JUNE, 1960

*"If anyone desire such old fashioned things
as lovely scenery, quiet, pure air, clear sea water...and heavenly sunsets hung out before his eyes over the Pacific and the distant hills of Waianae,
I recommend him cordially to the Sans Souci."*

Robert Louis Stevenson,
October 1893.

The old magic of Sans Souci is still there, to be captured by a magnificent 15 story building designed to take advantage of all the natural beauty of this historic site. Every apartment will have a spacious lanai overlooking the water towards "the distant hills of Waianae." Every apartment will have mauka ventilation to capture the cooling trade winds. Sans Souci has a beautiful white sand beach, and a deep water pier. It will have two stories of parking area.

Available are studios, one bedroom, two bedrooms and penthouse apartments. Priced from $18,400 to $76,000.

Terms available. For sale to residents of Hawaii only.

A scale model is on display at the Sales Office from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M. Call or write for a detailed brochure.

It won't be long at all before the kids will be on vacation and thronging to their summer haunt . . . the OCC.

With their return we once again have to caution parents as well as their children as to the Hau Terrace rules. Children under 20 must be accompanied by an adult during the Terrace hours.

We're happy to see them back . . . but rules are rules and looked at very seriously by the Liquor Commission.

Summer also means a deluge of summer school students from the mainland. It is requested that friends attending summer schools and tours in the islands be signed into the club by a member.

Barry Yap is conducting swimming lessons for the youngsters at the Ackerman's swimming pool. Barry has done a fine job in reorganizing the long-defunct OCC swimming team and is interested in all youngsters who desire either advanced or beginners help. Ask at the desk for further information.

Breakfast will be served in the Outrigger dining room on July 4, the date scheduled for the Kamehameha Day canoe races.

The annual employees picnic was its usual success as the entire staff had a day off for fun and games on May 9.

"LITTLE PRINCESS" HAS 1st CANOE RIDE AT OCC

A ten-year-old queen who captured the hearts of the press held court at the Outrigger last month to celebrate her reunion with her foster parents ... the 27th Infantry Wolfhounds ... with an Outrigger Canoe ride at Wai-kiki.

Little Satsuki Nakagawa, the Osaka, Japan, orphan adopted by the Schofield-based soldiers, visited the club on May 2 during her isle stay.

She reigned as queen over the unit's organization day anniversary before returning to the Osaka orphanage.

At the club the "little princess"

HIGH STEPPIN' — Outrigger employees at the start of the one legged egg race. The OCC workers took a well deserved day off at the Waipahu Plantation Beach for their annual Employees Picnic. More than 60 workers, who have had an opportunity to see hopping just as fast with their fine service, attended the affair. That's Ruby calling the start of the race.

VISITING PUBLISHERS GUESTS AT OUTRIGGER

Adm. Hopwood

Twenty-eight mainland editors and publishers, guests of the Secretary of the Navy, will be hosted at the Outrigger Canoe Club during their island visit, May 20-June 2.

Admiral Herbert G. Hopwood, Commander in Chief of the U.S. Fleet, requested the guest cards for the visiting newsmen.

The group includes: John P. Scripps, publisher of the Scripps Publications; Leonard I. Riblett, city editor of the Los Angeles Examiner; and Paul Hartley of Walt Disney Productions.

Fifteen members of the group are representatives of Missouri Publications.

Two former champion swimmers held a reunion with their old coach, Dad Center recently at the OCC Oldtimers Lounge. Flanking Dad, who coached Olympic teams in the '20's and '30's are Gay Harris and Buddy Crabbe. Buddy highlighted the U. S. team's successful swimming tour of Japan in 1926 and 1927.

Outrigger directors and committee chairmen gathered on the OCC Sundeck April 29 to greet newly elected officers and appointed committee heads. The annual event was well attended. A cocktail party preceded the banquet. Ceremonies included the presenting of a movie projector and screen to outgoing president Martin Anderson by new presy Ward Russell.

That's Fred Roblfing gesturing to the accompaniment of a . . . by the expression on Chuck Sbrader's face . . . a serious story.

FORECAST AD RATES INCREASED

For a number of years, the Forecast has remained the only Island publication not to effect periodical increases in its advertising rates. With the widening of circulation and increased costs, the old rates were quite old fashioned. So, at last month's meeting of the Forecast committee, the following new rates were put into effect:

Full Page	$ 60.00
Half Page	35.00
Quarter Page	22.50
Eighth Page	15.00
Center Spread, Double Truck	150.00
Inside Front Full Page	75.00
Inside Front and Back 1/2 Page	40.00
Outside Back Page	100.00

*Current advertisers may remain on the former rates for a three month period.

CANOE TRAINING BEGINS FIRST REGATTA JUE 13

Canoe paddling coach George Downing greeted 22 new hopefuls for the 1960 season on May 17 with an eye on filling numerous empty seats in OCC boats.

Paddlers who have competed in past seasons under the Outrigger banner will turn out this month in preparation for the first regatta of the season on June 13, Kamehameha Day.

Downing stated that the Outrigger will enter only three or four of the Kam Day events at Kailua and that the team won't be at full strength until sometime in July when all of the returnees from high school and college ranks are rounded into condition.

"First of all," Downing pointed out, "we don't want to bring along the kids too fast by putting out too much effort in the early, unimportant races. We are pointing to just one . . . the State Championships . . . the one that counts."

The kids are involved with exams around this time and we don't want to tie them up from their studies. It's their overall development that counts.

They'll reach their psychological as well as physical peak at the end of the summer . . . when it's most important."

Downing pointed out that virtually every seat held down in past seasons is open to any youngster who shows promise. "And the youngsters we have coming up who have had no experience have the desire to push anyone out of a seat they may have considered nailed down."

The canoe coach was pleased with the Outrigger showing on Maui at the Kahului Canoe Club's inaugural regatta.

All three crews entered won their events. The senior six topped the field of entries as did the 13-and-under crew. But the surprise of the regatta was the same 13-and-under crew which entered the novice men's event. Paddling against much older and more experienced men, the youngsters out-stroked them all to finish first.

"We received wonderful treatment from the Maui people," Downing said. "They couldn't have done more."

Downing went on to point out that the Maui paddlers are tremendously enthusiastic about the sports future on the Valley Isle. "They have entered paddling on an inscholastic level with all high schools competing. This is where we on Oahu missed the boat. What an untapped source of talent we have here!"

OCC Merman Fourth at State AAU Title Meet

The Outrigger Canoe Club marked its comeback to competitive swimming after a quarter-of-a-century layoff with a creditable fourth place at the 10th Annual State AAU Indoor Championships at Waterhouse pool.

The four-man OCC team piled up 17 points to finish behind Punahou, Hawaii Swim Club, and Palama, who placed in that order.

All four Outrigger entries placed in the trials and went on to score a second place, three third places and a fifth place in the finals.

OCC coach Barry Yap, who has been instrumental in reorganizing the club team placed second in the 100 yrd. breaststroke. The former Indiana record holder also copped third in the 220 yd. breaststroke event.

Doug Ackerman placed third in the 50 yd. freestyle and Roy Oness a fifth in the 100 yd. free event.

The Outrigger foursome, rounded out by Paul Gebauer, finished third in the 400 yd. freestyle relay.

Yap is encouraging all members interested in competitive swimming to contact him for further information.

With such a fine showing in one of the year's most important meets, here can be nothing but optimism for the Outrigger in future meets.

LANAI-MAUI BOARD RACE TO BE HELD ON JUNE 18

Applications are being accepted for the Lanai to Lahaina surfboard paddling meet slated for June 18.

The meet, sponsored by the Maui Surf Club, will include a full day's schedule of surfboard race events.

Application blanks for Oahu entries are available at the Diamond Head Beach Service and Outrigger.

VISITING WITH OUR AFFILIATES

The Tulsa Club, Tulsa, Oklahoma, has recently completed a new men's lounge on the sixth floor. "Paris has it, 'l'heure bleu,' this delicate romantic hour preceding sunset, where a blue haze prevails, but in men's clubs all over the world, this hour of charm is found in the exclusive comfort of their lounges at 5 p.m." The new lounge is dominated by exquisite solid oak paneling, gold and red carpeting and pewter and copper colored chairs.

The Olympic Club of San Francisco is celebrating its centennial year. The world-famous athletic club was officially founded on May 6, 1860, in a "backyard gym" on Clay and Kearny Streets.

In its Centennial year, the Olympians have planned a tour of Hawaii, leaving San Francisco September 15 and returning September 25 with headquarters at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel.

* * *

The San Diego Club has won the annual Mississippi River Swim for the third consecutive year, compiling a total of 2,042,275 points, 300,000 more than its closest rival, the Indianapolis A.C.

Broken down in age groups, the SDC swimmers covered 1,163 miles in pool lengths during the distance contest.

Christenings of the champagne-bottle-against-hull variety marked the spring at the Balboa Bay Club, Newport Beach.

Among the boats launched were the 104 foot diesel yacht "Reina Del Mar," and the custom built 57' cruiser "Maui Girl IV."

At the Washington Athletic Club in Seattle, two hundred athletes were honored for their performances under the W.A.C. colors. Highlight of the May 23 banquet was the honoring of four athletes who have competed for the club through the past 20 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence World recently entertained Mrs. World's sister and brother-in-law . . . Mr. and Mrs. Frank Redig . . . of Burlingame, California. Apparently enjoying themselves in the background are Mr. and Mrs. J. Wright, of Australia, and our own Dr. and Mrs. Hans Zimmerman.
