

Chilton Says H u i Makani Cracks Will Enter Lists

"I do not know what the other clubs propose to do, but you can say for me," announced Harvey Chilton, coach of the Hui Makani, "that our club will enter between 16 and 20 swimmers in the Outrigger meet when the Japanese champs come here next month.

"Warren Kealoha assures me that he will turn out with the rest of the boys, so you can safely say that in addition to Warren, we will enter Bill Kirshcbaum, Henry Lunning, Hiram Kaakua, Sharkey Wright, Noah Kalama, Napoleon and others.

"Most of these boys work every day, and it is pretty hard for them to train as they would like to train, but they have assured me they will get into the best possible condition and will enter the events for which they are suited."
