

TRACK AND FIELD STARS TO COMPETE TOMORROW

Here are seven local stars who will feature in the Rainbow Relay Carnival tomorrow afternoon at Kamehameha field. They are, top left—Ted Hair, Varsity sprint ace, who will hold the anchor position on two relay quartets; lower left (outside), Dick Penhallow, Hair's running mate on the Dean squad, and (inside) Mountcastle, Dean quarter-mile flash; middle picture, Dick Gartley, Hawaiian pole vault champion and holder of the island record for the event, who was injured yesterday in the trials; upper right (inside), Bert Hooper, mile champion, who will run for Outrigger, and (outside) Eddie Fernandez, who is favored to win the low hurdles and who will also run on the Dean mile relay team; lower right, Bernie Farden, former Punahou flash, now under the O. C. C. colors, who will be pitted against Hair in at least two relays.
