

TO BUILD CLUB HOUSE

The Women's Auxiliary of the Outrigger Canoe club will build a new one-story frame club house costing $5150 at Waikiki. An application for a building permit was filed this morning in the office of Harry K. Stewart, city building inspector. S. Nekomoto is to be the builder. The old clubhouse was moved recently from its former site to make room for the new Royal Hawaiian hotel, now under construction.