

Warren Kealoha Enters Sprints, Kahanamoku In 100 Free Style Event

Records Sure to Be Challenged, Probably Broken—
Preliminary Heats Thursday Night—Complete Entry List Announced

MORE than eighty entries have already been received for the Lincoln swimming meet in Palama tank Thursday and Friday night and according to Victor Ligda, chairman of the swimming committee of the A. A. U., additional entries are expected before the lists close.

All of the old time favorites, who were absent during the Fall meet at Punahou, will compete at Palama, according to the entry list, and there is every reason to believe that new records will be established.

Warren Kealoha has entered the 220-yards and the 100-yards freestyle. Sam Kahanamoku came in at the last minute and he will swim in the 100-yards freestyle and breast stroke. George Harris also sent in a belated entry.

Virtually every swimmer who has shown real class in Hawaii will compete with the exception of Pung, who is unable to enter because of a slight attack of rheumatism.

MANY NOVICES ENTER

The officials are delighted with the unusual amount of interest as indicated by the entries, and predict that the races will be the closest and best in recent meets.

There are so many new swimmers entered mostly in the novice classes that hopes are entertained of an honest-to-goodness revival of swimming here. Palama has entered 10 swimmers, Central Y eight and McKinley eight, and the boys' events will have to be run off in heats.

The program has been slightly revised again, for the 100-yards women's breaststroke event has been dropped because of non-sufficient entries and in its place will be held the 50-yards women's breaststroke.
