
CREAM OF TALENT IS ENTERED IN BIG EVENT

New Records Are Predict- ed on Kams' Field Saturday

HONOLULU'S next big track meet is the Rainbow relays at Kamehameha field Saturday afternoon, when the cream of local track and field talent will compete. University of Hawaii stands sponsor for this meet, and it is one of the big events of the spring season.

Tickets are on sale at the Honolulu Sporting Goods, and by university students.

The Outrigger club, with "Pump" Searle as coach, is gathering together a powerful team and will make a strong bid for first honors.

Palama has secured Tin Luke Wongwai as coach, and that's an ace for them. Last year Palama tied with the university for first place, and Saturday they will be out to clean up.

University is grooming a dangerous crew for the races. "Spud" Harrison, who coached the track team last year, and who trained the championship Deans basketball quintet this winter, will handle the college men again. Daily practices are being held on Alexander field.

The relays this year should result in the shattering of records, as each of the three leading organizations
