ALL HAIL OCC BASEBALL CHAMPS

Our OCC mountain baseball prodigies richly merit our hearty cheers. After a hard schedule they are undisputed champions of the league. Here is the record:

- April 22, OCC 14, Amfactors 1.
- April 29, OCC 6, Bishop Estate 5.
- May 6, OCC 7, Austin Towill 6.
- May 12, OCC 2, Amfactors 0.
- May 19, OCC 2, Bishop Estate 1.
- May 26, OCC 7, Austin Towill 8

The championship was actually won on May 19 in the last inning as the OCC tied and won all games to date.

All games were replayed on the Hauerrace and after the championship game it was proposed, seconded and unanimously carried by Philpotts and Williams "that they, Philpotts and Williams as individuals, were the most valuable players on the team." Bill Barnhart, team manager, wants to know what that makes pitcher Bill Baird. Baird besides doing a major pitching job also carried off TOP honors in batting. Who was

The highlight of the season was the rooters. Vic Kahn was unanimously chosen (by the team) as the MOST valuable rooter, "Shorty" Hays as No. 1 Rookie.

A league banquet will be held at Wo Fat Chop Suey House on June 17. At that time our president Samuel Fuller will receive the championship trophy on behalf of the OCC team. All Hail, champs.
