

Rammer, Jimmer, Killer and Mr. Aloha

No, these aren't names from a wild new drink menu from the Bar. They are, in fact, well-known nicknames of some of the players on your 1992 OCC softball team.

A mix of veterans and youngsters could prove to be the perfect ingredient for OCC's best team in years.

Honorary Coach Henry "Mr. Aloha" Ayau and Coach Jimmer Gaddis feel the infield of Bill "Killer" Kilcoyne, Bill Lawson, "Rammer" Ramirez and Jim Cavanah may be one of the best in the state.

The outfield is solid with David Dyas, Chris Siegfried, Brandon St. James, Paki Vaughan, Jon Bryan and Kimo Brown.

Veteran Pokii Vaughan and rookie Rick Piper share the catching duties while Gaddis and Byron Ho pitch.

Ayau is the team's inspirational leader and designated power hitter. His first swing of the year towered over the opponents outfielders.

Sunset Buffet Held Over Due to Popular Demand on Wednesdays

By Scrappy Lipton

Originally planned for the summer only, the Wednesday night Sunset Buffet can now be enjoyed until the end of the year.

A unique menu of international and ethnic offerings is created by our Chef Teruya on a weekly basis. Fare from Italy, Korea, Thailand and California have been featured.

Cajun and Mexican cuisine, also very popular with our members, are just a few of the ethnic specialties planned for the coming months.

Watch for What's Happening in our events calendar and to reserve the Wednesday or Wednesdays of your choice.

For only $12.95, the Sunset Buffet, combined with the sunset at the Outrigger Canoe Club, is a must for families and singles alike. ☎
