

Miss Wehselau Starts Tomorrow For Title Meet

Mrs. E. Fullard-Leo Will Accompany Champion Swimmer

Mariechen Wehselau, Hawaii's champion girl swimmer, accompanied by Mrs. E. Fullard-Leo as chaperon, will sail for San Francisco tomorrow en route to St. Augustine, Fla., to compete in the women's national championship swimming races to be held there next month.

The fund, which was raised to finance the trip, was turned over to the Woman's Auxiliary of the Outrigger Canoe Club yesterday by the swimming committee of the A. A. U.

Mrs. Leo was appointed chaperon by the Woman's Auxiliary, the matter of choice of chaperon having been left to that body by the A. A. U. swimming committee after several applications for the post had been received by the committee.

Among those suggested was Mrs. Ezra Crane, whose name was proposed by the morning newspaper. The committee, decided, however, that the matter should be left to the club of which Miss Wehselau is a member, this being the practice for a number of years. It was also pointed out that Mrs. Leo's experience and her position as member of the national swimming committee of the A. A. U. would greatly benefit Hawaii.

The Woman's Auxiliary immediately announced that Mrs. Leo would accompany Miss Wehselau as chaperon and notified Mrs. Leo of her appointment.

Miss Wehselau is reported to be in first class shape and is expected to make a fine showing in the big meet.
