

OUTRIGGER SURF SWIMS PLANNED

Annual Castle - To - Club
Grind Will Be Held
• Nov. 27

The preliminary plans for the annual Castle-to-club surf swimming races on Thanksgiving Day were discussed at the meeting of the board of directors of the Outrigger Canoe Club last night. The program calls for a men's race starting at Castle's surf, a women's race starting at Public baths, a junior boys' race starting at Cunha's surf and all finishing at the old diving platform near the club. The Star-Bulletin will put up, as it has in the past, the prize for the women's race.

The club will enter its canoes in the Territorial Fair pageant to be held on the Waikiki canal.

C. C. James resigned as treasurer and Chris Jenkins was elected to fill the office. James is leaving for the coast shortly to make his permanent residence there.

E. T. Chase was placed in charge of the club's volleyball courts. The directors decided to renew their membership in the Outrigger Canoe Club and Gay Harris, Dick Gartley and Dudley Pratt were nominated as delegates. The directors also discussed plans for a membership drive.
