

SURFERS TACKLE GUARDS TONIGHT

ISLAND CAGE TITLE IS AT STAKE

The big game of the local basketball season is scheduled tonight at 7 o'clock in the National Guard armory.

The National Guard team will play the Outrigger Canoe club. The surfers have not lost a single game. The Schofield officers team and the National Guard team each have one defeat. All three will be tied for honors if the Guardsmen beat the Surfers' tonight.

The second game tonight will be between the Marines and Fort Shafter while the third game will be between the Honolulu Service club and Fort Ruger. At Fort Kam the Sailors will be visitors.

Saturday

If the Surfers win tonight the championship of Oahu will be theirs without dispute as well as the right to play the Los Angeles Blues which sailed from the mainland Saturday for Honolulu.

In Saturday night's games in the Oahu Amateur Basketball league, the Sailors beat the Honolulu Service club 55 to 13, the A. C. A. won from De Russy 89 to 11 and the Outrigger beat the Hacs 62 to 13 at the Armory.

At Fort Ruger the Shafter team went down by a score of 25 to 8 and at Schofield the National Guard team won 26 to 8 from the post team.

Standings

	P.	W.	L.	Pct.
Outriggers	9	9	0	1.000
Officers Scho. Bks. ..	11	10	1	.909
National Guard	7	6	1	.857
Schofie'd Ser. Club ..	8	6	2	.750
Chinese	11	7	4	.636
Marines	10	6	4	.600
Luke Field	9	5	4	.556
Sailors	9	5	4	.556
H. A. A. C.	11	6	5	.545
Fort Ruger	8	2	5	.275
Honolulu Ser. Club ..	11	2	9	.182
Fort Kamehameha ..	8	1	7	.125
Fort Shafter	10	1	9	.100
Fort De Russy	9	0	9	.000

By Ripley

HY
SECONDS
(Train)

