

Outrigger 2nd in Leeward, 3rd in Waimanalo Regattas

"It was three teams going at it from start to finish," said Outrigger head coach David Horner in describing the Leeward Kai Regatta at Nanakuli Beach Park on June 20. "And Lanikai showed they're still the team to beat."

Lanikai edged Outrigger 73-72 to win their third OHCRA regatta of the season. Lanikai entered 34 of the 35 events, winning 10. Outrigger entered 32 races and won seven.

Outrigger women had a great afternoon, winning the Sophomore and Junior events. Other winning crews were the Boys 15, Novice B Men, Novice A Women, Freshmen Men and the Masters Men 53.

Finishing second were the Boys 13 and 18, Under 14, Sophomore, Junior, Senior and Open 4 Men and Masters Men 35 and 45. Third places went to the Girls 12 and 15, Boys 14, Novice A Men and Senior Women.

In the Waimanalo Regatta on June 27, with some of its men and women in New York for the Liberty Challenge Race, Outrigger finished third behind Lanikai and Kailua. Open steersmen were used in the keiki races due to strong winds and rough seas.

The Freshmen Men paddled to first place Will Estes, Matt Rigg, Ben Komer, Frank Hooten, David Stackhouse and Jakob Vaughan.

First place crews were the Girls 13, Novice A, Junior and Masters 35 women, and the Sophomore and Junior men. Second place crews were the Boys 13, Girls 14, Under 14, Freshmen Women and Masters Men 45. Third places went to the Boys 15 and 16 and the Masters Women 53.

The state championships are scheduled for August 7 in Lahaina.
