Outrigger Canoe Club Is 80 Years Old

Eighty years ago this month, on the beach at Waikiki, the Outrigger Canoe Club was founded by a small group of the finest of Honolulu's business and professional community.

Their reason? To make sure that "the native and the small white boy" could "doff their duds and mount their (surf) boards at will" and enjoy the waves off of Waikiki, according to an article written by founder Alexander Hume Ford in the 1911 edition of "Thrum's Hawaiian Almanac and Annual".

The initiation fee was $10 for men and $5 for boys. Monthly dues was $12 a year for men and $5 a year for boys.

The Club's colorful history is detailed in the The Outrigger history book written by the late Harold Yost in 1971. All new members are given a copy of this interesting chronicle of the major events in the life of the Club. Copies are also for sale in the Beach Shop.

The early Club house was two grass houses purchased from a defunct zoo and moved to the land leased by the Club next to the Moana Hotel's lagoon. One was fitted out as a storage shed for canoes and surfboards. The other, fronting on the beach, became the Club's first bathhouse and dressing room. Both had spacious lanais.

A pavilion, where dances and other social events could be enjoyed, was soon built and became a popular gathering place for Club members. The ground floor was sand and became the storage area for canoes and surfboards, and the second floor was a spacious lanai open to the cooling tradewinds and was used for dances.

A unique feature of the Club site at the time was the "lagoon", a brackish pond on the Diamond Head side of the Club grounds which was fed by the Apuakehau (Manoa) Stream.

During nice weather, the lagoon was attractive. But during a storm, it often overflowed and left debris all over the beach and in the swimming and surfing areas. When the Ala Wai Canal was completed in the mid-1920s, the lagoon was filled in along with all the swampy areas in Waikiki.

In 1925, the Club's pavilion was moved back from the beach and a canoe shelter was built closer to the water.

A new clubhouse was opened on February 15, 1941 and dedicated to "The promotion and perpetuation of Hawaiian aquatic sports" and "the encouragement of social activities in congenial surroundings."

The clubhouse was a two-story building fronting the beach, with the second floor for a dining room and cocktail lounge. The ground floor was for canoes and surfboards.

Throughout its first 50 years, the Club's finances were "precarious" and men of lesser fortitude would have given up and let fate take its course. But the men of the Outrigger found creative solutions to unsurmountable problems and the Outrigger has grown and prospered to the Club we now enjoy. ☺

Viewed from the beach across the lagoon, the Club's earliest pavilion had a rustic charm of its own.

Karen Rapson has been busy commuting between OCC and London since last June where she's doing a huge painting . . .

Longtime Club member Wally Young is featured in a cover article in the March issue of Military Magazine. The article, written by Frank Walton, describes Young's harrowing experience when the aircraft carrier USS Franklin was hit by a Japanese bomber and nearly sunk. Young was a Navy torpedo bomber pilot and clung to a piece of rope dangling from a raft for several hours before he was rescued.

If you haven't seen much of Bonnie Judd lately, it's because she's been working day and night on the new dinosaur exhibit which opens at Bishop Museum on May 17 . . .

Seen on the ski slopes the last week of March were John, Tiare and Thomas Finney, Chris Crabb, Paula Carbone, Vik Watumull, Tanya Fennelly, George Crandlemire, Vicki and Van Williams, Tia Williams, Mike McCormack, Arden and Don Moore and Mike and Nina Fox.

Chips and Debbie Woollett celebrated their first anniversary in Thailand with newlyweds Chrissy and Roger Rowley. They also visited the island Koh Samui. . .

Thom Harrer postcarded friend Diane Stowell that he played in a very unique volleyball game in Wisconsin recently--snow volleyball. Did you see those great articles about Mark Sandvold and Trevor Schirman in the newspaper recently? The interview with Mark was all about his modeling career and kayak training and his hopes for a spot on the '88 Olympic kayak team. The story about Trevor was about a hometown boy who made good on the UCLA volleyball team as a middle blocker, and winner of the NCAA championship his freshman year. The Bruins were in town playing UH during spring vacation.

Tim Guard Awarded Winged "O"

Water sportsman extraordinaire Tim Guard was named to the prestigious Winged "O" at the Athletic Awards Banquet on March 28.

The Winged "O" honors OCC athletes who have excelled in Club sports and provided outstanding leadership and support to the Outrigger athletic program.

Tim has been a member of the Outrigger Canoe Club for 35 years and has participated in surfing, swimming, canoe racing, paddleboard racing and kayaking over the years.

He won his first championship at age 16 when he was the Hawaii Junior Surfing Champion.

He has been involved with the canoe racing program for 25 years and has served as the chairman of the Canoe Racing Committee and been the head coach.

As a paddler, he has been on 12 State Championship crews, including the Senior Men's, Open 4 and the Masters.

Tim has raced in 16 Molokai to Oahu canoe races, including the first place crews of 1965, 1975, 1977 and 1979. He was on the winning Masters crews in 1984 (3rd overall) and 1987 (9th overall). He was on three record breaking crews in the Molokai race, and his 1984 Masters crew still holds the race record for their division.

Tim has also paddled in other distance races which have provided wins and records in both the Open and Masters Divisions.

In paddleboarding, Tim has competed in many races and is a past holder of the Club record in the 10,000 meter event for masters men.

For the past two years, he has served as chairman of the Paddleboard Committee, and with his committee has successfully put on three paddleboard races each year--the Summer Surf Race in June, the Cline Mann 5,000-Meter Race in August and the Winter Ocean 10,000-Meter Race in December.

Tim has also been a yearly competitor in the Club sponsored Ocean Triathlon (1-mile swim, 2-mile paddleboard and 4-mile kayak), winning the masters division for four straight years (1984-87) and setting the record of 1:17:31.

An outstanding kayaker, Tim competes regularly in the masters division in Hawaii Kayak Racing Association and Kanaka Ikaika races, places often, and has kayaked in the Molokai-to-Oahu race.

Tim has also been active in a variety of leadership positions with the Club. He was elected to the Board of Directors in 1972, and served as Coordinating Director for Entertainment in 1972 and 1973; was Coordinating Director for Public Relations, 1974; Building and Grounds, 1975; Athletics, 1976; and House, 1977.

He was head coach of the Canoe Racing Committee in 1978 and was Club Captain in 1983.

Tim Guard has made an outstanding contribution to the athletic program at the Outrigger Canoe Club and is truly deserving of membership in the Winged "O".

OCC Invitational Swim

By Pam Zak

The annual Outrigger Canoe Club Invitational Swim will be held on May 21 at 8 a.m. This year, Waikiki Swim Club and Hawaii Swim Club Masters have been invited to participate.

There will be a short course and a long course. The long course is approximately two miles; the short course, for anyone 50 or over, is approximately one mile. A map of the course is posted on the bulletin board in the Tunnel.

Historically, this has not been an easy swim due to currents and surf, so proper conditioning is recommended for anyone planning to compete.

The entry fee of $10 includes a brunch after the swim, race T-shirt and awards. A sign up sheet is available for Club members at the Front Desk.

Swimmers are encouraged to provide a personal escort either on a paddleboard or kayak. Anyone who is interested in escorting a swimmer is welcome and will receive breakfast, compliments of the Club.

See you there. We'd especially like to see our Junior 'Riggers participating. 🏊

Outrigger Wine Corner

From the Wine Committee

As one enjoys familiar experiences more than those about which one knows little, be that watching a canoe race or drinking wine with one's meal at the Club, the Wine Committee offers a few pointers to those who are oenologists or students of wine.

Chardonnay is the grape variety responsible for the production of most great white French Burgundian wines, including the wines of Chablis, Meursault, Montrachet, Pouilly-Fuisse and the sparkling white wine of champagne.

In California, it is most often marketed as Pinot Chardonnay and is responsible for a full bodied aromatic wine. A Pinot Chardonnay particularly complements poultry, seafood and soups and salads of a lighter fare.

The OCC Wine List features several excellent Chardonnay wines from France. The Premier Cru Chablis "Montmains" is crisp and golden. The Meursault by Louis Latour and the Puligny Montrachet "La Garenne" are dry, intense and well-balanced wines.

Our wine menu also features certain California wines of particular excellence. Chateau St. Jean (Robert Young Vineyard) and Edna Valley from San Luis Obispo are elegant, distinctive and richly textured wines. An exceptional value is Fetzer's Sundial Chardonnay with its fresh, light, charming style.

The Cabernet Sauvignon grape is responsible in large part for the superb French red wine of the Medoc and Graves regions of Bordeaux, and for many California red wines of superior quality.

This grape generally produces a longer-lived, slower-maturing, spicy wine of great character and depth. A French Bordeaux or California Cabernet Sauvignon complements steaks, prime rib, hearty stews, barbecued chicken and even roasted turkey with the trimmings.

Numerous excellent Cabernet Sauvignon wines are featured on our wine list. For a special evening, the Chateau Palmer is an outstanding wine which one French authority says is "tendre, elegant et un bouquet extraordinaire."

The Chateau Mayne-David is an exceptional buy with excellent balance and texture. Chateau Gloria is a consistently excellent wine which rivals more renowned French vineyards.

From California, the Cabernet Sauvignon of Stag's Leap Wine Cellars is a full-bodied velvety wine. This vineyard has met with instant success in recent tastings in the United States and France.

The Cabernet Sauvignon from Beaulieu Vineyard (Rutherford) has been a long-time favorite of Cabernet enthusiasts. This wine is consistently well made and flavorful.

The choice of wine is a personal decision and varies with each person's preference. Wine is a matter of exploration. A person may enjoy a Chardonnay with beef or a Cabernet Sauvignon with poultry, contrary to most recommendations.

You should enjoy the wine which is tailored to your palate. Remember the king and queen of wines, they represent a truly extraordinary tasting experience. ☞

Memorial Day Service

By Gerry DeBenedetti

Memorial Day services will be held at the Club on Monday, May 30 at 9:30 a.m. on the Terrace.

The Rev. William Kaina of Kawaiahao Church will provide the blessing and service in memory of friends and relatives of Outrigger members.

Leis or loose flowers may be provided by those wishing to offer a remembrance. A paddling crew will carry the flowers out to sea where they will be scattered on the waves.

Members who will be absent that weekend may have flowers delivered to the Front Desk on Monday morning prior to the service.

In 1985, a plaque was placed on one of the pillars on the Hau Terrace which reads: "This memorial is dedicated with warmth and aloha to our loved ones and friends at rest in the waters off Waikiki."

If you have not noticed this plaque or seen the Outrigger Memorial Day service, please come on May 30. All members and friends are welcome. ☺
