

FAST GAMES IN CAGE SERIES ON SATURDAY

The crowd was bigger, the games were faster and more pep all around was displayed at the cage sets staged Saturday night in the National Guard armory by the Oahu Amateur Basketball league.

The Honolulu Amateur Athletic club won from Luke Field by a score of 23 to 15. The Hacs had three new men in Quinn, Nolan and Watson. The All-around Chinese defeated the Marines 30 to 29 in a game that brimmed with all kinds of play. The National Guards walloped the Honolulu Service club 50 to 25. At Fort Ruger the Outrigger won by a score of 64 to 10. Shafter did not play at Fort Kamehameha owing to its team members being unable to get away. De Russy visited Schofield and lost.
