

CRUCIAL GAME CARDED ARMORY TOMORROW

The Sailors beat Fort Ruger, the Officers from Schofield nosed out the Honolulu Amateur Athletic club and Shafter walloped Fort De Russy in games played in the Oahu Amateur Basketball league last night at the armory.

Tomorrow night the Honolulu Service club will play Fort Kamehameha, Schofield Officers will meet the National Guard and Outriggers will tackle the H. A. A. C.; all of these games being played at the Armory. If the Officers defeat the Guards, both of these teams will be tied for second place and will have a good chance for the first position. If the Guards beat the Outrigger team in the coming game there will be a good chance for a three-cornered tie for first place.

The Mariners play at Luke Field.

LIGHTWEIGHT LEAGUE

Two games are scheduled tonight in the Lightweight Basketball league at Palama "gym." The Palamas meet the University of Hawaii in the first game and the Outriggers take on the Beauties. The whistle blows at 7:15 o'clock.
