the building and erected an elaborate three story colonial style home on the site. The Colonel subsequently acquired the downtown Royal Hawaiian Hotel and later, the Seaside Hotel, near the site of the Royal Hawaiian.

Another of Walter Mac's great uncles, Clarence Macfarlane, founded the world famous Transpacific Yacht Race. A true water man, Clarence is credited with being the first haole to master the sport of surfing and outrigger canoeing.

Walter Mac's grandfather, Frederick W. Macfarlane, lived in the area where the International Market Place now stands and he and his wife are credited with planting the banyan tree that still stands in the center of the property.

He later built a home on the water, ewa of the former Seaside Hotel. Both their son F. Walter and grandson Walter Mac gained reputations as outstanding polo players at the Kapiolani Park polo grounds.

Walter Mac, fresh out of high school, helped put himself through college at the University of Hawaii by working on the dredge that cleared the way for the Ala Wai Canal which drained swampy, mosquito-infested Waikiki and turned it into a modern residential and resort area.

Walter Mac was a true water man and spent most of his leisure time in the ocean. He was also a man who couldn't resist a challenge.

His sister, Muriel Macfarlane Flanders, tells of an incident at Sandy Beach during the 30s when Walter Mac and friends were body surfing. An enormous wave came along and everyone but Walter Mac ducked below it. He caught it and rode it completely across what is now Kalaniana'ole Highway.

Although Walter Mac had no children of his own, the family involvement with the Outrigger Canoe Club continues with his sister, Muriel Flanders and her children and grandchildren.

Two family members currently serve on the Club's Board of Directors--Muriel's daughter, Mary Philpotts-McGrath, and her grandson, Walter Guild, who is Club President. Another grandson, Billy Philpotts, is the Club's head coach, and a granddaughter, Di Guild, is a coach.

In 1943, Matson Navigation Company donated a magnificent trophy topped by a large silver bowl to be awarded to the winner of the Senior Men's race at the Macfarlane Regatta.

That year, the trophy was presented to the winners by Walter Mac's mother, Alice Kamokila Campbell, who filled the bowl with champagne. After sipping from the bowl, the crew invited the runners-up to join them, and thus a tradition was born.

Mrs. Campbell continued the practice of supplying the champagne for several years until the Club offered to take over. OCC General Manager Ray Ludwig says that in packing supplies to go to the race site each year, a case of champagne is always at the top of the list.

After Mrs. Campbell's death, her daughter, Muriel Flanders, carried on the 4th of July tradition. When she has been unable to do so, her daughters, Alice Guild and Mary Philpotts-McGrath have stepped in.

Over the years, Mrs. Flanders has donated seven additional trophies awarded for various events at the Regatta.

And so, when the last race of the 1994 Regatta is over, and the scores have been tallied, once again that silver bowl will be filled with champagne and one of Walter Mac's family will make the presentation. The winners will pass the bowl from paddler to paddler, and after each of them has enjoyed a quaff, the second place team will partake as well.

And thus, the tradition continues.

You can be part of the tradition by joining us at the Macfarlane Regatta on the 4th of July. ✍

◆ AS THE TERRACE TURNS ◆

If it's July, it must mean that Guido Salmaggi will be in town to sing the National Anthem at the Walter Macfarlane Regatta on July 4. Guido spends much of his time at his Sarasota, Florida home, but always manages to get back to Hawaii in time for the regatta. . .

It's a small world time. When reciprocal members Staige and Michael DeBenedetti from the Olympic Club in San Francisco were staying at the Colony Surf and enjoying the facilities at OCC in May 1993, they kept getting asked if they knew Gerry DeBenedetti, but the two DeBenedettis had never met each other.

So Gerry got their address and wrote and asked if they were returning to Hawaii this year. They were, and the three DeBenedettis met for dinner in the Dining Room. They spent the evening comparing family stories, remarking on each others resemblance to their own family members, and saying "we'll meet again."

Members of UCLA's NCAA runnerup team were Stein Metzger, Kevin Wong and Brian Wells.

Attending Memorial Day Services at the Club were Sarah Nordwall, Nancy and Matt Cabot and Hope Haywood.

The Teves Trio entertained at the Memorial Day Service at which the Rev. William Kaina of Kawaiahao Church officiated.

Chatting after the Memorial Day service were Dr. Rodney West, and Dusty and Clarence Short.

Lillian Cook, Evelyn Evoniuk and Lydia Wirth chat on the Terrace.

Nonresident member Terrence McCarthy visited the Club in May and presented a check for $25,000 to the Outrigger Duke Kahanamoku Foundation in memory of her late husband, Edmond McCarthy.

Mrs. McCarthy told the ODKF that her husband had received a basketball scholarship to the University of Ohio and it was a great privilege to have the opportunity for a college education. After reading in the Outrigger magazine about some of the athletes and scholars the ODKF assists, Mrs. McCarthy decided to support physical fitness and athletics through the Foundation.

Doug and Michele Swope's first child, Lauren Marie Swope was born in San Diego on April 2. She weighed 7 pounds, 5 1/2 ounces. She was born the day before her great grandfather, Al Woolrich, passed away.

Elaine M. Hazzard's Seer From Saigon has won the 1994 Kumu Kuhua award for the best short play on a non-Hawaii theme. Her play Red Salty Fluids was presented in workshop onstage at Diamond Head Theatre in May.

Sean and Athena Gilbert had their two-person canoe Kailoa blessed on May 30 by the Rev. David Kaupu. Sean built the canoe out of koa and albesia wood. Although albesia is a native wood, the log for the canoe came from Indonesia. Sean says it took him 2 1/2 months to build.

Outrigger Paddlers Get Off to a Fast Regatta Start

Outrigger paddlers won the Kamehameha Day Regatta at Kailua Beach Park on June 12 and finished second in the Clem Paiana Regatta on June 5 at Keehi Lagoon in the first two Oahu Hawaiian Canoe Racing Association Regattas of 1994.

In the season opener, Hui Nalu captured the Paiana race by scoring 78 points to Outrigger's 68. OCC made its strongest season opening in several years, fielding crews in all but one race, despite strong tradewinds that blew between 25-35 knots.

The Girls 13s won the first race for the Club, and they were quickly followed by the Boys 13s. The Girls 16s also won but were DQ'd for finishing in the wrong lane. The Boys 18s were also victorious. The Boys and Girls 12 crews both finished second, and the Girls 14s and 18s crossed the finish line in third place, and the Boys 14s were fourth. This is the best finish by kids crews in recent years. Thanks to all those hard-working kids coaches—Bill Bright, Aaron Young, Kalani Schrader, Nicole and Eliza Wilcox, Bill Danford, Clayton Chee, Malia Kamisugi, Katie McCrary, Billy Philpotts, Norm Ho, Paula Crabb and Todd Payes.

Also victorious were the Sophomore Men, Junior Women, and the Masters Women.

In the Kamehameha Day Regatta, Outrigger captured four of the last eight races to defeat Hui Nalu, 80-63.

For the second week in a row, the Boys 13s won their race. The Girls 16s were also victorious.

Both of Outrigger's Novice B crews won their races. Also bringing home golds for the Club were the Senior and Masters women and Freshmen, Open 4 and Senior Masters men.

Two families have gone all out for paddling. The Mowats—Bill, Patti, Missy and Kai—are all on crews this year, as are the Cliffords—Mike, Kathy, Diana and Pam.

Other races scheduled for July are the Macfarlane Regatta on the 4th of July at Waikiki; the Kaupiko Regatta on July 17 at the Kaneohe Marine Corps Air Station; and the Oahu Championships, July 24 at Keehi Lagoon. The State championships will be held on August 6 at Keehi Lagoon.

◆ AROUND THE CLUB ◆

*By Ray Ludwig,
General Manager*

Our number one priority at the Outrigger is to see that you enjoy yourself while you're here. We want you to feel that the Club is an extension of your home and we want to treat you and your guests the way you would in your own home.

We want you to feel proud of the Club and comfortable while you're here.

We train our employees to see to your needs from the minute you enter the parking garage. The Club building and grounds are beautiful and well maintained.

We offer top quality and value in our food and beverage service. And members have a variety of athletic and social activities to choose from.

We're very fortunate at the Outrigger to have loyal, faithful employees who enjoy making the Club your home away from home.

The Club employs 140 people full and part time. About 65% of the employees work in the Food and Beverage Department, 20% work in the clerical/general administration area, 10% are utility workers and grounds and maintenance, and the remaining 5% work in the locker rooms, laundry, parking and beach areas.

Our employees represent a multitude of nationalities--Vietnamese, Chinese, Guamanian, Filipino, Korean, Japanese, Caucasian, Hawaiian and Malaysian. For most, English is their second language. As you can imagine, communication behind the scenes in the Club can be very interesting at times.

Our employees range in age from 19 to 70+. Nearly half of our employees also hold a second part time job somewhere else.

Luckily our employees consider their jobs at the Outrigger as careers, and turn over is less than 5% per year. The average employee has worked here for 16 years.

Ruby Yabiku of the Business Office is our most senior employee, marking 39 years this month. With such a low unemployment rate in Hawaii we do everything we can to retain our employees. We pay them fairly and treat them fairly. Our employee benefit package is excellent. Employees earn paid vacation, of from 1-4 weeks per year, depending on their years of service. We also offer a good medical plan, sick leave, funeral leave and a pension plan.

While many private companies have eliminated this, we still give employees a day off with pay on their birthday.

We think our benefit package is better than most and as good as the best.

We also have a strong belief in promotion from within so our employees know they can be promoted up the ladder.

Several members have asked me how the 15% gratuity works since it is automatically added to their food and beverage tabs. The wait help do not pool their tips. The employee who actually serves the meal or beverage gets the gratuity.

This is an incentive for the wait help to do a good job. Those who do a good job and receive compliments are assigned a larger station and therefore have the ability to generate greater gratuities. Those who are new or are not quite up to speed, are assigned smaller stations and therefore the opportunity for gratuities is limited.

The bus boys do share in a portion of the gratuities based on the number of hours they work that particular month.

I'm extremely proud of our employees. They work hard and many have developed close relationships with the members over the years.

When you're served or assisted by an employee who does a good job, a kind word from you is most appreciated. We all like to hear that our work is appreciated and that goes for our employees as well.

If you have a problem with an employee, let me know about it. I'll be happy to discuss it with the employee. We won't tolerate rude behavior from our employees, and likewise, our employees don't appreciate assisting discourteous members. Please be considerate.

We're very lucky at the Outrigger. We're a family and the ohana feeling extends from the Board, through the committees, to the membership, management and employees.

I have the sad duty to report to you that our Clubhouse manager Ted Nicolaou passed away in San Francisco on May 2. He was with the Club for 4 1/2 years. His illness was sudden and we'll all miss him.

4th of July

Don't forget to pick up your tickets for our 4th of July party. Everyone attending the Club party must have a ticket for admission. Tickets are available at the Front Desk for $1 each.

Because of our Club size, tickets are limited to members are follows: Junior and Associate, limit 2 per member; Regular, Senior and Life, limit 4 per member.

Parking on the 4th will be for Club members with decals only.

Club membership cards for identification and verification of age will be required.

Please Sign In

I've been asked to remind you of our House Rule that pertains to entry and registry. All members are required to sign in once a day when they first enter the Club. This is necessary to preserve our private club status. The number of invited guests is also to be recorded on the sign in register located inside the Lobby entrance or lower floor beach passage way.

Guests

Any member in good standing may bring guests to the Club provided such guests are not persona non grata. No guests shall visit the Club more than two days in any one month. This limitation does not apply to spouses of members or ladies and gentlemen accompanying single men or women members, respectively. Members are responsible for determining their guests' eligibility. Guests are required to remain in the company of their host member as long as the guest remains on Club premises. ☺

"Cruise to Greece" was a Great Party

By Cindy Mahoney

A stroll over the gangplank, a warm greeting by the captain of the ship, a glass of champagne, tables festooned with streamers spilling around champagne bottles and glasses, and a lovely evening, set the pace for the "Cruise to Greece" party at the Outrigger on May 21.

If you weren't there, you missed an evening where our own Chef Teruya and his staff outdid themselves by presenting guests with fabulous Greek fare like hummos with pita bread, grilled lamb, marinated eggplant, moussaka, spanakopita, a full salad spread, and desserts including baklava.

Throughout the night about 325 people enjoyed watching Greek dancers from the Greek Orthodox Church, in their beautiful costumes, alternating with stints of music played by the Pleasant Peasant Band.

Perhaps it was a shot or two of Ouzo that helped encourage some of the guests to get up and try their own skill at dancing with the featured dancers. Rod and Nancy Muller, Barry Hall, and Rick and Val Davis were some of the more adventuresome participants.

Rick also dressed up in a Captain's suit and graciously played the host of the M.S. Outrigger cruise ship throughout the evening.

Great food, music, dancing, and fun friends, what a wonderful time.

Tsulan Young and Buddy Farden liked the music.

A great time was had by Rosemary Garwood, Maile Griffith and Mitzi Lee Murphy, seated, and Dick Griffith, Spencer Murphy and Bill Garwood.

"Capt." Rick Davis welcomes aboard Evie Black, Tim Wong and Val Davis.

Peggy Buckwach, right, entertained Gardner and Madeline McKay.

Greek dancers perform.

Dottie and Art Todd and Ruth Miller attended.

Enjoying the party were Paul Haig, Juli Haig, Norm Dunmire and Bill Haig.

Dining Room Renovations Move Ahead With Murison

By Rick Davis
House Committee

Renowned architect Virginia Murison has been selected to direct the renovation of the Main Dining Room. Virginia has had a long successful history here in the islands. She is a trustee of the Historic Hawaii Foundation, and, among her many awards, she was the recipient of the President's Historic Preservation Award.

Most of us first heard of Virginia when she restored the Moana Hotel. Her mission was to return the hotel to its original 1901 authenticity and to restore the hotel as closely to its original beauty as possible. This she has done, right down to the different woods on each floor.

For her efforts, she received many awards including winning first place and being named Project of the Year by the City and County of Honolulu in 1992.

In a recent conversation, Virginia described our club as one of Val Ossipoff's Hawaiian classics and she plans to recapture the essence of his original pavilion concept.

The Battle Without a Canoe Paddle

By Jim Gaddis

It was a new experience for OCC and Hui Lanakila Canoe Club. There were no paddles, no canoes and there was no ocean. Instead there were bats, balls, gloves, a softball field full of happy faces and picnic tables full of food fit for alii.

Nearly 100 friends and family gathered on April 10 for a softball doubleheader featuring a 1 p.m. coed game, followed by a men's only contest.

The coed game proved to be the feature presentation. A loud, boisterous crowd, led by kumu hula Leinaala Heine, saw one of the best games of their lives. There were lots of great plays and constant lead changes. Third baseman Joe Muller led Jim Gaddis, Kimo McVay, Dennis Alexio and Henry Ayau at game.

OCC with three hits.

New mother Janice Harrer led a sixth inning rally that put OCC ahead 4-3. A botched fly ball allowed Hui Lanakila to tie the game 4-4 in the last inning and that's the way it ended. Everyone was happy with the tie so there were absolutely no losers.

All of the OCC ladies played well. Lisa Livingston, Kaili Chun and Laurie Lawson hit the ball hard. Dana Kiner and Kisi Haine not only crushed the ball at the plate but played like pros on the field. Norma Santiago, whose brother Chris Santiago coaches the Hui Lanakila men's team, played well for the Hui Lanakila coed team. After the game, all the OCC ladies expressed interest in playing regularly on an OCC coed team.

John Kiner pitched the entire game and contributed at the plate. Byron Ho, Clayton Chee and Paki Vaughan made nice catches in the outfield, while Jim McAluney swept up every grounder hit his way at shortstop.

In the men's game, OCC started strong and never looked back. The team pounded out 18 hits and played great defense in winning, 9-1. John Akana and Tom Harrer joined Paki, Clayton, Jim, Joe and Byron in collecting two hits apiece. Bill Lawson made some great plays at third base while Jim Cavanah and Jon Bryan hauled in some long fly balls in the outfield.

Henry Ayau organized and coordinated this very special event. He also managed to coach the coed game and bat designated hitter where he collected two hits. Other contributing players included Dave Puder, Rick Piper and Billy Lawson Jr. who pinch ran for Henry.

OCC is hoping to work out a similar softball/picnic with Kamehameha Canoe Club. Check the Bulletin Board in the Tunnel for softball updates. ♪

Golf Chips From the 19th Hole

By Jim Gaddis

OCC golfers took the ultimate challenge on April 13 pretending they were playing the old course at St. Andrews. The windblown links were actually Hawaii Kai Golf Course, but with flagsticks bent in the wind and whitecaps covering the ocean it was easy to taste the flavor of Scotland.

Normally there are five or six golfers with net scores in the mid to high 60s. But on this day no one could break 70. When the low gross score for the day is 85, you know the weather came into play.

Jack Sheehan fired that 85 to win the Low Gross award for men. Terri Lui shot an 89 to take the Low Gross honors for the ladies. Bruce Bolton and Adney Smith came in with net 70s to take Low Net honors for men. Pam Dillingham fired a net 71 to win the ladies Low Net award.

Closest to the Pin winners were Pam Dillingham (#5), Bill Wilson (#8), Joie Gopez (#10) and Strat Whiting (#17). Pam put her tee shot three feet from the hole and made her birdie. Long time OCC member Bill Wilson, visiting from his new home in Santa Barbara, hit a tremendous shot into the wind on #8 to easily win the hole.

The highlight of the day was Pam Dillingham, who left her golfclubs somewhere and had to use her husband's sticks which she had never touched before. Well, except for a couple of bad shots and one 4-putt hole, Pam had the round of her life. Her drives were incredibly long and straight and Pam's front nine was her lowest score ever. Husband Peter may never see his clubs again.

The next stop on the OCC tour was June 29 at Leilehua.

All golfers are reminded to turn in your scores for your handicap and check out other golf news at the Front Desk.

There has been only one match played thus far in the 1994 Match Play Championship. Bob Hogan defeated Strat Whiting 5-4. Look for more results in the Outrigger next month.

Back in the Swing Again

By Tracey Wiltgen

The Outrigger swingers (tennis racquet swingers that is) were out in full force on Saturday, April 30, when OCC challenged Maunalua Bay Club to a little friendly competition.

The day was perfect. Blue skies, light trades, tantalizing refreshments and 24 Outrigger tennis enthusiasts, anxious to show the Maunalua Bay Club that the Outrigger is not just a canoe paddling club.

The enthusiasm of Outrigger's tennis stars could not be matched by the Maunalua Bay members and OCC thus dominated the courts. In fact, Outrigger took over the courts. With relatively few Maunalua Bay members present, the afternoon evolved into an Outrigger vs. Outrigger competition.

John Mounts and his partner Ethan Abbot appeared invincible. Undaunted and equally impressive were the teams of Jeff Taylor and Michael Haig, Rodman Muller and Mark Lloyd, and Bill Weills and Joe Muller.

Among the mixed doubles teams, Vik and Tanya Watumull were strong, but Rick Piper and Elizabeth Wiser, Skip Hill and Ann Martin, and Brad Martin and Tracey Wiltgen, were dynamic and prevailed in many strategic points.

The Outrigger women were represented by the lively (and highly competitive) teams of Carol Stams and Athena Gilbert, Laurie Siegfried and Sarah Dudgeon, Mary Nurse and Lucky Black, and Janet Schuller and Carole Wilbur.

The next competition will against Waialae Iki V on July 3. Watch out Waialae, the Outrigger Swingers are ready. ☺

Non-Run Fun Run Slated on Monday, July 18

By Donald T. Eovino

The 1st annual Non-Run Fun Run has been scheduled for Monday, July 18 at 6 p.m. at the OCC. The event is set for all Club members and guests whose idea of a race is to start slow and then taper off.

Registration will be taken, with the actual non-run beginning at 6:30 p.m. The course is out to the Snack Shop, along the canoes, past the Hau Terrace and finishes in the Dining Room.

The event is sponsored by the Running and Fitness Center committees as a fund raiser for the Hana Relays and the Fitness Center.

The non-runners who get to the aid stations first will get their choice of carbo-loading dishes prepared by noted restaurants such as Nick's Fishmarket, Sunset Grill, Matteo's, Compadres and a dish guaranteed to prevent you from "hitting the wall" by Kahana Moon. Surprise sustenance will also be available along the way.

To prevent dehydration, participants will be able to buy scripts to be used at our thirst station which will be stocked with various elixirs.

Decorative aid stations and entertainment by Pagan Babies will keep your spirits up through this fun festival.

All non-runners will receive a non-running number and a non-finishers T-shirt designed by Sellers Advertising which will commemorate this event.

Post-race festivities will include a silent and not-too-silent auction MC'd by Joe Teipel. Auction items will include dinners at Hawaii's best eateries, Neighbor Island hotel accommodations, weekend trips and other items.

Dress is casual--running apparel, sweats or sweaty attire. Be sure to invite your non-running friends.

You can get your tickets at the Front Desk. The entry fee of $20 includes activities, food and non-finishers T-shirt.

Participation is limited so order your tickets early.

New Canoe Blessed

The Rev. David Kaupu blessed the Club's new Bradley fiberglass racing canoe on May 30 as paddlers looked on. The canoe was named Kalehuawehe. The original Club site was located in Waikiki at an area famous for its surf, and known to Hawaiians as Kalehuawehe. The name and the surfing sport it represents are part of OCC's history and worthy of being honored with a canoe that bears that name, especially a canoe designed to ride waves to maximum advantage.

Employee Anniversaries

Celebrating employment anniversaries in July are Steve Chamberlain, beach attendant; Ruby Yabiku, senior account clerk, and Young Lee, locker room attendant.

Employee of the Month

The April Employee of the Month is Juanito Cariazo, night kitchen cleaner. It's unlikely that many members ever personally meet Juanito because his shift is from 10 p.m. to 7 a.m. He comes in at night while everybody is leaving and is responsible for cleaning the dishes, floors, and the trash. All tasks that are very much needed by the time members come in early in the morning.

Management chose Juanito because he is conscientious and cooperative. He works well on his own and takes responsibility to turn out lights and do what needs to be done.

Our Employee of the Month has been in Hawaii five years, and is a single parent to two children, ages 9 and 14.
