

Basketball Games Causing Interest Among Performers

The announcement of the coming basketball matches between the National Guard and Outrigger teams and the University of Nevada quintet, has caused a flurry of training activities in the camps of the two first mentioned aggregations.

Piercy Nottage, president of the Basketball league, said yesterday that it had been definitely decided to hold the games on Tuesday and Wednesday, January 3 and 4.

Members of the Outrigger club who are interested in basketball are urged to turn out at the basketball meetings of the club, in order that all available material may be looked over for the purpose of selecting the team. Nottage will notify those interested of the time of the meetings.
