

THANKSGIVING DAY WILL SEE CLOSE RACES

Open Water Long Distance
Grind of Interest Due to Its Three Divisions

Officials Selected; Fire
Starting Gun At 10 a. m.
With Big Field in Tilt

Eight of the fastest swimmers in the Outrigger Canoe Club will take part in the Castle-to-club revival swim on Thanksgiving Day. The entries were closed yesterday and showed eight men entered for the big grind, including W. W. "Wild Bill" Harris, Jr., who leaves shortly for Australia and New Zealand on a three-month tour.

The distance grind starting at 10 a. m. will have two other divisions in that there will be a race from the Public Baths to the Outrigger Club for mermaids and also for boys under 16 years. In the swim from Castle's point to the club there will be two divisions, the regular senior stars and for men over 30 years.

Entries

The eight stars entered for the long grind are W. W. Harris, Jr., Chester Sims, Freddie Lambert, A. E. Minvielle, E. (Scowy) Hartman, Ernest (Small) Cook, W. Bockus and P. Brooks. Bill Jones is the only entry for men over 30 years but others are expected. Theodore (Beans) Waters will race Jones if no post entries are made.

In the girls' race are entered Helen Moses, Mariechen Wehselau, Lillie Bowner, Janice Lovett, Helen Ellis, Martha Livingston, Eleanor Bickerton, Dot Waters, Christine Smoot, Connie Davis and Leilehua Judd.

In the boys under 16 years are C. Chapin, H. Cooke, N. Davis, K. Makinney and F. Steere.

Officials

Judges—Sam Starrett, Charles Lambert, S. Ruttman, Edric Cook, Joe Stickney and Jack Singlehurst.

Timers—Fred Bailey, Percy Deverill, A. H. Myhre and Clarence Asch.

Starter—W. (Mouse) Smith.