

Favorites Win Long Swim

The favorites were served in the annual Waikiki deep water swim Saturday, sponsored by the Outrigger Canoe Club.

George Onekea, Iolani's 17-year-old Olympic veteran, won the 2,000-yard event for men while Ivanelle Hoe won the rigorous women's 1,500-yard counterpart.

Onekea, three-time winner, was timed in 30 minutes, 4.7 seconds.

Miss Hoe jumped out of the starter's boat and completed the race over the reef in 24 minutes, 31.2 seconds.

Chip Post was second, Pat Murata third in the men's event.

Lynn Williams edged Ann Ramsay for second in the women's race.

Nancy O'Connor won the 200-yard swim for boys and girls 12 years old and under. Donald Miles won the boys 16 and under open event while Outrigger winners were Eagle Rawson in the men's division, Pat Miles in the girls and Bill Danford in the boys.
