

GOOD SOCCER STAGED IN TWO CLOSE GAMES

The Honolulu Soccer association put on several good soccer games yesterday. Two were staged at Moiliili field and one took place at Schofield.

At Schofield the Outrigger Canoe club won from the service team by a score of 2 to 1 in a game that was not decided till the final four minutes of play. A corner kick by Matthias was converted in a tally by Andrews.

At Moiliili field the Rangers beat the Palamas by a score of 4 to 1. The Pals showed need of more training to stand up with the fast Rangers. In the other games the Healanis walked over the prostrate forms of the National Guard by a tally of 9 to 1.

Hilo is to send a picked team to compete for the Kennedy and Harrison cup here this season, according to word from the Big Island. Teams are expected from Kauai and Maui as well for these cup plays.
