

FINAL ROUND STARTS

MONDAY IN CAGE MIX

The final round in the Honolulu Basketball league series will open Monday night in the National Guard armory with the University of Hawaii playing the Outrigger club and the National Guard tackling the winner of the Palama-All-Around Chinese game tomorrow afternoon.

The winners of the Monday night games play the losers on Wednesday night and the following Monday the winners play off for the title.

Yesterday in the game between Palama and Luke Field the Kalihi lads won by a score of 35 to 15.

This afternoon the University of Hawaii is playing the Mariaes at the National Guard armory.
