

RECORDS WILL BE GOAL OF MERMEN AT PALAMA MEET

Hawaii's Best Swimmers Have Entered Various Events On Program

Records will be exposed to an assault by Hawaii's best swimmers at the swimming meet to be held in the Palama tank Thursday and Friday nights.

Warren Kealoha, Sam Kahana-moku, Gay Harris, W. Kirschbaum and others have signed up for the various events and indications are that some fast marks will be set. In addition to local stars, the army will have several fast men in the meet.

Some of the service swimmers have been showing up strong recently and have come close to world's marks. Even though no records fall Friday, some fast swimming will be seen, and the fans will be given an opportunity to look over Hawaii's field of stars from which a team will be picked to represent the islands in the championship event during the sesquicentennial celebration in August.
