OCC Wins Macfarlane Regatta

By Marilyn Kali

Making its best showing of the season, Outrigger Canoe Club won the Walter J. Macfarlane Regatta on the 4th of July at Waikiki Beach with 86 points. Hui Nalu was second with 71.

Club teams won 13 events, were second in four races and third in two, climaxing a day full of activities that began with a paddler's breakfast at 6 a.m. and ended with dancing and a party at the Club.

The surf was consistent throughout the day at about 3-feet providing perfect waves for the regatta.

The premiere event of the day, the Senior Men's race, became a three-team race when a set of large waves swamped all of the canoes in lanes one to four at the start of the race. Hui Nalu, out of the surf in lane seven, easily won the race. Outrigger's never give up men bailed the Kilakila and finished fourth.

The OCC Boy's 18 crew remained undefeated and set a new record in their event, knocking 11 seconds off the previous record. They finished in 6:41.51, bettering the 1984 record set by OCC of 6:52.9. The time was also the fastest 1-mile time in the history of the race.

The Boy's 18 won the event using their regular steersman, Heath Hemmings, while most crews used open

One of the more interesting races of the day was the Masters women's race. The OCC crew caught a wave with several other boats, when they got caught in the trough and couldn't get out. When the wave died, they did a 360-degree turn to get them back to their lane where they finished fourth.

A total of nine canoes were swamped during the regatta.

Muriel Flanders, sister of the late Walter J. Macfarlane after whom the race is named, and her daughter, Alice Guild, were on hand to present trophies and champagne to winning crews. 🍷

Paddlers gathered in the Bar for a pep talk before the Macfarlane Regatta.

The Sophomore men were victorious--Marc Haine, Scott Rolles, Keone Downing, Kala Judd, Greg Rudin and Keoni Kino.

Chanting "We will, we will, rock you, OUT-RIG-GER!" paddlers marched from the Club to Waikiki Beach.

John Basdavanos and Pii Schneider share a gourmet lunch. Pii won the lunch at the Waimanalo Regatta for having the best lei.

Duke Sculpture Given to Club

Honolulu sculptor Rosalie Young Persons has donated her bronzed three-dimensional portrait of Duke Kahanamoku to the Outrigger Canoe Club. The sculpture has been placed in the Club lobby, near the ewa wall.

The presentation was made on June 10 to members of the Club Board of Directors, Duke's widow, Nadine Kahanamoku and invited guests.

Duke posed for the sculpture in 1934 when he was 44 years old. Mrs. Persons said Duke was a wonderful model. They had been friends for many years when she asked him to pose.

The original sculpture was done in plaster.

About a year and a half ago, Mrs. Persons decided she would like to donate the sculpture to the Outrigger, where Duke was so well-known and loved. She had the sculpture bronzed at Bedi-Maky in Long Island, New York.

The sculpture has been anchored on a large lava stone Mrs. Person's father found in Waimanalo many years ago. "I felt that the stone was particularly significant," she said. "It was full of sand and reminded me of all the time that Duke had spent in the ocean and on our beaches."

Jack Hagar designed the wooden base on which the sculpture sits.

In accepting the sculpture, Club President Mark Buck thanked Mrs. Persons for her generosity and noted how privileged the Club was to receive such a valuable piece of art work. 🍷

While Sorrell took Billy Baird on a mountain top deer trail, Bobbi, Kisi Haine and others shot the Park City Ski Area Slide, a 1-mile toboggan slide down the face of one of Park City's famous snow ski runs.

Meanwhile, Linzy Hotz, Fred Hiapo, Pat Wyman and Bob Kashare played golf at the very tough Park Meadows Gold Course, which is out Ron and Bobbi's back door.

Sorrell and Wyman have bought mountain bikes and are shooting the mountain tops for extra thrills. Not quite like surfing, says Sorrell, but

Fishing Rules Off Club Beach

By Doug Davis

In the past, we have seen articles written about the ocean and the marine life located off of our Club's shore. We have read about some of the types of fish one might encounter and we thought it might be interesting to continue in this vein and learn that all of the waters off the Club have various fishing restrictions.

The state Department of Fish and Game has declared that all of the ocean from the Diamond Head Lighthouse to the Natatorium and out as far as the outer edge of the reef (where the waves break) are part of a Fisheries Management Area where various fishing rules apply.

The area from the Ewa wall of the Natatorium to the Kapahulu groin and out to the edge of the reef is part of the new 70-acre Marine Life Conservation District (like a mini-Hanauma Bay) where any form of fishing is forever prohibited. This new designation has just become effective as of May 27, 1988 and it is expected to become a great place for the public to view and feed "tame" marine life.

This all began when the Fish and Game Division began fishing moratoriums and surveys back in 1978. These two areas were closed for a two year period. Then in 1980, pole and line fishing was allowed and in 1981, all forms of fishing were allowed.

This was followed by another two year closure, with yearly reopening to the various forms of fishing. This opening and closing continues to this day.

Currently, one can fish in front of the Club with pole and line, throw nets or day time spearing, but no night time spearing or gill nets are allowed.

Interestingly, the Division of Fish and Game has calculated the biomass of all the fish in this area by a scientific sampling method to arrive at an average number of fish per pound per acre.

What is even more interesting is that the opening and closing to fishing in this area shows significant fish population changes. For example, in the pre-1978 days there was an average of 85 pounds of fish per acre. In 1978, the biomass increased to 200 pounds per acre and increased further in the second year of closure to 450 pounds per acre.

In 1980, when pole and line fishing was allowed again, the biomass decreased to 350 pounds/acre and decreased further to 150 pounds/acre when all forms of fishing were allowed in 1981. This trend has continued up and down like this to the present.

Contrary to the popular notions, this underwater area is very much alive and quite dynamic. In fact, the diving all around Diamond Head shows the area to be perhaps the richest in marine diversity as anywhere in the islands.

One only has to venture out away from the shoreline to see the variety of fishes. For those not so inclined, but still interested in our island's underwater beauty, perhaps a visit to our neighbor, the Waikiki Aquarium, would be fun. You don't even have to get wet! 🌊

Water Polo

OCC's Water Polo team will compete in two water polo tournaments this month.

On August 13th, the team will participate in the Hilo Water Polo Tournament.

They will also compete in the 20th annual Hawaii Invitational Water Polo Tournament, August 15-21 at the Duke Kahanamoku Pool at the University of Hawaii.

Members of the team include Bruce Black, John Nielsen, Mark Bradley, Boogie Black, Grant Senner, George Puder, Bill Breeden, and Blair Borthwick.

Anyone else who would like to be on the team should contact Nielsen.

Lifeguards Win 8th Annual OCC Summer Surf Paddleboard Race

Lifeguards Debbie Wayman and Chris Moore won the OCC sponsored 8th Annual Summer Surf Paddleboard Race for the third year in a row, June 18 at the Club.

Conditions for the race were perfect, with 3-4 foot surf, sunny skies and gentle trades.

Women race 1 1/3 miles, while the men's course is three times through the surf or 2 miles.

Outrigger paddlers were well represented in the 54 racers, with Kaili Chun, Kym McKenzie and Missy Mowat, finishing second, third and fourth overall in the women's competition. Fred Fong and Dawson Jones were the first OCC men to finish, coming in sixth and seventh, overall.

Race Director Cline Mann thanks all those who helped make the race a success, including Marilyn Kali, Peg

Thanks to all those who contributed prizes, including Dale Hope and Michele St. John. 🙏

MAP SHOWING SHORE AND OCEAN FRONTING OUTRIGGER CANOE CLUB AT KAPUA, KEKIO, WAIKIKI, HONOLULU, OAHU

Scale
100 Yards

Where to Swim at Outrigger

By Shirleigh Clark

It's all there waiting to enjoy. Crystal blue water of the Pacific Ocean and the colorful sea life below.

To help you enjoy the ocean fronting the Club beach, Cline Mann has prepared the magnificent visual chart opposite of the waterways oceanside of the OCC.

It covers the area from Castle Surf to the Natatorium. It delineates the reefs you want to avoid when you're swimming and the Leaning Posts and Wind Sock you might want to use as milestones.

Cline has scaled the map so that 1 1/2 inches equals 100 yards.

A few of our well-known, experienced Club swimmers have provided comments and suggestions on where they like to swim.

Coordinating Director for Athletics, Diane Stowell, has this to say:

"Waikiki Bay is one of the most beautiful areas in which to swim and very convenient to get to. Out beyond the Wind Sock, turn right and swim along the reef area.

"It's beautiful with so many colored fish and sometimes rays and turtles.

"The boats usually do not come too close, but you should always be on the look out. Bathing caps in bright colors help but be aware. It is hard to see swimmers as they are so low in the water."

Bonnie Eyre, a regular early morning swimmer, suggests various swimming courses:

"Swim around the Hobies in front of the Club.

"Swim from the Club beach out to the Wind Sock and back.

"Swim from the front of Sans Souci out to the Wind Sock and back."

She reminds members and guests that they swim at their own risk. The Club does not have lifeguards on duty, only beach attendants to assist with equipment.

"You should be an experienced swimmer because there are currents in this area. It is always best to swim with someone," she advises.

Another experienced roughwater swimmer, Jim Anderson, suggests these routes:

"Around the boat anchorage, loop around the Hobies.

"The distance from the end of the Colony Surf groin to the Wind Sock is about 1/8 mile, or a round trip of 1/4 mile.

"Swim around the Colony Surf Groin down to the Natatorium and back. For longer swims, go out to the Wind Sock, come in hugging the reef to the left, to the Natatorium wall, then along the beach, out to the Wind Sock and back to the Club Beach.

"There are lots of opportunities to view our sea life neighbors on the route around the Hobies and the Natatorium route."

Club Swimming Committee Chairperson Pam Zak warns swimmers to avoid reef areas during low tides. She also alerts swimmers to rocks in front of the Colony Surf groin that are dangerous during low tides.

"If you try to cut in over the rocks during low tide, you will get cuts," she says. "I know, it's happened to me."

She also says that there are lots of wana in that area.

Club swimmers who would like to participate in non-competitive group swims are welcome to participate in 2K swims that are held every Saturday at 9 a.m. at Ala Moana Park.

"The swims are open to everyone and lots of fun," she adds. "If you don't know people to swim with, this is a good way to get to know some."

Pam also urged Club members to start swimming regularly so that they'll be in shape by November 27 for the annual Castle Swim from the Outrigger Waikiki Hotel to the Club.

"This is an all-OCC swim, so we really want our members to participate. We have great prizes and a terrific breakfast afterwards."

"If you'd like to know more about ocean swims, ask anyone on the Swimming Committee or leave a note for me at the Front Desk," she added.

So folks, it's all there waiting for you to enjoy. Just remember the power of the ocean and have respect. ♪

From June 13-18, 1988 in Salt Lake City, Utah, our OCC men's volleyball teams competed in the United States Volleyball Association National Championships with our Masters team (ages 35-44) taking first place among 28 teams.

Chris Crabb, MVP Masters

Taking Most Valuable Player honors was Chris Crabb who had a spectacular performance during the six day tournament.

Jon Stanley was named to the first team and Charlie Jenkins and Randy Shaw both received honorable mention.

The first place finish for the Masters was truly a "Cinderella" performance. The favorite to win the tournament was definitely Billauer Chiropractic, a team filled with top notch players from Southern California, who, by the way, were much younger than our boys who are pushing the upper limits of the Masters age bracket.

This was a double elimination tournament and our guys were a bit concerned after going undefeated in pool play just to be beaten quite easily by Billauer in the finals of the winner's bracket, 10-6, 15-7. Our men went on into the losers bracket where they met a team from Colorado with the shortest starting player being 6'4". The OCC Masters came through, however, playing three very tough games to escape with a victory and give them one more chance at Billauer.

When the championship game began, it looked like the Masters were going to be humiliated once again by Billauer. They were behind 13-0 in the first game but they were able to regain their composure and came back to lose by a 15-7 margin. The second and third games were won by OCC, 15-11 and 15-7, which forced the two teams into a sudden death game to determine the champion. This time, however, OCC prevailed and whitewashed the Billauer team, 15-4, to take the title.

In addition to Crabb, Stanley, Jenkins and Shaw, our first place Masters team members were Rob Durand (who according to his teammates should have been named to the first team), Chris McLachlin, Bill Johnson and Ilmar Tarikas. Tom Madison, who had trained with the team all year, was ill and couldn't make the trip.

Along with our Masters team, OCC fielded two other teams with both teams finishing high in the standings. Our Golden Masters (ages 45+) finished second overall among 19 teams. The Golden Masters went undefeated in pool play which advanced them into the eight-team double-elimination bracket in the number two seeded position behind the Legends of California.

After winning their first two matches, the Golden Masters were finally beaten by the Legends in a hotly contested three-game match. Dropping down into the losers bracket, our Golden men defeated Ohio Valley which put them face to face again with the Legends in the finals. It should be noted that the win against Ohio Valley was "sweet revenge" as this was the team that put OCC out of the tournament last year.

In the finals, it was another see-saw battle with the Legends, with the California team ending up the victor. Taking into consideration, however, the fact that five of the Golden Masters team members were in the training room due to injuries before and after each match, the second place finish was more than respectable.

Members of the Golden Masters included Coach Dennis Berg (All American first team), Captain Tom Haine, Bill Baird, Bob Kashare, Linzey Hotz, Fred Hiapo (honorable mention honors), Dave Hendrickson, Butch May (All American first team), Fred Chuckovich (honorable mention honors), Peter Balding Sr., Wayne Kekina and Rich Riffero (Most Valuable Player honors).

The third team that OCC sent to Salt Lake City was our Open team. The competition in this division was fierce and our boys were able to finish in a very respectable 9th place out of 42 teams. The team members were Jon Andersen, Marc Haine, Kimo Brown, Ralph Smith, Jim Kalaukoa, Todd Harrison, Trevor Schirman, R.D. Gray and John Zabriskie.

All of the members of the OCC teams would like to thank the OCC for their continued support. Knowing that they have that support helps each player to "dig deep" and come through with that extra special performance.

Last year, our teams placed second (Masters), 4th (Golden Masters) and 7th (Open). This year we placed, 1st, 2nd and 9th. Next year, will be even better. 🏆

Traci Phillips Makes Olympic Team

By Margie Howe

The Olympic trials for the United States Kayak/Canoe Team were held June 9-12 at beautiful Eagle Creek, Indianapolis, Indiana.

Six Hawaii hopefuls, including OCC kayakers Traci Phillips and Mark Sandvold, and Bo Eastabrooks, Mike Harbold and Billy Robello and OCC canoer Kevin Olds, joined more than 100 other participants in vying for spots on the U.S. teams for the 1988 Olympics in Seoul, Korea.

The kayak/canoer events will be held September 26-October 1.

All of our Hawaii entries made it to the semifinals. When the finals were finally over, Traci and Mike were officially members of the Olympic kayak team, and presented awards to Traci and her boyfriend, Greg Barton, as the top U.S. Female and Male Kayakers for 1987.

Traci, Mike and Billy were all financially assisted in their quest for Olympic berths by the Outrigger Duke Kahanamoku Foundation.

The 21-member U.S. team has a busy summer lined up that will prepare them for Seoul. They are now under the guidance of the three national coaches.

Mark Sandvold competed in Canada in July. He finished fourth in the K-1 500-Meter event. Had he been a Canadian citizen, his performance would have placed him on that country's Olympic kayak team.

Billy Robello and Mike Harbold won the K-2 500-meters.

team which consists of 10 men and five women kayakers and six canoers.

Although Mark and Billy did not make the team, they made a good showing, both making it to the finals and finishing in the top 15, which qualified them to go to the training camp at Lake Placid, N.Y. and then participate in four regattas in Canada later this summer.

Billy teamed with Mike on Sunday to win the last gold medal of the trials in the K-2 500 Meters, a great finish.

Sadly, Kevin was unable to give his best effort at the trials due to a shoulder injury which plagued him all year.

Eagle Creek was a beautiful setting--big trees, lots of lawn and picnic areas. However, over the four days of trials, the athletes created an atmosphere of stress, tension and uptightness for themselves.

All good friends on land, they became fierce competitors in the water.

To help ease the tension, each day during the two-hour lunch break, the kids from Hawaii headed to their station wagons and trucks and rested while listening to their Hawaiian music tapes. On Sunday, when the finals were over and the Olympic teams decided, they celebrated Hawaiian style with music and refreshments.

At the banquet on Sunday night, Andy Toro, secretary of the U.S. Olympic Committee recognized the Olympic

After a few days of training and rest, they departed for Europe to compete in regattas in East and West Germany and England against some of the best competition they'll face at the Games.

They'll try to find out which combinations of paddlers work best together to make up the two and four-person boats.

According to the coaches, officials and past team members, this is the best U.S. team ever and everyone involved thinks the American team has a great chance to bring home medals for the United States.

Editor's Note: Margie Howe is Traci Phillip's mother. She will be traveling to Seoul as a guest of the U.S. Olympic Committee to watch Traci compete. Watch for her Olympic report in the December Outrigger.

Winged "O": Tom Haine

By Martin Zais

Winged "O" awarded 1968

It may come as a surprise to some Club oldtimers, but Winged "O" honor recipient Tom Haine is not originally from Hawaii, or from the beaches of Southern California. Tom was born in Minot, North Dakota and moved to Hawaii in 1947 at the age of 14.

He graduated from Roosevelt High School in 1950 and attended the University of Hawaii for one year, after which he moved to California where he attended Monterey Peninsula College, later graduating from San Jose State College.

Tom has been an Outrigger member for more than 40 years and has twice been elected president of the Club, in 1972 and in 1987. He has served on virtually every committee and has served as Club Captain, Treasurer, Vice President and Director.

If that wasn't enough, Tom is now the immediate past-President and Coordinating Director for the Long Range Planning Committee.

Tom, one of the OCC's most distinguished member-athletes, attained a pinnacle in American volleyball history which can never again be equalled because of rule changes.

Tom was Captain of the 1968 United States Olympic Volleyball Team which defeated the Olympic Champion Russian team in their first match, before losing to third place, Czechoslovakia.

He has been elected to the All-American Volleyball team 18 times, including both the open and senior divisions in 1968. He is now a member of the two-time national championship OCC Golden Masters Volleyball team that finished second in the USVBA championships this year.

Tom has participated in practically every sport at OCC with enthusiasm, sportsmanship and a keen sense of competition.

In 1952, he was a member of the winning state championship Junior Men's six-man paddling crew.

Tom has seen the growth and transition of our Club for almost four decades. He has just guided it successfully through a major capital improvement program (the addition to our parking structure) and is very much involved with the long range planning for the OCC.

Tom Haine

No member has given more of his time, devotion, loyalty and ability to the Club than Tom Haine. The Club responded by bestowing its highest award, the Winged "O" upon him.

Tom is a champion and the strength and future of OCC rides on the shoulders of members like him.

Tom and wife, Marilyn, aren't the only members of the family to participate in Club activities. Daughter Kisi and son, Marc, are also very active in OCC sports.

Since 1950, Outrigger has been a second home to Tom. He has found it to be a catalyst for many of his deepest friendships, materially contributing to his capacity for leadership in business as well as sports. In his work life, Tom is a vice-president and manager of one of the branches of First Hawaiian Bank. ☞

OCC Softball Team in Action

The boys of summer have heard the cry, "play ball" and may be found on the Kapiolani Park diamond just across from the Club most afternoons.

Games are held on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 5:30 p.m.

This year's Diamond Head Invitational League has such heavy hitters as Magnum, HPD, Sparky's and the Blue Jays.

Looking to rebound from last year's third place finish, the Club will need sound fielding and solid hitting from the seasoned veterans. Returning to this year's lineup are Bob Riley, Jim Gaddis, Dennis Fern and Danny West.

Outrigger will receive slugging power at home plate from Bill Kilcoyne, Jim Cavanagh and Henry Ayau.

Other returning vets that add the needed experience are Bill Breeden and Mike Rodrigues.

The season's returning players will give the team a firm foundation, but look for excitement from the rookies, including Mark Campbell who has a strong arm and a good set of wheels. Bert Heilbron has shown power at the plate when timing is in favor.

This year's lineup could prove to have the reputation of season's past as the team to beat.

Bring the hot dogs and mom's apple pie and support your Outrigger team right in our own backyard. 🍌

Running UpCountry Style

By Ruby Ifversen

Over Memorial Day weekend, seven Outrigger members, four runners and three "athletic supporters" headed for Maui to enter the Tedeschi 10K Run on May 29. A fifth runner, Bill Henderson, met us at the starting line.

We took two cabins at the Silversword Inn in Kula, which is "rustic" to say the least. I think we were the only guests there, but one of the highlights of the weekend was the meal they prepared just for the seven of us on Saturday night.

An eight course buffet of local favorites such as sashimi, tako poke, opihi, lomi salmon and poi, chicken, mahi and rice, all for only $10 a head. Can't beat that!

The 10K race course runs from Keokea Park in Kula, down through Ulupalakua Ranch lands to the Tedeschi Winery at Ulupalakua. The view of Molokini and Kahoolawe are magnificent from up there and it was a beautiful, sunny day.

All five OCC runners turned in good times on the mostly downhill course, but paid for it the next day with sore legs.

There was no wine served at the finish but there was an excellent continental breakfast, washed down with lots of New York Seltzer. Very satisfying.

All in all, a fun weekend and well worth the trip. We are thinking about

Distance Swim Events Scheduled

By Gerry DeBenedetti

Two distance swim events will occur the first weekend in September for serious swimmers.

The Maui Channel, again under the direction of our OCC member, Ian Emberson, will be Saturday, September 3. The course is Lanai to Lahaina, but bring your friends. This is a team event, with each swimmer taking a portion of the nine miles between Lanai and Maui until the team finishes. Believe it or not, it can be done in about three hours, with very good friends, and good conditions.

For details, see Ian as soon as possible. It is an international event, with teams coming from Canada, Australia and also the mainland. The mainland teams look upon it as a warm up for the big swim which follows, the Waikiki Roughwater Swim, held on Labor Day, September 5.

The Roughwater, the best known of our Honolulu distance events, attracts around 1,300 entrants, and is held right in front of the Club. The start is at the Kaimana at 9 a.m. and the finish is 2 1/2 miles later at the Hilton Hawaiian Village. Awards will be given out for both swims at Fort DeRussy immediately after the Roughwater.

The Roughwater will have four heats, so read your application blank carefully for the correct starting time. All age groups are welcome. High school swimmers usually turn out in force, and together with the mainland competition, it can be a very fast event.

There are usually 35 OCC swimmers in this event, and the Club assists with transportation and refreshments at the finish line. Applications are available at the Front Desk. Be sure you sign up if you want a ride back to the Club and if you need gear taken to the finish, see Gerry DeBenedetti or leave a note in the application folder.

Two new features this year. Orange and yellow caps will be given to all swimmers to assist support and safety personnel with spotting strays. This should be a colorful spectacle.

Preparation is offered in the form of swim clinics held at the Kaimana. The last one available is August 28 at 8 a.m. There will be four Roughwater swim coaches providing instructions and answering questions. Contact either Pam Zak, Ian Emberson or Gerry DeBenedetti if you want more information. They will be happy to share things they've learned in their years of participating in these events. ☎

1908--Short on equipment, the new OCC was in dire need of surfboards so, according to a contemporary report, "carpenters are busy turning out nine boards for the use of Club members at the cost of $2 a board and up."

40 Years Ago

1948--Club President Wilford Godbold called for a poll of members willing to pay $2.50 a month for Waikiki parking and 126 members signed up.

30 Years Ago

1958--Duke Kahanamoku turned 68. A full three-course lunch featuring veal chops cost $1.45; mahimahi, $1.75, and for 60 cents extra, a Pink Elephant cocktail. Best party of the month: a Hawaiian Stew and Draft Beer bash, planned by Hal Whitaker and his entertainment committee of Jimmy Hakuole, Chuck Schrader, Jack Cross, Hope Dennis, Caroline Ledford, Hattie Whitaker and Gerri Golick (Pedesky).

20 Years Ago

1968--Warren Ackerman led OCC Team I in the Billfish Tournament with the first strike, first hook-up and first catch of the tourney, a 138 pound ahi. It turned out to be the only catch in five days "but you should have seen the 700-pound marlin that got away!" OCC President Howdy Goss and Race Chairman Cline Mann presented trophies to California-Honolulu Catamaran winner Jim Arness and runner up, Buddy Ebsen.

A Night in Asia

The Entertainment Committee invites all members to attend "A Night in Asia" featuring exotic taste treats from Thailand, China, Japan and the Philippines, Saturday, September 24.

Dine among Cherry Blossoms and colorful Oriental lanterns, cross a Japanese bridge into the mysterious Far East, pass through Torii Gates and observe Oriental culture in an exotic Far Eastern setting.

To add more color and excitement to the evening, watch as the Chinese dragon dances past your table, observe the ancient costumed dancers of Kabuki and the Panama dancers of the Philippines, all telling tales of the mysterious East.

Doors will open at 6:30 p.m. with no host cocktails. Dinner will follow, with dancing from 8 to 11 p.m. to the Ken Alford Band.

Reservations are required. Make them at the Front Desk. ☎
