

VALLEY ISLANDERS OUTFIGHT HILO AND WIN RIGHT TO GO AGAINST LOS ANGELES TEAM

The first game of the series in which the City of Los Angeles basketball team plays, will be staged Thursday night at the National Guard armory with the victorious Maui team contending. The Valley Islanders won the right to come to Honolulu and meet the mainland team by battling uphill to victory last week in a three game series against Hilo.

It looked like a cinch bet for Hilo especially after the Maui team dropped the first game 21-18. But the Valley men came back to an even score by winning the second game 20-19 and then got the trip to Honolulu by taking the third game 35-31. Leland Lewis, manager of the Maui team writes to the effect that the series represented the best games ever staged on Maui and if the scores are any

LOS ANGELES TEAM IS TICKLED WITH VISIT

The City of Los Angeles basketball team, which arrived here Friday for a series of games with local basketball teams, has been well entertained, according to the members of the party. Coach Hoak, in charge of the team, is loud in praise of the way Honolulu has entertained him and his outfit to date.

Friday and Saturday was spent in visiting the beach at Waikiki.

Series Schedule

Following the game Thursday the mainland team gets a rest until Monday, March 7, when it meets the Schofield Officers who are runners-up in the local league.

On March 9 the National Guard team, as the best service team, takes on the Los Angeles men. On March 12, the final game of the series will be staged with the Outrigger Canoe Club, Oahu champions.

Local League

In the Oahu Amateur Basketball league there is one game scheduled tonight at the armory with Outriggers playing the Schofield Service club at 8 o'clock. Two postponed games may also be staged.

Saturday night the Outriggers beat Luke Field 25 to 5; the Sailors won from Schofield 41 to 30 and the All-Around Chinese forfeited to the National Guard. At Fort Ruger the Marines won 24 to 23 and at Fort Kamehameha the Fort De Russy team went under 55 to 5.
