

Eighteen Entries Filed For Star-Bulletin Swim

Eighteen entries have been received for The Star-Bulletin's annual one-mile swim to be held in the Ala'wai at 11 o'clock next Monday morning, May 31.

Among those entered are the leading swimmers in Hawaii, including army, navy, marines and school representatives. Two lifeguards from Haleiwa have filed entries. There are also entries from Waialua and Fort Kamehameha. Several more are expected to enter before the lists close Saturday afternoon.

Officials for the big race were announced today as follows: "Dad" Center, referee; O. P. Soares, clerk of course; A. K. Powlison, starter; A. H. Tarleton, Ben Clarke, William Meinecke and L. MacGregor, judges; Cecil Benny, Louis Stevens, "Pop" Pfaender and Victor Ligda, timers.

The entries to date are:

Sydney Post, Pearl Harbor; Masami Tamura, Waialua; George W. Childs and Walter Peterson, army lifeguards at Haleiwa; N. Nishioka, unattached; Happy Lee, unattached; "Kammy" Ross, K. Makinney, Benton Wood, Horace Sharp and Gay Harris of the Outrigger Canoe Club; William C. Fawcner and E. A. Luckovich, Fort Kamehameha; Alexander Naiwi, unattached; Charles Lum, Horace Kawamura and Robert Iwamura of the Nuuanu Y. M. C. A.; C. L. Crabbe, Jr., and T. E. Ellis of the Outrigger club.