HONOLULU, HAWAII

SAILING

The Outrigger Canoe Club has taken a significant step forward in this sport which is fast growing at the club. We were invited to be represented in the first annual Hawaii State Championship Regatta sponsored by the Waikiki Yacht Club. The event was originally scheduled for November 20 and 21, however, small craft warnings forced a postponement to November 27 and 28. Thirty-three fleet winners representing eight island yacht clubs competed in Cal-20 sloops. Bob Casey and Ron Rima, who have been competing successfully in P-Cat races, represented the Outrigger but unfortunately missed out in their elimination race.

An encouraging note involves our program to promote sailing among the younger element. Tommy Levine and Mike Driscoll have been receiving P-Cat training from Bob Casey. Both boys, who were junior leaders in the recent summer program and members of our record breaking 14-year old canoe crew in the State Championships, have displayed outstanding potential in sailing. In the second race of the recent Waikiki Yacht Club "Jinky Crozier Memorial Regatta" Bob Casey crewed while Tommy drove their P-Cat to a strong first place finish.

Bob Casey has just taken delivery of a Capri dingy which will provide increased sailing instruction opportunities for our members. This beautiful craft is a 14-foot keel boat which can negotiate our lagoon and channel with ease and can carry six persons. We hope to accelerate the instruction program for oldsters and youngsters alike and so increase the number of people qualified to skipper or crew in Sunfish and P-Cats.

VOLLEYBALL

Outrigger Volleyball players were honored lately by being selected on the All-Hawaii Volleyball Team. They will be playing against the Japanese National Team, bronze medal winners in the 1964 Olympics.

The members were led by Pete Velasco, United States Olympic captain, and three times All-American; Tom Haine, Pan American games player and many time All-American; Paul MacLaughlin, College All-American; Bob Jones, Bob Daniels and Fred Noa, long-time OCC volleyballers.

The games will take place on December 15 and 16 at the Honolulu International Center. The team will also travel to the outer islands.

Tickets will be sold at the club desk. The sale of tickets through the club will help benefit the Athletic Fund, as the club will receive a percentage of each ticket.

Another honor bestowed was on member Bob Hogan, OCC coach and co-captain, being selected on the U.S.

An outrigger canoe headed seaward, a Sunfish being readied and a fleet of racing P-Cats at anchor are mute testimony to our growing water sports activity. Activities of a sedentary nature can always be found along the beach and under our palm trees and slowly growing haus.

Team that traveled to Canada playing in exhibition games against Russia last month. Bob played first team throughout most of the trip. We understand Bob is a bright prospect in the volleyball future of the United States.

OUTRIGGER SURFERS TO COMPETE AT MAKAHA

Rice Bowl, Tongg's, Old Man's, and now Makaha. The Outrigger junior surfers are preparing for the big step up to the Makaha International Surfing Championships sponsored by Waikiki Surf Club to be held December 18-26. With Butch Hemmings acting as coordinator and counselor, the juniors have determined to make a good showing; and the Outrigger will be backing them all the way. In addition to assuming their fees for the contest, the club will also assist with the transportation, meals and arrangements for spending a few nights on the beach. Being together as a group promises to be an enjoyable time for those who take part.

Among the younger members on this year's team who did well last year are Brant Ackerman and Tomi Winkler who made the semi-finals and Aka Hemmings who placed 3rd in the boys' event. Tom Bean, who also reached the semi-finals, may enter this year's senior event.

About twelve of our surfers are expected to represent the Outrigger. Please lend them your support by driving out to Makaha this month to watch them perform at the International Surfing Championships.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY

The club will be host on December 25 at the ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY. Traditional egg-nog and Anzai's Banzai Christmas punch will be served with plenty of pupus from 4 to 6 p.m. This festivity fits in nicely with our customary Christmas dinner. Dinner will be served from 6 to 9:30 p.m. Marion Diamond will be on hand for the Christmas Party.

The annual event is open to all members in good standing, but not to guests—except spouses and dates of single members.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

New Year's Eve at the club is the merriest. Join the fun and joyous festivities, fabulous dinner and decorations. Dancing 'til? This annual ball is one of the club's most outstanding events. Dinner will be served at 9 p.m.

All facilities of the club will be open. Come on down and commune with the eternal sea which soothes, reassures and relaxes. The bar will be dispensing therapeutic measures of course. Our chef, George Chemarin, has planned delicious dinners for Christmas and New Year's Eve. Please make reservations early for these.

Best wishes for the coming year.

OCC member Rollin C. Bacher, left, recently became the first participant in the Red Cross Swim and Stay Fit program to complete 50 miles. In recognition of his achievement, he receives a patch from Dickie Sialana, OCC beach attendant, and member Gerald G. Coron, manager of the Red Cross Hawaii chapter. Bacher, who has been swimming in 3/8-mile segments at 6:30 a.m. daily since April 15 (with the exception of a four-week Mainland trip), qualified for the 50-mile distance at the OCC, one of the 12 monitoring facilities for the Red Cross Water Safety Office, which supervises the program.

THIS 'N THAT

**The weather won out over the First Annual Club Week, which has been postponed indefinitely. It's unfortunate, realizing the untold man hours already spent getting the 30-plus events into shape. We'll start all over again with banners, posters and enthusiasm when the time and the weather are more favorable.

**Mr. and Mrs. Blake Chapman have announced the addition of Scott Blakely Chapman, born October 11 in Wilson, Wyoming. Scott, whose mother is the former Sandy Moseley, weighed in at 6 pounds, 7 ounces.

**In a warm gesture of appreciation for the OCC's co-sponsorship of the Kamalii in the 1965 Trans-Pacific Yacht Race, member Larry Doheny, owner-skipper of the 75-foot ketch, has presented the club with a beautiful silver trophy. The gold inscribed trophy is now on display in our award case.
