Macfarlane Had Its Highs and Lows

Club President Fred Noa Jr. speaks at pep rally.

Taking part in the opening ceremony were Niuli'i Heine who gave the Pule; Robert Cazimero, who sang Hawai'i Pono'i, Leslie Goldman, who sang the National Anthem, and Manu Boyd, who gave the Oli.

Outrigger hosted the USS Hawaii submarine crew in the Military Invitational Race.

Dave Rochlen captured the 4th of July spirit with Kali Wilding and Kaulana Aipia-Dolan.

Siana Hunt kept tradition alive and brought plumeria lei for her children's crews.

Three generations of Walter Macfarlane's descendents continue to support the 4th of July Regatta: Ian Eveleth, Alice Guild, Walter Guild holding son Ryder, Lissa Guild Eveleth, Jackie Guild and Billy Philpotts.

The Mixed 18 crew powers to finish line: Ethan Lewis, Kai Wilding, Makena Kauhane, Sophia Krivatsy, Amber Chong, Billy Balding.

It was a mellow 74th Annual Walter J. Macfarlane Regatta on the 4th of July but it had its highs and lows beginning with the tides that greeted paddlers. There was a minus tide when the races started with lanes 6 and 7 having to contend with a sandbar that was too shallow for canoes to cross. By mid-afternoon the tide was super high at 2+ feet and that left little beach for canoes, tents and people.

The surf was a fun 1-3 feet with many crews catching waves which excited the thousands watching from shore, especially with the many near photo finishes.

But the most excitement came just before the last race of the day. Outrigger head coach Guy Wilding told paddlers that Lanikai was only one point ahead of OCC in the standings, and a win would give us the regatta. The race announcer repeated several times that the result would decide the regatta.

The OCC Mixed Open crew threw their hearts and souls into the race and edged Lanikai at the finish flag by 24/100 of a second to get what everyone thought was the team victory that would have been Outrigger's first since 2013.

However when the final results were announced at the Awards Ceremony at Duke's, Lanikai was the winner by six points.

There was so much to be thankful for on this beautiful day at Waikiki on the site that was home to our original Club.

Military troops from eight branches of the service started the day off with a bang in the quarter-mile Military Invitational Race. Outrigger hosted the men from the USS Hawaii submarine and you couldn't have asked for a nicer group of men to represent our Club in this race.

The event was won by the U.S. Pacific Command which was hosted by Healani Canoe Club. Others who participated were the U.S. Army, U.S. Navy, U.S. Air Force, U.S. Coast Guard, the U.S. Navy Seals, the U.S. Marines from the U.S.S. Port Royal (last year's winners) and the Special Operations Command.

Following the race, the military crews and their families were hosted to brunch and an awards ceremony on a deck of the Outrigger Waikiki Hotel overlooking the OCC tent. Later they joined us back at the Club for the 4th of July party.

It was a wonderful way for us to thank the military for their service and sacrifices so we can enjoy the freedoms we have in America.

Outrigger's Junior Men: Neal Hafner, Ikaika Harbottle, Indar Lange, Ryan Woodward, Heinere Itchner, Max Solmssen.

Head Coach Guy Wilding

Highlights of the day:

- Outrigger's Senior Women won the right to sip champagne out of the Senior Women's Cup by beating Healani by 37 seconds in their 1.5 mile race.
- Outrigger's Senior Men got to sip champagne too, but it was as runners up to Lanikai which finished five seconds ahead of them.
- After a slow start in the morning, Outrigger dominated the second half of the regatta winning 12 of the last 23 races, finishing second in three, third in three and fourth in two. Congratulations to the Sophomore Women, Junior Men, Senior Women, Men 70, Men and Women 65, Men and Women 60, Men 55, Men 50, Women Open 4 and the Mixed Open crews for their wins.
- Four Outrigger crews will get their names on the Macfarlane perpetual trophies: the Senior Women's Cup, the Girls 18 Cup, the Girls 12 Trophy and the Ke Ka Wa'a Kahiko (Men 70).
- The Girls 16 set a new course record for their event.

Kudos to Andrea Ray for all her efforts in putting on the Macfarlane Regatta. She makes it look so easy!

Mahalo to President Freddy Noa Jr., Walter Guild, and Guy Wilding for their inspirational talks at the Pep Rally before the race. They all stressed that this country and the Club follow parallel paths.

"Both our country and our Club are fragile and need to be nurtured," said Guild. "Everything we enjoy today can be gone in an instant. By knowing the history of our Club, you can help us keep our traditions alive. Represent us well. Understand the weight of honor of this responsibility."

Thanks also to Kawika Grant for polishing all the Macfarlane trophies every year for more than three decades.

And last but not least, thanks to the wonderful staff at the OCC who got up early to cook and serve the paddler's breakfast, and were back to keep us well supplied with food and beverage at the party in the evening.

It was a beautiful 4th of July and we have so much to be thankful for.

Reciprocal Club Review

By Valerie Davis

Review #70 Features The Penn Club New York City

The newest addition to our OCC Reciprocal Club roster is a prestigious club located in the heart of midtown Manhattan. The club was founded in 1896 by a group of University of Pennsylvania alumni in NY-the first alumni group formed outside of Philadelphia. In 1900 they secured a suite of rooms in the "middle of the city-adjacent to a café" at the Royalton Hotel.

The club then moved to larger quarters in the Hotel Stanley. In 1922 the club's directors approved a 20 year lease on two townhouses at 35-37 East 50th Street. By 1929 the club had more than 1000 members and was looking for a permanent home. But it would be three decades before they got their permanent home at 30 W 44th Street, where they remain today.

The club is only three blocks from Grand Central Station and is close to Times Square, the Broadway Theater District, and major shopping. To add to the convenient location the club has 39 guest rooms. These rooms occupy six floors and have both standard and deluxe categories with twin, queen, or king size beds.

Accommodations include complimentary access to the Palestra Fitness Center and Terrace, plus complimentary breakfast in the Grill Room on weekends. All rooms have fax/modem ports along with complimentary high speed internet connection. Laundry/dry cleaning and shoe shine service is also available to overnight guests. The Palestra Fitness Center has full state of the art equipment and also offers a variety of massages.

Dining consists of two areas. The main dining rooms – there are two and they are double story on the second floor providing excellent cuisine in a grand manner. They serve breakfast, lunch and dinner Monday-Friday. With special pre-theater dining. Then the Grill Room on the lower level also serves, lunch, dinner and cocktails Monday-Friday. noon-11 p.m. On Saturdays they serve continental breakfast and lunch and drinks up until 7 p.m. On Sundays and holidays they're open only for continental breakfast.

You can stay connected to the internet while there. The Kite and Key Bar in the Franklin Living Room on the first floor has morning complimentary coffee with a bar open from 4-7 p.m. Monday-Friday.

So, if you're heading to the Big Apple to see Tony-award winning "Hamilton" or other Broadway shows consider staying at The Penn Club and/or trying their pre-theater dining. If you're staying in their guest rooms they have a Concierge who may be able to help you get theater tickets. Check with JoAnne Huber in our executive office about setting up a required letter of introduction. Credit cards are accepted for payments.

Marc and Natasha Haine shared a father-daughter moment at the Father's Day Regatta at Nanakuli Beach Park.

On hand to celebrate Leslie Goldman's singing of the National Anthem at the Macfarlane Regatta were her family, front, Sylvia and Margaret Grace Buck; back: David Buck, Leslie Goldman McInerny, Beth Bowlen Wallace, Meghan Goldman-Buck and Tony McInerny holding baby Maya.

Paying their respects at Rabbit Kekai's beach boy funeral were Clyde Aikau, Fred Hemmings Jr. and Joey Cabell. Rabbit coached Outrigger paddlers in the early 1960s, and surfed against Clyde, Fred and Joey at surf meets in the late 1950s and early 1960s.

On the grounds of the Hotel Nationale in Havana, Cuba on their holo holo trip with Bob Jones in May were Gerry DeBenedetti, Cassie Senner, Merrill Johnston, and Bob McDonald from the Big Island.

Dede Guss graduated with a degree in liberal arts from Windward Community College. She is surrounded by family: Barron Guss, Jorge Cervantes, Zack Guss, Raquel Guss, Pat Soares, Miriam Neuman and Madison Guss.

Enjoy Your Club Again; Become a Senior 'Rigger!

Macfarlane Results

By Marilyn Kali

The last couple of years at the OCC Annual Meeting, a group of members have beemoaned the fact that the Club doesn't offer activities and programs for older members who miss participating in events at the Club.

It seemed like no one was responding to the need, although members in the Senior and Life membership categories now comprise about one-quarter of our voting membership (450).

In the Spring, a group of members met informally and decided to take on the challenge. As they shared their ideas with other members in small group meetings, a plan began coming together to offer activities and programs at various times during week-day hours when the Club is underutilized.

The result: a program titled Senior 'Riggers. The name came from the fact that we have activities for Junior 'Riggers (a membership category for persons under 18), so why not activities for Senior 'Riggers (a membership category for long-time members who have reached a certain age and years of membership).

Activities are expected to kick off at a Senior 'Riggers Rally on September 14 at 10 a.m. in the Koa Lanai. Members will have a chance to sign up for activities and offer to serve on committees to plan outings, games and other events.

Although Senior 'Riggers is primarily for those in the Senior and Life membership categories, it is open to any Club member or their spouse who would like to join the activities.

If you've been one of those who complained about the lack of activities, now's the time to join Senior 'Riggers and start enjoying your Club again!

Watch for more details in the September magazine and in your monthly statement.

First Call for OCC Photo Contest

By Mary Caywood

The Outrigger Canoe Club's annual Photo Contest, sponsored by the Member Relations Committee for Club members and their immediate families, will be open for entries October 10-31. Contest rules and the required entry form will be available at the Front Desk and on OCC's Website on October 1. Information on entries will also be provided in the Outrigger magazine in September and October.

The photo contest welcomes entries in a wide range of subjects reflecting Club members' varied interests and activities in many locales beyond our own. In response to the contest's more open rules of the past few years as well as improved photographic technology, those handling the contest have seen up to 100 delightful photos from which to select winners each year.

The grand prize photo in this contest will be featured on the cover of the January 2017 Outrigger magazine and the photographer will receive an OCC gift card that may be spent anywhere in the Club. Other winners will also be published and prizes awarded. In January, winning photos will be placed in the Display Case at the entrance to the Club.

Participants in the contest may enter up to two (2) photos in each of the following five (5) categories. Any person submitting an entry must have taken the photo, and content of photos must be appropriate for the magazine and Club use.

3 OCC Members on Olympic USA Volleyball Team

Outrigger Masters Paddlers Shine at the World Sprints

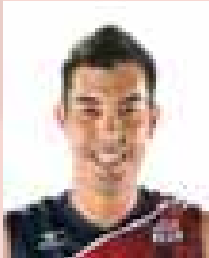

By Bill Johnson

Eric Shoji

Micah Christenson

Kawika Shoji

Outrigger members will be able to cheer for three of their own in the 2016 Olympic Games which begin on August 5 in Rio de Janeiro.

Micah Christenson, and Eric and Kawika Shoji will lead the USA Volleyball team into the Games. Micah is the starting setter for the U.S. team and Kawika is the backup setter. Eric is the starting libero.

Team USA advanced to the final round of the FIVB World League play with an 8-1 pool play record, behind Brazil. The Final Round was played in Krakow, Poland July 13-17 with the winner taking away a prize of $1 million.

All games will be shown in the Ka Moi Lounge so join us to cheer on our newest generation of Olympians.

OCC Men's 70 crew on the Gold Coast: Ron Hochuli, Chris Crabb, Marshall Giddens (Lokahi CC), Steve Arnett (Kai Ehitu CC), Billy Mowat, Bill Johnson.

Several Outrigger Masters Paddlers in the 50s 60s and 70s competed at the World Sprints in May 2016 at Lake Kawana, Australia just north of Brisbane. Paddlers raced on teams with other paddlers from all over the state representing Team Hawaii.

Numerous medals were garnered in the V12 500M and 1000M straightaway and V6 500M with a turn, V6 1000M with 3 turns and V6 500M and V6 1000M straightaways. The following OCC members competed at the following age groups:

50s Women: Karin Del Ray, Laurie Lawson, Linda Fernandez, Kim Heyer.

60s Women: Laurie Lawson, Linda Fernandez, Kim Heyer.

70s Women: Barbara Bryan.

60s Men: Cormac O'Carroll.

70s Men: Gaylord Wilcox, Tay Perry, Glenn Perry, Uli Klinke, Billy Mowat, Chris Crabb, Ron Hochuli, Bill Johnson.

The following medals were awarded to teams with OCC members:

50 Women: One Gold and one Silver

60 Women: Three Golds

70 Women: One Gold and two Silvers

60s Men: One Silver

70 Men: Two Golds, one Silver and two Bronze

Particularly impressive were the trio of OCC paddlers of Laurie Lawson, Linda Fernandez and Kim Heyer whose teams were awarded a gold and two silvers in the 50s and three golds in the 60s.

Also the 70s Men quartet of Billy Mowat, Chris Crabb, Ron Hochuli and Bill Johnson garnered two golds and one silver and 50s woman paddler Karin Del Ray gained one gold and two silvers as did 70s woman Barbara Bryan.

All in all it was an impressive tally for our Outrigger contingent at this beautiful venue at Lake Kawana in Mooloolaba. Our good friend Ron Grabbe, President of the Mooloolaba Canoe Club, graciously loaned his canoes to several teams for practice runs on the estuaries near the race site. The local area was blessed with excellent weather, beaches, restaurants, shopping and friendly people. A grand time was had by all competitors.

Scratchfest Brings Out Paddleboarders

By Kalani Schrader

The late Cline Mann would have been proud to see the heightened level of participation and enthusiasm from both competitors and fans that flocked to OCC for this year's Summer Scratchfest Surf Relay held on June 25.

Under sunny skies and backed by a nice 2-3 foot south swell at Old Man Bowl, more than 30 teams entered this unique surf relay event that had both local and international scratchers gathered to challenge themselves and the elements.

This year organizers had five divisions which ran in three separate heats. In the first heat the Super Groms scrapped it out and it was Kawaihoa Loui and Cole Jones who hit the beach first winning the coveted Glass Ball First Place trophy. Finishing a strong second was the team of Teja Laird and Ava Kilpatrick followed closely by third place finishers Nanea Philpotts and Malia Sandvold.

Every year the Junior Division gets more competitive and gains momentum as young enthusiastic paddlers embrace the sport of paddle boarding as a way to cross train and improve their overall ocean skills. After the ehukai had settled, the junior team of Riley Kawananaoko and Hobey Moss scratched their way to first place with Avi Laird and Henry Mesker in second and Gabriel Goes and Kawaihoa Loui nipping at their heels in third.

In the Same Last Name division age old rivalries and the competitive vibe was overflowing as the athletes lined on the beach for the start of this highly anticipated race. The formidable team of Billy and Trey Balding took the win with the father and son teams of Buzzy/Kyler Kerbox and Wyatt/Cole Jones finishing second and third respectively.

The third and last heat of the day featured the Combined Age of 75 and Under division. Clawing their way to the top of the podium in first place was the second year team of Pat Dolan and Heath "original scratcher" Hemmings with the always competitive team of Colleen Tessler and Nick Fox in second and ahupua'a Kawela locals Noa and Johnny Ginella making the trek from the North Shore to finish a strong third.

In the Combined Age over 75 division and representing Ku'au on the east side, the MCBS lifeguard team of Brad Akeo and Ian Macdonald successfully negotiated the course in first place with OCC's own Trey Balding and John Hicks finishing a solid second followed closely by the team of Ka'a'awa kingpin Matt Sack and veteran waterman Aaron Napoleon in third.

Big thanks and props go out to the team of Black Point and RB regulators Blair Thorndike and Greg Quinn for their dedication to the sport of paddle boarding and participation in the annual Scratchfest race.

Big shout out and mahalo to all competitors, fans, parents, OCC Beach Services and staff, Mark Jackola, Kristen Watumull, Dolan Eversole, Sophie and Charlotte Schrader, Pat and Angie Dolan for their efforts towards and support of this grass roots event. Top finishers in each division as follows:

LEFT: Cousins Billy Balding and Trey Balding won the Same Last Name division.

RIGHT: Entering the Super Grom Division were Ava Kilpatrick, Malia Sandvold, Nanea Philpotts and Teja Laird.

New Members Welcomed to the Club

For a number of years, the Public Relations Committee has welcomed new members to the Club with a phone call and invitation to attend upcoming activities. In 2014, the subcommittee, chaired by Carin Rapson, upped the welcome by holding periodic orientations and tours of the Club's facilities, giving new members a chance to meet other new members face to face.

The Public Relations Committee is now the Member Relations Committee and is still trying to find new ways to get new members to attend the orientations. While some clubs make the orientations mandatory before a member gains signing privileges, the Outrigger orientation is still voluntary.

"Those who attended really seemed to enjoy the orientation and tours of the back and front of the house," Rapson said. "The biggest problem has been finding a time when people could attend. Last year we had monthly luncheons hosted by a member of our committee. Now the committee is planning some pau hana gatherings.

"Feedback has been marvelous and every new member has said it has made all the difference in their membership and feeling welcome into the Club," she added. "When we are unable to physically bring them to meet other new members and staff, we have happily made phone contact and successfully answered most of their concerns and/or questions."

"Management has been wonderful about getting various heads of departments, including our General Manager Gary Oliveira; Food and Beverage manager Dave Brown; Executive Chef Robert Bower, and Beach Services Director Don Isaacs and his staff, to give us a rundown on how the Club works, and how to access their specialties, even the locker room, surfboard lockers and so on. We'd also like our new members to be able to take advantage of our catering and special event opportunities."

Other Member Relations Committee members serving on the subcommittee are Nancy Wallace, Samantha Haas, and Jackie Little.

"Please let us know if you have any suggestions or if you know of someone who has been overlooked," she added.

Employee of the Month

James Kent

By Stephen Riede

Logo Shop clerk James Kent is our Employee of the Month for May. He was previously awarded the honor in April of 2014. James started with the Club in September of 2013. Before coming to the Club, he was a buyer for the Price Busters organization.

Recently, James has stepped up to cover multiple shifts due to the unexpected absence of Brenda Colbert due to an injury. James has also had to oversee a major Logo Shop inventory readjustment in the last several weeks. He has handled the challenge with grace and good humor, despite having to put in considerable overtime.

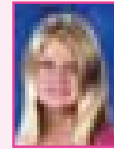

When he was chosen EOM in April 2014, Logo Shop Supervisor Brenda Colbert stated: "James is a pleasure to work with. He is personable, dependable and always on time. He is very flexible and is always available when needed. James is well liked by the membership and works at learning everyone's name. I especially love his sense of humor and look forward to the days we work together."

Congratulations James and thank you for your dedication to the Club.

Correction

The Editor regrets the misinformation in last month's magazine about the new Outrigger surfboard sign donated by Sharon (Doc) Bintliff. Although Sharon donated the sign, she purchased it at an auction held by Kawaihae Canoe Club. The story told was Sharon's knowledge of where the sign has been all these years when it was owned by nonmember Keith Wallis. She did not own the sign until the auction. We apologize to Doc for the misunderstanding.

Who Knew?

Outrigger Canoe Club, the First 100 Years

After Duke's death in August, 1968, his former crew celebrated his birthday each year paddling out to sea and sprinkling flowers beyond the reef in his memory. They continued the practice until 1998 when they were in their late seventies. (Tom Arnott, Thad Ekstrand, Jim Fernie, Tommie O'Brien)

BOARD BRIEFS

Board Briefs is taken from the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors on June 30, 2016.

Admissions: The Board would like an increase in the number of Regular member and Nonresident candidates interviewed in the A & M meetings since initiation fees have a direct impact on the Building Fund.

Membership Count: The membership count was 4,843 as of May 31, 2016.

Committees: Mark Jackola was approved to serve on the Paddleboard Committee; Brendan Bradley on the Fishing and Boating Committee; and Ben Ancheta and Keely Bruns on the Member Relations Committee.

Treasurer's Report: Club operations are ahead of budget by $74,000. Food and Beverage financials have been very strong year to date.

General Manager's Report: Costs and payroll have been in line for Food & Beverage which is contributing to the great financial results. . . Fred Noa complimented Gary Oliveira for the great job he has been doing in getting F & B service and quality improved and costs in line over the last four years. . . There was a brief discussion about the differences between Koa Lanai and Hau Terrace and controlling overflow on the Hau Terrace. Kitchen limitations restrict the number of people the Terrace can handle during peak times. . . The Club is basically operating at capacity many evenings. . . The Board discussed peak periods and perceived overcrowding of the Club. Gary Oliveira pointed out that though there is an increase in Reciprocal members during the summer and holidays, there are even more OCC member-sponsored guests during these periods. We also have a large percentage of Nonresident members who visit the Club during peak periods. . . There was also a discussion of the parking lot being full due to members parking at the Club for Aquarium, Zoo, and Shell events during the summer. Paddling practice also adds to the summer parking crunch. . . Sous Chef Lucy Han will be leaving to take a chef position at a new restaurant. . . HIHR is taking over personnel and payroll functions for the Club.

Finance: The committee will be formulating a charter for the Financial Committee.

Long Range Planning: The new chairs have been evaluated and selected for the remodeling project. Tables and other pieces should be selected soon. . . Dues distribution among member types is being studied for possible revenue neutral options.

Senior 'Riggers: Fred Noa reported to the Board on the progress of a new Senior 'Riggers group that is organizing to create activities for Senior OCC members during mornings and weekdays. The Board and management are supportive of this proposal.
