OCC Wins Healani Regatta

Outrigger won the Oahu Hawaiian Canoe Racing Association opening race, the Healani Regatta, on June 3 at Keehi Lagoon, surprising even Club members with the outstanding performances by Club crews.

OCC tallied 92 points to runnerup Kailua's 52. Hui Nalu was third with 34 points and Healani was fourth with 32 in the AA Division.

Club crews won the opening event, the Girls 12s and went on to win a total of 12 races, finished second in seven more, third in three and fourth in two.

Our Novice B men won their event but were DQ'd for having an ineligible paddler in the boat and our Junior Women were second but were DQ'd for hitting the flag on a turn.

Duke's 100th to be Celebrated in Nostalgic Style

By Alice Guild

Do you sometimes wish that you could return to those wonderful days of Honolulu in the 1930s? Here's an opportunity to do just that for one very special evening.

The Duke Kahanamoku Centennial Boat Day Ball, a benefit for the Outrigger Duke Kahanamoku Foundation, will culminate the month-long celebration of the Duke's 100th birthday.

The $125 per person gala will be held on Duke's actual birthday, Friday, August 24. The festivities will be held in the Coral Ballroom of the Hilton Hawaiian Village near the site of the Paoa family home on Kalia Road.

The evening will begin with "dockside" cocktails and a typical 1930s boat day send-off. The Coral Ballroom will be transformed into the grand salon of a Matson liner, featuring the Captain's Table, hosted by Robert Pfeiffer and Matson Navigation Company.

Following dinner, guests will be able to table-hop and reminisce or dance away the evening to the big band sounds.

OCC members will want to make reservations early. Put a group of 10 together tion in greater measure may become Patrons at $3,000 or Corporate Sponsors at $5,000. Each will receive a table for 10 and special recognition in the program.

Attire is cruise formal, so let your imagiand leave the names at the Front Desk. You will then be sure to receive the invitation and reservation forms by mid-July. In addition to organized tables, no-host tables will be available.

Those who wish to support the Founda-nation be your fashion guide.

The Outrigger Duke Kahanamoku Foundation benefits Hawaii's scholar-athletes and deserving athletic competitors, with an emphasis on water sports.

Macfarlane Regatta is 4th of July Tradition at Outrigger

By Allene Richardson

This was the winning women's crew in the 1943 Macfarlane Regatta. Bob Fischer, left, steered them. We only have the last names of the gals. If you know their first names, please let us know — Ross, Hayes, Marcia Bowers, Morris and Robinson.

It was 1943—the war was still going on in the Pacific and Europe. In Hawaii there was a light off-shore breeze at Waikiki Beach. It was glassy, with small groups of surfers.

The barbed wire was up on the beach in front of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel and the Moana. The inaugural 4th of July Macfarlane Regatta was getting underway.

The 48th annual Walter J. Macfarlane is again scheduled for the 4th of July. It is the only wave race in the Oahu Hawaiian Canoe Racing Association schedule and commemorates Walter James “Mac” Macfarlane, president of the Outrigger Canoe Club at the time of his death in 1943.

At that time, the OCC sponsored a race on the 4th of July. Following Macfarlane's death, Henry DeGorog, manager of OCC suggested that this picturesque canoe activity be dedicated to Walter Mac and be known thereafter as the Walter J. Macfarlane Memorial Canoe Race.

The original race featured 13 events with the premiere event of the regatta, as always, the Senior Men's race. The early course was 4 1/2 miles and OCC dominated at this distance.

The first winning crew was Thad Ekstrand, John Beaumont, Tom Amott, Jim Fernie, Bob Bush and steersman Duke Kahanamoku.

The Senior Men's perpetual trophy, a Silver Bowl, was donated by the Royal Hawaiian Hotel's division of Matson Navigation Company in memory of Walter Mac.

The winning club Koa Wave Trophy was donated by Macfarlane's sister, Muriel Flanders in 1972.

This year promises spectacular weather, blue skies, the thrill of big waves, packed beaches and exciting unpredictable events. Don't miss it. Races get underway at 8:30 a.m.

AS THE TERRACE TURNS

By Mary Machado

Al and Connie Serafin celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary one day early on May 15 by partying the night away with their friends at the Outrigger . . .

After returning from Florida and a cruise through the Panama Canal, the newlywed Rita Parker was honored at a luncheon in the OCC Dining Room on May 11, given by Hattie Whitaker. Guests included Marian Arnott, Marlene Michalski, Suzanne Betz, Nancy Cummings, Vi Dohlman, Alice Guild and Priscilla Berenzweig. Rita and husband Hunter left in June for Paris and Wimbledon.

All fans of Kris Smith's cookies, look for her book coming out just before football season, The Tailgate Party Cookbook.

Former Black Sheep Marine Corps Fighter Squadron members Bruce Matheson and Frank Walton hosted Marine Corps Ace Brigadier General Marion Carl at the Club for lunch recently where they reminisced over their days together in the South Pacific during WW II . . .

Dave Pierson, home from Saudi Arabia, reports that the Outrigger Magazine was a prized commodity in that country where photos of women in bathing suits are banned.

Wyatt Jones will be competing this month in the National Sports Festival in Minnesota in canoeing.

The Club received a nice mahalo letter from reciprocal club member Thomas H. James:

"Please convey our best wishes to your management and staff for the courtesy extended to us. We both agreed that the use of your excellent club put the icing on the cake as far as our stay in Honolulu was concerned.

"I would mention also that your Saturday night band brought back lovely memories of the "good" music era and your trombonist in particular was brilliant."

"Congratulations to your head chef also who saw to it that the food was consistently good and to your dining room staff for their pleasant approach."

Haku Snyder has announced the marriage of her daughter, Emily Moffett Hodges and Andrew Leonard Wolf of Cincinnati on May 5. They have frequently been the guests of Haku at her Diamond Head apartment. Emily graduated from Harvard and was a marshall this June at the Harvard commencement . . .

Denise Devaney became engaged while serving as a member of a friend's wedding party. She'll be married in November in the Punahou Chapel.

Chris Duplanty received the Lauds and Laurels award for outstanding service to UC Irvine at a black tie dinner in May. . . "And Baby Makes Three" was the appropriate name of a television news series for expectant mothers by our own infanticipating Laura Soller-Miller.

Grant Senner, home from sailing in the Caribbean, was honored at a 19th birthday party by many Club members and friends. Two weeks later, he received a Good Guy Award from Mayor Fasi for saving the life of a fellow crew member when the yacht he was sailing to California keeled over and sunk last summer. . .

Gretchen Duplanty and her sister spent three weeks in Spain checking on possible rentals for the 1992 Olympics in Barcelona. Son Chris was on the U.S. Olympic Water Polo team in the '88 Olympics and is considered the top candidate for the goalie position in '92.

Pumehana Davis reports that she's busy playing her harp at engagements around the island. . .

Sheila Stehouwer and beautiful daughter Jordan Mikala Everett had brunch on the Hau Terrace recently with grandmother Barbara Stehouwer, visiting grandmother Joan Everett of California, auntie/godmother Carey Stehouwer and Brian Deer.

Vera Hussey-Forbes was honored to be nominated for a Hoku Award in the category, Female Vocalist of the Year, for her traditional Hawaiian song album, "Hawaii My Heart."

Water Polo Team Signing Up New Members

Calling all Club members! Do you love water sports? Want to try something new? Come join the OCC Water Polo team. It's fun and it's coed!

We're looking for all interested members to participate in several exciting events this summer. All the equipment is provided and the team is coached by member John Nielsen. No experience necessary, but you must be a good swimmer.

Our schedule of events this summer include the Aloha State Games, July 13 and 14; our own OCC Invitational, July 28 and 29; and the Hawaiian Invitational, August 13-19.

All interested members please leave a note at the Front Desk for either John Nielsen or Colleen Kelley. Please include your phone number.

Let's go, H2O Polo!

RULE OF THE MONTH

Members are responsible for their own good behavior and safety on the beach and water area fronting the Club. Parents, or other adult member hosts, shall at all times accompany all guests, and all children under the age of 10, and shall be responsible for their behavior and safety on the beach and in the water.

Beach attendants, not lifeguards, are on duty during daytime hours: 8:30 a.m.-5:30 p.m. Upon request, the beach attendants will provide umbrellas in the sand court, and backrests as available.

Qualified members may sign out surfboards, paddleboards, and surfing canoes. Users of all equipment assume full responsibility for damages, proper handling, return, loss or personal liability.

OCC wins Kamehameha Day Regatta

Despite strong winds, Outrigger won its second straight OHCRA regatta, June 10, at Kailua Beach. OCC scored 75 points to runnerup Kailua's 67. Hui Nalu and Healani tied for third with 33 points each.

Club crews won nine events in the Kamehameha Day Regatta, finished second in four events, third in six and fourth in three.

Undeclared after the first two regattas are the Girls 12s, 16s and 18s, sophomore men, senior women and senior masters women.

The Senior Masters Women have won 14 straight regattas over the past three years.

The Girls 18s have won nine of their last 10 races over the past two years, including Oahu and States last year.

The win came despite the fact that the Senior and Masters Men's crews were in Australia defending their title in the Hamilton Cup distance race.

Winning Crews

Girls 12 (1/4 mile)—Tiare Larsen, Stacy Stapleton, Erin Berg, Keala Kilcoyne, Jessica Langley, Nanea Tannehill, 3:08.23.

AROUND THE CLUB

By Ray Ludwig, General Manager

Fourth of July at the Outrigger is like the 4th of July no where else! The day begins at 7 a.m. with 200+ paddlers on the Terrace for breakfast, followed by a motivational speech by the coaching staff after which all the paddlers gather in front of the Club and proceed down Kalakaua Avenue with our banner held high to the beach fronting the Moana.

The regatta begins at 9 a.m. and continues through 31 races in which we hope to have a crew entered in every event. The victorious paddlers then return to the Club for the traditional July 4th party, Steak Fry on the terrace, ono spaghetti dinner at the Snack Shop, a good band, good friends and fellowship and an all-around good time for one and all.

It's a lot of fun but I'm glad it only happens once a year.

Youth Volleyball

Paddling isn't the only activity taking place during the summer months. Volleyball is in full swing. Our boys 14s team traveled to the island of Kauai to participate in the first ever local tournament for this particular age group. The tournament was held June 2-3. Both the boys 16s and 18s participated in the Junior National tournament held in Albuquerque, N.M.

All three of these teams represented the Outrigger and represented us well. You can be very proud of these young men. I'm very pleased that the Board has seen the importance of supporting our younger athletes.

Water Polo

Our water polo teams traveled to the island of Maui to participate in an invitational tournament on June 29 and 30.

These activities together with our kayak races, summer surf contest, and our summer paddleboard events, and our sand court volleyball tournaments, adds up to a lot of things to get involved with or you can just sit back and enjoy all the action.

Busy Summer

Along with all the athletic activities, summer also means a great many more members, together with their family and friends, will be using the club more frequently for entertaining and that's great. I don't know of a more picturesque setting than the Dining Room Lanai or the Hau Terrace sea wall at sunset on a summer afternoon. However, I think it's important, especially during the summer months, that our members are aware of and abide by, the club's policy pertaining to members and invited guests.

Our policy is members may bring guests to the Club provided they are not persona non grata (if you think someone you would like to bring to the club might be on our persona non grata list, you can check with the executive office. By the way, this list is reviewed by the Board annually.)

No guests shall use the Club more than two days in any one month. This limitation does not apply to spouses of members or ladies and gentlemen accompanying single men or women members, respectively.

Members are responsible for determining their guests eligibility. Guests are required to remain in the company of the host member as long as the guest remains on the Club premises. Also remember that the host member is responsible for the conduct of his or her guests while on Club premises.

Please do not feel offended if you or a guest are challenged by a receptionist, beach attendant, food service personnel, parking or locker room attendant or any other authorized Club employee as the intent is to protect the Club from illegal use.

I would request that members report to management any person or persons believed to be using the Club illegally. With your help, we'll see to it that the Club is exclusively for your use and that of your authorized guests. If we all help each other we can all have a great time.

Persons who are not residents of the State of Hawaii are eligible for two-week non-resident memberships.

Bourbon League Enjoys Reunion

By Mike O'Connor

Approximately 45 Bourbon Leaguers and spouses descended upon the OCC for their biennial volleyball tournament and week long festivities in May.

The Bourbon Leaguers are former Pan American pilots and flight engineers who flew from the West Coast to Orient route via Honolulu, Midway, Wake and Guam. During the war years, the Bourbon Leaguers spent much of their layovers on the volleyball courts at the old Club.

The flight crew earned their name because they brought essential materials to Honolulu during the war such as volleyball nets, and of, course, bourbon.

Neal and Ruby Ifversen, Thad and Pat Ekstrand and Wally Young hosted this year's reunion.

Together again, were Art Hillier, Fred McLaughlin, Frank Metlick, Dan Mulholland and Q. Pearson.

Chatting at the Steak Fry were Jack Raabe, Dave Quinn and Bob Lawrence.

Chris Moore Wins, Again!

Chris Moore won the OCC Invitational Swim for the fourth straight year on May 19, despite a jellyfish alert and some stiff competition.

Moore's winning time was :46:43.

Sixty-two swimmers registered for the two-mile ocean swim, but quite a few withdrew because of the jellyfish problem which had closed Waikiki beaches the day before.

Forty-one swimmers finished the course, including six who swam a shorter one-mile course for those over 50.

Junior 'Riggers are on the move this summer.

David Buck is spending the summer in Lake Placid, New York kayaking at the Olympic Training Center.

Malia Kamisugi, a '90 grad of Punahou, will be competing in the National Sports Festival this month in Minnesota in kayaking.

Shandy Danford is spending the summer in Brazil body boarding on the competitive circuit. . .

Matt Corboy will be playing in the Junior National water polo tournament next month in Long Beach. Then he's off to Indianapolis to compete in the C-1 in the Junior National Canoe and Kayak Championships.

Congratulations to Kai Mowat for winning the 1990 Iron Kids Championship, June 2 at Barbers Point. Kai took the boy's senior division for the swim, bike, run with a winning time of :29:38.

Kai says he took advantage of the good conditions by taking a few butterfly strokes at the end of the swim. "My swim was pretty good," he said, "then I kind of messed up my transition. It was really slow. My bike was OK and my run was really fast." He'll be going to the nationals in Dallas, Texas in September. This will be Kai's third time competing in the nationals. . . In the U.S. Olympic Festival trials in Seattle, Kai won the 13 and under K-1 division, and was third in both the C-1 and the K-4.

Kawika Lucas has been playing soccer on the Olympic Development Team this summer. . .

Jr. Volleyballers On the Go

The Club's four junior volleyball teams will be on the go this summer as they compete in various national competitions. The Boy's 12 team is one of the best OCC has ever fielded at this age, according to Coach Tony Crabb. They'll be competing in the first national 12-year-old tournament in Chicago in July.

Members of the team are Kaione Crabb, Parker McLachlin, Craig Gamble, Jeffrey Lee, Michael Pietsch, Nai'a Blankenfeld, Kevin Crabb, Clayton Stanley, Koa Ostrem and Mike Bennett.

The Boy's 14s, coached by Fred Chuckovich, competed in match play against a good team from Waimea, Kauai on June 2. Our boys went 7-1.

Waimea Coach Jim Dennison said that this team was the nicest group of kids they'd ever played and said he would like to see our team return to play again next year.

After the tournament, the team got to go body surfing at Brenneke's.

Members of the team were Bret Chuckovich, Alika Williams, Trevor Cabell, Kua Hind, Nate Stapleton, Daniel Brandt, Walea Kalama, Kelii Wong, Scott Gamble.

The Boy's 16 and 18 teams will be competing in the Junior Nationals in Albuquerque, N.M., June 28 to July 6.

The 16s are coached by Kupa Cummings and Tony Crabb. Members of the team are Alika Williams, Brian Kilcoyne, Ryan Avery, Mike Lambert, Ivan Gale, Jesse Hunt, Daniel Chong and Richard Riecker.

Playing on the 18s are Michael Scott,

Ricky Humphreys, Brian Wells, Brant Chillingworth, Stein Metzger, Charlie Mattson, Mitchell Yap, Allen Pang, Laya Clark, Josh Helbling, Brandon Flores and Kevin Wong.

Coaching the 18s are Bob Riley and Peter Balding Jr.

Outrigger Kayakers Challenge Molokai

Thirteen Outrigger Canoe Club members participated in the 14th annual Bankoh Kayak Challenge on May 20, with Australia's Grant Kenny winning in 3:44:45.

Marshall Rosa finished second overall for the sixth time in 3:46:34.

Lesline Conner won the women's division for the fourth time in 4:56:54.

Kala Judd finished eighth in 3:55:46.

Five of the Club members entered won trophies in their respective divisions out of a field of 58 paddlers.

As a result of their being in the top six local paddlers, Marshall and Kala will be going to Australia in October to compete in a kayak race.

Sea conditions were moderate for the Kaiwi Channel with winds of 18-25 knots and seas of approximately eight to 10 feet. The seas allowed paddlers to surf part of the way across on what was considered a record-breaking pace. But as they neared the finish, backwash and adverse currents off Koko Head Crater forced them to slow down.

A Personal View of the Molokai Kayak Race

By Lesline Conner

I wrote this story especially for the members of the Outrigger Canoe Club and also for all my friends who so kindly helped and supported me with my 10th Kaiwi Channel Race.

This year's race is the most special in my heart. It was all based on God's help. In past races, I relied on my husband for physical help and Auntie Iwalani (Eva) for spiritual guidance and prayers.

Well, this year my husband was training also, so most of the household responsibilities were mine alone to allow him to train as much as his time would allow.

Since Auntie Eva went up to heaven last year, I decided to just meditate and see what God had in store for me. Que sera sera!

Eight week before the race, just before dawn, my friend Sandy and I went for an early morning paddle. We walked down the road from my home to Waimanalo Beach in the dark. While we waited for the sun to rise, I started to do some Tai Chi. I gave my thanks to God for such a beautiful morning and my friend being able to join me and for the wonderful earth we share.

In my grace, I asked Him to please give me an answer for the Molokai race facing me. I felt the wind dance on my face. I realized it would be blowing downwind. At that moment, Pueo flew and fluttered its wings right above me. I knew then, Auntie Eva never left me. You see, before Auntie Eva left us, she gave me one of her many Pueo. She prayed that Pueo and all the heavenly birds would guide me and my family and that aumakua shark would protect me in the waters of Hawaii Nei. I knew then, my training would be in the hands of spiritual guides.

Many hours were spent in my solitude in the ocean, absorbing the sun's energy, watching the playful dolphins and whales entertain me—just meditating the island of Molokai drawing to me—the almost magic forces of nature completely encompassing and embracing me with their approval of our very fine relationship.

Three weeks before the race, I saw a little green bird with white rings around its eyes building a nest on a little potted ficus tree right next to the entrance door of my home. Days later, I saw two little bluish eggs in the nest. The day before I flew to Molokai, a bird was born—a heavenly message.

That night my children and I lit a candle in prayer for a safe crossing. We went outside and looked up into a cloudy sky and asked God to protect all the paddlers in the race. In a matter of seconds, the clouds parted, exposing the vast starry heaven and the fluttering wings of Pueo were heard as he flew by.

While waiting for the race to begin on Molokai, after the Kahu came by to give my husband and me his blessing with salt for our boats, a mysterious lady with flowing silver hair, whom I had never met before, but felt I had known, approached me and told me she had seen a little Pueo on the roadside with his eyes closed. She murmured other things, however, at that point, confidence was instilled within me and I had a flow of new strength that could only come from above.

From the beginning of the race to the entrance at Portlock, I was guided by two birds (Iwalani). You know, my escort boat had lost me for over an hour or so. In my gratitude to everyone for their support and monetary assistance, I thank God and Auntie Iwalani for their own "special navigators." Aloha.

OCC Spotlight: The Beach Desk

By Nalani Blaisdell

Don Isaacs has worked at the Outrigger's Beach Desk for five years, the last year as Beach Captain. The Los Angeles native says he never expected he'd end up in the job, when he first came here for temporary work!

Isaacs brings a strong recreational background to this work as recreation was his field of study at Long Beach State College. After a successful stint running a teen center in El Segundo, California, Don brings to the Outrigger a wealth of knowledge about working with youngsters, and gets a big kick out of seeing our Jr. 'Riggers having a good time.

Don says his goal as Beach Captain is to make the ocean as enjoyable as possible for Outrigger members. He strongly emphasizes safety when deciding who should be allowed to use the Club's surfboards and canoes.

When he's not cheerfully handing out surf reports to members, you'll likely find Don on or in the ocean somewhere. His hobbies include surfing at Diamond Head a couple of times a week, and canoe paddling with Waikiki Yacht Club's Sophomore Men's crew. He's also a swim instructor and lifeguard at Kaimuki YMCA. Don says what he likes best about the Outrigger is talking to members and learning about the ocean from some who have "quite a bit of knowledge and experience."

Don is married to his longtime sweetheart, Marsha. The couple have a seven year-old daughter, Jessica. Like her dad, Jessica loves to surf and boogieboard, but she also enjoys reading books and kicking around with karate.

At the Beach Desk, you'll also find Brian Patrick Connolly and Michelle Sandoval.

Brian was born in Hawaii but has lived all over the world. He went to elementary school in Hawaii, high school in Las Vegas and Asia, and college in Samoa. His dad's job took them to Vietnam, Singapore, Hong Kong, Tokyo, the Philippines and Malaysia. He's been back in Hawaii since 1981. Brian is studying to be a radio announcer at the Columbia School of Broadcasting.

He worked at the Beach Desk a couple of years ago, and returned to the Club on June 9. He has also helped Donny Mailer run the beach services at the Hilton Hawaiian Village.

Working at the Beach Desk are Brian Patrick Connolly and Beach Captain Don Isaacs. Michelle was on vacation when the photo was taken.

Brian's hobbies include surfing, studying music and playing guitar. He also paddled as a novice for Lokahi as a steersman.

Our first female beach attendant is Michelle who was born and raised in Las Vegas, New Mexico, but says she just loves living here. Michelle brings a wealth of physical fitness knowledge to the beach desk—she was a professional ballet dancer for many years.

Michelle was graduated from Sandia

High in Albuquerque and recently moved to Honolulu to join a gang of hometown friends. She's a card-carrying member of Gold's Gym and also enjoys windsurfing, soccer and cooking.

"The best thing about being at the Outrigger," Michelle says, "is the good atmosphere, nice environment and healthy, motivated people!"

Michelle hopes to eventually attend college and to study foreign cultures and languages.

OCC Volleyball Teams Win 2 Silvers and 1 Bronze in USVBA Championships

By Patrick Daily

The Outrigger Canoe Club sent three teams to the U.S. Volleyball Association national championships, May 14-20 in Raleigh, N.C. Representing the Club in the tournament were the Senior (30-34 years), Masters (35 & over) and Golden Masters (45 & over).

In the Senior Division, our nine players went undefeated in pool play and were seeded going into double elimination. There they marched through the brackets and into the finals where they lost in a double final match, to the Silverados of California, finishing a respectable second.

Members of the team were Ralph Smith, Mark Rigg, Marc Haine, Jon Andersen, Kainoa Downing, Kimo Brown, John Zabriskie, Tim Walston and Peter Ehrman. Selected to the All-America first team were Marc Haine and Mark Rigg. Ralph Smith and Jon Andersen were named to the second team.

OCC's Masters team started the tournament without key player Chris Crabb who joined-up with the team in the second day. The team went undefeated in the first three rounds and was seeded going into the double elimination.

They suffered their first loss in the quarterfinals of the winner's bracket to a tough team from Denver. OCC then won five games in a row to get to the finals where they met the same Denver team. Denver won and OCC finished second.

Members of the team were Chris Crabb, Randy Shaw, Jon Stanley, Charlie Jenkins, Bill Lawson, Ilmar Tarikas, Wayne Kekina and Buster Chapman.

Selected to the All-America first team were Crabb and Jenkins. Stanley was named to the second team.

The Golden Masters team finished third in their division after losing only one match in each of pool play, double elimination and the finals. The loss of outstanding player Tom Haine in the second day to an injury, had a telling effect.

The Golden Masters lost in the finals of the losers bracket to DHL of Texas, the eventual winner, whom they had beaten in the finals last year.

Members of the team were Dennis Berg, Fred Chuckovich, Tom Haine, Richard Conroy, Fred Hiapo, Tony Crabb, Rich Riffero, Dick Templeman, Bob Kashare and Bill Baird.

Selected as first team All-Americans were Berg and Templeman. Riffero was named to the third team.

All in all, OCC's play was excellent and the players should be congratulated.

KAHALA MALL

R FOR HEALTH

By Fred Fong, M.D.

Last summer my daughter developed frequent foot infections from coral cuts. What advice do you have for dealing with this recurrent problem?

Coral cuts have an understandable reputation for becoming inflamed and infected. The skeletal fragments of live and dead coral may become embedded in a wound and serve as a source for infection and slow healing of the wound. The easiest way to handle this potential problem is to deal with it as soon as possible.

First, flush the wound with running water.

Second, use a clean needle or a toothpick to remove any foreign particles.

Next, wash the cut with hydrogen peroxide. The effervescent quality that peroxide produces may remove any minute foreign particles still remaining in a cut. Finally, add a swab of iodine to the cut twice a day. Though this may sting a little, the antimicrobial qualities of iodine for live coral cuts are incomparable. Use decolorized iodine if you can find it at your drug store. This helps prevent your foot wound from staining your carpets.

If the wound should become infected, the offending bacterial organism is probably streptococci or staphylococci resistant to penicillin. Have your doctor evaluate the wound for debridement and the need for an appropriate antibiotic.
