HONOLULU, HAWAII

SEPTEMBER, 1973

Our 1973 Club Day Activities were lots of Fun

by Jerry Ober

The 1973 Annual Club Day held August 21st featured a full day's athletic activities with a Kane-Wahine Volleyball Tournament, a Run and Paddle Board Race and a Run-Swim-Run relay race. Surfing had been planned as an activity; but as usual this summer, there wasn't any surf!

Results of the Kane-Wahine Volleyball Tournament were: First place: Randy Shaw and Kelly Morgan; Second place: Tom Madison and Evie Black; Third Place: Buster Chapman and Julie Morgan.

The shoreside activities brought all kinds of action with the first event started by Tim Guard. The Run and Paddle battle involved a run on the beach fronting the Club, climaxed by a round trip paddle out to a marker in the surfline outside the reef and then back to the Club. First home in this event was Karl Heyer IV, followed by Jimmy Bugbee, Pua Rochlen and Marc Haine. The Run-Swim-Run event, a triangular course relay race with three man teams, was won by Robbie Brown, Matt Cross and Walter Guild, with Jimmy and Billy Bugbee and Nelson Richardson in second place; and Marc Haine, Peter Balding and Karl Heyer IV in third place.

Athletic Awards Banquet Postponed!

At a special meeting convened on Monday, August 20, to wrap up final details of the then approaching Athletic Awards Banquet, the Winged "O" Committee decided that the dinner, originally scheduled for August 27, should be postponed to a later date. Main reason for the postponement, a Committee spokesman stated, is the fact that so many of the Club's 1973 athletic programs have not yet been completed. A new date will be announced after the Committee has given the matter further detailed consideration.

Outrigger Paddlers outscored in Hilo Canoe Regatta

When some 1200 paddlers from all over the State met in the Hawaiian Canoe Racing Championships at Hilo on August 18th, the weather was fair, the waters of Hilo Bay were relatively calm and the crowd was large and enthusiastic. But for most of our Outrigger crews, that just about sums up the good news.

The bad news was the awesome show of power put on by the teams representing Healani, Kailua and Lanikai, not to mention the Ala Wai Club. Healani had been the odds-on favorite to cop the championship, and they were never seriously challenged; but the strength of some of the other entrants exceeded expectations. As reported in the local press, the first three teams in over-all points were: Healani, Kailua and Lanikai, in that order. OCC came in a disappointing sixth.

However, Outrigger's Boys 12A and Boys 16 paddled off with wins in their respective events; our Women Sophomore, Men Sophomore and Women Junior scored strong thirds in their events, and our Boys 12B and Men Novice B scored fourths in theirs. More power to them, and better luck to the rest of our crews in the next regatta.

Editor's note: Lacking a firsthand report from any Club observer, the foregoing story is based on the account published in the Sunday morning Star-Bulletin/Advertiser of August 19.

The canoe-paddling season picks up momentum

It is not unusual for the Outrigger Canoe Club paddlers to start the annual summer regatta season with a lackluster record. Certainly this season, except for the very productive day at Waikiki for the Club-sponsored Walter J. Macfarlane Regatta, has been no exception to that rule.

The Leeward Kai Regatta, fourth of the summer meets, has just passed and the Club's paddlers are coming out of the doldrums and are starting to show their class beyond the potential which they have had all along. There are reasons for the slow season starts for the Outrigger. Some of our best paddlers arrive home from mainland colleges too late for early training and it takes time to get into condition as well as to get together with teammates. All this is coming along now and hopes for a bright finish in the summer series have brought much encouragement to paddlers and coaches as well.

Following the fine Macfarlane Day performance July 4th at Waikiki, Outrigger's paddlers fell into a slump at the John D. Kaupiko Regatta held July 15th at the Hawaii Kai Koko Kai Marina.

The course this year at Koko Kai was unusual by traditional standards. The regular course provides a one-half mile straightaway, and the lagoon at Koko Kai provides space for only a one-quarter mile straightaway. The shorter distance has no effect on the younger crews who paddle only a quarter or half mile with one turn; but it made a marathon of turns for the longer distance crews. The Senior Men had to make nine turns in the running of their two and one-half mile race.

For spectators, the course was little better, there being little or no room above the Koko Kai Marina boat slips to watch the races. The Outrigger's racing performance matched the site. We came up with only one first place, and that in the Boys 12A division where the 12A's chalked up their third consecutive win of the season. The winning 12A's were: Patrick Ayau, Bruce Black, Billy Bugbee, Toby Morris, Greg Crane and Pua Rochlen. The next best performance of the day for Outrigger was the Boys 14 who took third place.

If the Kaupiko Regatta was a disappointment, the Leeward Kai Regatta held a week later at Nanakuli Beach Park was a triumph by comparison. Outrigger started off well with a second place showing in the Boys 12B. The only real disappointment and the termination of a flawless record came to the 12A's who fell to a very close second place. The 12A loss was redeemed, however, by the Boys 14, who posted their first victory of the season. The winning 14's were: Karl Heyer IV, Damien Farden, Scott Rigg, Kilo Baird, Bobby Linn and Kenny Morrow. The Boys 16 crew, living up to their potential, followed into the winner's circle as the next Outrigger first place crew, gaining their first win of the season. The Boys 16's were: Jay Anderson, Walter Guild, Mike Haxton, Mark Rigg, Dana Moss and Kainoa Downing. In the women's divisions, Outrigger made beautiful progress. Up from fourth place to first were the Junior women: Christie Wilson, Moira Scully, Judy Mounts, Kim Heyer, Julie Morgan, and Nancy D'Enbeau. Also climbing the ladder are the Sophomore women, up from fourth place to second place; the Freshmen women up two places to fourth; the Women B Novice, up from fourth to third; and Women A Novice from seventh to third.

Outrigger had to default in several races, as we had no entries for Boys 18, Men Sophomore, Men Junior or Senior Women.

Our Senior Men were also on the comeback trail after suffering a sixth place loss at the Kaupiko Regatta. They came in a strong third place at Leeward Kai.

The next and last regatta on Oahu for the season was the Oahu Championship held at Keehi Lagoon on August 5th. (See following story.)

The Oahu Championship Regatta

The shiny Kakina got a full day's workout at Keehi Lagoon on August 5th at the Oahu Championships. The race site, moved mauka by the Keehi Lagoon Park, was a vast improvement over the previous year's opposite the airport runway.

The day provided its share of triumphs and disappointments. Over all, the Outrigger took third in Regatta points with thirty-four, following winning Healani with fifty-five points and second place Kailua with forty-seven.

The day started out with a fine second place performance by our Boys 12B. The Boys 12A regained their traditional first place position with a solid win in their quarter mile straight-away. Paddling in the 12A division were: Patrick Ayau, Bill Bugbee, Greg Crane, Toby Morris, Jay Zukerkorn and Pua Rochlen. Good hard training was the reason for the Women Novice B's exceptional win in their event. The winning girls were: Julie Henrickson, Lyn Mason, Jill Fagothey, Maile Morgan, Eva Segovia and Allison Martin.

Following the opening events, the Outrigger was not able to get back into the winner's circle, but had some very close near misses. The Boys B and Novice Women A both took third places. The Men B Novice ended up with second place in a photo finish, a stroke or less being the margin. The Boys 14 encountered problems and ended up in fifth place. The Men A Novice had no better luck, and came in with a seventh place. The Boys 16 encountered the same problem which plagued the 14's and Novice A's and ended up with a seventh place finish. Both the 14's and 16's had been first place boats at the previous Leeward Regatta and demonstrated well the unpredictable side of canoe racing.

One of the day's highlights for the Club came with the Boys 18 event. In previous regattas we have not been able to field an 18 crew. Coach Archie Kaaua gathered four untrained eighteen year old members who thought they were going to watch the race from shore. Beanie Sheeman, Adrian Rosemill, Allan Rosemill and Dave Anderson joined Robbie Muller and Jim Foytich in the one mile event. They took a very positive fourth place and delivered a well needed point to our total. Our Freshmen wahines fell into seventh spot followed by the Freshmen Men with a photo finish fourth place that with the blink of an eye could have been second or third. Sophomore wahines took third and the Sophomore Men showed great power with a strong second place. Another photo finish second place went to our very impressive Junior wahines' crew. In a bid to enter a successful Senior Women's crew, we did not fare too well with a sixth place finish. The competition proved far too strong for our crew's one week training period. The Senior Men once again took third place to end a sometimes frustrating, sometimes outstanding regatta.

The final regatta of the summer season was held August 18th at Hilo. The results are reported briefly on page 1 of this issue.

Swimming

We have another distance swimmer joining Dr. Harry Huffaker in channel crossing. Jim Caldwell, a good friend of Harry's, took off one Sunday morning at 5:30 a.m. from Lipoa Point on Maui and made his way in five hours and twenty minutes to the shores of Molokai. Jim outlasted his escort boat which broke down in the closing yards of the swim. Jim is probably the first distance swimmer who has had to complete his swim and then call the Coast Guard to rescue his escort boat!

The KAKINA, a Club project

Not all of the canoe races this summer have been in the water. The refurbishing of the Club's prime racing canoe has been a race against time. Barely ready for the Leeward Regatta and paddled with wet paint and much work ahead, the Kakina presented quite a contrast to her usual sleek polished appearance. In the two weeks between races a transformation took place.

Inspired by paddlers Mike Mason and Jimmy Bugbee, many of the paddlers pitched in and laboriously hand-sanded and put coat after coat of varnish on her beautiful koa hull. The paddlers worked long hours and far into the night with their project, right up to the eve of the Oahu Championship. Even at midnight there were at least five or six people putting on the finishing touches. Brant Ackerman, with much assistance, put beautiful racing stripes the length of the gun-wales. Local artist, Wally Young, hand-lettered "Kakina" in beautiful script. Even race morning brought more last minute preparation as Mark Buck and several paddlers gave the hull a final wet sanding. The helping hands for the project came mostly from the younger paddlers. Frequent laborers were Walter Guild, Robbie Miller, Scott Rigg, Billy Bugbee, Drea Kaava, Greg Crane and many others who stopped to help, including President Rab Guild's wife Alice, who gave it a go for awhile following the Bouillabaisse dinner.

WAIALAE TENNIS MATCH

A down to the wire tennis match between the OCC and the Waialae Club was played on August 12, with Waialae squeezing by thirteen matches to eleven.

It was nearly an all-Outrigger match, as half of Waialae's women were Outrigger members and about a quarter of Waialae's men could have played for either side. Early wins for Outrigger in the men's and women's doubles matches looked like a sure Outrigger victory, but later the tide turned.

The 1973 Bouillabaisse Party

Or: the volleyballers' MAHALO!

Another very successful Bouillabaisse Party was held on Monday, July 30th under the auspices of the Winged "O" Committee. The purpose of the Bouillabaisse Party in the past has been to allow the volleyball teams to show their appreciation to the Outrigger Canoe Club membership prior to the National Volleyball Championships on the Mainland. This year, however, the party was held after the Nationals as a thank-you party for our members.

The idea of the party was originated three years ago by Wally Young, Chairman of the Winged "O" Committee and Manager of our volleyball activities, as a means of acquainting OCC members with the volleyball players. The OCC volleyball teams are ranked nationally each year. This year they ranked number three in open play and number two in Master's play. Every Olympic Volleyball Team has had members from the Outrigger Canoe Club, and twice the U.S. Olympic Captain of the Volleyball Team has been from the Outrigger Canoe Club: Pete Velasco in 1964; and Tom Haine in 1968.

The Bouillabaisse parties each year can easily claim to be the most successful parties, financially speaking, that are held. The response of the membership has been most gratifying. All of the National volleyball players are in attendance working, but not at volleyball. They pour champagne, serve as waiters and do everything necessary to insure the success of the evening.

This year there were over two hundred people at the party, feasting on fresh New England lobster, clams, shrimp and oyster, combined to produce a delicious Bouillabaisse. The seafood was purchased and brought in by American Airlines. The one hundred and seventy bottles of champagne that added immeasurably to the party were supplied by Western Airlines. The three different musical groups were provided by Hawaiian Airlines.

The Winged "O" Committee is evaluating the possibility of holding several similar parties each year, such as a clam bake, a steak and pancake breakfast, etc. May the success of the Bouillabaisse Party pass on to these new ventures.

August was Duke Kahanamoku Month

The birthday of the late Duke Kahanamoku, world-famous swimmer of the 1910-1930 era and an active Outrigger Club member for much of his life, was observed by a special display of old photos and memorabilia throughout the month of August, the exact date falling on August 24. Plans for a memorial dinner proposed by the Historical Committee had to be deferred to a later date because of conflicting events during the unusually busy month of August. New plans for a commemorative affair are under consideration by the Historical Committee.
