MANAGER'S COLUMN

Most members have no doubt received the announcement concerning the opening of the Gentlemen's Lounge and its use. It is a delightful room and is being enjoyed by many. There is a space in this room complete with proper shelving to accommodate a sizeable library of books of interest to our members. Some members have already brought in books which will provide good reading for other members. These books will be kept in this room for that purpose. The club would appreciate further contributions. It is hoped that our library will become a worthwhile project. Paperbacks will also be appreciated, but these will be kept in another area. Just leave them at the Front Desk.

Members are reminded that the room is for regular male members only. Please observe rules on dress as specified in the recent notice.

We ask members to please help keep our beautiful club and beach clean by not littering with paper, etc. Waste receptacles are conveniently placed for your use. We also wish to repeat the reminder against alcohol, glass containers and so forth on the oceanside beach.

In response to recent queries regarding the Club's liability for injury or damages, we quote verbatim Section 61 of the by-laws:

"WAIVER OF CLAIMS. An essential requirement to becoming a member, guest, employee or agent of the Club, or of securing entry to its premises is the waiver insofar as legally possible of all claims of every nature arising from injury or damage of any kind while on the Club premises or arising in any manner from the occupation of such relationship to the Club and the acceptance of any such relationship or the presence on Club premises shall be deemed such a waiver."

The foregoing section is posted on the bulletin board for all to see.

FRED HEMMINGS LEADS FIELD AT MAKAHA; STRAUCH A CLOSE SECOND

Outrigger Surfers Win at Makaha

After being postponed a week because of a severe storm, the finals of the Men's Division of the Makaha International Surfing Championships were conducted the day before Christmas under ideal surfing conditions with four Outrigger Canoe Club members among the finalists. Eighteen-year-old Fred Hemmings, Jr., competing for the first time in this division, won first place against some of the finest surfers in the world. Fred, who won the Boy's Division title in 1961 and again last year, was named by the Honolulu Quarter Back Club as Hawaii's Outstanding Athlete of 1964.

Taking a close second after leading in points almost to the end was Paul Strauch, Jr. Paul has long been acknowledged as one of Hawaii's best, having won the Makaha junior title in 1959.

Joe Cabell, last year's champion, who alternates between skiing at Aspen and surfing in California and Hawaii, was seeded into the finals. He lost his board on his first wave and, requiring almost a half hour to retrieve it, seemed hopelessly out of contention. However, scoring quickly and well in the final minutes he lifted himself from last to fourth place.

Ricky Steere surfed very well during the competition, and, while not winning a prize, nevertheless made it into the finals for the second year in a row.

In the Boy's Division Aka Hemmings captured 3rd place, being the only Outrigger Canoe Club member to gain the finals. Other members who made it into the semi-finals were Jay Clarke, last year's 2nd-place winner, Tom Bean, and Brant Ackerman. The last three, along with several other outstanding junior surfers from California as well as Hawaii, were unfortunate victims of mother nature in that the horribly small waves on this particular day did not permit them to show their real stuff.

In the Women's Division, Haunani and Mapuana Rochlen, Micki Briggs and Joan Coogan were entered. Only Haunani survived the single elimination and wound up in 7th place.

Outrigger Surfers to Peru

During mid February the World Surfing Championships will be held in Lima, Peru. On the 5-man team representing Hawaii will be Fred Hemmings, Jr. and Paul Strauch, both of whom have previously been invited as guest-surfers by Club Waikiki of Lima, Fred last year and Paul in 1963. They will be joined there by member Joe Cabell who will represent Windansea Surf Club of San Diego.

Outrigger Surfboard Paddlers Win

In the annual 5-mile Diamond Head surfboard race, held after Christmas because of conflict with the Makaha events, member Dodd Balock won the stock board division, with Rick Steere in 3rd place. In the racing class Richard Sylva placed third.

THIS 'N THAT

••One of the nicest innovations during cocktail hour are those hot pupus, specialty of our French chefs. There are three or four choices served from 6 p.m. until they're gone, which is shortly thereafter, they're so good.

••Drop by and hear the music these weekends. We've got Eddie Kinilau's trio of Hawaiian troubadours on Fridays from 6:30 to 9 p.m. and Marion Diamond's trio on Saturdays from 6 to 8 p.m.

••Our Standing Committees this year have been outstanding (if you'll pardon the pun.) We can't list them all, but these people have given untold hours and their work has brought you everything from new members, to fun parties, to athletic competitions. Don't think there haven't been some grand verbal battles—there have been—but it takes this kind of effort and many hours to accomplish all this. Without their work, you would have a standstill club.

HOLIDAY PARTIES

Christmas was a beautiful day and everyone seemed to show up. There was every costume imaginable from beach wear to those dressed for dinner. It was a good chance to meet the new members and we hear Anzai's banzais were more powerful than ever.

Our compliments to the manager and his staff for handling a packed party on one side and a packed dining room on the other side.

On New Year's Eve, the club had all the reservations it could handle. The decorations were exceptional and, as a bonus, diners were treated to live Maine lobster.
