Outrigger's Surfing Season

SURFING by Donny Mailer

After putting together a very good year of surfing, the competition team would like to extend special thanks to John McMahon for his many rewarding efforts in keeping the team at pace. Without John our team would not have had the complete backing of the club, which we will be grateful to have again in the year '71. The Committee would also like to extend their thanks to the Board of Directors for sending Paul Strauch, Keone Downing and myself to Australia to compete in the World Surfing Titles. Keone placed 5th overall in the men's division.

Most contests were sanctioned by the Hawaiian Surfing Association. By competing we built up points toward our ratings as a team. The ratings will be announced on January 21st.

I would like to make special mention of Tom Winkler, Bret Goodfriend, and Scott Bradley, although they are not surfing for the club, they're making good tracks for the Kui-O-Hawaii Surfing Team. Maybe soon they'll sway and show their potential in our club.

In wishing everyone a righteous New Year—May we get in on as brothers and live in peace.

Again a special mahalo to the Board of Directors for their continued support.

Brant Ackerman has been selected by the Outrigger Canoe Club Surfing Committee to represent the club at the Annual Peruvian International Surfing Contest. The contest will be held in the waters off the Club Waikiki near Lima, Peru on February 26. The Club Waikiki

Introducing the "CASTAWAYS" for your listening and dancing pleasure each Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. Leader Lee Groom mixes his versatile talents with Wayne Yabiku, a music major at the University of Hawaii. These men use several different instruments to provide a new young sound.

THE MANAGEMENT AND STAFF WOULD LIKE TO TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO EXPRESS THEIR SINCERE GRATITUDE TO THE MEMBERS FOR THEIR GENEROUS CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE EMPLOYEES CHRISTMAS FUND AND THEIR ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY.

The Canoe Committee, composed of Tom Conner, Mike Holmes and Neal Ifversen, with "Rabbit" Kekai as ex-officio member, is engaged in several projects relating to canoes.

1. Covers (tarp) have been ordered for the big and small canoes.
2. Inventory of canoes and equipment being brought up to date.
3. List of qualified steersmen being updated.
4. Qualification of steersmen rules being finalized.
5. Canoe rules being amended and posted.

Other business pertaining to the canoes (such as replacement parts, accidents, storage fees, etc.) is being handled by the Committee via the Manager and Club Captain to the Board of Directors. Suggestions welcome.

The Beach and Water Safety Committee is continuing its work to obtain control over all boats in the Lagoon.

Progress with the State has been considerably slower than anticipated, however we should succeed in due course.

THE FRIENDS OF MINE

A new young sound is now being heard each Saturday night from 6:30 to 10:30 p.m. by "The Friends of Mine." This vibrant group consists of three students from the University of Hawaii and plays an assortment of popular tunes.

Our very popular "Sunday Manoa" trio continues performing every Friday night from 6:30 to 9:30. Come down for "Happy Hour" from 4 to 7 p.m. and stay on for the trio.

The Outrigger Canoe Club has always operated on the premise that a member's financial obligations to the club were personal obligations, and all members have been held responsible for such obligations.

In view of the severe penalties imposed by the new Tax Reform Act upon any social club which accepts payment for obligations to the club from other than members, we wish to re-affirm the above policy.

Therefore, the Outrigger Canoe Club cannot accept payment for obligations to the club other than by personal checks or cash. Company checks cannot be accepted for reimbursement of such obligations. A member's account cannot be credited for payments until a personal check or cash covering the debt is received.

Your cooperation in this matter will be very much appreciated.

The Nominating Committee has listed the following voting members as candidates for the Board of Directors. There are 7 seats available this year. One Director will be elected for 1 year to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of Dennis O'Connor.

kiki, our affiliate club in Peru is the host club for this event.

Brant qualified for the honor by virtue of his outstanding performances in top surfing contests here in Hawaii. Brant surfed into the finals at Makaha in the men's division, and entered both the Smirnoff and Duke Kahanamoku Classic in December. The latter two events are by invitation only attesting to Brant's proved ability.

We all join in wishing Brant well on his trip to Peru.

Aka Hemmings took first place in the Stock Board division of the Annual Diamond Head surfboard paddling event. Rabbit Kekai took honors in the Open division in the six mile event that started from the Moana Hotel around Diamond Head buoy and back. Rabbit's time was 61 minutes, 10 seconds, only a scant 10 seconds ahead of Aka on his stock board. Kainoa Downing won the half mile Men's Open division. Heidi Hemmings won the Girls' 14 and under division.

Volleyball Fund Raising Dinner is set for Monday, February 15th. Members of the club's volleyball team will put on a fund raising dinner in conjunction with American Airlines. The dinner will be a BOUILLABAISSE PARTY and will feature fresh New England clams and lobsters flown in fresh by American Airlines free of charge for the occasion.

The volleyball team members will serve the meal and perform all of the duties normally carried out by the club service staff. The meal will be prepared by Sky Chefs, a division of American Airlines.

The cost of the dinner will be $5.00 per person, which will include the fresh New England lobsters and clams in the Bouillabaisse, salad, rolls and wine; quite a bargain for sure. There will be happy hour prices at the bar starting at 5:30 and continuing throughout the party.

All proceeds from the party will go toward the fund to take the volleyball team to the Nationals in Binghamton, New York, this May.

Needless to say this party will be a sellout; call the club for reservations immediately. They won't last long.

annual christmas open house

YOU SEE EVERYTHING AT THE OPEN HOUSE

The annual fashion parade at the 1970 Christmas Day Open House started out with lace, lavender, velvet and ascots followed by knit pants (on men, too), pretend leather dresses, scarves and snake prints. We were especially intrigued with the orange knit ensemble, and that's all she wore, baby. Spotted Eva and Mitzi in perky new muumuus both made for the occasion. . . . David Young in a shirt of cloth picked up in New Zealand. . . . George Taran in a new jacket . . . hair adorned with jewels . . . and Jim Growney carrying a psychedelic purse or bag or satchel, whatever.

There wee mustaches in abundance, as well as beards in evidence. The latter fringed the faces of Butch Hemmings, Gordon Damon, Mark Buck and some guy in a leather jacket.

Then there was Mrs. Peyton Carroll wearing an enormous glass around her neck like a giant lavalier. The glass was anchored on a chain of fake pearls, which clashed with her real ones. We don't know who gave it to her, but it was a great gag. Ronnie doesn't think.

Ran into Dr. Peter Claremont, who has left the Windward side of Oahu for the Garden Isle of Kauai, where he is now the radiologist at Wilcox Hospital. Friends will find "The Shadow Man" happily ensconced on the sunny shores of Poipu. Also, pretty Sydney lass Tricia Halvorsen, here for Cindy May's wedding in Kona. And sometime Egyptologist Stan Hattie chatting with Outrigger Editor Jerry Ober.

We saw a lot more, but we prefer to protect . . .

EAT YOUR HEARTS OUT, SKIERS

There's a growing contingent off to the slopes of Aspen in February. The lucky folks include Dave and Molly Austin, Gordon and Mary Ann Dickie, Stan and Hildegard Hattie, Chico and Allison Holland, Fred Lowery, Doug Jocelyn, Buck Schmuck, Nick McDaniel, Abe Waterhouse, Ward Russell and George Radford. Tom Wells and Joey Cabell will meet the troops there. On their return, check for plaster of paris on the Hau Terrace.

Joe McGillicuddy, a.k.a. Pat McNulty, in to cover the Smirnoff Surfing event for West Magazine, the multimillion circulation roto section of the Los Angeles Times.

Congratulations are in order for newlywed Dave Hendrickson. The new Mrs. Hendrickson is the former Marie Woods, our cute dining room cashier.

Leslie Olds and Mike Veach exchanged vows at Thurston Memorial Church on Thanksgiving Day at 5 p.m. The reception, and a fine one from all reports, was held at the Oahu Country Club. The couple are living in Kailua.

JUNIOR JABBER by Betsy Gross

Despite all the hustle and bustle of Christmas this past year, some of our junior members found time to travel. Those who thought they'd take to skiing on the mainland were Tommy Arnott, Laurie Marshack, Connie Ostrem and Nancy Peacock. Linda Peacock visited the mainland but didn't catch the skiing action.

No skiing, but a lot of snow was what B. A., Adrian and Allen Rosehill found while on the east coast in Connecticut.

But, playing in the snow was limited not only to those who went to the mainland. Jill Ackerman found it traveling to Kamuela and up to Mauna Kea and while I was visiting Maui, I saw Tina Morgan in the snow up on Haleakala.

Leaving snow though were all the college kids, returning to hit the surf and sand.

It seemed to be a great Christmas for all and I hope that 1971 will bring you twice as much happiness as 1970.

The whole scene at the open house.
