Lucky Lager has a straight-forward quality,
a "character" you just don't get in other beers

Here's why: Lucky Lager is brewed by the famous German lager technique – a special process from start to finish. It begins with the best: large-grained barley, purest water, the most flavorful hops, the most modern breweries. Then old-world brewing skills and extra-long ageing give the renowned body, aroma and flavor of true lager beer to Lucky Lager – the real lager beer.

As time approaches to return to school, we'd like to remind all students to be sure to sign in at the business office indicating the time you are leaving and your future address. This procedure will enable you to take advantage of the inactive dues applying when you are away from Hawaii or six months or more. Inactive dues, incidentally, are only one dollar per month.

The Story Behind
The Book
"THE GOOD YEARS"

By Walter Lord

Walter Lord became fascinated with the whole turn-of-the-century period while engaged in research for A Night To Remember, a journal of the fateful sinking of the White Star liner Titanic.

It occurred to Lord that apart from the tragedy, the people of the 1900-1914 era had the best of everything. They had enjoyed the Good Years.

But, before Lord could get started on a book highlighting the events, personalities, and tone of those buoyant and exuberant days, he was asked by a national magazine to dramatize what had happened at Pearl Harbor in 1941. The resultant book was Day of Infamy.

Then, in the spring of 1958, he was asked to write a magazine piece on his research technique. When he went back to check his files on the Titanic disaster, he realized he had that turn-of-the-century fever again.

To gather his material, he studied newspapers, books, letters, diaries and even Pinkerton reports by the hundreds. Especially valuable were interviews with people who figure prominently in the 1900-1914 period.

The Good Years is a vivid cornucopian book ranging in time and place from the Boxer Rebellion in China in 1900 to the Panic of 1907, from Peary's dash for the North Pole in 1909 to the struggle for woman's suffrage which reached a climax in 1912. The assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand and his wife in July of 1914 marked the end of the era; the good old days were gone, never to return.

Lord writes: "Perhaps it was just as well. There was much that was wrong with the old way of living—

TENNIS ORGANIZED AT OCC!

STATEWIDE TOURNAMENT SET

Dean Brinkman

Mrs. Berger

Hawaii's top tennis players will compete in a statewide tournament at the Waikiki Racquet Club next month, sponsored by the Outrigger Canoe Club.

That's right . . . the Outrigger Canoe Club . . . and tennis!

The long laboring Tennis Committee—has arrived at a format for a tennis program at the Outrigger that is a giant step in the right direction for restoring long-lost sports to the club.

Committee head Fred Buck is being assisted by Dean Brinkman, Leith Anderson, George Peebles, and Gertrude Berger, the best in the state no matter how you look at it.

The September 3 statewide tournament is the focal point of the format, geared to arouse interest not only among the club ranks but from the entire community.

Singles, doubles, and mixed doubles will be played in each age group. Awards will be made on a team and individual basis.

Following the tournament and throughout the year, special Round-Robin Tourneys will be featured among the club members. On tap are mixed-doubles, veterans doubles, father-son and mother-daughter team play.

Lessons will be given at the Waikiki Racquet Club by George Peebles, one of the island's top instructors for years. Members will be charged only 15 dollars for a series of ten one-hour lessons. Racquets and balls will be provided at no extra charge. Special emphasis is being placed on the development of junior members but all ages are welcome.

"We especially want junior on vacation to enroll for the regular morning classes," Buck said.

He pointed out that in addition to Peebles, Brinkman, Anderson and Mrs. Berger he will aid in the coaching and giving lessons.

Tennis anyone?

New Affiliated Clubs

The Outrigger Board of Directors has completed negotiations and approved of five new private clubs, located on the mainland and in Canada, for reciprocal agreement.

The clubs are: The Denver Athletic Club, Denver, Colorado; the Beacon Club, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; the Spokane Club, Spokane, Washington; the Chinook Club, Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada; and the Assiniboia Club, Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada.

its injustices, its naivete, its waste, its smug self assurance. Men would come along to fix all that. New laws, controls, regulations, forms . . . would keep anybody from getting too much or too little . . . swarms of consultants, researchers, special assistants and executive committee's would make sure that great men always said and did the right thing."

"There would be great gains . . . but . . . something was also lost—a touch of optimism, confidence, exuberance and hope. The spirit of an era can't be blocked out and measured, but it is there nonetheless. And in these brief, buoyant years it was a spark that somehow gave extra promise to life. By the light of this spark, men and women saw themselves as heroes shaping the world, rather than victims struggling through it."

OUTRIGGER WINS OAHU CHAMPIONSHIP!

The Outrigger Canoe Club, considered no more than a regatta contender throughout the racing season, swept to four decisive first places and its second consecutive Oahu Canoe Racing championship at Keehi Lagoon, July 24.

When the final point standings were posted, the Outrigger had whipped highly favored Waikiki Surf Club, 39 to 32. Lanikai scored 19 points, Kai Oni 15, Lealani 10 and Hui Nalu 9.

The title victory was particularly delicious because:

- It smashed the "always a bridesmaid . . ." stigma that had hung over the OCC crews through the season.

- The highly regarded, arch-rival beach neighbors from Waikiki Surf were soundly beaten.

- Youthful OCC crews weren't given a chance in pre-regatta odds. Other crews had the jump in experience and age up to 9 years per man.

- The coveted Oahu championship was successfully defended.

- The blue ribbon event, the men's senior two-mile race, went to the Outrigger. Any coach feels a meet is successful irregardless of point standings, if his senior crew can win this event.

Five records fell at Keehi Lagoon, an indication of the mental and physical peak reached by all crews primed for the championship.

Waikiki Surf walked off with three new records:

The senior women's half-mile, the novice women's half mile, and boys 17-and-under one mile events. A victory in the boys' 14-and-under quarter mile gave WSC four first places.

DOWNING PREDICTED WIN

Canoe racing fans and even some of the Outrigger paddlers themselves were surprised over the Outrigger's "upset" victory over the Waikiki Surf Club to retain the Oahu Racing championship.

One man, however, received the final point tabulation as though he had planned it that way.

And he had.

Outrigger Canoe Coach George Downing quietly predicted two months ago that his youngsters would win the Oahu title.

Coming on the heels of a sound thrashing in an early meet, Downing's statement may have sounded, to some like a coach's "wait 'til next time . . ." vintage sour grapes.

" . . . we didn't want to bring them along too fast by putting too much effort into the early, unimportant races."

And watching Downing mold untried youngsters to championship calibre is a gradual process. The empty seats began to fill with green paddlers. More experienced paddlers returned from college, out of condition and weeks away from competition form.

But it happened, under the patient, discerning eye of the Outrigger coach.

His "don't start them too soon" policy paid off in spades, and a second consecutive Oahu title.

Downing recognizes a job well done by his youngsters, but insists the Oahu championship doesn't matter one iota in his book.

"We are pointing to just one . . . the State championships in August . . . the one that counts."

And how can you go against a philosophy like Downing's?

Who else but Rabbit Kekai would steer a co-ed team to victory. The special event was part of the Fourth-of-July MacFarlane Memorial Races. Mighty pretty crew, at that!

Kai Oni's junior women's half mile crew and the Lanikai novice men's half-mile six were responsible for two other record lowering performances.

The Outrigger crews took four first places with exciting victories in the one-mile freshmen men, one and one-half mile junior men, 13-and-under quarter mile, and two mile senior events.

Nick Beck, Bob Moncrief, Albert Lemes, Henry Hollinger, Rick Steere, and Doug Carr pulled together for the season's upset over Waikiki Surf and second place Lanikai.

It was also a victory that erased the disappointment of dropping a close race and the Walter J. Macfarlane Memorial Regatta to the Waikiki Surf when they swamped in the home-stretch, less than 100 yards from the finish line.

The loss gave the point edge to WSC, 39-35. The Surf club took five first places to the Outrigger's three.

OCC paddlers took the half mile women's junior, boys 13-and-under quarter mile, and freshmen one mile events.

The irregularly laid out course made the difference in a number of races, with observers noting that the "inside" lane, nearest the club, was shorter.

McClaire-Fearon Team Win 14-Under VB Title

Gary McClaire and Steve Fearon were crowned 1960 14-and-under Volleyball Champions at the Outrigger Canoe Club annual tournament played July 9 and 10.

The smooth-working team took the measure of second place team of Gamble and Pietsch.

Listed in third spot for the 14-and-under title was the team of Avery and King.

The crowd, heartily cheered by enthusiastic Juniors, was played on the Junior Court.

SPORT SHORTS

DEAN BRINKMAN successfully defended his public parks tennis championship by downing third seeded Lt. (jg) Joe Heyck in successive matches.

Lanky Brinkman emerged to the finals by beating James Bartlett in three sets, 6-3, 6-1, 6-3, in the semi-finals.

He has taken the measure of the best Hawaii has to offer on the courts and is one of the most consistent winners noted in many years.

JOHNNY HONL, master of the charter boat "Kakina," is enjoying one of the hottest fishing streaks the Kona Coast has ever seen. A week doesn't pass that he isn't given mention for landing a big one or two . . . or three. On July 16 he hit the peak of the drive by landing a 875 pound Blue Fin Marlin.

Our sports cap is doffed to the Hawaii girls tandem kayak team of Karen Knudsen and Anona Naone, who narrowly missed a berth on the Olympic team in their first competitive outing. At the Olympic trials at Lake Sebago, New York, the girls finished second in two heats and third in another in the 500-meter tandem event. They finished second to the Turkeyfoot Kayak Club of Hudson, Ohio, but were reported the most popular team in competition. A tribute to George Downing and others who have worked hard on bringing kayak racing to Hawaii.

Recent visitors to the club were the National Champions of Synchronized Swimming, en route to a tour of the Far East. The eight-girl, two-man team was selected at the National Championships recently held at Hartford, Conn. They spent an afternoon in the surf and aboard an outrigger canoe during their visit.

TOM HAYNIE, Punahou's new swimming coach, comes to the Islands with a long history of successful coaching. The former University of Michigan star, coached Stanford to 13 of 14 Pacific Coast Swimming titles. In addition he has served as coach for both the U. S. Olympic and Pan-American Games Teams.

Tom Haynie

Himself a Pan-American games champion, he won freestyle titles from 1936 through 1940, and competed in the Duke Kahanamoku meets in Honolulu in 1941. Welcome aboard, Tom Haynie!
