NEW SITE PLANS

Pursuant to the recent board decision to design a club facility without residence apartments at a cost within the financial capabilities of the club, the planning committee has met twice within the last two weeks with the architects for the purpose of revising the program and establishing a new time table. The desires of the membership, as determined by the recent survey, are expressed in the new program. The club shall have the qualities of openness, informality and gracious Hawaiian living and there shall be provision for considerable green belt areas. The accent of the club shall be on the ocean front. Every attempt will be made to provide parking for a minimum of 200 cars. Outdoor athletic facilities will be provided on the roof of the parking structure; however, as decided by the board, a swimming pool shall not be included in the plans.

The new time table is as follows:

- September 30, 1962 Completion of preliminary drawings and authorization by the membership to proceed;
- January 31, 1963 Completion of working drawings;
- February 28, 1963 Commencement of construction; and
- October 30, 1963 Completion of construction.

In order that the foregoing timetable be observed, the committee shall meet weekly with the architects and report its progress monthly to the board and the membership.

SPORTS SHORTS

The Central YMCA team which recently took third place in the National Volleyball Championship in Philadelphia had five Outrigger Canoe Club members on its roster. These members were Dan Oredson, Fred Noa, Bill Heilbron, Pete Velasco, and Tom Haine.

In order to garner third place the local team played seven of the finest teams in the country, winning five and losing two. There were approximately 40 teams entered, and after three days of competition Hollywood YMCA emerged in first place and Pasadena YMCA a close second.

Paul MacLaughlin and Nat Norfleet, also Outrigger Canoe Club members, were playing in the tournament with Santa Monica City College which won the collegiate division and placed fourth in the open. Both these boys played exceptionally good volleyball and should be a real asset to the club team in future years.

All-American recognition was awarded to Pete Velasco who made the second team and to Tom Haine who received honorable mention.

The Outrigger girls team has had one of their finest years in local competition. In the State Championships our girls took runner-up honors, and because of this showing were invited to play in the Hilo Invitational Tournament where they played against top competition. Again they emerged in second place, losing in a very close and hard fought match.

Congratulations to Billie Baird, Marilyn Haine, May Balding, Gail Lange, Keanui Rocklen, Cathy Welsh, and Carol Sorrell for their line showing during the year.

This year the Volleyball and Entertainment Committees are working together to try to revise the "Big Games" and the fun that goes with them. The only way this can be successful is by membership participation, so keep your eyes and ears open for some get togethers that are being planned.

Club canoe crews are being formed at this time — first races will be held at Waikiki on Kamahamaha Day June 9 and 10.

Dan McFadden has been appointed Director of Junior Member activities starting June 1.

MEET OUR CLUB'S NEW MANAGER — DON H. ROSS

The Board of Directors recently approved the appointment of Don H. Ross as club manager, succeeding Arthur Jarl.

Mr. Ross, former general manager of the Colony Surf Hotel, has had twenty years experience in club and hotel management.

Mr. Jarl will remain with the Club on a consultant basis to assist in development of the new facilities at Diamond Head. Art, wife Nina and associates are developers of the new Harbor Towers, a senior citizens' residence.

DIRECTORS ABANDON RESIDENTIAL UNITS FOR NEW CLUB FACILITY

After a thorough and complete review and analysis of all the factors, economic studies and conditions, and an analysis of the questionnaire recently submitted to the voting membership, the board of directors of the Outrigger Canoe Club at its meeting of May 17, arrived at the unanimous decision that a club facility be built at its Diamond Head site without any residential units for members. The cost of the project shall be within the available financial resources of the Club.

Construction on a dredging and beach improvement project at the Club's Diamond Head site commenced earlier this week by Hawaiian Dredging & Construction Co. This project will result in improvements to the waterfront of the Outrigger Canoe Club, Elks Club, and Colony Surf properties. Completion of the waterfront project is contemplated within two months.

GAME FISHERMEN PLEASE NOTE

Last year the Club had several entries in the annual Kona Billfish Tournament. This year we have received a request from Edward Kawanakoa and F. Warren Stone for club endorsement, which was approved by your Board of Directors.

We would like to see our Club represented in this event and hope there will be additional requests for endorsement.

CLUB FUN

Remember the joyous club parties, remember the turn away crowds, remember the 'fun times' had by all—

The time is growing short at our present club site. Let's revive these good times.

A 'Pupu Party' will start the summer entertainment season on Friday night, June 15th. This will be an informal club mixer affair featuring happy hour prices from 7:00 to 8:00, continuous hot pupu served throughout the evening, and dancing to the music of Randy Oness.

The Club will continue with an entertaining function once a month, which will be high-lighted by a luau in late summer and the New Year's Party at the year-end.

Let's make the last year at our present club site a memorable one. Watch for the bulletin on coming events. Why not come out and join the fun.
