

FAST TIMES ARE EXPECTED IN BIG O.C.C. SWIMFEST

Annual Rough Water Swims To See Leading Aquatic Stars In Action

Everything is in readiness for the annual Thanksgiving Day rough water swims tomorrow at the Outrigger Canoe club. All the contestants entered are in fine shape, according to the reports, and everything indicates a successful meet with fast times. The Castle swim is the blue ribbon event and the results will be interesting, as the best boys are entered in it.

The prizes have been donated and judging by the looks of them they are worth competing for. Some of the leading long distance swimmers of the territory will compete for the prizes.

Officials of the meet, according to John Barnes, manager of the Outrigger club, will be the directors of the organization.

The first event will start at 9 a. m. Following is the list of events and the prizes:

Castle swim—Al Castle cup.

Boys under 16—Alexander Hume Ford trophy.

Girls' novice — Alexander Hume Ford cup.

Women's Public bath swim—Star-Bulletin cup.

Boys under 18—Dawkins, Benny cup.

Men over 30—No award as yet.

Gold, silver and bronze medals will be awarded to the first three place winners in each event.
