

TWO TEAMS FAIL TO SHOW UP FOR GAMES

There were no Junior volleyball games last evening at the Central Y, as two teams failed to show up.

The All-Chinese won from the Nuuanu Y by forfeit and so did the Palamas from the Outriggers. This evening will see the Nuuanu Y and the Outriggers in the first game, while the two leading teams of the league, Taurho and Beretania, will battle for the honor of the season at the Central Y. M. C. A. Should the Taurhos win, the championship is theirs, but if the Beretantias win, they would have to meet the Central Y team.
