

BUSTER CRABBE IS FAVORED TO WIN CASTLE CUP EVENT

Records in Danger Because of High Class Competition; Zorilla May Be Forced to Withdraw;
Miss Wehselau in Women's Races

THE tenth annual Outrigger Canoe club's Thanksgiving Day swim scheduled this morning promises much in the matter of close competition and excitement, especially the Castle Cup Blue ribbon event, in which are entered Buster Crabbe, the local champion and Walter Laufer of Cincinnati but at present enrolled as an Outrigger. Sam Kahanamoku is also entered in this event as also is Alberto Zorilla of South America but the last named may be forced to withdraw because of an infected foot.

Coach Dad Center of the club expects to see several old records go a glimmering especially in the women's events where Mariechen Wehselau and Cecily Cunha will oppose.

The events start promptly at 9 o'clock.

Miss Jennie Woodd, sister of Johnny Woodd, will compete in the women's open event from the public baths. A silver cup goes to the winner of this event which will see such swimmers as Mariechen Wehselau, Cecily Cunha and Beatrice Newport in competition.

There will be an anchored canoe off the Moana hotel pier for the spectators to witness the finish of every event.

Following is the order of events as announced by "Dad" Center this morning: Castle swim, men over 30; women's public bath swim; boys under 18; girls' novice and boys under 16.

Following is the complete entry list:
