

Nevada Quintet Has Hard Schedule On Return To States

The games which the University of Nevada basketball team will play in Honolulu, against the Outrigger Club January 3, and the National Guard January 4, will not be mere exhibition performances, but real contests in which the Pacific coast champions will be getting in shape for a hard schedule which begins soon after their return to the mainland. Here is the schedule:

January 22—St. Mary's College, at Reno.

January 29—St. Ignatius College, at San Francisco.

January 31—College of the Pacific, at San Jose.

February 2—Stanford, at Palo Alto.

February 4—Oakland Golds, at Oakland.

February 5—Davis Farm, at David, California.

February 12—Santa Clara, at Reno.

February 18-19—University of Utah, at Reno.

March 5—University of California, at Reno.

Date to be fixed—University of Southern California.
