

SECOND SET CARDED TONIGHT AT ARMORY

The second set in the round robin of the Honolulu Basketball league will be played tonight at the armory.

The Outriggers meet the National Guard in the first game and the Palamas meet the University of Hawaii in the second. The first game starts at 7:30 o'clock. In the first set played Monday night the Palamas defeated the National Guard and the Outriggers beat the University.

The final set in the series will be staged next Monday night when the Outriggers play the Palamas and the University of Hawaii plays the National Guards.

The Navy team has entered the big inter-island series which starts early this month. There are eight teams assured now for the inter-island clash. The list includes Hawaii, Maui, Kauai, National Guard, University of Hawaii, Outrigger Canoe club, Schofield champions and the Navy. The Navy team will be made up of Marines' team players with additions from the rest of the station.
