

Surf Board R

Girls Are To Compete Against Men Paddlers In Big Aquatic Event

Tracks of Outrigger, Hui Nalu Clubs Are Entered
for Dawkins-Benny Trophies;
Races Start at 9:30

ALL IS ready for the second annual surf board competition on the Waikiki canal this mornning, according to announcement from Dawkins-Benny company, sponsors of the meet, yesterday afternoon. The meet will open at 9:30 a.m. and will be witnessed by a large gallery of spectators, according to advance indications. The races will be started from the Diamond Head end of the canal.

The largest entry list on record has been turned in to Cecil Benny, in charge of the events, and it is predicted that the races will be exciting and productive of some new records for the future stars to shoot

Girls events will be a feature of the program this morning and many of the best surfers on the beach have signified their intentions of entering the compet. The following entries and officials were announced last night by Dawkins-Benny company:

Starter—W. A. Cottrell.
Announcer—H. Chillingworth.
Judges—T. C. Gibson, L. Stan-
leigh, Harvey Chilton.
Timers—R. N. Benny, Harold
Harvey, V. Rosa, F. O. Young.
Scorer—C. E. Warriner.

Clerk of Course—Pat O'Sullivan.
Among the entries will be found the best paddlers on the beach as well as the Hui Nalu and Outrigger clubs are well represented. Among those who will take part for the Hui Nalu Club are: Joe Guerrero, Geo. Harris, Sergeant Kahanamoku, Geo. Keaweamahi, Bill Kahanamoku, Sam Kahanamoku, Louis Kahanamoku, B. Lovell, A. K. Pang, John Ollii, Fred Paoa, Frank Telles.

The Outrigger Canoe Club has such paddlers as: Ivan Gillis, Howard W. Vierra, Gordon Corson, Gay Harris, R. Marlowe, K. Makinney.

In addition to this there are unattached entries such as: Sam Apo, Samuel Legros.

Late last night entries were received from the best women swimmers in Honolulu including Marie-Louise Wehselau of the Outrigger Club; Helen Moses, Dot Waters, Louise Lovett, Beatrice Newport, "Bunny" Culman and Pauline Randolph, and belated entries also came from T. G. Kiakona, E. Cook and P. Steere.

There are to be seven events all day, and the girls will enter in the events which suit them best.

It was also announced that two moving picture camera men would be on the job and one set of films is to be shown on the mainland.

Short Drills For Final Mix

(Continued from Page 10)

the same lineup that has carried them through the season. "Sonny" Kaeo, a husky lineman who has starred at guard for three years, will be held in reserve to plug up any holes that develop during the contest.

It is figured that the Deans and Cougars will be on a par during the early stages of today's game with a slight margin going to the locals due to the good right toe of Johnny Morse, who should be able to out-kick Martin or Sweet. The balance of power will shift, however, when both coaches commence sending in replacements. In spite of the fact that the Deans boast of a strong second string eleven, the Cougars are given a good edge in this department.

STRONG RESERVES

The visitors' reserve list is almost as powerful as the starting lineup and probably outranks the Dean seconds. This is especially true in the backfields, and if Coach Klum decides to give his regular backs a rest during the fog end of the first half, Coach Exendine can more than match the Hawaii strategist, with a likely array of reserve ball-toters. The Cougars have two sets of backs, both of which are exceptionally strong on the offensive. Klum's reserve backs are strong, but are hardly the equal of the Cougar seconds.

Sentiment around town yesterday was evenly divided between the contending elevens. The visitors have gained in prestige, and there are many who are predicting a Cougar