The yak yak this time is about kayaks. Johnny Bustard, co-chairman of the AAU's Pan Pacific Games kayak committee is hoping that OCC will be represented in the paddling competition when the Games are held in Honolulu in August. Since the Club owns three kayaks all we have to do now is to find crews for them.

Johnny says that kayak-ing has come to be a very popular international sport and that both California and Australia have shown interest in sending crews to Hawaii for the Games in August.

Just in case you've forgotten how a kayak operates Johnny has arranged for a demonstration to be held on the Ala Wai Canal from 1:00 - 4:00 p.m., Saturday, April 8th and from 9:00 - noon Sunday the 9th. One, two and four man kayaks will participate. So why don't you plan on dropping by the Ala Wai next weekend. This will be a rare treat, indeed, since there are only 100 men and a dozen women in the U. S. who are considered qualified kayak-ers.

THE WINNERS!

In the Kuhio Day Regatta held at Kahului, Maui, March 26th the OCC emblem was right out front in three of the ten races run off. Our crews took the one mile men's senior race, and both half-mile races of which one was for boys 15 and under and the other for kane paddlers 17 and under. More details in the May issue of the Forecast.

Beachwear fashions get more and more fashionable all the time, to the point where it's hard to tell a bathing cap from a party chapeau without a program. The one illustrated is by Kleinert and has been named "Aloha." The beach coat is by Kahala Sportswear and can be worn fitted or with a drape shape. Nali'i fashions created the young lady's suit with matching jacket; and the ever popular men's trunks and matching shirt are shown in the Shell Tapa design.

THUNDERBIRDS FLY; CLUB JUMPS

On Sunday, March 12th the Air Force put on a spectacular air show off Waikiki with four of its Thunderbird F-100 Super Sabre Jet Fighters. The day was sunny and clear, making it possible for the naked eye to follow the planes until they were out of sight during their aerial gymnastics.

Receptionist Eva Pomroy told us: "Say, I never saw so many members and guests at the Club on one Sunday for such a long time. The Snack Bar, Hau Terrace, Dining Room and Sundeck were all packed with people enjoying the air show, and each other."

"There were the Chuck Podoreans, the Lou Standlers, Rev. and Mrs. John Morrett and their family. Also Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Doering, Scott McWayne with guests, Peter and Sara Howell with their two youngsters, David and Brian. And Pat and Verne Hass, Mrs. E. Mattson, and, oh yes, Helen Lowrey and her guest, Barbara Bush. Lots more, too. Can't remember them all."

"It was just like the old days when everyone came to the Club on the weekends."

Maxie said that most of the Thunderbird audience stayed on to enjoy swimming and lunch with their families and friends. And the crowds continued arriving throughout the afternoon and filled up the dining room at dinner time.

A fun day for members and guests and a happily busy one for all hands

DOC RETIRES

Dr. Jim Beardmore who, for the past three years, has been OCC's volleyball coach has passed the coaching baton on to Ron Sorrell. Jim has racked up an enviable record of man championships for the teams wearing the O and Paddle. However, with Ron's enthusiasm for and experience in many years of playing championship caliber volleyball the Club should continue to remain right at the top with wins.

SOMETHING NEW FOR THE OLD BEAN

By Rusty Thomas, Food Editor

One of our restauranteur members, Buzz Schneider (did you know his real name is Raymond?), who owns the Steak and Lobster, Roast Beef and Clam, and Red Vest kau kau haies in Honolulu, has spread his wings to Hilo too.

Buzz boasts some of the best Portuguese style green beans you have ever tasted, if you ever stop at his Steak and Lobster eatery on Hawaii. But in case you don't make it to Hilo soon, Buzz is happy to share his recipe with Outrigger members.

Buzz's Spiced Beans

- 1 lb. string beans
- 1 lb. round onions
- 1 lb. bell peppers
- 1 cup cider vinegar
- $\frac{1}{4}$  cup water
- 3 tablespoons Hawaiian salt
- 1 clove crushed garlic
- 1 red Hawaiian pepper

Cut string beans into 2-3 inch lengths. Peel onions, wash and quarter. Wash and cut peppers into eighths, remove stems and seeds. Crush red peppers.

Measure vinegar, water, Hawaiian salt, red pepper and garlic.

Boil 5 to 10 minutes.

Strain this mixture through a cheese cloth over beans. Let stand for 5 minutes. Add peppers and onions. Serve cold.

A Real Smashing Masher

There's a new potato masher on the market by the name of SpudKnack which has a hinged base that flicks open or closed at the touch of a finger. So it can be stored flat in a drawer, no trouble. This gadget can also double as a drainer, scoop, serving utensil, spatula and scraper for mixing bowl or pot. The grip-shape handle is detergent-proof plastic available in yellow, pink, tan or black. You must try a good old fashioned mashed potato soon. Most ono.

FIBER GLASS CANOES IN MUSICAL COMEDY

On their way to New York, via the Panama Canal, are four fiber glass outrigger canoes. They were made by Toots Minvielle and sold to Guy Lombardo for use in his musical comedy "Paradise Island" scheduled to run at Jones Beach Marine Amphitheatre in New York from June 22 to Labor Day. Later, the show will be converted for a television spectacular.

Toots also sent paddles and outriggers with the canoes, of which there are two 32 footers and two 22 footers. There's a possibility that Island men will be used to man them. Scouts from the show were in Honolulu recently exploring this possibility.

Can't you just hear the "Canoe" number already? "In a canoe—with you—under the moo-n" etc.

TOMMY HAINE NEW CLUB CAPTAIN

Tommy succeeds Ron Sorrell as Club Captain for the coming year of an ambitious athletic program in both water and land sports. He has been active in both canoeing and volleyball activities and was a member of Club's volleyball team which recently won the championship in the Central Y's Invitational Volleyball tournament.

One man can move the Queen Mary by pushing steadily against the big ship's hull. But a bulldozer smacking into her side at full speed will scarcely cause her to stir. Similarly, steady advertising pressure will do the job of moving goods when one-shot, slambang efforts fail.

Joining the ranks of the Big World Outside on March 22nd was Erin Leigh, brand new 8½ pound daughter of David and Jo (Shaw) Howard.

"The arrow did not go around twice!"

RE PARKING ELKS CLUB SITE

More and more members are taking advantage of our Elks Club site and using it for picnics and other beach parties. One of the advantages of using these Club facilities, as we pointed out in the September 1960 issue, was that ample parking was available for members.

This still holds true today but there seems to be a little confusion as to just where to park, since 50 of the approximately 70 spaces have been rented to residents in the area. The fee for these stalls, incidentally, is $7.00 a month for open areas and $10.00 a month for covered. Club management suggests that if you do wish to park at the Elks Club site you see Tom Calhoun, parking attendant, who will direct you to a space that has not already been spoken for.

Also, if you're going to host a large gathering make prior arrangements with Tom and he will park the cars of your guests to make sure they do not repose on previously spoken for space.

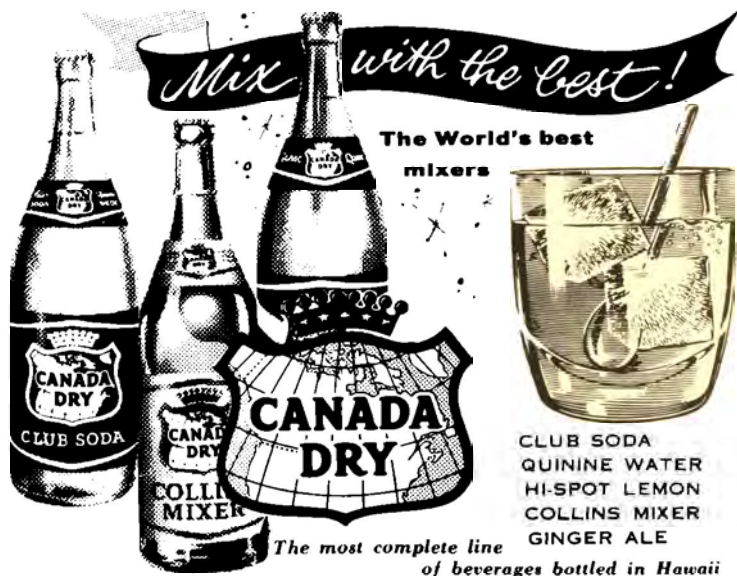

With the summer months immediately before us it is anticipated that our Elks Club site will be used more frequently for both daytime and evening gatherings and we do not want any happy groups to be disturbed by misunderstandings over parking rights.

HERE'S THE SECRET

When a prominent economist answered his phone the caller proclaimed "You're all wet about the cost of living reaching a new high. My wife and I live sumptuously—eat lavishly on 68c a week."

"Sixty eight cents a week?" shouted the economist. "But how? What's that? Please speak a little louder."

FURTHER TO VOLLEYBALL

The Outrigger has two teams entered in the local tournaments, so with these plus the Champs our Club emblem is really getting to be known as one that means "fight, team, fight" in volleyball circles too.

Mark Auerbach is coach of a junior varsity team entered in local novice competition and members of the squad include such stalwarts as B. Tackaberry, F. Noa, M. Lemes, J. Lemes, B. Bush, D. Linn and B. Hemmings.

* * *

Other players who are bringing fame to OCC for producing top flight court slammers and servers are T. Haine and B. Daniels who recently won the State doubles championship. And following them very closely in second place are Bill Heilbron and his Y partner, W. Wong.
