OUTRIGGER CANOE CLUB

HONOLULU, HAWAII

MARCH, 1971

CANOE RACING

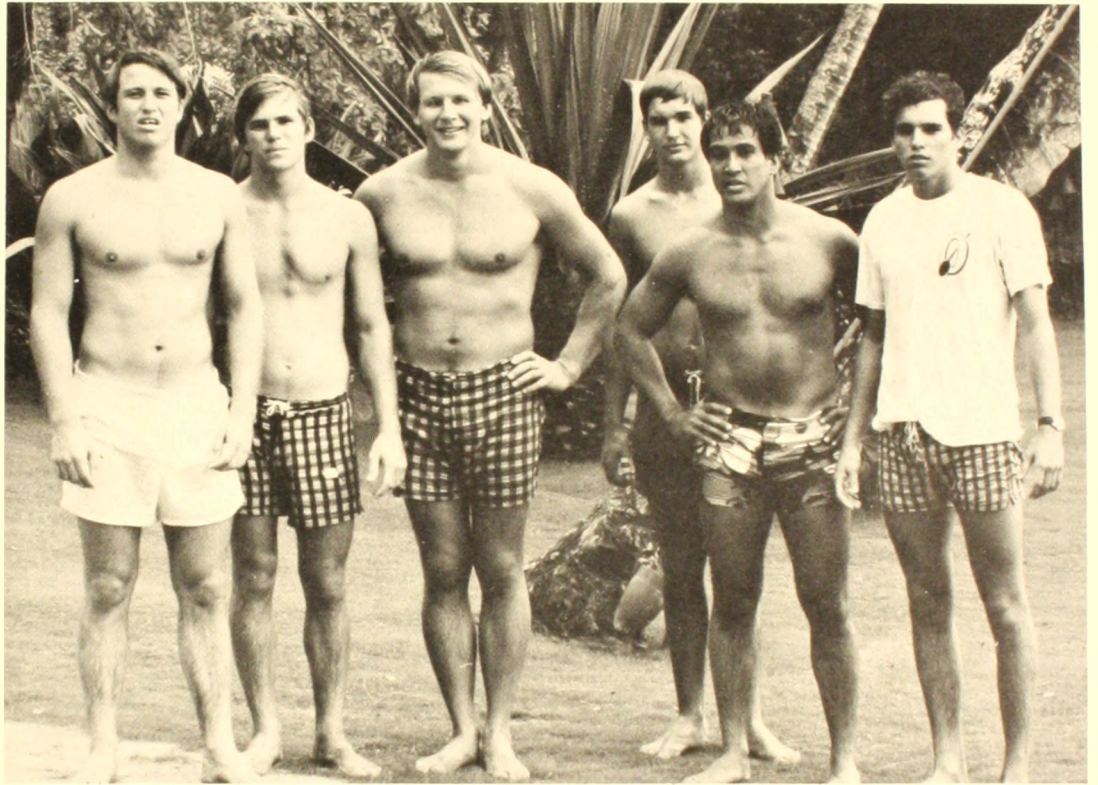

by Jerry Ober

The racing season got off to an early and very satisfactory start for the Outrigger Canoe Club. The Club was invited to participate in a pre-season race held on Kauai and hosted by the active and able Kauai Canoe Club. The race was held in connection with Kuhio Day festivities on Kauai Saturday, March 27th.

A group of our younger veterans of paddling made their wishes known and commenced training under the able guidance of Coach Mark Buck. They were George McPheeters, Brad Brown, Barry Hall, Nick Black, Bill Burso, Dale Hope, Billy Mitchell, Tim Guard and Hal Burchard joined the crew to fill it out to the required 9 men.

Race day on Kauai dawned windy and rough, the course from the beach fronting the Coco Palms Hotel to Kalapaki Beach fronting the Kauai Surf, a distance of approximately 8 miles, was a very un hospitable piece of water. The Kauai hosts had originally planned the race with nine-man crews using escort boats and changing paddlers much the same as the Molokai-Oahu Race. Conditions, however, did not permit the use of small boats in the rough waters. The Coast Guard provided the only emergency craft available for the course. Without escort boats, the canoes had to go it alone with 6 men as there would be no provision for changes. A crew consisting of Billy Mitchell, Dale Hope, Nick Black, Bill Burso, Brad Brown and George McPheeters was selected to make the trip. Barry Hall, Tim Guard and Hal Burchard opted out.

There were 7 canoes in the race of which 5 finished. The start was an unbelievable tangle of canoes following a modified "LeMans" start off the beach and into a stormy onshore wind. No more than 50 feet from shore the canoes became a tangled mess each on top of the other and trying to get free. It was such an unintentional mess, something like the freeway at 5 p.m., that no tempers were lost and the canoes were soon free of one another and off and running. Waikiki Surf Club took an early lead followed by Healani and then a close group of three boats, Outrigger, Kauai and Waikiki Surf Club's number two boat. One boat swamped shortly after the start and was assisted by the Coast Guard. From a vantage point midway in the race, it was Surf Club, Healani and the tightly grouped pack of three, Outrigger, Kauai and Surf Club number 2. The next available vantage point was from the beach at the finish line. Here the truth became evident, Waikiki Surf Club rounded the point and came in with a solid first place. But, the previous number two boat, Healani, was nowhere to be seen and the next boat to come into view was the Leilani running a good strong finish against the Surf Club's number 2 boat. The Outrigger crew had proved its ability by wearing down and out-paddling the other two close contenders for the 2nd place position. Healani had swamped several miles from the finish and Kauai took 4th place.

The Kauai Surf Hotel and Kauai Canoe Club hosted an excellent lunch on the lawn fronting the hotel along with a presentation ceremony. The Outrigger was awarded the "Presidents" trophy for its second place position.

In all, it was an excellent pre-season outing for the club and provided valuable training for some of our younger paddlers; it was a very worth while effort for all. The Outrigger sends its Mahalo to the Kauai Canoe Club for its generous hospitality not only on race day but for providing transportation to and from Kauai for the paddlers and the canoe as well.

PADDLERS

All paddlers, mark your calendars Monday, May 10th. There will be a general meeting for all those who are interested in paddling. Everyone who has ever wanted to paddle come to this informative meeting; it is open to all who would like to paddle this season regardless of experience. Exact time for the meeting will be announced, however it will be in the late afternoon by the beach front.

Tentative schedule of regattas for the 1971 canoe racing season has been set and for the most part follows the same format as previous years. There are

Richard Kauhi

Hawaiian Reflections of Richard Kauhi and his piano and music every Saturday nite: 7-10 p.m.

The Musical Reflections of Richard Kauhi and his piano were so enthusiastically received opening nite . . . Saturday, April 10th . . . that they are being booked for the listening and dancing pleasure of members and their guests in the Club Bar and Hau Terrace each Saturday from 7 to 11 p.m. A totally new listening treat, the music of Kauhi reflected a combination of easy listening accented every now and then with a touch of gentle jazz. The distinctive piano and dusky, intimate voice of Richard Kauhi graced traditional favorites such as "Kaahumanu," "Kona Kai Opua" and "Lei Lokelani" with a modern sophisticated touch. The Hawaiian balladeer gave lovely, old melodies a modern zest, while still retaining the traditional romance of old Hawaii.

As with many contemporary Hawaiian musicians, Kauhi comes from a musical family. Both his parents sang in the famed Kawaihau Church Choir. Born in Honolulu in 1929, the child musical prodigy started his professional career with the Kalima Brothers in 1942. He later went on to form his own group, "The Richard Kauhi Quartette" and became well known to Honolulu audiences in such entertainment spots as the Felix Florentine Gardens, the Queen's Surf, and Lau Yee Chai's. Following in the footsteps of Alfred Apaka, Charles Davis, Ed Kenny and Pua Almeida, Kauhi moved on to the mainland for further training and experience. He has played in Palm Springs, Reno, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Newport Beach and Balboa.

This year there will be a marked difference in the activities of the Entertainment Committee. Col. Berenzweig, alias "Bwig," is the chairman and he has selected an all star cast to help him create an interesting and varied selection of activities based on the premise of something for everyone. Bwig has extended an open invitation to ALL members to come to the Entertainment Committee meetings to be held THE FIRST TUESDAY OF EACH MONTH at 5:15 p.m. in the Board Room of the Club. This is your year, not only to participate with the making of club entertainment plans but to attend the functions themselves. The committee has sent out in the monthly billings for April, a questionnaire entitled "HELP," it is reprinted here for those of you who might not have seen it. In addition, the Committee has made huge monthly entertainment planning boards which are presently located in the manager's office. These boards called the Club's Master Activities Calendar will be placed where the membership can at a glance find out what is planned for its enjoyment.

The following article will help fill you in on the coming year's activities.

At the first Board of Directors meeting on 18 March, names of the 1971 O.C.C. Entertainment Committee were approved and released for publication. They are M. J. Berenzweig (Chairman), Hal W. Burchard, Kuulei Crawford, John A. Grymes, Marjorie E. Phillips, and Robert S. Wilson.

Four committee meetings already have been held with all members in attendance. Enthusiasm has been high and an initial new social calendar has been organized in close coordination with O. C. C. athletic events and other club activities. Questionnaires were included with each club bill mailed to the membership last week. The purpose was to glean ideas and preferences from each member and thereby provide a better social calendar for member participation in the remaining months of 1971.

Highlights of the initial program include The First Annual Spring Wine Tasting Party. This new innovation is programmed for Monday evening, 19 April. Details, formed after this article went to press, appear on the Party Poster in the club lobby. Tickets still are on sale at the front desk. Bob Wilson is the Party Chairman and has made complete arrangements for a lively and different kind of casual get-together for the adult membership and their guests at a very nominal cost.

The first "Steak-Out" on the Beach this season is another highlight of the new calendar. The "Steak-Out" is scheduled for Saturday evening, 22 May. Tickets will go on sale 30 April for $3.50 each. The same high quality picnic-style dinner, and entertainment, introduced to the membership and their guests last year is insured. The limited number of tickets should not last long. Early purchases are suggested.

The participation of Karl Heyer III, Athletic Committee Coordinating Director, at the last Entertainment Committee meeting made it possible in coordination with Rab Guild, Coordinating Director of the Entertainment Committee, to introduce another new innovation for the 1971 social calendar. This year, the annual O.C.C. Luau will be held on July 4 following the classic Walter Macfarlane Memorial Canoe Race.

Chairman for the O.C.C. Fourth of July Luau is John Grymes. Members of his Luau Committee include Joy Crandlemire, Rick Davis, James Kaiona, Gilly Halpern and Hal Burchard. Tickets will go on sale 4 June on a "first come, first serve" basis. Early reservations are encouraged inasmuch as the number of tickets will be limited due to space limitations.

BEACH SERVICES

The Beach Services of the Club are now ably handled by Phil Lee. Phil is an expert water man judged by all standards and has proved his ability with many a rescue as a lot of the Club's sailors and canoe paddlers will testify. Phil is assisted by Jimmy Blears and Mark Sedlack, both superb water men as well as excellent surfers. Remember that Phil and his staff are there primarily to promote water safety and make your day at the beach not only fun, but safe fun; please cooperate with Phil and his staff they are performing with your safety in mind.

EVELYN ADAMS FAHRENWALD

Evelyn is our new beach shop attendant. Five years in the islands, and hailing from Boise, Idaho, she has many and varied interests. Her latest and most enthusiastic activity is in the field of audiology, working with people who have hearing problems. Evelyn has two daughters.

however some new additions both to the number of regattas and to the number of events. There is one new event. A Boy's 12 and Under "B" team now joins the 12's, making 2 12-year-old events. The "A" and "B" system was first started last year with the introduction of Novice Women B.

The other change is an addition. This year there will be another Waikiki race to be called the Waikiki Beach Boy Race. It will be held the Sunday following the Annual Club sponsored Macfarlane Day Regatta on the 4th of July.

The events are:

Sunday, June 13th, Kam Day at Kai-lua Beach Park, 10:00 a.m.

Sunday, June 20th, Pokai Bay at Pokai Bay Beach Park, 10:00 a.m.

Sunday, July 4th, Macfarlane Day at Waikiki Beach, 10:00 a.m.

Sunday, July 11th, Waikiki Beach Boy at Waikiki Beach, 10:00 a.m.

Sunday, July 25th, Oahu Championships, place to be announced.

Saturday, August 7th, State Championships, place to be announced.

SAILING

The first regatta of the series to pick a club representative for the Annual Kauai Yacht Club Invitational Regatta to be held May 8th and 9th on Kauai was won by George McPheeters followed by Mike Holmes, Cline Mann, Doug Jocelyn, Tom Reiner and Jim Bell.

INTERNATIONAL SURFING CHAMPIONSHIPS

The International surfing championships were held in Lima, Peru, the first week of March 1971, with teams from over 10 countries participating. The Hawaii team, composed of Brant Ackerman from the Outrigger Canoe Club, Keone Downing, another O. C. C. member, Jeff Hackman, the Duke and Makaha winner and Gerry Lopez all placed in the finals of the "Big Wave" competition. The 1/2 mile relay was won by a large margin by the Hawaii team, adding to the prestige and popularity of our group, which was coached by George Downing. Brant Ackerman was by far the outstanding sportsman in the meet and was a distinct credit to the Outrigger Canoe Club as their representative in this classic event.

The club presented a "Good-Will" trophy to our affiliated Club Waikiki in Lima which was host of the meet, and was presented by Brant Ackerman and Neal Ifversen of the O. C. C. Neal also served as one of the judges of the meet.

Another Outrigger member, Dr. Ed. Madden, was also on hand to root for our boys.

CHUN'S REEF SURFING CONTEST

Evie Black took first in the Women's Division.

RUGBY

Steve Scott and Tim Guard have been picked for Hawaii Representative Rugby Team, 18 players picked from the six teams playing locally. Representative team played against St. Mary's College of California and the Oak Bay Rugby Club of Victoria, British Columbia.

Incidentally, that large cast Tim is sporting on his left leg is the result of Tim's last game of the season which by the way, Tim's team won with the aid of three goals by teammate Steve Scott. The win was over the Oak Bay Club.

VOLLEYBALL

by Chris Crabb

Chairman, Volleyball Committee

Since the opening of the volleyball season, the Outrigger team has swept every tournament. Our first victory was at our own tournament at Ft. Ruger Gym. We blasted a fine Nuuanu team 15-4 and 15-6. Our next win occurred at the hands of Hickam Air Force team at Church College of Hawaii. The third tournament of the year was held at Wailua. This event is held annually, and the team that wins this one usually goes on to win the State Tournament and State Championship. It was a great tournament and the Outrigger team saw four of its members on the All-Star Team. Tony and Chris Crabb as hitters, Paul MacLaughlin as setter, and Charles Jenkins was the most valuable player. The party afterwards was great! Neil Eldridge, the host, had everyone to his home for all one could eat and drink. Tommy Conner's date had to wait a very long time for him to come, for he had to catch a ride home with the inebriated Arnott brothers. The next tournament was the Outrigger open. The Outrigger Red team whipped Church College of Hawaii 15-4, 15-8, 9-15 and 15-9. Our next tournament is the prestigious Haili Open, held at Hilo on the 9th and 10th of April. This is followed by the State Championships at the Otto Klum Gym on April 16th and 17th. Here, all of the Club members will have an opportunity to see their team in action, so come out and support your team.

Barring injuries, the Outrigger team should do very well in the AAU and National Championships to be held in Cleveland, Ohio and Binghamton, New York, respectively. The team leaves April 28th and will return on May 9th, so wish us lots of luck.

The volleyball players would like to give a special thanks to Colin Chock, our coach, and to Wally Young, our industrious manager and organizer. Without their help, much of our success would be impossible.

HAILI TOURNAMENT

Outrigger Volleyballers win at the Haili Tournament in Hilo. Our team was first in the 6-man AA and took 6 out of 9 trophies.

ASPEN, 1971

Aspen, 1971, J. Ward Russell,
Reporter

Hawaii takes over Aspen! Islanders invade and conquer slopes of Ajax, Buttermilk and Snowmass! Leading the contingent were Outrigger's three most eligible (or so they think) Buck Schmuck, Fred Lowrey and Ward Russell. Again, as they did last year, they ensconced themselves in a bachelor pad at Aspen Square, a delightful condominium and spearheaded forays of skiing and she-ing. A delightful Valentine's Day party given by Mary Ann and Gordon Dickie in their beautiful apartment, attended by a number of Honoluluans and Outriggerites, started the ball rolling. This prompted SLR (Schmuck, Lowrey, Russell) to throw their "Fifth Annual Aspen-Hawaiian Ski Pioneers Party" (Actually it was their first, not fifth—they drank the later). Only Hawaiians and/or Hawaiians in heart were invited and were told to come from 6 to 8. Typical Hawaiians, the first guest arrived at 6:45 and the last guest left at 12:30 a.m.! Guess included Cathy and Jay Clarke (brother Gar had just left for Denver), Judy Ferenberg, who runs a day care center in Aspen and sends her Aloha to fellow OCC members, Mary Ann and Gordon Dickie, Hildegard and Stan Hattie, Robin and Bob Smith, Doug Schramel, Tom Wells, Jan Smith, Ned Damon, Nick McDaniel, Richard Waterhouse, Dick Metz, Doug McCoy, Carol and Bob Gaddes and their dates and friends. Invited but unable to attend were Sharon and Rod McPhee (Punahou Prexy) and Sam and Mary Cooke. Arriving two days later was OCC member Doug Jocelyn.

If you really want to know what the skiing was like, ask Fred Lowrey to show you the picture of him and Buck Schmuck on the chairlift.

Club members are shocked, saddened, elated (choose one) to hear that David and Shannon Silvernale are moving to the Mainland, the result of transfer with Sears. Destination at press time: unknown.

Lending an international touch at lunchtime were the British-Irish Polo Team—the Marquis of Waterford, Lord Patrick Beresford, Captain Nigel Corbally-Stourton and Reddy Watt.

With the football season over, more and more fans are showing up for weekends around the club. And well they should, as the passing parade gets better each week. That recent trio of hot pants and boots made everyone sit up and take notice. Brush up your sunglasses and take in the live and direct color viewing down at the club.

Get well fast and hurry back to Yoshi Takesue, now in a neck brace after a car accident.
