

Marines Are Champs

The regular Oahu-Service Athletic League basketball season came to a close last night, with Capt. Norman Jensen's Marines champions. They played and won all six games, without suffering a single defeat. The Coast Defense team finished in second place, five wins and one defeat, while the Signal Corps came third with four wins and two defeats. The Outrigger team finished in fourth place, 50-50 that is, won three and lost three games. The Colleger of Hawaii won two of the six games played and the First Hawaiian Infantry came sixth with one victory and five defeats, the Department Hospital of Fort Shafter lost all six games, nearly all by forfeiture, the team having broken up early in the season, owing to lack of players.

Game and Dance Tomorrow

A great exhibition game will be staged tomorrow night, 7:30 o'clock in the Armory, between the Marines, champions, and the Coast Defense, runners up, and there are those who believe that the big gunners will be able to put it over the sea soldiers, which remains to be seen, of course.

Following this came the championship cup donated by E. O. Hall & Son will be presented to the Marines by General Heard, commander of the Hawaiian Department, it is expected. Following this there will be a big dance, which promises to be the social event

EDDIE PLANK IS NOW PAU WITH BASEBALL

NEW YORK, February 11.—Edward Plank, pitcher, returned and unsigned contract to the New York American League Club today with the announcement that he had retired from major league baseball to give all his attention to business at Gettysburg. Plank, who is 43 years old, was traded to the Yankees by the St. Louis Americans last year, but signed with a team in the Bethlehem Steel League instead of reporting to New York.

PITCHER SCHINKLE IS BACK FROM THE FRONT

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, March 1. — Adolph Schinkle, former pitcher for the Salt Lake baseball team, who is reputed to have had more action in the war than any other Coast League player, will probably be with the club in time to begin training, it was announced here today. Word was received that Schinkle arrived at Newport News more than a week ago and, it is believed, he is already on his way West.

of the season. J. Ashman Beaven, president and manager of the Oahu-Service Athletic League, expects a big crowd out for the game, presentation and dance.
